IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT FOR THE

DISTRICT OF UTAH

JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Plaintiff, v. AARON POULSEN, Defendant.	COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATION OF U.S. IMMIGRATION LAW (8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A)) AND THE USCIS FORM I-864 AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT UNDER SECTION 213A OF THE IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALITY ACT Civil No.: 2:25-cv-425

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a lawsuit to recover damages owed by the Defendant for violating financial support provisions of U.S. immigration law, 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A), and an associated contract termed the United States and Immigration Services Form I-864, Affidavit of Support Under Section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act ("Affidavit of Support").

2. Defendant Aaron Poulsen served as the immigration sponsor for his former wife, Plaintiff Jordan Lee Poulsen. By doing so, Mr. Poulsen was required to maintain Ms. Poulsen's income at 125 percent of the poverty line. This duty was imposed by Congress so that immigration sponsors, not the American public, serve as a financial safety net for new immigrants. Mr. Poulsen has breached that contractual obligation.

3. This lawsuit seeks an assessment of damages equal to the difference between Ms. Poulsen's actual annual income and 125 percent of the poverty line. The lawsuit further seeks to compel Mr. Poulsen's compliance with the Affidavit of Support until it terminates by operation of law.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. The District of Utah has subject matter jurisdiction as this action arises under the federal Immigration and Nationality Act 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(e)(1); 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Mr. Poulsen because, by signing the Affidavit of Support, he submitted to the jurisdiction of any court with subject matter jurisdiction over Ms. Poulsen's claims. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(C).

6. Venue is proper in this District as Mr. Poulsen resides within the District, to wit, in West Jordan, Utah. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1).

7. Venue is additionally proper in this District as Mr. Poulsen's omissions, giving rise to this claim, occurred within the District. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2).

8. Venue in this District is also proper because Mr. Poulsen's waiver of personal jurisdiction in signing the Affidavit of Support also operates to waive objections to venue as to any court with subject matter jurisdiction over Ms. Poulsen's claim.

III. PARTIES

9. Plaintiff Jordan Lee Poulsen is a citizen of Canada and a lawful permanent resident ("Resident") of the United States of America.

10. Ms. Poulsen resides in Pleasant View, Utah.

11. Defendant Aaron Poulsen is a U.S. citizen and Ms. Poulsen's former spouse. He resides in West Jordan, Utah.

12. Mr. Poulsen served as Ms. Poulsen's immigration sponsor and executed an Affidavit of Support, thereby contractually promising to provide a specified level of financial assistance to Ms. Poulsen.

13. Mr. Poulsen lives in West Jordan, Utah.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Ms. Poulsen's immigration to the United States.

14. The parties were married in Utah on March 15, 2009.

15. On April 21, 2009, Mr. Poulsen signed a U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS") Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative (the "Visa Petition"). A copy of the Visa Petition is attached as Exhibit 2.

16. On the same day, Ms. Poulsen signed a USCIS Form I-485, Application to Adjust Status ("Adjustment Application"). A copy of the Adjustment Application is attached as Exhibit 3.

17. Adjudication of the Adjustment Application required USCIS to assess whether Ms. Poulsen was subject to any of the grounds of inadmissibility enumerated in the Immigration and Nationality Act. See 8 U.S.C. § 1182. Among these is public charge inadmissibility.

Execution of the Affidavit of Support.

18. Since 1882, federal law has excluded the immigration of individuals considered "likely to become a public charge." Act of Aug. 3, 1882, 22 Stat. 214; 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(4). Public charge inadmissibility bars individuals likely to become financially dependent on American taxpayers.

19. In family-based immigration matters, the INA imposes a specific requirement for overcoming public charge inadmissibility. Family-based applicants – including those in cases predicated on marriage – are per se inadmissible on public charge grounds unless they provide a properly executed Affidavit of Support. 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(4)(C); see also 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(a)(2)(ii) (listing narrow categories of exceptions).

20. Ms. Poulsen did not qualify for any of the grounds that would have exempted her from the requirement to file an Affidavit of Support as a requirement for her Adjustment Application.

21. As the visa petitioner, Mr. Poulsen was required to file an Affidavit of Support. Under federal law in effect at all times material to this Complaint, USCIS could not lawfully have approved Ms. Poulsen's Adjustment Application unless Mr. Poulsen, as the petitioner, filed an Affidavit of Support.

22. On April 21, 2009, Mr. Poulsen signed an Affidavit of Support, listing Ms. Poulsen as the intending immigrant beneficiary (the "Affidavit of Support"). A copy of the Affidavit of Support is attached as Exhibit 1.

23. The Affidavit of Support was filed with Ms. Poulsen's Adjustment Application. Once filed in this matter, the Affidavit of Support was executed by operation of law and became an enforceable contract. 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(a)(1)(ii).

24. USCIS approved the Visa Petition and Ms. Poulsen's Adjustment Application on August 12, 2009.

25. Ms. Poulsen became an LPR on August 12, 2009, triggering Mr. Poulsen's legal obligations under the Affidavit of Support.

26. Because Ms. Poulsen's admission was predicated on a marriage that, at the time, was fewer than 24 months in duration, her LPR status was designated as "conditional."

27. On July 11, 2011, Ms. Poulsen signed and thereafter filed a USCIS Form I-751, Petition to Remove Conditions on Residency ("Petition to Remove Conditions on Residency"). A copy of the Petition to Remove Conditions on Residency is attached as Exhibit 4.

28. USCIS approved Ms. Poulsen's Petition to Remove Conditions on Residency.

29. Ms. Poulsen has maintained uninterrupted status as an LPR since the status was originally conferred on August 12, 2009. A copy of her current residency card is attached as Exhibit 5.

Terms of the Affidavit of Support.

30. Once executed, the Affidavit of Support constituted a binding contract between Mr. Poulsen and the United States government.

31. By signing the Affidavit of Support, Mr. Poulsen agreed to three distinct legal obligations.

32. First, he agreed to provide Ms. Poulsen with any support necessary to maintain her income at 125 percent of the Federal poverty guidelines ("Poverty Line") for her household size. The first of these three obligations is the basis for this Complaint.

33. Second, he agreed to repay the cost of federally funded means-tested public benefits provided to Ms. Poulsen.

34. Finally, Mr. Poulsen agreed to report any change in his residential address to USCIS within 30 days. Failing to timely report such an address change subjects Mr. Poulsen to a civil fine per 8 C.F.R. § 213a.3(b).

35. As used in the Affidavit of Support, 8 U.S.C. § 1183a, and 8 C.F.R. Part 213a, "income" means an individual's total income (or adjusted gross income for those who file IRS Form 1040EZ) for purposes of the individual's U.S. Federal income tax liability, including a joint income tax return. 8 C.F.R. § 213a.1.

36. By signing the Affidavit of Support, Mr. Poulsen acknowledged that Ms. Poulsen can sue him to enforce her right to financial support. Mr. Poulsen further agreed to submit to the personal jurisdiction of any federal or state court with subject matter jurisdiction over a lawsuit against him to enforce the Affidavit.

37. Mr. Poulsen certified under penalty of perjury that he had read and understood each part of the obligations described in the Affidavit of Support. He certified that his agreement was made freely and without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion to accept the obligations in the Affidavit of Support.

38. Mr. Poulsen's duties under the Affidavits of Support commenced on August 12, 2009.

Separation, Divorce and Mr. Poulsen's Violation of Support Duty.

39. Since before the celebration of their marriage, the parties' relationship had been marked by a high degree of conflict.

40. On November 25, 2009, Mr. Poulsen filed a petition for divorce in the Third Judicial District of Salt Lake County. Cause No. 094905182. Over 15 years later, litigation in that case remains ongoing, concerning disputes over the parties' one child.[1]

[1] The child was born in the United States and is not considered a member of Ms. Poulsen's household for the purpose of Mr. Poulsen's financial obligations under federal law. Further reference to the child is omitted from this Complaint in the interest of their privacy.

41. The family law court entered a final decree of divorce (the "Divorce Decree") on April 15, 2013. A copy of the Divorce Decree is attached as Exhibit 7.

42. The Divorce Decree awarded Ms. Poulsen $14,000 in alimony, based,in part on Mr. Poulsen having executed the Affidavit of Support. Ex. 7, p. 26.

43. The Divorce Decree further stated (Ex. 7, p. 26, emphasis added):

> As long as Petitioner is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent shall not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864 Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period [sic] during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

44. The purport and intent of the Decree was to absolve Mr. Poulsen of liability under the Affidavit of Support while he maintained payment of $200/month.

45. Mr. Poulsen continued monthly payments of $200/month through March 2018.[2] He has provided no support to Ms. Poulsen since then.

46. Ms. Poulsen's income through December 31, 2023, is set forth in her Social Security earnings statement, attached as Exhibit 5.

47. Ms. Poulsen had no income in 2024.

[2] Beginning June 2017, Mr. Poulsen paid $100/month of this sum to a third party, per an agreement of the parties codified in a May 25, 2017 order of the family court.

48. For the purpose of damages calculation under the Affidavit of Support, Ms. Poulsen has had a household of one at all times material to this matter, as she is the sole immigrant sponsored by the Affidavit of Support.

49. Ms. Poulsen has resided in one of the 48 contiguous States since becoming a U.S. Resident.

50. Table one calculates Ms. Poulsen's damages under the Affidavits of Support through December 31, 2024, as the difference between her taxable income and 125 percent of the poverty line for a household of one as in effect for each listed year in the lower 48 states.

Calculation of Damages Owed Through December 31, 2024

Year	Poverty Line (FPG)	125% FPG	Income	Damages
2018	$12,140.00	$15,175	$0	$11,376[3]
2019	$12,490.00	$15,613	$0	$15,613
2020	$12,760.00	$15,950	$0	$15,950
2021	$12,880.00	$16,100	$8,644	$7,456
2022	$13,590.00	$16,988	$19,168	$0
2023	$14,580.00	$18,225	$0	$18,225
2024	$15,060.00	$18,825	$0	$18,825
			Total:	$87,445

[3] $1,264/month x 9 months.

51. As a result of Mr. Poulsen's failure to provide her with financial support, Ms. Poulsen has suffered additional direct damages since January 1, 2025, in an amount to be determined at trial.

The Affidavit of Support Remains in Effect.

52. The Affidavit of Support lists five conditions subsequent (the "Terminating Events"), the occurrence of which end Mr. Poulsen's obligations under the contract. None of these Terminating Events has occurred.

53. Mr. Poulsen's obligations conclude once Ms. Poulsen becomes a U.S. citizen (the "First Terminating Event"). Ms. Poulsen is neither a U.S. citizen nor has she applied to naturalize.

54. Mr. Poulsen's obligations conclude Ms. Poulsen has worked or can receive credit for 40 quarters of work under the Social Security Act (the "Second Terminating Event"). Ms. Poulsen has neither worked nor can receive credit for 40 quarters of work under the Social Security Act. See Exhibit 5 (assessing Ms. Poulsen with 32 quarters of coverage as of January 21, 2025, exclusive of tax year 2024, which was not yet reported).

55. Mr. Poulsen's obligations under the Affidavits of Support conclude once Ms. Poulsen is no longer a Resident and has departed the U.S. (the "Third Terminating Event"). 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i)(C). Ms. Poulsen has neither lost status as a Resident nor thereafter left the U.S.

56. Mr. Poulsen's obligations under the Affidavit of Support conclude if Ms. Poulsen is subject to an order of removal but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status based on a new affidavit of support, if required (the "Forth Terminating Event"). 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i)(D). Ms. Poulsen has never been in removal proceedings, let alone been subject to an order of removal.

57. Mr. Poulsen's obligations under the Affidavits of Support conclude once Ms. Poulsen dies (the "Fifth Terminating Event"). 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i)(E). Ms. Poulsen is still alive.

58. Mr. Poulsen's duties under the Affidavits of Support remain in effect.

V. CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

59. Ms. Poulsen re-alleges and incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully stated herein.

60. By executing the Affidavit of Support, Mr. Poulsen became responsible for providing assistance to Ms. Poulsen in compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A), to wit, to provide any assistance required to keep Ms. Poulsen's household income at a level equal to at least 125 percent of the poverty line.

61. Mr. Poulsen's duties under 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A) was triggered when Ms. Poulsen became a Resident on August 12, 2009.

62. Since April 2018, Ms. Poulsen's income has been below 125 percent of the poverty line, as set forth in Table 1, above.

63. Mr. Poulsen has provided no financial assistance to Ms. Poulsen since April 2018.

64. Mr. Poulsen has violated 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A) and is liable for damages of $87,445, through December 31, 2024, plus an additional sum to be determined at trial, equal to the difference between Ms. Poulsen's annual income since January 1, 2025 and 125 percent of the federal poverty line.

2 – Breach of contract as authorized by 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(e)(1)

65. Ms. Poulsen re-alleges and incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully stated herein.

66. By executing the Affidavit of Support, Mr. Poulsen entered into an express written contract with the United States Government.

67. Ms. Poulsen is a third-party beneficiary of the Affidavits of Support.

68. Ms. Poulsen has standing as a third party to enforce her rights under the Affidavits of Support.

69. Under the express terms of the Affidavit of Support, Mr. Poulsen agreed to provide Ms. Poulsen with any support necessary to maintain her at an income that is at least 125 percent of the poverty line for her household size.

70. Mr. Poulsen's responsibility to provide income support commenced on August 12, 2009, when Ms. Poulsen became a lawful permanent resident of the United States.

71. All conditions precedent to Mr. Poulsen's duty to perform on the Affidavit of Support were fulfilled as of August 12, 2009.

72. Mr. Poulsen has breached the Affidavit of Support by failing to provide income support to Ms. Poulsen

73. As a result of Mr. Poulsen's breach, Ms. Poulsen has suffered damages in the amount of April 2018 through December 31, 2024, plus an additional sum to be determined at trial, equal to the difference between Ms. Poulsen's annual income since January 1, 2025 and 125 percent of the federal poverty line.

VI. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Ms. Poulsen requests the following relief from the Court:

A. Entry of judgment against the Defendants and in favor of Ms. Poulsen each and every cause of action asserted herein.

B. An award of actual damages in the amount of $87,445, representing the sum owed through December 31, 2024.

C. An award of actual damages in an amount equivalent to 125% of the poverty line for a household size of one, minus annual earned income, for the period from January 1, 2025, to the date on which the judgment issues.

D. An order of specific performance, requiring Mr. Poulsen to make monthly payments to Ms. Poulsen for the amount set forth in Paragraph C above, until such time as a Terminating Event occurs. That such payments shall be due by the fifth calendar day of each month and deposited in the trust account of Ms. Poulsen's law firm.

E. An award of all Ms. Poulsen's attorney fees and costs per 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c) and the fee and cost provision within the Affidavit of Support Contracts.

F. The right to amend this complaint to conform to the evidence presented at trial.

G. An award of pre-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed by law.

H. An award of post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed by law.

I. Such other and further relief in Ms. Poulsen's favor as the Court may deem just and equitable under the circumstances.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I.(a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.Cv.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.
United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.
Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.
Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If there are multiple nature of suit codes associated with the case, pick the nature of suit code that is most applicable. Click here for: Nature of Suit Code Descriptions.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.
Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Part 8. Sponsor's Contract.

Please note that, by signing this Form I-864, you agree to assume certain specific obligations under the Immigration and Nationality Act and other Federal laws. The following paragraphs describe those obligations. Please read the following information carefully before you sign the Form I-864. If you do not understand the obligations, you may wish to consult an attorney or accredited representative.

What is the Legal Effect of My Signing a Form I-864?

If you sign a Form I-864 on behalf of any person (called the "intending immigrant") who is applying for an immigrant visa or for adjustment of status to a permanent resident, and that intending immigrant submits the Form I-864 to the U.S. Government with his or her application for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status, under section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act these actions create a contract between you and the U. S. Government. The intending immigrant's becoming a permanent resident is the "consideration" for the contract.

Under this contract, you agree that, in deciding whether the intending immigrant can establish that he or she is not inadmissible to the United States as an alien likely to become a public charge, the U.S. Government can consider your income and assets to be available for the support of the intending immigrant.

What If I choose Not to Sign a Form I-864?

You cannot be made to sign a Form I-864 if you do not want to do so. But if you do not sign the Form I-864, the intending immigrant may not be able to become a permanent resident in the United States.

What Does Signing the Form I-864 Require Me to do?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then, until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, you must:

-- Provide the intending immigrant any support necessary to maintain him or her at an income that is at least 125 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for his or her household size (100 percent if you are the petitioning sponsor and are on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces and the person is your husband, wife, unmarried child under 21 years old.)

-- Notify USCIS of any change in your address, within 30 days of the change, by filing Form I-865.

What Other Consequences Are There?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, your income and assets may be considered ("deemed") to be available to that person, in determining whether he or she is eligible for certain Federal means-tested public benefits and also for State or local means-tested public benefits, if the State or local government's rules provide for consideration ("deeming") of your income and assets as available to the person.

This provision does not apply to public benefits specified in section 403(c) of the Welfare Reform Act such as, but not limited to, emergency Medicaid, short-term, non-cash emergency relief; services provided under the National School Lunch and Child Nutrition Acts; immunizations and testing and treatment for communicable diseases; and means-tested programs under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

What If I Do Not Fulfill My Obligations?

If you do not provide sufficient support to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, that person may sue you for this support.

If a Federal, State or local agency, or a private agency provides any covered means-tested public benefit to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, the agency may ask you to reimburse them for the amount of the benefits they provided. If you do not make the reimbursement, the agency may sue you for the amount that the agency believes you owe.

If you are sued, and the court enters a judgment against you, the person or agency that sued you may use any legally permitted procedures for enforcing or collecting the judgment. You may also be required to pay the costs of collection, including attorney fees.

If you do not file a properly completed Form I-865 within 30 days of any change of address, USCIS may impose a civil fine for your failing to do so.

When Will These Obligations End?

Your obligations under a Form I-864 will end if the person who becomes a permanent resident based on a Form I-864 that you signed:

- Becomes a U.S. citizen;
- Has worked, or can be credited with, 40 quarters of coverage under the Social Security Act;
- No longer has lawful permanent resident status, and has departed the United States;
- Becomes subject to removal, but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status, based on a new affidavit of support, if one is required; or
- Dies.

Note that divorce does not terminate your obligations under this Form I-864.

Your obligations under a Form I-864 also end if you die. Therefore, if you die, your Estate will not be required to take responsibility for the person's support after your death. Your Estate may, however, be responsible for any support that you owed before you died.

Your registration with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

"I understand and acknowledge that, under section 262 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), as an alien who has been or will be in the United States for more than 30 days, I am required to register with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. I understand and acknowledge that, under section 265 of the Act, I am required to provide USCIS with my current address and written notice of any change of address within ten days of the change. I understand and acknowledge that USCIS will use the most recent address that I provide to USCIS, on any form containing these acknowledgements, for all purposes, including the service of a Notice to Appear should it be necessary for USCIS to initiate removal proceedings against me. I understand and acknowledge that if I change my address without providing written notice to USCIS, I will be held responsible for any communications sent to me at the most recent address that I provided to USCIS. I further understand and acknowledge that, if removal proceedings are initiated against me and I fail to attend any hearing, including an initial hearing based on service of the Notice to Appear at the most recent address that I provided to USCIS or as otherwise provided by law, I may be ordered removed in my absence, arrested, and removed from the United States."

Selective Service Registration

The following applies to you if you are a male at least 18 years old, but not yet 26 years old, who is required to register with the Selective Service System: "I understand that my filing Form I-485 with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services authorizes USCIS to provide certain registration information to the Selective Service System in accordance with the Military Selective Service Act. Upon USCIS acceptance of my application, I authorize USCIS to transmit to the Selective Service System my name, current address, Social Security Number, date of birth, and the date I filed the application for the purpose of recording my Selective Service registration as of the filing date. If, however, USCIS does not accept my application, I further understand that, if so required, I am responsible for registering with the Selective Service by other means, provided I have not yet reached age 26."

Applicant's Certification

I certify, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that this application and the evidence submitted with it is all true and correct. I authorize the release of any information from my records that U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) needs to determine eligibility for the benefit I am seeking.

Case: Jordan Lee Poulsen vs. Aaron Poulsen

Your Social Security Statement

JORDANLEE POULSEN

January 21, 2025

Retirement Benefits

To get retirement benefits, you need 40 credits of work. Your record shows you have 32 credits at this time. This includes credits not yet reported on your earnings record from last year and this year if you continued to work.

Your full retirement age is 67, based on your date of birth: [redacted], 1984.

Learn more at ssa.gov/benefits/retirement/learn.html .

Disability Benefits

To get benefits if you become disabled right now, you need 20 credits of work. You had to earn these credits in the last 10 years. Your record shows you do not have enough credits at this time to receive disability benefits. Learn more at ssa.gov/disability.

Survivors Benefits

You have earned enough credits for your eligible family members to receive survivors benefits. If you die this year, members of your family who may qualify for monthly benefits include:

Minor child:	$768
Spouse, if caring for a disabled child or child younger than age 16:	$768
Spouse, if benefits start at full retirement age:	$1,025
Total family benefits cannot be more than:	$1,537

Your spouse or minor child may be eligible for an additional one-time death benefit of $255. Learn more at ssa.gov/survivors.

How Credits Help You Qualify for Benefits

You need 40 credits to become eligible (also known as being fully insured) for retirement benefits. You can still earn credits and become fully insured if you work. You can earn up to four credits per year. The amount needed for a credit rises most years. You can find the current amount at ssa.gov/benefits/retirement/planner/credits.html .

Medicare

To get Medicare benefits at age 65, you need 40 credits of work. Your record shows you have 32 credits at this time. However, even if you don't have enough credits when you reach age 65, you may contact Social Security to learn whether you are eligible to buy Medicare coverage.

Medicare is the federal health insurance program for people:

- age 65 and older,
- under 65 with certain disabilities, and
- of any age with End-Stage Renal Disease (ESRD) (permanent kidney failure requiring dialysis or a kidney transplant).

For more information about Medicare, visit medicare.gov or ssa.gov/medicare or call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) (TTY 1-877-486-2048).

We base benefit estimates on current law, which Congress has revised before and may revise again to address needed changes. Learn more about Social Security's future at ssa.gov/ThereForMe.

Earnings Record

Review your earnings history below to ensure it is accurate because we base your future benefits on our record of your earnings. There's a limit to the amount of earnings you pay Social Security taxes on each year. Earnings above the limit do not appear on your earnings record. If you find an error, view your full earnings record online and call 1-800-772-1213.

Social Security taxes	Medicare taxes
You paid: $8,143	You paid: $2,001
Employer(s): $8,572	Employer(s): $2,001

Earnings Not Covered by Social Security

You may also have earnings from work not covered by Social Security, where you did not pay Social Security taxes. This work might have been for federal, state, or local government or in a foreign country. If you participate in a retirement plan or receive a pension based on work for which you did not pay Social Security tax, it could lower your benefits. Learn more at ssa.gov/gpo-wep .

Important Things to Know about Your Social Security Benefits

- Social Security benefits are not intended to be your only source of retirement income. You may need other savings, investments, pensions, or retirement accounts to make sure you have enough money when you retire.
- You need at least 10 years of work (40 credits) to qualify for retirement benefits. Your benefit amount is based on your highest 35 years of earnings. If you have fewer than 35 years of earnings, years without work count as 0 and may reduce your benefit amount.
- If you get retirement or disability benefits, your spouse and children also may qualify for benefits.
- If you and your spouse both work, use the my Social Security Retirement Calculator to estimate spousal benefits.
- If you are divorced and were married for 10 years, you may be able to claim benefits on your ex-spouse's record.
- Learn more about benefits for you and your family at ssa.gov/benefits/retirement/planner/applying7.html .
- When you are ready to apply, visit ssa.gov/benefits/retirement/apply.html .

Attorney for Petitioner: AARON KENT POULSEN

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner, vs. JORDAN-LEE POULSEN, Respondent.	: : : : :	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 094905182 Honorable Kate A. Toomey Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

NOW, THEREFORE, THE COURT, having reviewed and accepted the parties' Stipulation, and having made and entered the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now makes and enters the following Decree of Divorce:

IT SHALL BE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED:

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

1.Petitioner and Respondent shall be granted a divorce from each other on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because they have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of their marriage impossible. As such, the parties have an adequate basis for divorce under 30-3-1(3), Utah Code Annotated, and they shall be and are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from each other dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

CHILDREN

2.There has been one (1) child born to Petitioner and Respondent who is presently under legal age and whose initials and date of birth are: K.N.R.P., [redacted] 2009.

CHILD CUSTODY

3.Petitioner and Respondent shall be and are hereby awarded JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child. Both Petitioner and Respondent shall act in good faith and use their best efforts to mutually agree on decisions as they arise. Notwithstanding, shall an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, neither party shall be the final decision-maker. The parties shall attend mediation to resolve any issues regarding the child that the parties cannot agree on. Emergency decisions and everyday minor decisions shall be made by whichever parent has the child at the time of the decision.

4.Petitioner and Respondent shall be and are hereby awarded JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child.

5.The parties shall share equal parent-time with the minor child as follows:

a.Respondent shall have the child each Monday and Tuesday, including those overnights;

b.Petitioner shall have the child each Wednesday and Thursday, including those overnights;

c.The parties shall alternate weekends from Friday through Sunday, including those overnights, in accordance with the practice already established by the parties.

d.When it is Petitioner's weekend, he shall have the child from Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. until Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Petitioner's weekend, his

e.When it is Respondent's weekend, she shall have the child from Friday morning at 9:30 a.m. until Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Respondent's weekend, her parent-time shall begin on Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., and end on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

f.If either party is unable to personally care for the child for a period of three (3) consecutive hours or more, that party shall offer the right to provide personal care to the other parent, and if the other parent so accepts, the other parent is responsible for transportation at the beginning and the ending of the right-of-first-refusal parent-time.

6.The parties shall share holidays equally each year as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree on a holiday schedule, then the schedule provided by § 30-3-35, Utah Code Annotated, shall apply, which provides as follows:

a.Holidays take precedence over the weekend visitation, and changes shall not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend visitation schedule;

b.If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the party entitled to the holiday shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day;

c.At the election of the party entitled to the holiday, that party may begin parent-time from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed at the beginning of the holiday weekend until 7:00 p.m. on the last day of the holiday weekend;

d.If a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the party with the holiday shall be entitled to this lengthier holiday period;

e.Additionally, either party may take the other party's parent-time during the week for up to two (2) days, and not during holidays, if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides two (2) weeks' notice. The parties shall make their best efforts to allow either party to take the other party's holiday parent-time if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides three (3) weeks' notice, but if the parties cannot agree, then they shall revert to the statutory holiday schedule. The parties shall make up the taken parent-time within a reasonable time, but no later than one (1) month after the taken parent-time.

7.In years ending in an odd number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the day before or after the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

b.Martin Luther King Jr., beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until Monday at 7:00 p.m. unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Spring Break or Easter holiday, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school lets out for the holiday until 7:00 p.m. on the Sunday before school resumes;

d.July 4th, beginning 6:00 p.m. on the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or no later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Labor Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and continuing until Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

f.The fall school break, if applicable, commonly known as U.E.A. weekend, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

g.Veteran's Day holiday beginning 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday, and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday; and

h.The first portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, including Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, continuing until 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or until 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire holiday is equally divided.

8.In years ending in an even number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. and ending at 9:00 p.m.;

b.President's Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until 7:00 p.m. on Monday unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Memorial Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and ending Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

d.July 24th beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or not later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Columbus Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday and continuing until 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

f.Halloween on October 31, or the day Halloween is traditionally celebrated in the local community from after school until 9:00 p.m. if on a school day, or from 4:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

g.Thanksgiving holiday, beginning Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.; and

h.The second portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, beginning 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or at 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire Christmas holiday is equally divided.

i.Respondent is entitled to the odd year holidays in even years and the even year holidays in odd years.

j.Father's Day shall be spent with the Petitioner every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

k.Mother's Day shall be spent with the Respondent every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

l.Each party shall be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted time during the child's summer vacation from school for purposes of vacation;

m.Notification of extended visitation or vacation weeks with the child shall be provided at least (30) days in advance to the other parent; and n.Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration;

o.Virtual parent time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, shall be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration, provided that if the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

i.the best interests of the child;

ii.each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and

iii.any other factors the court considers material.

PARENTING PLAN

9.The minor child shall spend 182 overnights in the home of the Petitioner and 183 overnights in the home of the Respondent each year. Pursuant to 30-3-10.1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, the following parenting plan shall be ordered and followed:

a.The parents shall discuss with each other and mutually decide the significant decisions regarding the child, including, but not limited to, the child's education, health care, and religious upbringing. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of the child.

b.Day to day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' child shall be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.

c.Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan shall be discussed and mutually decided by both parents. Neither parent has the final say over the other parent. Should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, then the parties shall attend mediation before litigating.

d.Should the Petitioner and Respondent have a dispute regarding parenting of the child, and said dispute cannot be resolved between themselves, then the dispute shall be resolved through mediation before any other avenue of dispute resolution can be utilized.

e.Should either parent feel that a decision made under paragraphs a, b, c and d above is contrary to the best interests of the child, that parent may arrange for counseling or mediation through a mutually agreed upon counselor or mediator. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling/mediation and a copy provided to each party. Any costs associated with this procedure are to be shared equally between the parties. No dispute may be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through counseling or mediation. If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent. The Court has the right of review from any counseling or mediation.

f.The child's regular school hours shall not be interrupted for parent-time. Petitioner and Respondent shall both have access to all school reports and personnel.

g.At the request of either the Petitioner or the Respondent, pick-ups and drop-offs shall be curbside or as agreed upon in writing. Each party shall notify the other party as to who will be acting as third party for any child exchanges.

h.Both parents shall plan weekly parenting time on a monthly basis and shall make a best effort to provide 48 hours notice of change and in the event that the parent not scheduled for time with the child cannot cover for the parent who is scheduled, then the scheduled parent shall be responsible for making accommodations for the child.

i.The parent who is ending his or her parent-time shall drop the child off at the home of the other parent, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

j.Both parents shall allow liberal phone communications and shall encourage the child to call the other parent. Each parent shall allow the minor child to contact the other parent at anytime the minor child desires to have telephone contact. Should a parent buy a personal cell phone for the child to use while with the other parent, either parent shall have the right to take the cell phone away from the child's possession for disciplinary purposes only, and provided that upon request the child is permitted to call the other parent or receive calls from the other parent. The cell phone shall go where the child goes and the child shall be permitted to use the cell phone when the child wants to call one of the parents.

k.Each party has the right to contact the child on a daily basis by phone. This call can take place between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. This call shall not be unreasonably denied by the residing parent, as long as it does not conflict with existing plans, scheduled events, or interfere with the child's customary routine, thereby causing emotional discomfort.

l.If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set out above under this Parent Time section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

m.Both parents shall communicate with each other prior to forming conclusions about things that the child tells the parents. The reason for this provision is to try to eliminate the misunderstandings and misinterpretations that the parents may be affected by if the parents believe everything the child says prior to discussing what was said with the other parent. This, also, shall help to eliminate the child playing the parents against each other.

n.Both parents shall be concerned for the best interest and well-being of the child; therefore, both parents shall be governed by the following principles:

i.The parties shall have a co-parenting relationship which shall be built on trust and respect;

ii.The parties shall establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the child's needs;

iii.The parties shall support each other in their respective parenting roles and shall say positive words about the other parent to the child and shall be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent. This purpose is honorable for the child to develop good self-esteem;

iv.The parties shall listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;

v.The parties shall make all attempts to resolve conflict between them and shall utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they personally are unsuccessful;

vi.The parties shall solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;

vii.If tension arises in a telephone call, the parties shall take a break from the telephone call or leave their conversations to e-mail;

viii.The parties shall work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;

ix.The parties shall live by the golden rule that they shall treat each other as they would like to be treated;

x. The parties shall start over and recommit to this parenting plan when one or both of them steps outside of the plan and forgets about a commitment made in this plan; and

xi. The parties shall see the other parent as a resource, consultant and ally. The parties shall work together effectively as co-parents to promote the best interests of the child.

o. Any clothing, toys, and other items of the child's personal effects shall be exchanged by the parties, and returned in clean condition, in order to facilitate the child's visits.

p. The Advisory Guidelines as set forth in §30-3-33, Utah Code Annotated, shall be binding upon the parties. The parties, also shall be required to implement the spirit and intent, including the actual provisions, of §30-3-32, Utah Code Annotated.

q. Both parents shall be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the child. The parents, also, shall prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent.

r. Each party shall notify the other whenever that party intends to take the child on any overnight trip that is at least two (2) nights, and provide each other with a travel itinerary with addresses and telephone numbers where they may be reached in the event of an emergency. Each party shall obtain the other's written permission to take the child if a trip interferes with the other parent's parenting time.

s. Neither party shall excessively drink alcohol in the presence of the minor child or be hung over or drunk while in the presence of the minor child. Further, Petitioner and Respondent shall not do any illegal drugs or abuse any prescription medication.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF CUSTODY EVALUATOR

10.Petitioner and Respondent shall follow the recommendations of the custody evaluator with some variations, as follows:

a.The minor child shall be put in pre-school or daycare beginning in the fall of 2012 at a mutually agreed-upon pre-school or daycare. Beginning on March 1, 2013, and continuing until September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50.00 per month toward the child's day care/preschool, and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount. Beginning on October 1, 2013, when the child begins day care/preschool closer to Respondent's home, the parties shall split the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis, meaning that Petitioner shall pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs and Respondent shall pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs.

b.When the minor child begins kindergarten, the minor child shall attend Hayden Peak Elementary School in the Jordan School District unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The child shall continue his education in the Jordan School District for junior high and high school. As soon as the minor child begins kindergarten, Respondent shall drop the minor child off at Petitioner's home for his parent-time on Wednesday afternoons and alternating Thursday afternoons.

c.Petitioner shall pay for 100% of the therapy for the minor child for up to two (2) years following the signing of the Stipulation. After the two-year period, the parties shall split all therapy costs for the child on a 50/50 basis. The therapist for the child shall be someone who is on Petitioner's insurance.

d.Both Petitioner and Respondent shall attend therapy and/or counseling, and follow the recommendations of their respective therapists and/or counselors. Therapy may end upon the recommendation of the therapist. Each party shall be solely responsible for payment of his or her counseling sessions.

e.Each party shall inform the other party of the identity of any third party conducting child exchanges or providing surrogate care. The exchanges may also occur at the child's school or day care, or curbside at the residences of the parties.

f.The minor child shall reside in Salt Lake County until at least the age of 12 years. If any parent desires to move after this time, that parent shall notify the other parent pursuant to the current version of Utah Code Ann. Section 30-3-37 (a minimum of 60 days' advance written notice) and the parties shall attend mediation to discuss parent-time and custody before litigating the matter in court.

COOPERATION ON CO-PARENTING

11.The parties shall regularly discuss the day-to-day routines and decisions being implemented in their homes to help the child feel comfortable in both homes by minimizing the differences in parenting styles. The parties shall adhere to the following:

a.Neither shall be required to follow the suggestions of the other party unless ordered by the Court;

b.Both parents shall cooperate in fostering the best interest of their child;

c.Each parent has the right to create an independent life with the child, allowing each to continue to play a full and active role in providing a sound emotional, moral, social, and educational environment for the child; and

d.Both parents shall share information on any condition, problem, significant fact, or circumstance, which may affect the other parent's relationship with, or the well-being of, the child.

NON-INVOLVEMENT

12.Neither party shall ask, nor attempt in any way to have, the child transfer messages between the parties, either verbal or written. The parents shall contact each other directly via phone or email to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and shall not involve the child.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL FUNCTIONS

13.Both parties shall be entitled to participate in all social and school functions involving their child.

ILLNESS

14.The parties shall notify the other when the child is ill. When the child is ill, regularly scheduled parenting times shall be discussed with both parents prior to the parenting time to decide whether the parenting time shall be rescheduled. Neither parent shall use illness of the child as a means to frustrate the other parent's parent-time.

RESPECT AND COOPERATION

15.Both parents shall recognize that the best interests of the child require them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the child. Both parents shall use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships between the child by encouraging affection, promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent. In addition, both parties shall adhere to the following:

a.Neither parent shall attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the child in any form. Neither parent shall make, nor shall they allow, another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other parent in the presence of the child;

b.The parents shall cooperate and include each other in their child's day care, health care, school, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and shall notify each other of their child's regular activities; and

c.The parents shall not involve the child in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other, but they may jointly discuss issues with their child to get his input.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH PARENT-TIME

16.Both parties shall never schedule or promote to the child any special events or activities that fall on the other party's parenting time without first obtaining permission from that party in the following manner:

a.The requesting party shall notify the other party of the event or activity and discuss with the other party the benefits of the child's attendance prior to discussing it with the child. If the other party already has something scheduled or decides that the child cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent shall abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the child;

b.The child shall be free to express his interest in any activity to either parent at any time; and

c.Neither party shall interfere with the other party's parenting time in any form. If either parent denies physical access to scheduled parent time without just cause, that parent shall pay all costs associated with mediation, arbitration, or court related legal fees, associated with resolving the violation and to ensure freedom from future violations.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH THE PARTIES' PERSONAL LIVES

17.Each party shall be completely free from the interference, authority and control over the other, except as impacts the care of the child, as set forth in this document. Each party shall have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other. Further, if the court finds either party's actions against the other to be dishonest, deceptive, frivolous, or in any way that violates the guidelines set forth in this document, the court can order the offending party to pay all costs for mediation and legal fees incurred by the other party, plus damages for suffering and reasonable fees for time spent in defense.

TEMPORARY ADJUSTMENTS

18.The parties shall be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parenting plan schedule for unexpected situations. The parent seeking an adjustment shall give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least 24 hours except in an emergency). The other party shall use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment, but shall not unreasonably refuse.

RELATIVES

19.Ongoing relationships between the child and relatives shall be encouraged and continued.

CONTACT INFORMATION

20.Each party shall keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

CHILD SUPPORT

21.Petitioner's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3,118, and Respondent's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $2,253. Based on the incomes and the overnights of 182 for Petitioner and 183 for Respondent, the child support order would be $63.00 per month. However, child support shall be deviated to $0, because Petitioner is paying 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Respondent, and Respondent is paying 100% of the life insurance policy on the child, and anticipates, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, paying 100% of the child's dental and vision insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Petitioner.

22.This child support order shall commence January 2013. There is no child support arrearage between the parties. Pursuant to 78B-12-112, Utah Code Annotated, child support shall be payable in full by the 1st day of each month or it shall be due one-half by the 5th and one-half on the 20th of each month.

23.Pursuant to 78B-12-219, Utah Code Annotated, there shall be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

24.Pursuant to 78B-12-216, Utah Code Annotated, there shall be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

25.Child support shall continue until the minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during his normal and expected graduating class, whichever occurs later.

26.An order authorizing Universal Withholding Relief, pursuant to Part 4, Chapter 11, title 62A, Utah Code Annotated, shall be awarded if the child support obligor becomes thirty (30) days delinquent in the payment of child support obligations.

MEDICAL INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

27.Pursuant to 78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated, Petitioner and Respondent shall provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of the minor child. Petitioner shall continue to provide medical insurance for the minor child, and Petitioner shall be solely responsible for 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums. There is no medical premium arrearage between the parties.

28.Respondent shall provide life, dental, and vision insurance for the minor child, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, and Respondent shall be solely responsible for 100% of the child's life, dental, and vision premiums.

29.Petitioner and Respondent shall divide equally all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses of the minor child and which are not covered by insurance, subject to the conditions as stated below. There are no arrearages for any out-of-pocket medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses for the child. For a non-emergency or non-essential expense to qualify for 50% reimbursement, the parties shall discuss and confer with each other before incurring the expense, otherwise the expense shall be solely paid for by the party who incurred the expense without discussing it with the other party and/or over the objection of the other party, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

30.Both parties shall be responsible for any and all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses that they incur on behalf of themselves. There are no arrearages for any such charges between the parties. For any outstanding or existing medical debts, the parties shall take the debts in their names and hold the other party harmless of any such debts.

31.The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in the §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

32.The parent who incurs medical expenses shall be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of payment within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

33.The parent who incurs the medical expenses shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

34.Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

35.Each parent shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

36.Each parent shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

37.Pursuant to Section 78B-12-214, Utah Code Annotated, both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related, career, or occupational training child care expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

38.If a parent incurs an actual expense for child care, the other parent shall begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of child care expense and proof of payment of said expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

from the child care provider for any expenses incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

40.The parent who incurred the child care expense shall be reimbursed by the other parent on a monthly basis, but no later than thirty (30) days after sending a receipt to the other parent for such expenses. If the parent seeking reimbursement of the child care expenses fails to provide written verification of those expenses and proof of payment of said expenses within thirty (30) days of incurring said expenses, that parent waives the right to reimbursement of said expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

41.Child care costs shall only be divided if the cost is incurred due to the parent being at work, career or occupational training; otherwise the party is responsible for all costs of that child care, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

42.Both parents shall allow the other parent to have input as to choosing the child care provider. Both parties shall give the other parent first chance to provide care for the child if the need arises.

MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

43.Petitioner and Respondent shall respectively pay one-half of all extracurricular activity expenses of the minor child. However, any extracurricular activity shall be agreed to jointly by the parties, prior to the child being enrolled or taking part in such activities. If the parties are unable to jointly agree to the extracurricular activity, either party shall be entitled to have the child participate in the extracurricular activity if that party pays entirely for the extracurricular activity. The parties shall act in good faith in deciding whether the minor child shall participate in an extracurricular activity.

DIVORCE EDUCATION

44.Both parties have taken the required "Divorce Education for Parents" class and provided proof to counsel and to the Court.

REAL PROPERTY

45.During the course of the marriage, neither the Petitioner nor the Respondent has acquired any real property.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, PENSION FUNDS, ETC.

46.Petitioner and Respondent each shall retain all monies contained in any retirement accounts, pension funds, or individual retirement accounts, other than social security, that are in their own respective names, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

47.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain items of personal property.

48.Petitioner shall be awarded the following items of personal property and shall be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by the Respondent:

a.His personal effects and his sole personal property.

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Petitioner by Respondent;

49.Respondent shall be awarded the following items of personal property and shall be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

a.Her personal effects and her sole personal property;

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Respondent by Petitioner;

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS AND CHECKING ACCOUNTS

50.Petitioner and Respondent do not have money held in joint savings or checking accounts.

51.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Petitioner's sole name shall be awarded to the Petitioner.

52.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Respondent's sole name shall be awarded to the Respondent.

STOCKS, BONDS, AND MISCELLANEOUS SECURITIES

53.Each party shall be awarded whatever stocks, bonds, and miscellaneous securities are in his or her sole name.

SEPARATE PROPERTY

54.All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of acquisition prior to marriage, family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources, except as specifically addressed herein shall be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

55.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain debts and obligations.

56.Petitioner shall assume and pay and hold Respondent harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Petitioner subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Petitioner above;

c.Debt owed to U.S. Bank;

d.Debt owed to Chase;

e.All debts in his name;

f.All medical bills incurred prior to May 13, 2010;

57.Respondent shall assume and pay and hold Petitioner harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Respondent subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010, except as specifically addressed herein;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Respondent above.

58.Petitioner and Respondent shall provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce and shall notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the Court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

DELINQUENCY IN PAYMENTS

59.If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt shall remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset shall be placed immediately on the market for sale to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes a payment on a delinquent debt to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

60.The allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other; therefore, the parties shall not be able to discharge the debts in bankruptcy. This provision shall not bind the bankruptcy court.

REFINANCE

61.Each party shall offer their best efforts to remove each other from any debts, obligations, loans, etc. by refinance or otherwise and put the loan or obligation solely in their respective name, and to assume responsibility for and release any financial burden from the other party.

BANKRUPTCY

62.If either party files for bankruptcy, it shall constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances for any subsequent petition to modify regarding any financial issues herein.

TAXES AND TAX EXEMPTION

63.Petitioner and Respondent shall alternate each year the entitlement to claim any and all tax exemptions related to their minor child such that Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in odd-numbered years, and Respondent shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in even-numbered years.

ALIMONY

64.Petitioner shall pay to Respondent a total of $14,000 in alimony, to be paid in monthly installments of $200.00 beginning in March of 2013 until paid in full. Each monthly installment is due by the first of the month. In the event that Petitioner is thirty (30) days late on a monthly installment, the amount due shall be accelerated so that the total amount unpaid shall be due and owing, and Respondent shall have the right to initiate garnishment or other collection proceedings for the amount then due and owing. The alimony award is considered a settlement of the parties' I-864 issue. Upon any such default, nothing shall prevent the parties from negotiating a new installment payment plan on the amount due and owing, provided that any agreement shall be in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court.

65.Petitioner's alimony obligation shall not terminate upon Respondent's remarriage or cohabitation or for any other reason except in the event of the death of either party.

I-864 AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT

66.As long as Petitioner is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent shall not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864 Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

SURNAME CHANGE

67.The surname of Respondent shall be changed to Roy unless Respondent chooses otherwise.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

68.Petitioner and Respondent each shall pay their own respective attorney's fees and costs associated with all aspects of their divorce.

COOPERATION

69.Each party shall cooperate with the other, through counsel and otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure that the

Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

70.Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

71.Both parties shall be restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child about the issues in this case or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or visitation, which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Both parties also shall be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

72.Both parties shall be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or shall remove the child from such circumstances.

DEFAULT

73.If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in this document, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of this document.

DATED this _____ day of April, 2013.

Attorney for Petitioner: AARON KENT POULSEN

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner, vs. JORDAN-LEE POULSEN, Respondent.	: : : : :	FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW Civil No. 094905182 Honorable Kate A. Toomey Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

FINDINGS OF FACT

JURISDICTION

1.Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of the action in accordance with 30-3-1(2), Utah Code Annotated.

2.Respondent is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of the action in accordance with 30-3-1(2), Utah Code Annotated.

3.Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to 78B-13-1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, in that:

a.Utah is the home state of the minor child at the time of the commencement of this proceeding.

b.Said minor child has resided in the State of Utah since the time of his birth or at least the majority of his life.

c.Neither Petitioner nor Respondent have been a party, witness, or have participated in any other capacity in any other litigation concerning the custody of the subject minor child in this State or any other State.

d.Petitioner and Respondent do not have information of any custody proceeding concerning the subject minor child pending in a court of this State or any other State.

e.Petitioner and Respondent do not know of any person not a party to these proceedings who have physical custody of the subject minor child and who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to said child.

MARRIAGE STATUS

4.Petitioner and Respondent were married on or about March 14, 2009, in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and are presently married.

5.Petitioner and Respondent separated in or about January of 2010, and currently are separated.

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

6.Petitioner and Respondent should be granted a divorce from each other on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because they have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of their marriage impossible. As such, the parties have an adequate basis for divorce under 30-3-1(3), Utah Code Annotated, and they should be awarded a Decree of Divorce from each other dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

CHILDREN

7.There has been one (1) child born to Petitioner and Respondent who is presently under legal age and whose initials and date of birth are: K.N.R.P., September 17, 2009.

CHILD CUSTODY

8.Given the relationships and dealings between Petitioner and Respondent concerning past, present, and future Legal custody issues, it would be in the best interest of the child that Petitioner and Respondent be awarded JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child. Both Petitioner and Respondent should act in good faith and use their best efforts to mutually agree on decisions as they arise. Notwithstanding, should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, neither party should be the final decision-maker. The parties should attend mediation to resolve any issues regarding the child that the parties cannot agree on. Emergency decisions and everyday minor decisions should be made by whichever parent has the child at the time of the decision.

9.Given the relationships and dealings between Petitioner and Respondent concerning past, present, and future Physical custody issues, it would be in the best interest of the minor child that Petitioner and Respondent be awarded JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child.

10.The parties should share equal parent-time with the minor child as follows:

a.Respondent should have the child each Monday and Tuesday, including those overnights;

b.Petitioner should have the child each Wednesday and Thursday, including those overnights;

c.The parties should alternate weekends from Friday through Sunday, including those overnights, in accordance with the practice already

d.When it is Petitioner's weekend, he should have the child from Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. until Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Petitioner's weekend, his parent-time should start on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. and end on Friday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

e.When it is Respondent's weekend, she should have the child from Friday morning at 9:30 a.m. until Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Respondent's weekend, her parent-time should begin on Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., and end on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

f.If either party is unable to personally care for the child for a period of three (3) consecutive hours or more, that party should offer the right to provide personal care to the other parent, and if the other parent so accepts, the other parent is responsible for transportation at the beginning and the ending of the right-of-first-refusal parent-time.

11.The parties should share holidays equally each year as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree on a holiday schedule, then the schedule provided by § 30-3-35, Utah Code Annotated, should apply, which provides as follows:

a.Holidays take precedence over the weekend visitation, and changes should not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend visitation schedule;

b.If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the party entitled to the holiday should be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day;

c.At the election of the party entitled to the holiday, that party may begin parent-time from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed at the beginning of the holiday weekend until 7:00 p.m. on the last day of the holiday weekend;

d.If a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the party with the holiday should be entitled to this lengthier holiday period;

e.Additionally, either party may take the other party's parent-time during the week for up to two (2) days, and not during holidays, if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides two (2) weeks' notice. The parties should make their best efforts to allow either party to take the other party's holiday parent-time if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides three (3) weeks' notice, but if the parties cannot agree, then they should revert to the statutory holiday schedule. The parties should make up the taken parent-time within a reasonable time, but no later than one (1) month after the taken parent-time.

12.In years ending in an odd number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the day before or after the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

b.Martin Luther King Jr., beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until Monday at 7:00 p.m. unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Spring Break or Easter holiday, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school lets out for the holiday until 7:00 p.m. on the Sunday before school resumes;

d.July 4th, beginning 6:00 p.m. on the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or no later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Labor Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and continuing until Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

f.The fall school break, if applicable, commonly known as U.E.A. weekend, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

g.Veteran's Day holiday beginning 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday, and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday; and

h.The first portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, including Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, continuing until 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or until 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire holiday is equally divided.

13.In years ending in an even number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child’s birthday on the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. and ending at 9:00 p.m.;

b.President’s Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until 7:00 p.m. on Monday unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Memorial Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and ending Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

d.July 24th beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or not later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Columbus Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday and continuing until 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

f.Halloween on October 31, or the day Halloween is traditionally celebrated in the local community from after school until 9:00 p.m. if on a school day, or from 4:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

g.Thanksgiving holiday, beginning Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.; and

h.The second portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, beginning 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or at 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire Christmas holiday is equally divided.

i.Respondent is entitled to the odd year holidays in even years and the even year holidays in odd years.

j.Father's Day should be spent with the Petitioner every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

k.Mother's Day should be spent with the Respondent every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

l.Each party should be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted time during the child's summer vacation from school for purposes of vacation;

m.Notification of extended visitation or vacation weeks with the child should be provided at least (30) days in advance to the other parent; and n.Telephone contact should be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration;

o.Virtual parent time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, should be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration, provided that if the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court should decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

i.the best interests of the child;

ii.each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and

iii.any other factors the court considers material.

PARENTING PLAN

14.The minor child should spend 182 overnights in the home of the Petitioner and 183 overnights in the home of the Respondent each year. Pursuant to 30-3-10.1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, the following parenting plan should be ordered and followed:

a.The parents should discuss with each other and mutually decide the significant decisions regarding the child, including, but not limited to, the child's education, health care, and religious upbringing. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of the child.

b.Day to day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' child should be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at

c.Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan should be discussed and mutually decided by both parents. Neither parent has the final say over the other parent. Should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, then the parties should attend mediation before litigating.

d.Should the Petitioner and Respondent have a dispute regarding parenting of the child, and said dispute cannot be resolved between themselves, then the dispute should be resolved through mediation before any other avenue of dispute resolution can be utilized.

e.Should either parent feel that a decision made under paragraphs a, b, c and d above is contrary to the best interests of the child, that parent may arrange for counseling or mediation through a mutually agreed upon counselor or mediator. A written record should be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling/mediation and a copy provided to each party. Any costs associated with this procedure are to be shared equally between the parties. No dispute may be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through counseling or mediation. If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent. The Court has the right of review from any counseling or mediation.

f.The child's regular school hours should not be interrupted for parent-time. Petitioner and Respondent should both have access to all school reports and personnel.

g.At the request of either the Petitioner or the Respondent, pick-ups and drop-offs should be curbside or as agreed upon in writing. Each party should notify the other party as to who will be acting as third party for any child exchanges.

h.Both parents should plan weekly parenting time on a monthly basis and should make a best effort to provide 48 hours notice of change and in the event that the parent not scheduled for time with the child cannot cover for the parent who is scheduled, then the scheduled parent should be responsible for making accommodations for the child.

i.The parent who is ending his or her parent-time should drop the child off at the home of the other parent, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

j.Both parents should allow liberal phone communications and should encourage the child to call the other parent. Each parent should allow the minor child to contact the other parent at anytime the minor child desires to have telephone contact. Should a parent buy a personal cell phone for the child to use while with the other parent, either parent should have the right to take the cell phone away from the child's possession for disciplinary purposes only, and provided that upon request the child is permitted to call the other parent or receive calls from the other parent. The cell phone should go where the child goes and the child should be permitted to use the cell phone when the child wants to call one of the parents.

k.Each party has the right to contact the child on a daily basis by phone. This call can take place between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. This call should not be unreasonably denied by the residing parent, as long as it does not conflict with existing plans, scheduled events, or interfere with the child's customary routine, thereby causing emotional discomfort.

l.If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set out above under this Parent Time section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

m.Both parents should communicate with each other prior to forming conclusions about things that the child tells the parents. The reason for this provision is to try to eliminate the misunderstandings and misinterpretations that the parents may be affected by if the parents believe everything the child says prior to discussing what was said with the other parent. This, also, should help to eliminate the child playing the parents against each other.

n.Both parents should be concerned for the best interest and well-being of the child; therefore, both parents should be governed by the following principles:

i.The parties should have a co-parenting relationship which should be built on trust and respect;

ii.The parties should establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the child's needs;

iii.The parties should support each other in their respective parenting roles and should say positive words about the other parent to the child and should be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent. This purpose is honorable for the child to develop good self-esteem;

iv.The parties should listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;

v.The parties should make all attempts to resolve conflict between them and should utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they personally are unsuccessful;

vi.The parties should solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;

vii.If tension arises in a telephone call, the parties should take a break from the telephone call or leave their conversations to e-mail;

viii.The parties should work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;

ix.The parties should live by the golden rule that they should treat each other as they would like to be treated;

x.The parties should start over and recommit to this parenting plan when one or both of them steps outside of the plan and forgets about a commitment made in this plan; and xi.The parties should see the other parent as a resource, consultant and ally. The parties should work together effectively as co-parents to promote the best interests of the child.

o.Any clothing, toys, and other items of the child's personal effects should be exchanged by the parties, and returned in clean condition, in order to facilitate the child's visits.

p.The Advisory Guidelines as set forth in §30-3-33, Utah Code Annotated, should be binding upon the parties. The parties, also should be required to implement the spirit and intent, including the actual provisions, of §30-3-32, Utah Code Annotated.

q.Both parents should be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the child. The parents, also, should prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent.

r.Each party should notify the other whenever that party intends to take the child on any overnight trip that is at least two (2) nights, and provide each other with a travel itinerary with addresses and telephone numbers where they may be reached in the event of an emergency. Each party should obtain the other's written permission to take the child if a trip interferes with the other parent's parenting time.

s.Neither party should excessively drink alcohol in the presence of the minor child or be hung over or drunk while in the presence of the minor child. Further, Petitioner and Respondent should not do any illegal drugs or abuse any prescription medication.

15.Petitioner and Respondent should follow the recommendations of the custody evaluator with some variations, as follows:

a.The minor child should be put in pre-school or daycare beginning in the fall of 2012 at a mutually agreed-upon pre-school or daycare. Beginning on March 1, 2013, and continuing until September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50.00 per month toward the child's day care/preschool, and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount. Beginning on October 1, 2013, when the child begins day care/preschool closer to Respondent's home, the parties should split the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis, meaning that Petitioner should pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs and Respondent should pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs.

b.When the minor child begins kindergarten, the minor child should attend Hayden Peak Elementary School in the Jordan School District unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The child should continue his education in the Jordan School District for junior high and high school. As soon as the

c.Petitioner should pay for 100% of the therapy for the minor child for up to two (2) years following the signing of the Stipulation. After the two-year period, the parties should split all therapy costs for the child on a 50/50 basis. The therapist for the child should be someone who is on Petitioner's insurance.

d.Both Petitioner and Respondent should attend therapy and/or counseling, and follow the recommendations of their respective therapists and/or counselors. Therapy may end upon the recommendation of the therapist. Each party should be solely responsible for payment of his or her counseling sessions.

e.Each party should inform the other party of the identity of any third party conducting child exchanges or providing surrogate care. The exchanges may also occur at the child's school or day care, or curbside at the residences of the parties.

f.The minor child should reside in Salt Lake County until at least the age of 12 years. If any parent desires to move after this time, that parent should notify the other parent pursuant to the current version of Utah Code Ann. Section 30-3-37 (a minimum of 60 days' advance written notice) and the parties should attend mediation to discuss parent-time and custody before litigating the matter in court.

COOPERATION ON CO-PARENTING

16.The parties should regularly discuss the day-to-day routines and decisions being implemented in their homes to help the child feel comfortable in both homes by minimizing the differences in parenting styles. The parties should adhere to the following:

a.Neither should be required to follow the suggestions of the other party unless ordered by the Court;

b.Both parents should cooperate in fostering the best interest of their child;

c.Each parent has the right to create an independent life with the child, allowing each to continue to play a full and active role in providing a sound emotional, moral, social, and educational environment for the child; and

d.Both parents should share information on any condition, problem, significant fact, or circumstance, which may affect the other parent's relationship with, or the well-being of, the child.

NON-INVOLVEMENT

17.Neither party should ask, nor attempt in any way to have, the child transfer messages between the parties, either verbal or written. The parents should contact each other directly via phone or email to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and should not involve the child.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL FUNCTIONS

18.Both parties should be entitled to participate in all social and school functions involving their child.

ILLNESS

19.The parties should notify the other when the child is ill. When the child is ill, regularly scheduled parenting times should be discussed with both parents prior to the parenting time to decide whether the parenting time should be rescheduled. Neither parent should use illness of the child as a means to frustrate the other parent's parent-time.

RESPECT AND COOPERATION

20.Both parents should recognize that the best interests of the child require them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the child. Both parents should use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships between the child by encouraging affection, promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent. In addition, both parties should adhere to the following:

a.Neither parent should attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the child in any form. Neither parent should make, nor should they allow, another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other parent in the presence of the child;

b.The parents should cooperate and include each other in their child's day care, health care, school, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and should notify each other of their child's regular activities; and

c.The parents should not involve the child in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other, but they may jointly discuss issues with their child to get his input.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH PARENT-TIME

21.Both parties should never schedule or promote to the child any special events or activities that fall on the other party's parenting time without first obtaining permission from that party in the following manner:

a.The requesting party should notify the other party of the event or activity and discuss with the other party the benefits of the child's attendance prior to discussing it with the child. If the other party already has something scheduled or decides that the child cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent should abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the child;

b.The child should be free to express his interest in any activity to either parent at any time; and

c.Neither party should interfere with the other party's parenting time in any form. If either parent denies physical access to scheduled parent time without just cause, that parent should pay all costs associated with mediation, arbitration, or court related legal fees, associated with resolving the violation and to ensure freedom from future violations.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH THE PARTIES' PERSONAL LIVES

22.Each party should be completely free from the interference, authority and control over the other, except as impacts the care of the child, as set forth in this document. Each party should have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other. Further, if the court finds either party's actions against the other to be dishonest, deceptive, frivolous, or in any way that violates the guidelines set forth in this document, the court can order the offending party to pay all costs for mediation and legal fees incurred by the other party, plus damages for suffering and reasonable fees for time spent in defense.

TEMPORARY ADJUSTMENTS

23.The parties should be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parenting plan schedule for unexpected situations. The parent seeking an adjustment should give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least 24 hours except in an emergency). The other party should use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment, but should not unreasonably refuse.

RELATIVES

24.Ongoing relationships between the child and relatives should be encouraged and continued.

CONTACT INFORMATION

25.Each party should keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

CHILD SUPPORT

26.Petitioner's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3,118, and Respondent's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $2,253. Based on the incomes and the overnights of 182 for Petitioner and 183 for Respondent, the child support order would be $63.00 per month. However, child support is deviated to $0, because Petitioner is paying 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Respondent, and Respondent is paying 100% of the life insurance policy on the child, and anticipates, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, paying 100% of the child's dental and vision insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Petitioner.

27.This child support order should commence January 2013. There is no child support arrearage between the parties. Pursuant to 78B-12-112, Utah Code Annotated, child support should be payable in full by the 1st day of each month or it should be due one-half by the 5th and one-half on the 20th of each month.

28.Pursuant to 78B-12-219, Utah Code Annotated, it is fair and reasonable that there should be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

29.Pursuant to 78B-12-216, Utah Code Annotated, it is fair and reasonable that there should be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

30.Child support should continue until the minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during his normal and expected graduating class, whichever occurs later.

31.An order authorizing Universal Withholding Relief, pursuant to Part 4, Chapter 11, title 62A, Utah Code Annotated, should be awarded if the child support obligor becomes thirty (30) days delinquent in the payment of child support obligations.

MEDICAL INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

32.Pursuant to 78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated, Petitioner and Respondent should provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of the minor child. Petitioner should continue to provide medical insurance for the minor child, and Petitioner should be solely responsible for 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums. There is no medical premium arrearage between the parties.

34.Petitioner and Respondent should divide equally all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses of the minor child and which are not covered by insurance, subject to the conditions as stated below. There are no arrearages for any out-of-pocket medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses for the child. For a non-emergency or non-essential expense to qualify for 50% reimbursement, the parties should discuss and confer with each other before incurring the expense, otherwise the expense should be solely paid for by the party who incurred the expense without discussing it with the other party and/or over the objection of the other party, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

35.Both parties should be responsible for any and all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses that they incur on behalf of themselves. There are no arrearages for any such charges between the parties. For any outstanding or existing medical debts, the parties should take the debts in their names and hold the other party harmless of any such debts.

36.The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses should provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in the §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

37.The parent who incurs medical expenses should be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of payment within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

38.The parent who incurs the medical expenses should be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

39.Petitioner and Respondent should cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

40.Each parent should provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

41.Each parent should provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

42.Pursuant to Section 78B-12-214, Utah Code Annotated, both parties should share equally the reasonable work-related, career, or occupational training child care expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and

43.If a parent incurs an actual expense for child care, the other parent should begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of child care expense and proof of payment of said expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

44.The parent who incurs child care expenses should provide written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter within thirty (30) days of receiving a bill from the child care provider for any expenses incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

45.The parent who incurred the child care expense should be reimbursed by the other parent on a monthly basis, but no later than thirty (30) days after sending a receipt to the other parent for such expenses. If the parent seeking reimbursement of the child care expenses fails to provide written verification of those expenses and proof of payment of said expenses within thirty (30) days of incurring said expenses, that parent waives the right to reimbursement of said expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

46.Child care costs should only be divided if the cost is incurred due to the parent being at work, career or occupational training; otherwise the party is responsible for all costs of that child care, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

47.Both parents should allow the other parent to have input as to choosing the child care provider. Both parties should give the other parent first chance to provide care for the child if the need arises.

MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

48.Petitioner and Respondent should respectively pay one-half of all extracurricular activity expenses of the minor child. However, any extracurricular activity should be agreed to jointly by the parties, prior to the child being enrolled or taking part in such activities. If the parties are unable to jointly agree to the extracurricular activity, either party should be entitled to have the child participate in the extracurricular activity if that party pays entirely for the extracurricular activity. The parties should act in good faith in deciding whether the minor child should participate in an extracurricular activity.

DIVORCE EDUCATION

49.Both parties have taken the required "Divorce Education for Parents" class and provided proof to counsel and to the Court.

REAL PROPERTY

50.During the course of the marriage, neither the Petitioner nor the Respondent has acquired any real property.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, PENSION FUNDS, ETC.

51.Petitioner and Respondent each should retain all monies contained in any retirement accounts, pension funds, or individual retirement accounts, other than social security, that are in their own respective names, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

52.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain items of personal property.

53.Petitioner should be awarded the following items of personal property and should be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by the Respondent:

a.His personal effects and his sole personal property.

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Petitioner by Respondent;

54.Respondent should be awarded the following items of personal property and should be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

a.Her personal effects and her sole personal property;

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Respondent by Petitioner;

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS AND CHECKING ACCOUNTS

55.Petitioner and Respondent do not have money held in joint savings or checking accounts.

56.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Petitioner's sole name should be awarded to the Petitioner.

57.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Respondent's sole name should be awarded to the Respondent.

STOCKS, BONDS, AND MISCELLANEOUS SECURITIES

58.Each party should be awarded whatever stocks, bonds, and miscellaneous securities are in his or her sole name.

SEPARATE PROPERTY

59.All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of acquisition prior to marriage, family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources, except as specifically addressed herein should be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

60.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain debts and obligations.

61.Petitioner should assume and pay and hold Respondent harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

  a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Petitioner subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010;

  b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Petitioner above;

  c.Debt owed to U.S. Bank;

  d.Debt owed to Chase;

  e.All debts in his name;

  f.All medical bills incurred prior to May 13, 2010;

62.Respondent should assume and pay and hold Petitioner harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Respondent subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010, except as specifically addressed herein;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Respondent above.

63.Petitioner and Respondent should provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce and should notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the Court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

DELINQUENCY IN PAYMENTS

64.If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt should remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset should be placed immediately on the market for sale to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes a payment on a delinquent debt to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

REQUEST FOR NON-DISCHARGEABILITY IN BANKRUPTCY

65.The allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other; therefore, the parties should not be able to discharge the debts in bankruptcy. This provision does not bind the bankruptcy court.

REFINANCE

66.Each party should offer their best efforts to remove each other from any debts, obligations, loans, etc. by refinance or otherwise and put the loan or obligation solely in their respective name, and to assume responsibility for and release any financial burden from the other party.

BANKRUPTCY

67.If either party files for bankruptcy, it should constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances for any subsequent petition to modify regarding any financial issues herein.

TAXES AND TAX EXEMPTION

68.Petitioner and Respondent should alternate each year the entitlement to claim any and all tax exemptions related to their minor child such that Petitioner should be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in odd-numbered years, and Respondent should be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in even-numbered years.

ALIMONY

69.Petitioner should pay to Respondent a total of $14,000 in alimony, to be paid in monthly installments of $200.00 beginning in March of 2013 until paid in full. Each monthly installment is due by the first of the month. In the event that Petitioner is thirty (30) days late on a monthly installment, the amount due should be accelerated so that the total amount unpaid should be due and owing, and Respondent should have the right to initiate garnishment or other collection proceedings for the amount then due and owing. The alimony award is considered a settlement of the parties' I-864 issue. Upon any such default, nothing should prevent the parties from negotiating a new installment payment plan on the amount due and owing, provided that any agreement should be in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court.

70.Petitioner's alimony obligation should not terminate upon Respondent's remarriage or cohabitation or for any other reason except in the event of the death of either party.

I-864 AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT

71.As long as Petitioner is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent should not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864 Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

SURNAME CHANGE

72.The surname of Respondent should be changed to Roy unless Respondent chooses otherwise.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

73.Petitioner and Respondent each should pay their own respective attorney's fees and costs associated with all aspects of their divorce.

COOPERATION

74.Each party should cooperate with the other, through counsel and otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

75.Each party should execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

76.Both parties should be restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child about the issues in this case or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or visitation, which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Both parties also should be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

77.Both parties should be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and should have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or should remove the child from such circumstances.

DEFAULT

78.If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in this document, the party in default should be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of this document.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Court concludes that as set out above under the Court's Findings of Fact, the parties are subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, the parties have irreconcilable differences, and the parties are entitled to a Decree of Divorce, the same to become final upon entry herein.

2. The Court concludes that the terms of the Decree of Divorce are in the best interests of the child and are fair and reasonable, and all other issues of dispute have been resolved with the Court pursuant to the above Findings of Fact.

Attorneys for Defendant

IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Plaintiff, vs. AARON POULSEN, Defendant.	ANSWER TO COMPLAINT Civil No. 2:25-cv-425 Judge Magistrate Judge Jared C. Bennet

COMES NOW Defendant, Aaron Poulsen, by and through his attorney of record, Adam L. Crayk, of Stowell Crayk, PLLC, and hereby answers the Complaint as follows:

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff fails to state a claim for which relief can be granted.

ANSWER TO PLEADING ON THE MERITS

Defendant answers the pleadings on the merits as follows:

1. This allegation is not a fact but rather a conclusion asserted by Plaintiff to which no affirmative answer is required. Notwithstanding, Defendant admits the allegation in part and denies the allegation in part. Admit that the general legal subject matter of the litigation involves the enforcement of an Affidavit of Support I-864 Form under Section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, but deny that Defendant is liable for all damages sought.

2. Defendant admits this allegation in part and neither admits nor denies the allegation in part. Defendant admits that he served as an immigration sponsor for his former wife, Plaintiff, Jordan Lee Poulson. The remainder of the allegation is not a fact but rather a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant denies that portion of the allegation.

3. This allegation is not a fact but is a legal conclusion or statement of unsubstantiated opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant denies this allegation except that portion of which limits Plaintiff's damages, if any to the difference between Plaintiff's actual or imputed income and 125 percent of the poverty line, subject to various offsets and affirmative defenses.

4. This allegation is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation and reserves the right to assert lack of either personal or subject matter jurisdiction as affirmative defenses.

5. This allegation is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation and reserves the right to assert lack of either personal or subject matter jurisdiction as affirmative defenses.

6. This allegation is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation and reserves the right to assert improper forum or venue as affirmative defenses.

7. This allegation is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation and reserves the right to assert improper forum or venue as affirmative defenses.

8. This allegation is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation and reserves the right to assert improper forum or venue as affirmative defenses.

9. Neither admit nor deny that status of Plaintiff's citizenship for lack of information but admit that Plaintiff is a permanent resident of the United States of America unless by Plaintiff's conduct she has engaged in disqualifying conduct which precludes said residency and/or naturalization.

11. Admit.

12. Admit so much of this allegation as alleges that Defendant served as Plaintiff's immigration sponsor and that Defendant executed an Affidavit of Support in conjunction with said sponsorship, but neither admit nor deny the remaining portion of this allegation which is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative response is required.

13. Admit. See Answer to 11, supra.

14. Admit.

15. Admit.

16. Admit.

17. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore, Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation.

18. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation.

19. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation.

20. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation.

21. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation.

22. Admit.

23. Admit so much of this allegation as asserts that the Affidavit of Support was filed with Ms. Poulsen's Adjustment Application but the remaining portions of this allegation are either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies that portion of this allegation.

24. Admit.

25. Neither admit nor deny this allegation which contains an undefined acronym as well as a legal conclusion or expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required.

26. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation. However, Defendant admits that Plaintiff's status was designated "conditional."

27. Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation for lack of personal knowledge.

28. Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation for lack of personal knowledge.

29. Admit that Exhibit 5 speaks for itself, but neither admit nor deny the remaining portions of this allegation for lack of personal knowledge.

36. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation. Defendant admits that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself and to the extent that this allegation is consistent with the express language of said Affidavit of Support it is admitted and to the extent that the allegation is not consistent with the express language of said Affidavit of Support it is denied.

37. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation. Defendant admits that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself and to the extent that this allegation is consistent with the express language of said Affidavit of Support it is admitted and to the extent that the allegation is not consistent with the express language of said Affidavit of Support it is denied.

39. Defendant admits that the parties' marriage was rife with irreconcilable differences, but neither admit nor deny that portion of the allegation which states that the same was true "since before the celebration of their marriage."

40. Admit so much of this allegation as alleges that Defendant filed a Petition for Divorce in the Third Judicial District Court of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, Case No. 094905182, but deny the remaining portion of the allegation as stated. The initial divorce proceedings were concluded by the parties reaching a final stipulation and the Court based thereon entering a Decree of Divorce on April 15, 2013. Post decree proceedings in any divorce case are subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the Utah State District Court in all divorce proceedings which may include but is not limited to proceedings related to child custody and the best interest of the child. Therefore, Defendant denies the mischaracterization that the litigation in the case remains "ongoing" implying that no resolution of the action ever occurred.

41. Admit and affirmatively allege that the Decree of Divorce speaks for itself.

42. Admit the Decree of Divorce speaks for itself. To the extent this allegation is consistent with the terms of the Decree of Divorce it is admitted and to the extent the allegation is not consistent with the terms of the Decree of Divorce, it is denied.

43. Admit the Decree of Divorce speaks for itself. To the extent this allegation is consistent with the terms of the Decree of Divorce it is admitted and to the extent the allegation is not consistent with the terms of the Decree of Divorce, it is denied.

44. This allegation is not a fact but rather a legal conclusion or expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation.

45. Admit so much of this allegation as asserts that Defendant complied with the terms of the Decree of Divorce making the payments to Plaintiff as required by the terms of the Decree of Divorce but deny all remaining portions of this allegation as written.

46. Admit that Exhibit 5 speaks for itself but neither admit nor deny that the same is a true and correct copy of all of Ms. Poulsen’s income as the Social Security earnings statement reflects only that income which was reported and/or subject to Social Security withholdings and may not reflect the Plaintiff’s actual or imputed income which was either not reported and/or not subject to income withholding.

47. Neither admit nor deny for lack of information.

48. Admit.

49. Neither admit nor deny for lack of information.

50. Neither admit nor deny for lack of information as it relates to that portion of the allegation as alleges the income earned and/or reported by Plaintiff and assert that the portion of the allegation which asserts the Poverty Line and/or 125% of said Poverty Line are either legal conclusions or expert conclusions to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits or denies those portions of the allegation.

51. Deny.

52. Admit that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself but neither admit nor deny the remaining portions of this allegation for lack of information or knowledge.

53. Admit that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself but neither admit nor deny the remaining portions of this allegation for lack of information or knowledge.

54. Admit that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself but neither admit nor deny the remaining portions of this allegation for lack of information or knowledge.

68. This is a legal conclusion for which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation.

69. Admit that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself and to the extent this allegation is consistent with the express terms of the Affidavit of Support it is admitted and to the extent the allegation is not consistent with the Affidavit of Support it is denied.

70. Admit.

71. This is a legal conclusion for which no affirmative response is required and therefore the Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation.

72. Denied.

73. Denied.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because the core disputes arise from the State divorce proceeding which has already assumed jurisdiction over the enforcement of the I-864, and therefore subject matter jurisdiction is vested in the Third Judicial District Court for Salt Lake County, State of Utah.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because venue is properly laid in the Third Judicial District Court for Salt Lake County, State of Utah.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff has not received any means-tested public benefits.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because at all times Plaintiff's financial resources exceeded the 125% of the poverty line for a household of one.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because of the lack of standing to assert the claims contained in the Complaint.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff may have accumulated 40 or more quarters of work thereby releasing Defendant of any liability under the terms of the I-864 Affidavit of Support, or alternatively, Plaintiff had the ability to accumulate 40 or more quarters of work and voluntarily chose not to work.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because any third party beneficiary status of the contract between Defendant and the United States government only inures to the benefit of Plaintiff if a third party provides means-tested benefits and thereafter seeks to collect said benefits which then requires Defendant to indemnify the Plaintiff up to 125% of poverty line for said amounts sought to be collected by said third party.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part under the doctrine of election of remedies as said remedies were elected by Plaintiff in the parties' final stipulation and resulting Decree of Divorce in the Utah State divorce court action.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff fraudulently induced Defendant to execute the I-864 form under the promise of the continuation of the marriage at which time Plaintiff had no intention of maintaining.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff's recovery, if any, is limited by the terms of the parties' Divorce Decree, to wit: $200 per month pursuant to the terms of the parties' Divorce Decree, which Plaintiff accepted as satisfaction of the I-864 obligation during the period of payment and about which Defendant paid.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of waiver.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because of equitable estoppel.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff failed to mitigate her damages.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Defendant is entitled to various set-offs, including direct payments to Plaintiff as well as in-kind payments or contributions which should be credited for their economic value. Furthermore, Plaintiff owes Defendant over $9,000 in child support.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff was voluntarily under employed and should have income imputed to her based on her skill, education and training which affords Plaintiff the ability to yield a substantially greater earning power than the income asserted by Plaintiff. Further, relying on the requirements of divorce proceedings in the State of Utah, at a minimum, Plaintiff should at least be imputed to minimum wage for any year she claims she made no income.

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part by the statute of limitations for written contracts pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-2-309.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part by the equitable doctrine of laches.

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of unclean hands.

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff and Defendant entered into various novations which apply to the relief sought.

TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff and Defendant have entered into various accords and satisfactions which may apply to the relief sought by Plaintiff.

TWENTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because as between Plaintiff and Defendant, there was a failure of consideration.

TWENTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part by the rule of parole evidence.

TWENTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because some or all of Plaintiff's claims are barred, estopped, and/or waived by the performance of Defendant of his responsibilities under the subject agreements.

TWENTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part based on the statute of frauds.

TWENTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because some or all of Plaintiff's claims are barred, estopped and/or waived by Plaintiff's own breach of the subject agreements.

TWENTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because some or all of the relief requested by Plaintiff would result in Plaintiff being unjustly enriched.

TWENTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff is estopped, and/or has waived her claim by her own violation of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

TWENTY-NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because of a lack of meeting of the minds of the parties to the contract.

THIRTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff has failed to join an indispensable party.

THIRTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff left the United States on extended basis during the claimed periods.

THIRTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff was married at least twice subsequent to her marriage to Defendant and received corresponding support from her then spouses.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff should take nothing by means of her Complaint which should be dismissed with prejudice.

THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF UTAH

JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Plaintiff, v. AARON POULSEN, Defendant.	ORDER Case No. 2:25-cv-00425-JCB Magistrate Judge Jared C. Bennett

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 73, all parties have consented to Judge Jared C. Bennett conducting all proceedings in this case, including entry of final judgment.[1] Before the court is the parties' joint motion to stay discovery.[2] For the reasons set forth in the motion, for good cause shown, and based upon the parties' stipulation, the court GRANTS the motion.

Accordingly, the court HEREBY ORDERS:

1. On or before September 12, 2025, Plaintiff may file a facial challenge to the affirmative defenses in Defendant's answer.
2. Discovery is stayed until the court resolves Plaintiff's facial challenge to the affirmative defenses in Defendant's answer.

[2] ECF No. 13.

3. Within 28 days after the court resolves Plaintiff's facial challenge to the affirmative defenses in Defendant's answer, the parties must comply with the requirements of Paragraph 3 of the Order to Propose Schedule.[3]

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 25th day of August 2025.

I already have proof that you've been physically abusive in the past, Aaron.. so technically I already have that...it's already justifiable.

Sigh. Once again, there is NO WAY I CAN ABUSE the agreement just because I "simply feel like it". I would have to have PROOF.

Aaron-Kajol Kent Poulsen August 26, 2009 at 4:22pm Report

i have touched you like 3 times yo.... and the last time i vowed to never do it again (that one was the worst ever and a huge slap in the face)... its been two months... give me some credit on that..... I know its wrong...

Jordan Stothart-Poulsen August 26, 2009 at 4:24pm

If you want to be there for the birth, and around me after the birth, I need to feel comfortable and secure with you. I need to trust the person helping me birth our son. I need to be able to trust in you. There isnt much time, and this is the only thing I can think of that will give me the reassurance quickly. There isnt enough time for you to build up trust on your word alone. It is going to take a LONG time for you to do that.

Sign the paper saying you wont lie / womanize / be abusive.
That is all I want.

I already have proof that you've been physically abusive in the past, Aaron.. so technically I already have that...it's already justifiable.

Sigh. Once again, there is NO WAY I CAN ABUSE the agreement just because I "simply feel like it". I would have to have PROOF.

If you want to be there for the birth, and around me after the birth, I need to feel comfortable and secure with you. I need to trust the person helping me birth our son. I need to be able to trust in you. There isnt much time, and this is the only thing I can think of that will give me the reassurance quickly. There isnt enough time for you to build up trust on your word alone. It is going to take a LONG time for you to do that.

Sign the paper saying you wont lie / womanize / be abusive.
That is all I want.

Re: Poulsen vs. Poulsen
Civil No. 094905182

Dear Margaret:

I appreciate all you are doing in this case. In response to the issues and allegations that occurred yesterday, I have been gathering information, including with the help of my client.

First, I requested information regarding Kajol and the alleged denial to give the prescription to Aaron. Either Aaron completely misunderstood, or he is using this circumstance to create an incorrect impression. Kajol was not given a prescription for his illness. The doctor said to give him gatorade or pedia ade and to keep him hydrated. Kajol, also, had a slight amount of fluid in his ear, which he regularly does, for which the doctor provided a prescription and told Jordan to get it filled if she wanted. She did not get it filled. Jordan states that she explained this to Carlie. Consequently, Jordan did not deny prescription medication to the father of Kajol.

Second, it is my information that the statements on face book were removed quite some time ago and did not apply to this hearing.

Third, Aaron continues to go into Jordan's work chat room, which is a violation of the protective order. The violations are being investigated. I believe it be greatly to his benefit to be advised to stop this behavior post haste (I am certain you are providing this advice.)

Fourth, in Aaron's most recent Affidavit, ¶ 19, he states "I am not, nor have ever been, a marijuana dealer. Scott is not now, nor to my knowledge has ever been, called Big Scott, and is not, nor has ever been, a drug dealer."

Attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein is a screen shot from June 17, 2009, at 1:51 p.m., from Aaron-Kajol Poulsen, stating as follows:

>
> Also here is all I can think of too invite:
> Baby shower invites:
> Dusty and Renee
> Paul and Jamie (Invited through FB)
> Dave and Erica (Erica invited through FB)
> Big Scott and Amy
> Bryson and Candy
> Nick and Chelsea
> Jadey
> Micah

In addition, attached hereto as Exhibit "B" is a screen shot from June 17, 2009, from Aaron-Kajol Poulsen stating as follows:

> "I have had 6 calls for herb [marijuana] and I will be out until Tuesday."

Fifth, in his Affidavit and at court in our discussions, Aaron strenuously denied that the incident occurred at the hospital. I have a recording of Jordan and Aaron wherein Aaron admits that he performed the "fake punch" by stating that "it was justified". I will send the recording to you via email.

Sixth, Aaron continues to deny that he ever has been physically violent with Jordan. Attached hereto as Exhibit "C" and incorporated herein by this reference is a screen shot from August 26, 2009, starting at 4:21 p.m., from Jordan and Aaron, stating as follows:

> Jordan:

Seventh, Aaron repeatedly states that he has not gone to Immigration and has not attempted to have Jordan deported. I have a recording wherein Aaron refers to going to Immigration, her green card and Jordan's marrying Aaron for money. Again, I will attempt to email this recording.

I am not providing this information to invoke more of a fight in this case. I understand that you believe in your client. I, also, know that Jordan has made her mistakes. In fact, she readily admits them. Jordan, however, is not psychotic, has emotional responses but is not irresponsible and is justifiably terrified of Aaron. She, however, does want the best for Kajol and believes that Kajol needs his father. She is concerned and would like Aaron to seek some counseling. She currently is attending sessions and will continue to seek help regarding her inclusion in this dysfunctional relationship.

We talked about trying to get these two people divorced. I believe that is the goal we should seek together. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Brenda L. Flanders

Civil No. 094905182

Dear John:

I received your correspondence dated today, but cannot read the text messages attached thereto. It is true that we need to try to calm this situation so that these parties can separate. Some of the information exchanges between you and I will be necessary to achieve this result.

In your letter, you state that Mr. Poulsen's mother and sister came to deliver the child's accessory but Ms. Poulsen was not there, so they left it inside the condominium. The toy that was left is not the same. Apparently, the baby cannot jump in it, which is the behavior that the baby favored in the jump-a-roo. More importantly, Mr. Poulsen's mother and sister removed the baby's cradle, baby's clothes and other items. In addition, Mr. Poulsen, his mother, or his sister, removed the external hard drive on which my client keeps her files, including her work files. Ms. Poulsen needs the hard drive returned immediately. My client is willing to remove all of her files from the hard drive and to return the hard drive to Mr. Poulsen. Finally, while Mr. Poulsen's mother and sister were in the condominium, they went through my client's suitcase and other belongings. Not only is this a violation of privacy, it is illegal. During our conversation, you and I agreed that Mr. Poulsen would not be going into the condominium as long as it is my client's residence. I assumed that such an agreement also included agents of Mr. Poulsen. Please confirm that it does and that Mr. Poulsen's family will not enter the premises while we work out this situation.

Ms. Poulsen is attempting to find employment so that she can move from the condominium. She is preparing to move, but is not moving yet. She does not intend to take property that does not belong to her. Again, she has asked to have until April 15, 2010, to relocate.

On another matter, Ms. Poulsen was attempting to work last night and Mr. Poulsen interrupted her work and caused her to be unable to earn any money. Mr. Poulsen's interference with her current work, does not assist Ms. Poulsen in relocating. Please advise your client to refrain from such behavior.

I would like to suggest a meeting between the you, your client, my client and I. Perhaps we could work through some of the issues and get some things on paper so that the texting and other negative communication can stop. I left a message with your office in this regard. Please contact me so that we can discuss your thoughts on such a meeting.

I look forward to reaching some amicable solutions in this matter and to discussing the same with you next week.

Sincerely,

Brenda L. Flanders

Re: Poulsen vs Poulsen
Case No. 094905182

Dear John:

I have tried contacting you regarding scheduling a Settlement Conference or a Mediation to resolve current financial issues regarding the above mentioned case. If I do not hear from you regarding this matter within the next week, we will need to schedule a hearing with the court to resolve those issues.

In addition I understand that Aaron has filed his 2009 taxes and claimed both Jordan and the baby. He needs to immediately pay one half of the refund to Jordan or amend his taxes to not claim Jordan. Any refund he has received, then, will add to the financial issues that need to be resolved.

If you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact my office.

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner, vs. JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Respondent.	AFFIDAVIT OF MATTHEW RENDO Civil No. 094905182 Honorable Kate A. Toomy Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

STATE OF IDAHO)
:ss.
County of_______________)

I, Matthew Redno, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am over the age of twenty-one years and am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from me personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, I could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. I spent approximately three weeks of January, 2010, living in a condo with Jordan and Aaron Poulsen in Taylorsville, Utah.

3. I moved there because Jordan had told me that she would help me find some work and I was welcome to stay with her until I found my own place.

4. Aaron, also, agreed to this arrangement.

5. When I arrived, I was welcomed by Jordan. That same day, I met her friend, who offered me a job.

6. Jordan and I had been friends since 2006. We met when we both were living in Virginia.

7. Over the course of the last four (4) years, Jordan and I became good friends and she always has been a great person to me.

8. Jordan always has worked hard for what is her's and she always has put family and friends first.

9. I never have seen Jordan happier than when she told me she was pregnant with Kajol. Like any new mother, she was scared, but so full of excitement.

10. During my time with Jordan and Aaron, I always felt a bit of uneasiness. I was not sure if it was because I was there or if it was caused by other issues.

11. As time went on, it became more apparent that there were issues between Jordan and Aaron.

12. On several occasions, Jordan and Aaron would argue over different things.

13. There were times that Aaron's yelling was loud enough that I could hear him when I was in another part of the house.

14. There were a few times that I gave Jordan rides to different appointments. During those times, I heard conversations between Jordan and Aaron.

15. The conversations were very intense and often involved threats by Aaron toward Jordan.

16. The threats included Aaron taking away the baby from Jordan, not allowing her to see the baby, kicking her out of the house and taking the vehicle that they had bought together, which was meant to be her vehicle.

17. On two separate occasions, Jordan called me into the bathroom to show me that she had large amounts of blood in the toilet. Once from vomiting, and the other she passed blood instead of stool. We both believed that this was caused by the large amount of stress from which Jordan was suffering.

18. Jordan was hospitalized due to these issues.

19. Aaron took her to the hospital, but made her feel bad about it the whole time.

20. During my stay, on several occasions, I witnessed Aaron selling marijuana.

21. The person(s) would come into the house, hand Aaron cash and he would hand them plastic bags of what appeared to be, and smelled like, marijuana. This happened more then a half dozen times.

22. I, also, witnessed him smoking marijuana on two occasions.

23. In addition, I was concerned about Aaron's mother and how she treated Jordan. She was very rude toward Jordan and seemed to enjoy the thought of Jordan losing her baby.

24. One day Arron's mother came through the house with a video camera. She video taped the house. She invaded everyone's privacy and gave Jordan an ultimatum that she be out of the house in thirty days. She is very negative towards Jordan.

25. While I was there, Jordan took very good care of Kajol, her son. Kajol generally was happy and well mannered. Jordan spent most of her time caring for him. Aaron was anything but an attentive father.

26. On several occasions he would hand off Kajol stating that it, "was not his turn" to change his diaper or to feed him.

27. It appeared that Aaron was scared of dealing with a child. I, also, saw Aaron using Kajol as a bargaining tool with Jordan.

28. Aaron seems to use Kajol as a way to control Jordan.

29. Jordan is an excellent mother and should be taking care of her son. She would do anything for that little boy. To take him away from her would be detrimental to kajol, as well as to Jordan.

30. Jordan is a perfect mother and should be the parent that continues to provide primary care for Kajol.

AARON KENT POULSEN,	AFFIDAVIT OF RACHEL FRANKLIN
Petitioner,	Civil No. 094905182
vs.	Honorable Kate A. Toomy
JORDAN-LEE POULSEN,	Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.
Respondent.

STATE OF VIRGINIA)
:ss.
County of)

I, Rachel Franklin, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am over the age of twenty-one years and am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from me personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, I could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. In the past year, I have been witness to my friend Jordan Poulsen's destructive marriage.

3. From the time I met Arron Poulsen ("Aaron") he has been controlling over every move that Jordan makes. Seeing her after she was with him for a while was like seeing a different person. She changed because Aaron did not like the person she was. Aaron was very rude and verbally abusive toward Jordan.

4. When we were talking about coming to visit Utah, Aaron told me that he has marijuana and that he sells it out of his home.

5. One time on the phone, Jordan told me about Aaron putting marijuana in a condom and putting it in his anus to smuggle it on a plane. Aaron was in the back ground saying, "I told you not to tell anyone."

6. Jordan hated that Aaron sold marijuana, but was fearful of what would happen if she told anyone besides close friends.

7. One of the times Jordan was physically abused, she called me after the police had left. She was eight months pregnant and hysterical. She said that Aaron tried to prevent her from leaving the room by grabbing the skin on her back. Then, Aaron sat on her stomach. Jordan cut her foot with a piece of broken glass while he was still sitting on her stomach. He, then, called the police. The officers told Jordan that if she did not take the charge Aaron would lose his job and the benefits for the baby.

8. Jordan was charged with domestic violence, although she was the one that was abused.

9. On countless occasions, Jordan has found naked pictures of other women on Aaron's phone, she has caught him kissing and fondling a girl in the back of a van at a festival and has spoken with a woman to whom Aaron had sent a naked picture through email.

10. On October 28th, when Jordan and Aaron were in another argument, Jordan called me crying. We talked for a while about the problem then got off the phone. Immediately, I put some uplifting words on her Facebook profile to make her feel better. An hour or so later, Aaron's mother started saying very nasty things about Jordan, saying her friends did not know the whole story, that Jordan was overreacting, that Jordan was a bad mom and cussing out all of Jordan's friends that were standing up for Jordan. I told Aaron's mom that she was being very childish and she proceeded to write to me a private message saying that I could not judge her because I was not old enough and that I should "fuck off." I think she wants to help Aaron get the baby and pretend to be the mother.

11. Jordan and Aaron once had a connecting flight in Arizona, with a couple of hours to spare. I picked them up so they would not have to wait at the airport. Every move Jordan made was scrutinized and picked apart by Aaron. Every word Jordan said was wrong unless Aaron approved. If he told her not to do something, she was expected not to do it. Aaron completely picked Jordan apart. Even the way she chewed and the number of beverages she was allowed to consume was decided by Aaron. If Jordan did not follow his way to a tee she knew she would be "punished" by Aaron saying hurtful things.

12. Aaron told Jordan she was not allowed to come back to Arizona.

13. I know that Aaron was very controlling over Jordan's money also. Aaron took every single cent Jordan earned. I always would ask her to come visit, and despite her making decent money, she always was broke. One day, I asked Jordan why. She informed me that she let Aaron take her debit card and clear her bank account of her paychecks! He put her on some ridiculous $60.00 allowance.

14. Aaron is a very manipulative, vindictive person and will say and do anything to make himself seem like a better person and get his way.

15. He is making Jordan's life very difficult and she is suffering severely from his torture.

16. The Jordan I used to know was full of life and laughter. Over this past year, I have witnessed a slow emotional destruction to herself. She does not laugh anymore. Laughter was a big part of her life. I always here her cry.

17. Jordan just wants a good life for herself and her son. She loves him so much. She took such good care of herself during her pregnancy. She quit drinking and smoking cigarettes cold turkey. She took birthing classes. Jordan decided to do a natural NO DRUG water birth which was extremely painful and had to be emergency transferred to the hospital where she stuck to her plan and had the baby naturally.

18. Jordan had to deal with being a good mom while being with a husband who is not emotionally available to her needs because he does not care about her. She is a good mom. A loving person who just wanted a family.

19. I think that is why Jordan put up with all of Aaron's lies, infidelities and abuse. Jordan wanted something better than what she had growing up. She wanted a unified family.

20. I know she definitely gave Aaron more chances to be a decent father and husband than I would have given to him. Jordan loved Aaron despite his behavior and treatment of her.

21. Aaron is a repetitive liar and has been caught in many of them.

22. I have heard a recording of Aaron calling Jordan pathetic while she is on the ground crying after he abused her.

23. Aaron has dragged Jordan by her foot and gave her a black eye and then made her travel alone the next day, all the way to Louisiana for Christmas.

STATE OF)
:ss.
County of)

I, Monique Curci, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am over the age of twenty-one years and am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from me personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, i could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. I have known Jordan Poulsen ("Jordan") for fifteen years.

3. Jordan always has had a unique personality with a flair and zest for life.

4. She always was a strong person who did not take any guff from anyone.

5. During her relationship with Aaron, she became withdrawn, depressed and began to have severe anxiety because of his control and abuse.

6. In attempts to keep Jordan under his control, Aaron would threaten to leave her, tell her to, "get the fuck out of his condo," tell her that he never loved her. He wished a miscarriage upon her, and even tried to distance her from her friends when they would see how he would treat her.

7. I personally have seen messages and conversations between them in which he was verbally, emotionally and mentally abusive. Even Jordan's body image changed because of things Aaron would say about her.

8. After Jordan had the baby, she expressed to me that she and Aaron were taking a shower together and Aaron told her that her breasts sagged and he found that unattractive. This is only one instance of the emotional abuse.

9. Jordan changed from confident to completely repressed.

10. During a phone call I placed to Jordan, Aaron took the phone and began speaking with me. He clearly stated, "You should come down to Utah and visit. We can "blaze" (smoke marijuana). I have some killer shit you could try." When I responded that I did not know when I would be able to visit, he stated, "It is ok. Whenever you want to come. I sell it, so I never go without. I always have some good shit (marijuana) in stock."

11. On another occasion, Jordan and Aaron had been in a fight. Aaron messaged me on Facebook instant messenger. We began speaking about the fight.

12. During this time, Aaron said that he had become so angry he had physically assaulted Jordan. Aaron attempted to validate his behavior by saying that Jordan is, "such a bitch, she deserves it."

13. I, also, have seen messages between Jordan and Aaron in which Aaron admits to courting, womanizing and having inappropriate relationships with other women before, during and after Jordan's pregnancy.

14. During a conversation I had with Aaron, he admitted to, "fing up with other women."

15. I can only imagine the fear, hurt and anxiety Jordan must have gone through being eight months pregnant, alone in a place where she had no friends or family, no one to turn to, and catching her husband and the father of her child being involved with other women.

16. On several other occasions, I spoke with Jordan directly after altercations with Aaron. She asked me to secretly come and pick her up in an attempt to escape the physical, emotional and mental abuse from Aaron to her and her unborn child. Jordan felt she was in danger, and was even more worried about her unborn child.

17. I, also, recall vividly, Jordan showing me messages that she found between Aaron and his mother. These messages stated that Aaron only was telling her he loved her to keep her in the states so Jordan would give birth to the baby and Aaron could take custody of the child and raise it with his mother.

18. His mother agreed.

19. When Jordan told Aaron she thought he and his mother were plotting to take the baby, Aaron called Jordan crazy and told her she was paranoid despite her having evidence.

20. In messages that I have seen personally, Aaron makes attempts to manipulate, lie and twist his way out of things.

21. I have witnessed Aaron's mother posting absolutely inappropriate things to Jordan's friends on Facebook, when they stood up for Jordan. She told them, "Fuck you" and things of that nature.

22. From the things I have witnessed via phone, messenger, text, email and Facebook, Aaron's mother aids Aaron in his patterns of abuse and complete domination over Jordan to gain control and access to their child, Kajol.

23. In other messages I have seen that Aaron has written, Aaron has demonstrated an extreme racial hate for those of Mexican descent.

24. I am proud to be Native American, so racial slurs are something that I remember and do not take lightly.

25. Jordan's personality has changed completely since her relationship with Aaron.

26. I could tell through conversations that her need for help in getting away from Aaron was severe and that she showed all the signs of an abused woman. She refused to leave him because she, "loved him and wanted to give him a chance to change and to be a father," however, the change never occurred despite Jordan's efforts to go to marriage and individual counseling. Jordan gave every effort to save her marriage for her child and to fulfill her duties as a wife.

27. Jordan would not give up on her family.

28. After some time it became apparent that she had all of the symptoms of battered wife syndrome which caused all of her friends and family great worry.

29. Aaron made her pregnancy, which should have been a time of blessed joy, a complete hell. He stressed her out to the point of exhaustion and pre-term labor.

30. Jordan never has expressed anything but love, warmth and affection when speaking of her son, Kajol.

31. She keeps me updated on him and his progress from the first time he rolled over, his first foods, the first time he smiled.

32. Jordan is a good mother who loves and cares for her child.

33. She did a completely natural birth so that her child could come into this world drug free and have the best possible start at life despite her own pain and complications in birthing him. That is not something someone who does not care for her child would do or even consider.

34. It is my observation from speaking with both parties, more so from Aaron's own words to me, that Aaron should most definitely NOT be left to care for any child, let alone a child six months of age.

35. I believe Aaron needs a mental evaluation and needs to continue in counseling (it is my knowledge that he quit going after a few sessions saying that Jordan has all the problems and that he did not do anything wrong ever), take an anger management course, a domestic violence class and drug rehabilitation.

36. I have two children myself, ages seven and five, and I would not let Aaron babysit my children or provide care for them full time.

37. I have seen Jordan's spirit crushed over the last two years.

38. I think the mental and emotional anguish that my friend has had to endure at the hands of this man is unforgivable and does not support his potential ability to provide stable care to an infant.

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY

STATE OF UTAH

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner, vs. JORDAN-LEE POULSEN, Respondent.	: : : : :	AFFIDAVIT OF JORDAN-LEE POULSEN Civil No. 094905182 Honorable Kate A. Toomey Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

STATE OF UTAH)
:ss.
County of Salt Lake)

I, Jordan-Lee Poulsen, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am over the age of twenty-one years and am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from my personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, I could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. The Petitioner, Aaron Kent Poulsen ("Aaron"), and I met in or about May, 2008, while I was living in Maryland.

3. At that time, I was performing volunteer work for a company called Hollywood Music T.V. interviewing bands for its on-line television station.

4. Aaron is in a band entitled "Separation of Self".

5. Aaron and I began an internet courtship.

6. Aaron, then, invited me to travel to Salt Lake City, Utah, to go on tour with his band and film life on the road for my show.

7. I accepted Aaron's invitation.

8. Aaron took money out of the band's bank account and paid for my ticket to fly from Maryland to Salt Lake City. I traveled on July 17, 2008.

9. My plan was to film the documentary.

10. Aaron and I began dating, however, and he asked me not to leave Salt Lake City.

11. A few weeks into our relationship, while I was using his cell phone, I noticed texts from him professing to miss his former girlfriend. He had written that he was "going through Jessica withdrawals". Jessica was his former girlfriend.

12. When I asked Aaron about the texts, he assured me that he wanted to be with me and that our relationship was, and would be, okay.

13. A couple of months later, Aaron and I traveled to an event called the Dirt Fest in the desert. Many people drive out to the desert for a heavy metal show.

14. During one of the nights of the show, Aaron disappeared. A friend of mine named Travis and I scoured the terrain looking for Aaron. We found him in the back of a van. I could not believe what I was seeing, so I watched until I knew that I was seeing what I thought I was seeing.

15. Aaron was fondling, groping and kissing another woman. I was angry and yelled at him, asking what he was doing because he has a girlfriend.

16. Aaron told me that I imagined what I had seen. He called me names, including a "bitch".

17. A few weeks later, Aaron and I got into another argument about him speaking to his former girlfriend.

18. Aaron threw my computer across the room and jumped on top of me with his hand on my throat.

19. After he left me there alone, I called my friend, Jadey, who arrived with our roommate, Chris, to console me.

20. A while after that, I asked Aaron to spend some time with me. He said that he did not wish to spend time with me.

21. This hurt my feelings and he could tell.

22. I was walking down the stairs with a drink in my hand. He said, "FINE! LET'S GO THEN" in a very loud voice. He pushed me, almost causing me to fall down the flight of stairs.

23. I immediately walked outside to have a moment to myself to cry.

24. He followed me, snatched the cigarette out of my hand and threw it against the neighbor's car.

25. He, then, grabbed me by both of my shoulders and shook me violently, telling me what a horrible person I am.

26. Aaron and I have had other fights.

27. During some of our fights, the verbal, emotional and mental abuse would be so unbearable I would start to pack my things and begin calling homeless shelters to find a place to stay. Even being homeless would have been better than the severe verbal beatings he would give to me. It hurt more than the physical beatings.

28. I remember one time that he said such hateful things to me, I was on my hands and knees, at his feet, crying so hard that I could barely breathe and I was begging him to stop.

29. He just kicked me away and said, "Look at you, look at you. You're so pathetic. Look how pathetic you are". Then, he laughed at me.

30. I never will forget. It broke every piece of me.

31. Somewhere along the way, he broke my spirit like a beaten dog.

32. I began to believe him. I believed him when he said that it was all my fault. The guilt would eat me alive.

33. He would tell me how terrible I was and how it was no wonder that all my former boyfriends left me because I am such a flawed person.

34. He began to control every aspect of my personality, what was all right to say or do and what was not.

35. Even the way that I chewed bothered him, so I tried to change the way I chewed.

36. Aaron told me that I deserved to be abused and I began to believe him.

37. Because I believed him, I always went back to him, I always forgave him, even though he never apologized.

38. Aaron told me that he did not need to apologize because "he was just saying the truth". In addition, he would say that he "would not apologize for being honest just because it hurts you."

39. I think that people will read this and not understand how someone can be pushed around physically and take it. Or be told that they are nothing and take it.

40. To be honest, I do not know why people take it.

41. I took it because I loved him and I wanted him to love me back. To kiss me without being asked. To hold my hand. To snuggle with me at night time. To look me in the eyes and, finally, say "Jordan, I love you".

42. I thought that he would change. But, it only got worse.

43. Eventually, I became tired of constantly being put down and started sticking up a bit for myself. I never should have done that, it almost cost me my unborn child. It only made things worse.

44. Around September, 2008, Aaron told me that if I did not find a job, he would kick me out. I am a Canadian citizen. I did not have a work visa in the United States. I had to take a job as a "web cam model" for customers online.

45. When I got the job, this is the message that I sent to Aaron:

Jordan Stothart-Poulsen August 21, 2008, 6:25 a.m.

> I do want you to realize that I would never do this if I didn't have the desperate need to give you money. And I am NOT throwing that in your face, I'm saying that it is for us, so that we don't have to struggle . . . and so that you aren't so stressed out. I just don't want you to worry. I am willing to do what it takes to make sure you don't have that stress. And if this is what I gotta do, this is what I gotta do. I am very uncomfortable doing it, it's embarrassing. VERY EMBARRASSING. . . but I'll suck it up I guess. I know you don't like waking up for work at 5 a.m. either, but you do what you gotta do.

46. From this time forward, every cent that I earned went to Aaron. I gave him my Canadian debit card and he pulled money out and used it how he saw fit as the primary bill payer.

47. As time went on, I caught him speaking with his former girlfriend, Jessica, several times. Every time I would ask him about it, he would lie. Each time I asked caused a giant blowout and, of course, it all became my fault and I was attacked.

48. In December, 2008, we went to Temple Square. I lit a cigarette. I was not aware of this being a sign of disrespect. If I had of been, I would not have lit the cigarette. Aaron became very angry with me. We did not speak during the entire train and car ride home.

49. When we arrived home, I sat down, turned on the television and poured myself a glass of wine.

50. He began yelling at me.

51. I tried to ignore him, so he stood in front of the television.

52. I continued to try to ignore him.

53. He grabbed the wine out of my hand and poured it out. He, then, took the rest of the bottle of wine and poured it out while saying, "You f. . .ing bitch. You wonder why no one likes you. It's because you're sloppy. Everyone hates you. I haven't wanted to be with you ever since you got here."

54. He threw the glass against the table and it shattered all over the living room floor.

55. I, then, went upstairs in an attempt to remove myself from the argument.

56. He followed me, yelling.

57. He came toward the bed and I covered my head in case he punched me.

58. Instead, Aaron grabbed my right ankle and drug me off of the bed.

59. My back slammed against the ground and knocked the wind out of me.

60. He continued to drag me. I hit the door frame and began to sob.

61. He told me to "shut the f... up and stop playing the victim."

62. He drug me down two excruciating flights of stairs on my back by holding my ankle.

63. At the bottom of the stairs, he drug me though the broken glass.

64. I just laid there crying on my side as he told me to "get the f... out of his condo".

65. What I did not know at the time, is that I was a few weeks pregnant with our child.

66. Aaron and I were supposed to go and visit my family in Louisiana three days after this incident. He canceled his plane ticket and I was forced to go alone.

67. Aaron told me that he no longer wanted to be with me.

68. I was so sore physically, mentally and emotionally, that I somewhat agreed to break up.

69. I went to Louisiana by myself and was surrounded by friends and family, who helped me heal.

70. I had to return to Salt Lake City to pack my belongings and to retrieve my dog.

71. I arranged for a friend to travel all of the way to Salt Lake City and to drive back with my possessions because I had no car and no license.

72. When I arrived home, Aaron began his mind control, again.

73. Aaron told me how compatible we are when it comes to sex, how he loves it, how he wished I could stay, how he cared about me.

74. On January 2, 2009, I took a pregnancy test. It was positive.

75. Aaron and I talked. He said that he wanted to try to work things out.

76. A few days later, he went to a music convention in Los Angeles, California. He told people that he hates me, that I am a monster, that he could not believe he had "gotten someone like me, pregnant".

77. The list of insults was endless.

78. I had found out that I was pregnant three days earlier and I had people sending emails to me and informing me that Aaron was saying these things.

79. Then, I found information on his phone. At the time, he was plotting to send me back to Canada, pregnant, so that I could have the baby alone with free health care.

80. A couple of weeks later, I found a conversation between him and another female named Pamela Redd, with whom Aaron had a previous relationship. He was asking when she was going to "come suck his dick" and when she was going to send him more naked photos, amongst other dirty, immoral and inappropriate things.

81. I asked him why he was doing this. Instead of an apology, he lied to me. Then, when I provided evidence, he told me to "deal with it". He said, "now you know how I really feel". Then, he screamed at me as I cried.

82. I began to feel terrible cramps. I thought they would go away. Instead, they got worse. The more we fought, the worse the cramps became, until I was in tears, unable to sleep and throwing up profusely.

83. I asked him to stop yelling at me and to quit putting me down. I asked him to leave me alone if he was not going to help me.

84. He told me what a horrible person I am, that it was no wonder my former boyfriends had left me and that my former husband had divorced me.

85. I begged him to stop and screamed that he was going to make me miscarry.

86. He screamed, "I want you to miscarry! I hope you miscarry! I'm not the only one who wants you to, either. My mom wants you to miscarry! The baby would be better off miscarried than raised by you!"

87. Aaron's torment continued. He stated, "I keep trying to get rid of you, but you keep crawling back. You are f...ing pathetic. You only got pregnant to trap me."

88. It got so bad that I tried to get away from him by locking myself in the bathroom. He stood outside the door and screamed at me.

89. I went to three separate rooms in an attempt to remove myself from the situation. He followed.

90. He punched the other bathroom door when I went in there to throw up.

91. I said, "you are being extremely emotionally and verbally abusive to me. I want you to leave me alone. I am going to end up miscarrying."

92. He yelled back, "You deserve to be abused!.

93. This went on all day. Finally, he left that night and I had to call a friend to take me to the emergency room.

94. Through my entire pregnancy, I was extremely ill with hyperemesis. I was bed ridden.

95. Aaron constantly would harass me about cleaning the condo, even though I was, unable physically.

96. In the beginning of July, 2009, Aaron was upset about something and we got into an argument.

97. I went into our bedroom to try to avoid the situation. Aaron put his head through the entire bedroom door, I have a picture of the bedroom door. When I looked at him, I said "What is wrong with you?"

98. He replied, "fear is the only way to get through to you! It's the only thing you understand!"

99. The fight ensued. I began to feel terrible cramps. He continued yelling. It got so bad that I was forced to go to the hospital. Aaron had caused me so much stress that it sent me into pre-term labor. I had to stay in the hospital while the medical personnel tried to stop the labor and contractions.

100. Two days after I was released from the hospital, Aaron, again, was communicating with his former girlfriend.

101. On August 24, 2009, a friend, Crystal, told me that Aaron was asking for nude photos from her, that he was sending her emails and the like.

102. I asked Aaron about Crystal's representations.

103. He admitted that he asked to see a picture of her. I asked him why and he told me that it was because he was mad at me.

104. On August 25, 2009, at 9:20 a.m., Aaron sent a message to his mother. The message is as follows:

> I haven't called yet.
> it will be easier to figure out custody when the baby is born.

jordan is right though, I haven't fully loved her and I have been lying to her here in there for months now.

its not fair to her . . . she is also right about me caring about the baby more than her.

1) thats why I married her, so that she could have health care to deliver the baby here in the states

2) so she could have a green card to stay here and raise the baby enough is enough, she isnt going to leave . . .the baby will be born here and then I am going to take steps to proceed with the divorce . . . I will get a second job to pay back all the money to you as well if I can juggle that with a baby . . . she cant leave thats for sure

1) she cant fly so close to her due date
2) she has a court date sept 2nd, if she fails to appear she will have a warrant which in turn will strip her of her green cared
3) she has no one that wants to take in a pregnant girl with a pug

Unless she fleas the country and goes to have the baby in Canada she is stuck here.

105. As you can see, Aaron and his mother have been plotting to take my baby away from me since before his birth.

106. When I was seven months pregnant, Aaron attached me three times, thus endangering the child in me. I had bruises all over me as is noted in the police report.

107. On September 17, 2009, I gave birth to my son. I decided to do a natural delivery so my son would come into this world a sober, alert, drug fee individual. I took birthing classes and did many hours of research online. I wanted to give him the best start at life that I possibly could give him. I carried him for nine months. I knew his every pattern and movement, when he was sleeping, when he had the hiccups. He is the only person I ever have fallen in love with before meeting and the only person I ever have fallen in love with madly upon laying my eyes on him.

108. As soon as he was born, they put him on my chest. Skin to skin. I just cried.

109. All I could say was, "I just had a baby!" and "He's perfect!"

110. Aaron told me that he did not really have any feelings after eighteen hours of labor and that the only thing he really felt was happy that it was all over because he was tired. He said, "I thought I would feel more than I do." He did not cry or smile when he saw our son.

111. After the delivery, I was in a great deal of pain. I struggled for weeks. I ripped my stitches and had no muscle control over my bladder. This lasted about seven weeks and I still struggle with this.

112. Aaron took off from work for two weeks to help with the baby. At that time, he did a good job. I was in so much pain, I could barely roll over in bed.

113. After he went to work, everything went downhill.

114. Aaron believed that because he was back to work, I should be responsible for cleaning the entire condo and caring for the baby. He would not listen to reason or hear that I was hurt. I just could not do it all.

115. The average time for a woman to heal after giving birth is six weeks. It took me longer. The day that the six weeks expired, Aaron began harassing me to go back to work and would not stop until I finally give in despite the pain and agreed to try.

116. Aaron made me work nights, 8:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m. His mom would take the baby on Wednesday night so that I could work. Aaron would sit downstairs while I worked and the baby slept on Friday through Sunday nights. Then, I would have to stay up with the baby all day, again, through the week while he worked. I never slept. I nearly went mad from sleep deprivation.

117. Aaron did not care how I was doing.

118. Aaron said that he would help but really did not. He cleaned the kitchen a couple of times and then complained and called me lazy.

119. I was mentally, emotionally and physically drained.

120. Even my doctor told Aaron that he had to start helping me, that Aaron should start taking the baby some times so that I could sleep.

121. Despite my cries for help, Aaron was not emotionally available to me. As soon as it seemed he was interested, I would find out another lie he had told, or about another female he had romanced.

122. During this time, Aaron's mother, also, started in on me, saying that I needed to be on medication, accusing me of sleeping all day and partying all night.

123. I did not party. I was breast feeding and could not drink, except on special occasions and when I had pumped and stored enough milk, which was not often.

124. It was a struggle to get Aaron even to hold the baby at home.

125. Eventually, when our son was three months old, Aaron told me that he was not bonding with our baby. He said that perhaps, when our son became five or six years old, he would bond with him because then they would be able to communicate and do things together. Aaron, also, said that he "wasn't ready to be a full time father or husband" and "maybe when he was thirty-five to thirty-six years old and his band was finished, he would be ready to settle down."

126. From two weeks old, I have been the primary caretaker of our son, Kajol. I spent every day with him, teaching him a schedule, a routine.

127. I got Kajol to smile for the first time. I heard him giggle for the first time.

128. I watched him roll over for the first time.

129. I started him on baby food. I set his food schedule, nap schedule, picked out his clothes.

130. Currently, Aaron calls me to get this information for the times that he has our son.

131. When I am with Kajol, I play with him. I give him snuggles and kiss him. I blow on his tummy to make him laugh. I rock him and sing the song "Edelweiss" to him.

132. When Kajol is not around, I listen to the song over and over while I miss him. I think about holding him and singing it to him while he looks at me with his big beautiful innocent unknowing eyes.

133. I tickle Kajol and laugh with him.

134. I cherish every smile, every giggle, every new accomplishment, every tear, every moment I have with him. He is the light in my life. He makes every single day worth getting out of bed and striving to be a better person. I want him to be as proud of me as I am of him, one day.

135. It breaks my soul when I have to hand over the child that I carried, birthed and cared for every single day to an abusive drug dealer, who literally has said that he "is going to teach his son how to deal with cunts like me".

136. Aaron constantly yells at me when we are with Kajol. He does not care that this will and does affect our son.

137. I do not want to take his father away from Kajol. He needs both parents.

138. Aaron, however, needs to learn how to parent and how to treat people respectfully, without mental, emotional, or physical abuse. I fear for my child. I would like Aaron to have to attend anger management and parenting classes.

139. I am no angel. During the two years that Aaron and I have been together, I have made mistakes. I am willing to, and I am trying to, better myself and accomplish things, but I did not deserve the treatment bestowed on me by Aaron and neither does my son.

140. Finally, in this regard, Aaron sells marijuana. I did not know this until I had moved to Salt Lake City, Utah.

141. Just a couple of weekends ago, Aaron took Kajol to a friend of his, who, also, sells drugs.

142. I do not want my son around drugs.

143. Currently, my employment is quite limited. I cannot and do not work the job that I obtained at Petitioner's request around my son. I am searching for a new job. I have sent out hundreds of resumes and have attended several interviews. I hope to have regular, consistent employment soon.

144. Contrary to Aaron's assertions, I am staying out at night and choosing not to work. I have found a safe environment in which to raise my child.

145. Aaron states that we "informally agreed" that I could stay in our condominium until April 15, 2010. We did reach this agreement. Shortly thereafter, Aaron told me that I need to move immediately. In addition, he informed me that his mother had contacted an attorney and was having me evicted.

146. Aaron was coming into the condominium and taking things that belonged to me. He even took the external drive on which all of my data was stored. I had to have my counsel call his attorney to obtain retrieval of my external drive.

147. At that same time, Aaron took all of the cable boxes and the internet, thus keeping me from working, as well as, from watching television.

148. Again, I had to have my attorney contact his counsel to regain the cable boxes and internet.

149. At that point, we all agreed that Aaron would not come into the condominium.

150. Immediately thereafter, Aaron had his sister and mother come into the condominium and take things that belonged to me, and things that belong to my son.

151. I realize that Aaron and I need to share items for our son, however, we should be reaching agreements on these items, he should not be coming in when I am not there and taking things that I or our baby need.

152. I must find a place to reside that is safe and free from this type of interference.

153. I do not have money to provide for myself. I am moving in with a friend, who has agreed to let Kajol and I reside in her home.

154. When Aaron and I decided that I should remain in the United States, I required a sponsor.

155. Aaron agreed to be my sponsor. Attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated by this reference, is a copy of the Affidavit of Support that Aaron signed. It is my understanding that by agreeing to be my sponsor, Aaron has a duty to support me.

156. I am in need of support until I can obtain full time employment and consistent income.

157. I have incurred medical bills, I have a cell phone bill, and a few other expenses. Aaron has been responsible for paying these bills.

158. Currently, Aaron is refusing to pay these bills and has threatened to turn off my cell phone.

159. I need him to continue to pay these expenses during these proceedings.

160. I have been covered by Aaron's insurance. I cannot obtain medical insurance on my own, I have medical issues and I need to have Aaron continue to provide insurance for me.

161. I have had several people send in statements regarding the events that they have witnessed between Aaron and I. I am in the process of obtaining signed affidavits from these individuals.

162. To provide notice, I am attaching these affidavits hereto as Exhibit "B". Upon receipt of signature pages, I will file the original affidavits with the Court.

163. Contrary to the statements made in Petitioner's Affidavit, he is not stable and would not provide a healthy, stable environment.

164. Contrary to the statements in Petitioner's Affidavit, I am stable other than the stress that I have suffered from my relationship with the Petitioner and his abuse.

165. Petitioner works a full time job. In addition, he is in the band and has many time commitments based upon his membership.

166. Petitioner practices with the band at least two nights each week.

167. Petitioner's band is recording an album, which requires additional commitment.

168. Petitioner's band plays concerts as often as possible, again, requiring time commitments.

169. Finally, Petitioner tours with his band, causing him to be away for extended periods of time.

CUSTODY

1. Aaron mentions our agreement to joint physical custody. We did reach that agreement.

2. Aaron asserts that I have interfered with his rights to our child. I have not. We had a disagreement and I explained that I needed to keep our child overnight while we tried to reach a resolution.

3. We did reach a resolution and I assisted in Aaron having an additional night to make up for that night.

4. We have been sharing joint physical custody.

5. I am concerned about Aaron's behavior, his need to continue to assert control and abuse over me in the presence of my child. I would like Aaron to be a good, consistent father to Kajol. I would like Aaron to take anger management and parenting classes and be a parent to his son.

Part 8. Sponsor's Contract.

Please note that, by signing this Form I-864, you agree to assume certain specific obligations under the Immigration and Nationality Act and other Federal laws. The following paragraphs describe those obligations. Please read the following information carefully before you sign the Form I-864. If you do not understand the obligations, you may wish to consult an attorney or accredited representative.

What is the Legal Effect of My Signing a Form I-864?

If you sign a Form I-864 on behalf of any person (called the "intending immigrant") who is applying for an immigrant visa or for adjustment of status to a permanent resident, and that intending immigrant submits the Form I-864 to the U.S. Government with his or her application for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status, under section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act these actions create a contract between you and the U. S. Government. The intending immigrant's becoming a permanent resident is the "consideration" for the contract.

Under this contract, you agree that, in deciding whether the intending immigrant can establish that he or she is not inadmissible to the United States as an alien likely to become a public charge, the U.S. Government can consider your income and assets to be available for the support of the intending immigrant.

What If I choose Not to Sign a Form I-864?

You cannot be made to sign a Form I-864 if you do not want to do so. But if you do not sign the Form I-864, the intending immigrant may not be able to become a permanent resident in the United States.

What Does Signing the Form I-864 Require Me to do?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then, until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, you must:

-- Provide the intending immigrant any support necessary to maintain him or her at an income that is at least 125 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for his or her household size (100 percent if you are the petitioning sponsor and are on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces and the person is your husband, wife, unmarried child under 21 years old.)

-- Notify USCIS of any change in your address, within 30 days of the change, by filing Form I-865.

What Other Consequences Are There?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, your income and assets may be considered ("deemed") to be available to that person, in determining whether he or she is eligible for certain Federal means-tested public benefits and also for State or local means-tested public benefits, if the State or local government's rules provide for consideration ("deeming") of your income and assets as available to the person.

This provision does not apply to public benefits specified in section 403(c) of the Welfare Reform Act such as, but not limited to, emergency Medicaid, short-term, non-cash emergency relief; services provided under the National School Lunch and Child Nutrition Acts; immunizations and testing and treatment for communicable diseases; and means-tested programs under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

What If I Do Not Fulfill My Obligations?

If you do not provide sufficient support to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, that person may sue you for this support.

If a Federal, State or local agency, or a private agency provides any covered means-tested public benefit to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, the agency may ask you to reimburse them for the amount of the benefits they provided. If you do not make the reimbursement, the agency may sue you for the amount that the agency believes you owe.

If you are sued, and the court enters a judgment against you, the person or agency that sued you may use any legally permitted procedures for enforcing or collecting the judgment. You may also be required to pay the costs of collection, including attorney fees.

If you do not file a properly completed Form I-865 within 30 days of any change of address, USCIS may impose a civil fine for your failing to do so.

When Will These Obligations End?

Your obligations under a Form I-864 will end if the person who becomes a permanent resident based on a Form I-864 that you signed:

- Becomes a U.S. citizen;
- Has worked, or can be credited with, 40 quarters of coverage under the Social Security Act;
- No longer has lawful permanent resident status, and has departed the United States;
- Becomes subject to removal, but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status, based on a new affidavit of support, if one is required; or
- Dies.

Note that divorce does not terminate your obligations under this Form I-864.

Your obligations under a Form I-864 also end if you die. Therefore, if you die, your Estate will not be required to take responsibility for the person's support after your death. Your Estate may, however, be responsible for any support that you owed before you died.

ELECTRONIC POSTMARK - CERTIFICATION OF ELECTRONIC FILING
TAXPAYER: Aaron K & Jordan Poulsen
PRIMARY SSN: [redacted]-7598

FEDERAL RETURN SUBMITTED: January 25, 2010 05:49 AM PST
FEDERAL RETURN ACCEPTANCE DATE: 01/25/2010

The Intuit Electronic Postmark shows the date and time Intuit received your federal tax return. The Intuit Electronic Postmark documents the filing date of your income tax return, and the electronic postmark information should be kept on file with your tax return and other tax-related documentation.

There are two important aspects of the Intuit Electronic Postmark:

1. THE INTUIT ELECTRONIC POSTMARK.
The electronic postmark shows the date and time Intuit received the federal return, and is deemed the filing date if the date of the electronic postmark is on or before the date prescribed for filing of the federal individual income tax return.

TIMELY FILING:
For your federal return to be considered filed on time, your return must be postmarked on or before midnight April 15, 2010. Intuit's electronic postmark is issued in the Pacific Time (PT) zone. If you are not filing in the PT zone, you will need to add or subtract hours from the Intuit Electronic Postmark time to determine your local postmark time. For example, if you are filing in the Eastern Time (ET) zone and you electronically file your return at 9 AM on April 15, 2010, your Intuit electronic postmark will indicate April 15, 2010, 6 AM. If your federal tax return is rejected, the IRS still considers it filed on time if the electronic postmark is on or before April 15, 2010, and a corrected return is submitted and accepted before April 20, 2010. If your return is submitted after April 20, 2010, a new time stamp is issued to reflect that your return was submitted after the IRS deadline and, consequently, is no longer considered to have been filed on time.

If you request an automatic six-month extension, your return must be electronically postmarked by midnight October 15, 2010. If your federal tax return is rejected, the IRS will still consider it filed on time if the electronic postmark is on or before October 15, 2010, and the corrected return is submitted and accepted by October 20, 2010.

2. THE ACCEPTANCE DATE.
Once the IRS accepts the electronically filed return, the acceptance date will be provided by the Intuit Electronic Filing Center. This date is proof that the IRS accepted the electronically filed return.

This letter is to confirm that Jordan and Aaron Poulsen have been seeing me for therapy to work on issues in their relationship, including anger management and improved communication skills. They are progressing in therapy in terms of volatility levels and reports of improved communication at home related to skills taught in our sessions.

Their dates of service since June 22, 2009 are:

7/1/09
7/14/09
7/22/09
8/6/09
8/28/09

Sincerely,

Julie Stout, M.S.

Man with how is it we never met at least one deductible??? You gave me $250 I thought!

I have a card in my purse. I just looked.

I love you handsome man.

What am I going to the hospital for again? I forgot

I noticed this morning when you left you just said good bye, but didn't give me a kiss or tell me you love me.

Are you sure you want to stay with me? Or do you feel like you have to because of the baby? Please just be honest with me. If the fight was it and you don't feel love for me, please just be honest.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

to see if they will let u bring in the birthing tub... get it in writing some how... emailed or something

sorry

I do love you but its just as much for the baby too.... im at a loss. its a vicious cycle... tension, explosion, calm, tension, explosion, calm... we are both just at a loss right now....

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

So I ask you the same question

"Are you sure you want to stay with me? Or do you feel like you have to because of the baby? Please just be honest with me. If the fight was it and you don't feel love for me, please just be honest."

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

so I ask you the same question:

"Are you sure you want to stay with me? Or do you feel like you have to because of the baby? Please just be honest with me. If the fight was it and you don't feel love for me, please just be honest.

Jordan Roy

Of course I love you. Even if I weren't pregnant I would still want to stay with you...
I guess the feeling isn't mutual... So where do you want to go from here then?

Jordan Roy

You said you are at a loss and you have love for me, but its just as much for the baby... I think I took it at face value. If you don't want to stay together I would rather just move on now.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

yes the love for u and the baby are equal and its my equal reason for staying in this.

im at a loss with myself not you.

Jordan Roy

You are being inappropriate with other women. I said that I don't want my son to see you doing that to me, and me constantly having a broken heart over it, crying. That is not the kind of person I want my son to aspire to be. When he finds someone who loves him and that he loves, I want him to be true to her, honest, and devoted to ONLY her.

I said I wanted a divorce because you keep saying you will stop being inappropriate with other women, but you continue to do the same thing to me over and over... my heart can only take so much. You are breaking my heart by doing these things... and you don't seem to care.

Yes, it would hurt - but if parting ways is what you want, then I would rather go through it now before the baby is born rather than go though it when the baby is here and able to see the pain and go through it himself.

"thats why i ask you the same that you are asking me."

I already answered it with this
Of course I love you. Even if I weren't pregnant I would still want to stay with you...
I guess the feeling isn't mutual... So where do you want to go from here then?

seatings each evening. Reservations are required and are offered at 5:30, 6:30 or 7:30 PM. We take you on a sleigh ride for approximately 20 minutes to our mountain lodge for dinner. Once at the lodge, there is a musician who plays the guitar and sings for entertainment throughout the evening. When everyone is finished with their meal & entertainment, a sleigh ride is provided back to the base of the resort. The sleigh ride and dinner evening lasts approximately two to two and a half hours.

Are you excited about the baby? The more I think about it, the more excited I get. I cant wait to see what it looks like
I cant wait to see you hold it in your arms for the first time and look at it. I just cant wait.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
i am, up and down though. getting the thing here is the stressful part anyway.

BEAR BOP
hi

3 more weeks, yay! excited?

fyi.. my mom use to have money in her bank to cover rent so that it could be pulled out on the 5th and if we were ever late it wouldn't matter. but now she doesn't have that money to cover it so we need to pay rent on the 5th instead of later. so the last check you get of each month need to have some rent money and the 1st check you get of each month will cover the other bills - cellphone, power, cable.

christmas tree.. when u wanna get one?
our date is next weekend.
december shores ethn loud

i have the hugest headache for some reason

dexter is the shit. thanks for showing me it im hungry, fuck work, hohoooanonymous.

this weekend we should finish christmas shopping. ok?

OFFICER: CSO D. Brickell DATE: Mon Aug 09 17:47:35 MDT 2010

TYPE OF REPORT (Documentation, Screening or Arrest): This is for documentation.

TYPE OF DOMESTIC INCIDENT (Verbal, Physical): This is a violation of a protective order.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN SUSPECT(S) AND VICTIM(S): The suspect, Aaron Poulsen, is the husband of the victim, Jordan Poulsen. Aaron and Jordan are in the process of being divorced.

CHILDREN (Names, Ages, Location): There were no children involved.

NARRATIVE: I was dispatched to a protective order violation. I made contact with the complainant, Jordan Poulsen, by telephone and found Aaron had called Jordan on 08/05/2010 at approximately 18:00 hours, which is two and a half hours after being served with the protective order. Aaron then made at least two more phone calls between 08/05 and 08/06/2010. On 08/07/2010, Aaron sent Jordan 10 text messages between 07:31 and 08:00 hours.

Jordan also advised that Aaron has been able to identify when she is online and working. Jordan says her company put a block on her work computer for calls coming from Utah. Jordan says Aaron has a floating IP address, which gets around the company's block.

INJURIES: There were none reported.

WITNESS STATEMENTS (From Whom): There were no witnesses.

WAS VICTIMS ASSISTANCE OFFERED: Victims Assistance was not required. (k)(2) (b)(7)(C)

[redacted]

I called Jordan back and instructed her not to initiate any contact with Aaron, which she said she did not do, but acknowledged my instruction and stated she would not.

EMERGENCY CONTACT WITH PHONE NUMBER: Jordan's phone number is 801-647-9569.

SEARCH AND SEIZURE: There was no search conducted or items seized.

USE OF FORCE: There was no use of force.

CHAIN OF EVIDENCE: There was no evidence collected.

End of report.

OFFICER:Kangas DATE:Thu Aug 12 15:36:45 MDT 2010

NARRATIVE:

I received a written statement from Jordan Poulsen detailing her allegation further that the suspect, Aaron Poulsen, violated the protective order. Jordan reported that she obtained a protective order through Judge Medley's Court protecting her from ongoing harassment and stalking by her husband (Aaron Poulsen). Jordan reported that Aaron blatantly violated the order by calling and texting her after the order had been served. She reported that she recorded several of the conversations in which Aaron acknowledged that he was not supposed to contact her. Jordan further alleged that Aaron had accessed her online work account and left a message stating that she was a "liar". Jordan reported that since this violation of her online work account she had to block the entire state of Utah to prevent him from further online violations. Jordan reported that on August 7, 2010, Aaron entered into a text conversation with her that provided evidence that he violated the no contact order of the protective order. (See statement)

Jordan provided a copy of her call log that indicated that Aaron had called her on August 5, 2010, approximately three times. The following data was listed on the call log:

08/05 05:36 PM	Call Waiting	801-688-0727
08/05 05:47 PM	Call Waiting	801-688-0727
08/05 06:15 PM	Incoming	801-688-0727

Jordan provided a copy of her incoming calls received which indicated that Aaron had contacted her via telephone on 08/05/10 at 6:15 PM and the call lasted for 33 minutes. (See Attachment)

Jordan provided a copy of the text message conversation that ensued between she and Aaron on 08/07/10 at 8:00 AM. The following was represented as a true copy submitted by Jordan:

Aaron: "Last log on july 27th 2010. Liar. Just stop. Scheming me for spousal support jordan. Why? Why are u doing this to me? Anyways i.dunno how that text about kajol got to you. Bye"

Jordan: "Nor do I intend to ask you for any more money. You are already breaking your pockets by paying that whole sixty dollars for your son! Wouldn't want you to go into debt and not be" (The rest of the text is unreadable)

Aaron: "Once again like i said look back to thursday. That's the text i sent you when i thought i couldn't get him ugh. I was asleep at 11:30 last night jordan."

Jordan: "Second, how can you even see if I've been on f4f!? I had Utah blocked because of the last time you were stalking me at work."

Aaron: "Also the cops searched my place yesterday. No drugs, guns or

booze"

I received a certified copy of protective order number 104903778 issued through the Third District Court, which listed Jordan-Lee Poulsen as the Petitioner and Aaron Kent Poulsen as the Respondent. The order was served on 08/05/10 at 4:25 PM by Officer Shannon Coolack. The order contains a Person Conduct Order, Contact for Mediation, and Stay Away Order. Under the Contact for Mediation order it specifies that the Respondent is allowed to have contact with the Petitioner only during court mediation sessions for their divorce or custody case that are scheduled with the Court Qualified Mediator.

[redacted] The officer contacted Jordan and inquired as to Aaron's allegation that she initiated contact. Jordan denied that she initiated contact.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT:

Aaron did violate a valid and properly served protective order when he admitted to contact with the protected party (Jordan-Lee Poulsen) via text message and telephone. [redacted] (k)(2) (b)(7)(C)

ACTIONS TAKEN:

I will submit a copy of this report to the District Attorney's Office for review and screening of charges against Aaron for violating a protective order (DV).

COMPLAINANT RECEIVING HARASSING PHONE CALLS FROM HER ESTRANGED HUSBAND WHICH CAUSED HER TO LOSE HER JOB - CHARGES WILL BE SCREENED WITH THE CITY ATTORNEYS OFFICE FOR PHONE HARASSMENT CHARGES.

1. Type of offense.

PHONE HARASSMENT.

2. Premises (including business name and address).

6170 SOUTH 380 WEST.

3. Relationship between suspect(s) and victim(s).

HUSBAND AND WIFE.

4. Additional information.

I WAS DISPATCHED ON A PHONE HARASSMENT CALL WHERE I WAS CONTACTING MY COMPLAINANT MISS JORDAN POULSEN BY PHONE.

JORDAN INDICATED THAT TODAY BETWEEN 17:30 AND 18:16 HOURS HER SOON-TO-BE-EX-HUSBAND MR. AARON POULSEN HAD CALLED HER CELL PHONE SIXTY-SEVEN TIMES. AFTER HAVING CALLED HER PHONE AND HER NOT ANSWERING ANY OF THE PHONE CALLS, HE THEN ATTEMPTED TO CONTACT HER PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT AND HARASSED SEVERAL OF THE EMPLOYEES AT THAT LOCATION.

JORDAN WAS INFORMED AT THAT TIME BY HER EMPLOYER THAT THEY WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO TOLERATE THE PHONE HARASSMENT THAT THEY WERE GETTING FROM HER HUSBAND AND THAT SHE WOULD NEED TO TERMINATE HER EMPLOYMENT. AS OF TODAY'S DATE/July 21ST JORDAN POULSEN NO LONGER WORKS AT THAT BUSINESS DUE TO THE HARASSING PHONE CALLS FROM MR. POULSEN. HER PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT IS SEAR'S CARPET AND AIR DUCT CLEANING THAT IS RUN BY A COMPANY CALLED MILLER & SONS.

MISS POULSEN INDICATED THAT SHE IS IN THE PROCESS OF A DIVORCE WITH HER HUSBAND AARON AND THAT WAS THE REASON FOR THE HARASSING PHONE CALLS.

I DID NOT HAVE ANY CONTACT WITH THE SUSPECT, AARON POULSEN ON THE PHONE HARASSMENT CASE. I WAS UNABLE TO REACH HIM BY PHONE, AND NO VOICE MAIL WAS ALLOWED TO BE LEFT ON HIS CELL PHONE AT THAT TIME.

I WILL FORMALLY SCREEN THE CHARGES WITH THE CITY ATTORNEYS OFFICE FOR PHONE HARASSMENT AGAINST MR. POULSEN.

I INFORMED JORDAN THAT SHE SHOULD SAVE ALL OF THE CALLS FROM MR. POULSEN ON TODAY'S DATE, THAT IF SHE IS ABLE TO SAVE THOSE ENTRIES IN HER PHONE THAT SHE

SHOULD DO SO, SO THAT WE HAVE THAT EVIDENCE FOR OUR CASE. JORDAN HAD SAID THAT SHE DID NOT HAVE ANY WAY OF COMING TO MURRAY IN ORDER FOR US TO TAKE PICTURES OF HER PHONE WITH ALL OF THE CALLS FROM MR. POULSEN.

I HAVE NO FURTHER INFORMATION ON THE PHONE HARASSMENT CASE AT THIS TIME AND THIS CASE WILL REMAIN ACTIVE.

I called and spoke with Jordan, and she stated that she is upset over losing a job that she loved. She stated that this is not the first time the suspect has done this sort of thing to her. She told me about how the suspect had been texting her coworker earlier in the morning on 7/21/10, and that he has repeatedly called and harassed her boss. She told me that both her boss, Don Miller, and coworker, Tanya Lynch, were providing affidavits to her attorney. She explained that they both know the suspect has been harassing them and others at her workplace since Jordan began working there. I suggested that she send these statements to our office as well -so it can be included in the report. She stated she believes that the harassment, (texts, emails, frequent phone calls) stem from him threatening or wanting to make her "broke, homeless and with bad credit." She explained that it is going to be difficult for her to cover the bills, and she feels that it was definitely intentional to get her to loose her job. She said that several reports have been made with Taylorsville Police, and she said they call them to help out during their custody exchanges. She stated that he has contacted US Customs and Immigration to try and get her in trouble and has threatened to prevent her green card from being renewed. She had explained how she had sought a exparte protective order at one time, but he and his attorney had already filed one the day before, which gave him temporary full custody of their kid for a period of time. She said the order was eventually dismissed. She also stated that the suspect had assaulted her when she was 8 months pregnant, and then she ended up getting cited since they didn't believe her, and the charges were eventually dropped against her. So, there has been a history between them in Taylorsville City that I was not aware of. I told her about the CVR program and that she could try to apply for help with a portion of her wage loss. She stated that she wished she could get some sort of relief order that would help to stop the harassing phone calls to every place she works at, etc. I will forward the information she sends to me to our Detective Sergeant for further review.

I called and spoke with Jordan, and she stated that she is upset over losing a job that she loved. She stated that this is not the first time the suspect has done this sort of thing to her. She told me about how the suspect had been texting her coworker earlier in the morning on 7/21/10, and that he has repeatedly called and harassed her boss. She told me that both her boss, Don Miller, and coworker, Tanya Lynch, were providing affidavits to her attorney. She explained that they both know the suspect has been harassing them and others at her workplace since Jordan began working there. I suggested that she send these statements to our office as well -so it can be included in the report. She stated she believes that the harassment, (texts, emails, frequent phone calls) stem from him threatening or wanting to make her "broke, homeless and with bad credit." She explained that it is going to be difficult for her to cover the bills, and she feels that it was definitely intentional to get her to loose her job. She said that several reports have been made with Taylorsville Police, and she said they call them to help out during their custody exchanges. She stated that he has contacted US Customs and Immigration to try and get her in trouble and has threatened to prevent her green card from being renewed. She had explained how she had sought a exparte protective order at one time, but he and his attorney had already filed one the day before, which gave him temporary full custody of their kid for a period of time. She said the order was eventually dismissed. She also stated that the suspect had assaulted her when she was 8 months pregnant, and then she ended up getting cited since they didn't believe her, and the charges were eventually dropped against her. So, there has been a history between them in Taylorsville City that I was not aware of. I told her about the CVR program and that she could try to apply for help with a portion of her wage loss. She stated that she wished she could get some sort of relief order that would help to stop the harassing phone calls to every place she works at, etc. I will forward the information she sends to me to our Detective Sergeant for further review.

RE: Jordan Poulsen

Dear Ms. Flanders:

Per our conversation on this date, I met with Ms. Poulsen in individual therapy on three occasions in February of 2011 prior to her insurance being discontinued. She reported that her husband, Aaron, was frequently emotionally and verbally abusive, making demeaning remarks about her. Ms. Poulsen also maintained that he physically assaulted her on several occasions. She stated that he abused her while she was pregnant and on one occasion loaded a gun in front of her, which felt threatening. In spite of these episodes of violence Ms. Poulsen indicated that she did not report these incidents to the police "because I was too scared to charge him." Her reports of the abuse have been consistent over the course of therapy. The fact that Ms. Poulsen did not accuse her husband of a greater number of physically abusive incidents suggests that her report is not exaggerated and represents a credible account of what occurred.

In addition, Ms. Poulsen reported a number of symptoms that are consistent with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. She stated that she has recurrent (daily) and intrusive recollections of the abuse which cause her significant anxiety and fear. Ms. Poulsen also indicated that contact with her husband or even the smell of his clothing will trigger these emotions, as well. These symptoms are consistent with her report of having been the victim of abuse.

If you have any further questions in this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

David A. Dodgion, Ph.D.

Re: I-751 Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence with Waiver of Joint Filing
Petitioner: POULSEN, Jordan (A 096 829 525)

To Whom It May Concern,

I am filing the enclosed I-751 Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence on behalf of my client, Jordan Poulsen. Ms. Poulsen entered into a good faith marriage with Aaron Poulsen, but the couple is currently in divorce proceedings because she has suffered from substantial domestic abuse at the hands of her husband. Some of the domestic violence incidents include him dragging her down the stairs through broken glass, physically abusing her while she was pregnant with their child, and pointing a gun at her face.

Ms. Poulsen is seeking a waiver of the joint filing because they entered the marriage in good faith but there has been substantial domestic violence. Although I am also submitting proof of domestic abuse, I understand that we can only check one category for the waiver of the joint filing requirement. I believe that Ms. Poulsen is eligible for both categories, box d. and e., good faith marriage and abuse, specified under Part 2 of the I-751 Petition form.

Enclosed are as follows:

1. G-28 Notice of Appearance as Attorney
2. I-912 Fee Waiver with accompanying evidence

AFFIDAVIT OF JORDAN POULSEN (A 096 829 525) IN SUPPORT OF I-751 SELF-PETITION AS BATTERED SPOUSE OF A U.S. CITIZEN UNDER THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

SPOUSE IS A UNITED STATES CITIZEN

My husband, Aaron Kent Poulsen, was born on September 22, 1981, in Salt Lake City, Utah, and is a United States Citizen.

RESIDENCE IN THE UNITED STATES WITH THE ABUSER

My husband and I resided together in Salt Lake City, Utah from July, 2008 to January, 2010.

GOOD FAITH MARRIAGE

My husband Aaron and I met in or about May, 2008, while I was visiting friends in Maryland. At that time, I was performing volunteer work for a company called Hollywood Music T.V. interviewing bands for its on-line television station. Aaron is in a band entitled Separation of Self. We began an internet courtship. He later invited me to travel to Salt Lake City, Utah, to go on tour with his band and film life on the road for my show. I decided to accept his invitation, and he took money out of the bands bank account and paid for my ticket to fly from Maryland to Salt Lake City.

I traveled to Salt Lake City on July 17, 2008, and my plan was to film the documentary, and then leave Salt Lake. However, we began dating and he asked me not to leave Salt Lake City.

We began living together immediately. We shared a common bond in musical taste and interests, TV shows, and nightlife. We also had an intense physical attraction to one another. I found out I was pregnant January 2, 2009. We decided in March of 2009 to get married and start our family together.

BATTERING AND EXTREME CRUELTY

A few weeks into our relationship, while I was using his cell phone, I noticed texts from him professing to miss his former girlfriend. He had written that he was going through Jessica withdrawals. Jessica was his former girlfriend. When I asked Aaron about the texts, he assured me that he wanted to be with me and that our relationship was, and would be, okay.

A couple of months later, Aaron and I traveled to an event called the Dirt Fest in the desert. Many people drive out to the desert for a heavy metal show. During one of the nights of the show, Aaron disappeared. A friend of mine named Travis and I scoured the terrain looking for Aaron. We found him in the back of a van. I could not believe what I was seeing, so I watched until I knew that I was seeing what I thought I was seeing. Aaron was fondling, groping and kissing another woman. I was angry and yelled at him, asking what he was doing because he has a girlfriend. Aaron told me that I imagined what I had seen. He called me names, including a bitch.

A few weeks later, Aaron and I got into another argument about him speaking to his former girlfriend. Aaron threw my computer across the room and jumped on top of me with his hand on my throat, strangling me. After, he left me there alone and I called my friend, Jadey, who arrived with our roommate, Chris, to console me.

A while after that, I asked Aaron to spend some time with me. He said that he did not wish to spend time with me. This hurt my feelings and he could tell. I was walking down the stairs with a drink in my hand. He said, "FINE! LETS GO THEN," in a very loud voice. Then, he pushed me. almost causing me to fall down the flight of stairs. I immediately walked outside to have a moment to myself to cry. He followed me, snatched the cigarette out of my hand and threw it against the neighbors car. He, then, grabbed me by both of my shoulders and shook me violently, telling me what a horrible person I was.

Aaron and I have had other fights. During some of our fights, the verbal, emotional and mental abuse would be so unbearable I would start to pack my things and begin calling homeless shelters to find a place to stay. Even being homeless would have been better than the severe verbal beatings he would give to me. It hurt more than the physical beatings.

I remember one time that he said such hateful things to me, I was on my hands and knees, at his feet, crying so hard that I could barely breathe and I was begging him to stop. He just kicked me away and said, "Look at you, look at you. You're so pathetic. Look how pathetic you are." Then, he laughed at me. I never will forget. It broke every piece of me.

Somewhere along the way, he broke my spirit like a beaten dog. I began to believe him. I believed him when he said that it was all my fault. The guilt would eat me alive.
He would tell me how terrible I was and how it was no wonder that all my former boyfriends left me because I am such a flawed person. He began to control every aspect of my personality, what was all right to say or do and what was not. Even the way that I chewed bothered him, so I tried to change the way I chewed.

Aaron told me that I deserved to be abused and I began to believe him. Because I believed him, I always went back to him, I always forgave him, even though he never apologized. Aaron told me that he did not need to apologize because he was just saying the truth. In addition, he would say that he would not apologize for being honest just because it hurts you.

I think that people will read this and not understand how someone can be pushed around physically and take it, or be told that they are nothing and take it. To be honest, I do not know why people take it. I took it because I loved him and I wanted him to love me back, to kiss me without being asked, to hold my hand, to snuggle with me at night time, to look me in the eyes and, finally, say Jordan, I love you. I thought that he would change. But, it only got worse.

Eventually, I became tired of constantly being put down and started sticking up a bit for myself. I never should have done that, it almost cost me my unborn child. It only made things worse.

Around September, 2008, Aaron told me that if I did not find a job, he would kick me out. I am a Canadian citizen, and at that time I did not have a work visa in the United States. I ended up having to take a job as a web cam model for customers online. When I got the job, this is the message that I sent to Aaron:

Jordan Stothart-Poulsen - August 21, 2008, 6:25 a.m.

> I do want you to realize that I would never do this if I didnt have the desperate need to give you money. And I am NOT throwing that in your face, Im saying that it is for us, so that we dont have to struggle . . . and so that you arent so stressed out. I just dont want you to worry. I am willing to do what it takes to make sure you dont have that stress. And if this is what I gotta do, this is what I gotta do. I am very uncomfortable doing it, its embarrassing. VERY EMBARRASSING. . . but Ill suck it up I guess. I know you dont like waking up for work at 5 a.m. either, but you do what you gotta do.

From this time forward, every cent that I earned went to Aaron. I gave him my Canadian debit card and he pulled money out and used it how he saw fit as the primary bill payer.

As time went on, I caught him speaking with his former girlfriend, Jessica, several times. Every time I would ask him about it, he would lie. Each time I asked it caused a giant blowout and, of course, it all became my fault and I was attacked.

In December, 2008, we went to Temple Square. I lit a cigarette. I was not aware of this being a sign of disrespect. If I had been, I would not have lit the cigarette. Aaron became very angry with me. We did not speak during the entire train and car ride home. When we arrived home, I sat down, turned on the television and poured myself a glass of wine. He began yelling at me. I tried to ignore him, so he stood in front of the television. I continued to try to ignore him. Then, he grabbed the wine out of my hand and poured it out. He, then, took the rest of the bottle of wine and poured it out while saying, "You f. . .ing bitch. You wonder why no one likes you. It's because you're sloppy. Everyone hates you. I haven't wanted to be with you ever since you got here."

He threw the glass against the table and it shattered all over the living room floor. I, then, went upstairs in an attempt to remove myself from the argument, but he followed me, yelling. He came toward the bed and I covered my head in case he punched me. Instead, Aaron grabbed my right ankle and dragged me off of the bed. My back slammed against the ground and knocked the wind out of me. He continued to drag me. I hit the door frame and began to sob. He told me to shut the f... up and stop playing the victim. He dragged me down two excruciating flights of stairs on my back by holding my ankle. At the bottom of the stairs, he dragged me though the broken glass. I just laid there crying on my side as he told me to get the f... out of his condo. What I did not know at the time, is that I was a few weeks pregnant with our child.

Aaron and I were supposed to go and visit my family in Louisiana three days after this incident. He canceled his plane ticket and I was forced to go alone. He told me that he no longer wanted to be with me. I was so sore physically, mentally and emotionally, that I somewhat agreed to break up.

I went to Louisiana by myself and was surrounded by friends and family, who helped me heal. I had to return to Salt Lake City to pack my belongings and to retrieve my dog.
I arranged for a friend to travel all of the way to Salt Lake City and to drive back with my possessions because I had no car and no license.

When I arrived home, Aaron began his mind control, again. Aaron told me how compatible we are when it comes to sex, how he loves it, how he wished I could stay, and how he cared about me.

On January 2, 2009, I took a pregnancy test. It was positive. Aaron and I talked. He said that he wanted to try to work things out. A few days later, he went to a music convention in Los Angeles, California. He told people that he hated me, that I am a monster, and that he could not believe he had gotten someone like me, pregnant. Three days after I found out I was I already had people sending emails to me informing me that Aaron was saying these things.

Then, I found information on his phone. At the time, he was plotting to send me back to Canada, pregnant, so that I could have the baby alone with free health care. A couple of weeks later, I found a conversation between him and another female named Pamela Redd, with whom Aaron had a previous relationship. He was asking when she was going to come suck his dick, and when she was going to send him more naked photos, among other dirty, immoral and inappropriate things.

I asked him why he was doing this. Instead of an apology, he lied to me. Then, when I provided evidence, he told me to deal with it. He said, now you know how I really feel. Then, he screamed at me as I cried. I began to feel terrible cramps. I thought they would go away. Instead, they got worse. The more we fought, the worse the cramps became, until I was in tears, unable to sleep and throwing up profusely. I asked him to stop yelling at me and to quit putting me down. I asked him to leave me alone if he was not going to help me. He told me what a horrible person I was, that it was no wonder my former boyfriends had left me and that my former husband had divorced me. I begged him to stop and screamed that he was going to make me miscarry. He screamed, I want you to miscarry! I hope you miscarry! Im not the only one who wants you to, either. My mom wants you to miscarry! The baby would be better off miscarried than raised by you!

Aarons torment continued. He stated, I keep trying to get rid of you, but you keep crawling back. You are f...ing pathetic. You only got pregnant to trap me. It got so bad that I tried to get away from him by locking myself in the bathroom. He stood outside the door and screamed at me. I went to three separate rooms in an attempt to remove myself from the situation, but he followed. He punched the other bathroom door when I went in there to throw up. I said, you are being extremely emotionally and verbally abusive to me. I want you to leave me alone. I am going to end up miscarrying." He yelled back, "You deserve to be abused!" This went on all day. Finally, he left that night and I had to call a friend to take me to the emergency room.

In June of 2009, I went through Aaron's phone and discovered that he had been having an internet affair with a woman named Crystal Culbreth. He had been sending photos of his naked penis, and begging her for nude photos. He had also been sending her various pornographic material. He was also talking with her daily about sexual things. When I confronted him horrible an argument ensued. Aaron loaded his handgun in front of me and pointed it directly at my face. He said that he "couldnt take it anymore". He then said he was going to kill himself. He eventually put the gun down and I fled upstairs. He followed me to continue the argument. Instead of arguing and putting the baby in further harm's way by letting him distress me even more, I made an attempt to leave the room. I went into the nursery, and he followed. I again, trying to avoid the situation, went back into the bedroom. He grabbed me by my shoulders and threw me violently onto the bed. He then mounted me sat on my pregnant stomach so that I could not move. He held me down by the skin on my back violently leaving red fingerprint marks and bruises. The look in his eyes had changed. His eyes were evil and cold. I was terrified and in so much pain. I screamed for help, but no one called the police. I was able to break free and try to make a run for the nursery, but he caught me and threw me back on the bed, again sitting on my pregnant stomach in the same fashion. He made an attempt to strike my face, but I was able to block him. In an attempt to free myself from the attack, I sliced my foot on a piece of glass that was on the floor. I was able to reach down and dip my hand in the blood that was spirting out and put it directly into his face for him to see to try and stop his uncontrollable rage. Thinking that he had caused me to miscarry the baby he began to panic and called 911. When the officers arrived, they noted all of my injuries. Because of the evidence and my various injuries, they read Aaron his Miranda rights and placed him under arrest for battering me and nearly killing my unborn child. The officers interviewed me and told me that he was going to jail. By this time his mother had arrived and kept telling me, "He isn't going to be able to go to work tomorrow. He is going to lose his job and you won't have insurance for the baby", and, "You aren't going to be able to get your immigration" and things of that nature. Out of fear, I asked the officer not to take him to jail. The officer explained that in Utah, if there is a domestic violence incident that they have to take one party or the other to jail. He told me that instead of taking

Aaron to jail, he could give me a citation. He asked me to weigh my decision VERY heavily and gave me a moment alone with Aaron's mother to weigh the decision. His mother talked me into taking the charge telling me that "they will just dismiss it in court". I ended up agreeing to take the citation. I pled not guilty and the charge was ultimately dismissed and expunged. I did not feel my baby move for two weeks after this incident. I feared my child had been killed from the attack. We went to therapy the next day and he admitted to all of this. Directly after this incident, Aaron was upset about something and we got into an argument. I went into our bedroom to try to avoid the situation. Aaron put his head through the entire bedroom door, I have a picture of the bedroom door. When I looked at him, I said "What is wrong with you?" He replied, "fear is the only way to get through to you! It's the only thing you understand!"

The fight ensued, and I began to feel terrible cramps. He continued yelling. It got so bad that I was forced to go to the hospital. Aaron had caused me so much stress from the attack in June and the abuse following, that it sent me into pre-term labor. I had to stay in the hospital while the medical personnel tried to stop the labor and contractions. Two days after I was released from the hospital, Aaron, again, was communicating sexually with his former girlfriend, Jessica.

In a desperate attempt to save our marriage, I went to both personal counseling and marriage counseling with Julie Stout. We also attended counseling with Todd Dunn. Aaron quit going to marriage counseling saying "It's not me that has the problem".

During another incident, my son was in the hospital for three days with a blood infection. Aaron also chose to stay those three days in the hospital. While I was asleep, Aaron went through my phone and became jealous over messages between a male friend and myself. He stood over me and punched at my face. He leaned close to me and said "no one would ever f*cking know!" At that moment I hit record on my phone and have him recorded telling me punching at my face is quote "justified because you're such a bitch". My son saw and heard the entire incident and, as you can hear in the recording, is distressed. Later in the recorded conversation he says, "You're going to look like a gold digger." I said, "You know that's not true", to which he replies, "Yeah, but I'm going to MAKE you look like a gold digger who married me for a green card. And it's panning out to look pretty good because I've already been to immigration." This recording is transcribed and can be found submitted with these documents.

There were several other instances of abuse that occurred. Most of the time I did not call the police out of fear because Aaron not only had guns, but also told me. "I know people who can have you taken care of", and, "I'll just call immigration and tell them you married me for a green card and I'll be rid of you and have Kajol. My mom and I will raise him."

Through my entire pregnancy, I was extremely ill with hyperemesis. I was bed ridden. Aaron constantly would harass me about cleaning the condo, even though I was unable physically.

On September 17, 2009, I gave birth to my son. As soon as he was born, they put him on my chest. All I could say was, I just had a baby! and Hes perfect!" Aaron told me that he did not really have any feelings after eighteen hours of labor and that the only thing he really felt was happy that it was all over because he was tired. He said. I thought I would feel more than I do. He did not cry or smile when he saw our son. After a baby is born, the skin is purple for a few moments. Upon seeing this Aaron began accusing me of sleeping with a Latino.

After the delivery, I was in a great deal of pain. I struggled for weeks. I ripped my stitches and had no muscle control over my bladder. This lasted about seven weeks and I still struggle with this. Aaron took off from work for two weeks to help with the baby. At that time, he did a good job. I was in so much pain, I could barely roll over in bed. After he went to work, everything went downhill.

Aaron believed that because he was back to work, I should be responsible for cleaning the entire condo and caring for the baby. He would not listen to reason or hear that I was hurt. I just could not do it all. The average time for a woman to heal after giving birth is six weeks. It took me longer. The day that the six weeks expired, Aaron began harassing me to go back to work and would not stop until I finally give in despite the pain and agreed to try.

Aaron made me work nights, 8:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m. His mom would take the baby on Wednesday night so that I could work. Aaron would sit downstairs while I worked and the baby slept on Friday through Sunday nights. Then, I would have to stay up with the baby all day, again, through the week while he worked. I never slept. I nearly went mad from sleep deprivation.

Aaron did not care how I was doing, and he hardly ever helped me. Despite my cries for help, Aaron was not emotionally available to me. As soon as it seemed he was interested, I would find out another lie he had told, or about another female he had romanced.

During this time, Aarons mother, also, started in on me, saying that I needed to be on medication, accusing me of sleeping all day and partying all night. I didn't party. I was breast feeding and could not drink, except on special occasions and when I had pumped and stored enough milk, which was not often.

It was a struggle to get Aaron even to hold the baby at home. Eventually, when our son was three months old, Aaron told me that he was not bonding with our baby. He said that perhaps, when our son became five or six years old, he would bond with him because then they would be able to communicate and do things together. Aaron, also, said that he wasnt ready to be a full time father or husband and maybe when he was thirty-five to thirty-six years old and his band was finished, he would be ready to "settle down."

It breaks my soul when I have to hand over the child that I carried, birthed and cared for every single day to an abusive drug dealer, who literally has said that he is going to teach his son how to deal with cunts like me. Aaron constantly yells at me when we are with Kajol. He does not care that this will and does affect our son.

Finally, in this regard, Aaron sells marijuana, and I've seen it. I did not know this until I had moved to Salt Lake City, Utah. I do not want my son around drugs.

Aaron and I separated at the end of January, 2010. Throughout our marriage, Aaron held my immigration status and green card over my head stating things like, "I'll have you f*cking deported and you'll have to leave your own son here. I'll have full custody soon." He's also stated, "Go ahead and tell people I sell pot. No one will believe you and then I will just call immigration on you". Also "Shut the f*ck up or I'll call immigration and tell them you only married me for a greencard". Also via text he stated "I've gone to immigration. Sh*t is coming when you reapply that you have no idea about. Good luck getting to stay here." In another incident on February 2, 2010, I was forced to call the police on his mother, who assaulted me in an attempt to take my child. During the incident, I had a major panic attack and was rushed to the hospital unable to breathe and with a heartbeat of 165. Because I had called the police (despite him threatening me that "if you ever call the police I will have you taken care of"), he text messaged me this:

"From Aaron at Feb 4, 2010 20:35 :

And if u really want to be difficult I can make a call to uscis tomorrow. My lawyer does immigration too. So lol yourself.

Send To Aaron at Feb 4, 2010 20:36 :

You keep saying "you can move and I'll just see the baby" so why don't you just go with that? You know you can't raise him by yourself

From Aaron at Feb 4, 2010 20:36 :

We had a deal until you went all drama queen jordo tonight!!!!! So uncalled for with the cops and fire and rescue. Omg. Drama queen.

Send To Aaron at Feb 4, 2010 20:36 :

Go ahead. No judge is going to let a mother leave the country without her child. And there is a condition to my green card that says if you threaten me with it I can keep it

From Aaron at Feb 4, 2010 20:37 :

You can't raise him by yourself!!! And your mom? Good luck with that. Poor Kajol.

These text messages are saved.

Aaron controlled every aspect of my life. My money, my friends, and where I went. If someone stuck up for me, he either scared them away with violence towards me, or manipulated them into thinking I was crazy. I had no one. I was so alone. I became very depressed.

In March of 2010 I was hired at Sears Carpet & Air Duct Cleaning. From day one Aaron was out to sabotage the job for me. He would call in pretending to be a customer asking if I were working to "see if I was lying about being at work". I took several calls from him myself in which I recognized the phone number and answered, he would ask for me and when I asked what I wanted he would then say "Just making sure you're at work and not lying". We were not even together! I did file a report against him in Murray, UT regarding the harassment at Sears. I eventually lost my job with the company because of this sort of behavior from him. It was at this point, when Sears accepted a resignation, that I decided I had had enough and pursued a protective order.

I was forced to go back to my job online as a webcam model, and to this very day, Aaron Poulsen constantly stalks me at work, taking photos to "prove that I'm working" despite orders to stay away from my work places. He has also stated that he films me with video recording software while I am at work. I have a text of him saying this saved.

Aaron and I are currently in divorce proceedings, and it has been a battle. In May, 2011, Aaron tried to get the protective order against him dismissed, but the judge did not allow for it to be dismissed and I won the case to keep the protective order permanent. Aaron has violated the protective order on several occasions and faces charges stemming from these violations, yet has not ceased in trying to resume control over me, which is a common trait of an abuser. Aaron has threatened to "have me taken care of" several times. He was especially threatening when he found out that I had told my attorney that he is a pot dealer and mentioned where he gets his marijuana from. Aaron has his mother call my friends, family, and speak to my third party during child exchanges in order to find out personal information about me, such as "When I'm home alone during the day" and "what times I sleep during the day seeing as I work nights". My friend, Kristen McNinch audio recorded this conversation. Two friends have had to write police reports because of Aaron's mother's constant harassment. Sara Poulsen (Aaron's mother) is working in Aaron's behalf. I believe that he is gathering information about when I am home alone so that he can physically assault me (or worse) without fear of getting caught. I live in daily fear of Mr. Poulsen. I make sure that my doors and all windows are locked at all times, and my neighbors have been informed to call the police if he is seen. Mr. Poulsen STILL has guns in his home despite it being a Federal offence to have one and has been recently charged by the police.

GOOD MORAL CHARACTER

I have never hurt anyone and try to live my life as a good person with morals and family values. The only incident in which I was cited by the police was the incident that is mentioned above.

In August of 2010 I converted to the LDS faith and am now a devout Mormon. I have quit smoking cigarettes and never drink. I attend church every Sunday for 3 hours, and participate in almost all church activities that are held after church hours. I read scripture daily with my son, and by myself. I am an active member in my community in helping others through the church and on my own. I have also made it my mission to help other battered women cope with their traumas. I currently attend the West Jordan Victim Assistance Program support group for battered women at the local police station. I am also in counseling for Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder directly related to Aaron's abuse. The only time I have had problems with the law is the incident mentioned above. I am trying to move on from this and I want to give my son a good life.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and accurate.

Dated this 6th day of July, 2011.

Between You and Aaron-Kajol Kent Poulsen

Aaron-Kajol Kent Poulsen June 2, 2009 at 6:40am Report sorry to bug ya about this, the CC is getting pretty bad :(gonna need your help bad.

some charges havent even shown up yet and its getting high, so more charges are sure to show up soon and put it further in debt...

I also spent $96 on debit in LA and i know atleast $160 in cash :(

i need to regroup from this trip and my next check will be small.. (i need to pay [illegible] $95 and my [illegible] $50 (i still have [illegible] to sell)..

so we will see how things pan out....wel are pretty darn broke right now thank you... love you

cya soon

I should be your best friend. The one you tell everything to. The only one you trust completely and vice versa.
Instead I'm the one you hide shit from.

I dont want to be one of those wives that has to investigate everything because I cant trust my husband and that is exactly what you are forcing me to become and I hate it. I just want to be able to trust you... and I was starting to be able to and things were going well. I was really starting to trust you. Now Im just back to square one and I am crushed. My heart is broken.

Anyway, my point is that the fact that I told you about it says a lot about my character.
The fact that I respect you enough to do that regardless of weather you get mad at me or not. (Even though I shot him down and told him that yes, I would tell you).
The fact that I told you something like this is telling about me.
It says I won't hide anything from you weather its big or small dude.

thats a MAJOR MAJOR MAJOR MAJOR think an ex asking me how i am doing and me telling her how happy i am is waaaaaaaaaaaay different one of my freinds eh? i doubt i have any real "friends" that would do that.

I shot him down.

lawren-sent me pics to get on my nuts.... those pics should have been deleted the moment you and i were together.... I HAD NO INTEREST IN HER, SHE WAS THE POSTER CHILD OF SLUT jon, jenny, TS- was th biggest mistake i made. At the time i was mad as hell at you just liek you are with me, saying anything and everything that makes you feel better as long as it something negative to vent about me.... i vented to the wrong people... BIG MISTAKE.

pam- was innocent sexual jokes, since thats how our relationship is... was inapporporiate and a mistake on my part to think that having a relationship like that with a girl is ok.

amanda- she contacted me and i told you

pam- she contacted me and i told you

jenny- contacted me and i told you

crystal- asked for types of porn i thought would make her friend eric disgusted, i sent a reply with pic of two pornstars that i like and said " this is all i am into" she replied with attached pics of herself... i did not reply to that... should have came to you about it... i no longer talk to her... you asked if i have talked to her and i said "only through threads and posts she has commented on"

jessica- contacted me last night for the 1st time since sept. asking how i was.. i said i am happy and and everything is going great, i am excited to be a dad and things are good, she said i am glad things are going good for you, i said u too.... didnt want to start drama with you cause i felt it was a damned if i do damned if i dont situtation. should have told you right away like pam and jenny.

you say i put my hands on you like whip- ouch, i may have tossed you on a bed but through you through a 2 story window is extreme... i am nothing like that and would never doa anything like that to you... last night proved my self control, it was about to get bad like on fathers day....

you say that i am no better than will and he betrayed you once and you left... he betrayed you and then you married him and moved to cali, thats not leaving someone after finding out they actually fucked someone else... i would never ever ever ever ever ever ever KISS, TOUCH, FUCK, OR LET SOMEONE BITCH OF ANY KIND TOUCH ME OR DO ANYTHING SEXUAL TO ME WHILE IN A RELATIONSHIP... i have had that happen to me FOUR TIMES... i know how bad the feels... so i am nothing like will, nothing..

as far as jake, i am no where near as phsychologically fucked up like he is... his lies were far worse than anything i have said to you.... and you said you think he cheated on you on tour, we wants to watch vince fuck you, he fucked an underage teen... i am nothing like that.

so for you to say i am the worst man you have ever been with is extreme... i have done everything in my power to make a difficlut tricky situation as easy and gving as possible (your green card, a place to live, clothes, food, trips to see your family etc) i do everything i can to make you happy.

sorry i with held imformation that is crucial that you need to know about every woman in my life that talks to me.... i guess thats where you and i are different, i dont care who you talk to, who flirts with you, who send you racy comments cause i trust you through and through 110%... even after you still talked to jason after i asked you not to and i found out (and yes there were 2 times i found out where you didnt tell me) i did not flinch... i did not go ballistic.. i used to be like that when i was 23.... i know you wont cheat on me in anyway... and i will NEVER CHEAT ON YOU in anyway.

sorry i lied AGAIN.... all i know is that things could be worse than me just not telling that i told an ex that i havent spoken to in almost a year how happy i was with. i could have been like the low fucks that you were with before, cheating, lieing about MAJOR SHIT, throwing you through windows.

i am sorry this journey has been rough, i am sorry.. i am doing what i can.. but i guess what i think is best is not....

so i dont know what to do from here..

i know we have been through some shit... this rough journey is almost over.... our lives ar about to get so much easier and i am sorry for hiding that text from jessica from you....

all i can say is i thought it would be best to avoid a fight is i handled on my own and told her how happy i was with you..

sorry

I have asked you so many times for the truth. I've asked you what else you are concealing. I've asked you what else are you doing behind my back... you continuously tell me "Nothing" yet more shit keeps coming to light.

Just fucking come clean dude. At this point I don't think I could feel any more dead inside - so just spit it all out now.

Aaron - you should have DELETED HER when you said you did last September. You said you had deleted her... you lied to me.
Then, when she messaged you - BEFORE REPLYING BACK YOU SHOULD HAVE TOLD ME and we should have discussed it and talked about the best way to approach the situation and how to handle it.
The fact that you concealed her name with an alias tells me a few things. First, it tells me you didnt care how I felt over the matter (even though you were sooooo sorry over it). Second, it tells me that you had every intention of keeping in touch with her regardless of how much it hurt me. "What Jordan doesn't know wont hurt her". And finally third, that you have been talking to her under this alias for quite some time. All the evidence points to exactly that. Sorry, but I don't believe that you haven't talked to her since last September.

Right now, my main concern isn't you or our marriage or where it's going... my main concern is the baby and how bad he is literally freaking out and how sick I feel.

you are right, i should have been straight forwarf and said "jessica asked me how i am doing, and i rubbed in her face how happy i am" i swear on my dads grave, last time i heard from her was sept 22nd, 2008 "happy birthday", "thanks"......

so i need to know what you want to do...you sound set on it being "over", what that intells i have no idea... so you are wanting to divorce?

You did lie. You said you would come to me honestly with things that you knew I would want to know about such as Pam, or Jenny, or Jessica, or Amanda, or anyone or anything else that needed to be honestly addressed in our marriage instead of hidden, lied about etc.
You KNEW the secrecy and things going on behind my back is THE major thing that crushes me, and yet you continue to do it anyway.

I'm sorry Aaron. I want to believe you... but I just can't believe someone who lies to my face.

You broke my heart and have risked the baby due to stress.

I would have respected you more if you would have done what you said and deleted her when you said you did.
I would have respected you more if you would have come to me and said "Jessica messaged me".
We went over that in therapy and you swore you would come to be honestly if Jenny/Pam etc messaged you. Another lie.

I want to believe you. I do...
but this is just one too many times that you have betrayed my trust.
You have done 99% of this shit (Jenny/Pam/Jessica/Crystal) while I've been pregnant with our son. Which is the worst part.

I have been through more trying to carry our son than in any other relationship emotionally.

It's terrible to know that I've let you do this to me this many times because I loved you so so so so so much. I put up with more from you than I did with Will after 6 years of being together. He betrayed my trust ONCE. ONCE. And I was gone and he never saw me again.
You have now betrayed my trust in major ways more than a handful.
Whip put his hands on me twice and I left and moved miles away, you've now gotten away with it three times... One major time while I was carrying our precious son.
Jake treated me like shit... and I ended up leaving his sorry ass. Yet you treat me like shit, and I've stayed out of love because I thought you would really change and honor me and become a good husband.

I am ashamed that i have allowed myself to be treated this way. I am even more ashamed that I've allowed our son to be inside me and feel the stress as I am being treated like this.

I want to believe that you love me, but I also know from experience with liars (Jake, Will, Whip) that it's easy for a liar to look into my eyes and say "I love you" and then turn around and break my heart. You've joined them in doing that repeatedly, which is what you have in common with them. My heart can't take any more. Its so fucking shattered. I'm so hurt.

so once again i ask you, what are we doing... are you wanting a divorce? answer... you are done with me, that established.... so what now? divorce? i dunno what you want.

You don't think I know why you took the password off the Myspace on your phone? You don't think I know why you delete texts after you get them? You don't think I know that you delete certain Facebook messages you know I'll get hurt over? "

-i have nothing to hide on my browser on my phone.. zero porn has been viewed by these eyes as per your request.

-i did not take my password off of myspace. i told you that when i switch from sos to my personal it will not save the password : k56765676 myspace password, knock yourself out

-i have been deleting texts since day one i got the phone... too many stored texts = slow ass motherfuckin iphone..... i did however delete jessicas 1st text and my 1st response last night as to avoid a fight... i have the biggest fear of fighting with you over ANYTHING you dissaprove... i guess i am more chill on stuff like that since i know the bigger picture is our family and not petting shit like telling an ex that i am happy as hell with the woman i love and then hiding it from you... i sincerely apologize.

- the only facebook messages i have deleted are the ones of jenny and jon

First off, I would like to say that I am NOT down for moving out and continuing this relationship.
I feel as though moving out is taking a step back instead of a step forward, and even if I moved out and we kept dating we would just be working towards taking the next step which is moving in together anyway. So I dont want to do that. I would be extremely unhappy.

Things I find wrong in our relationship:

Disrespect - Eventhough jokes are okay sometimes, there are some things that I find innapropriate and that hurt my feelings. Please mind what you say to me, treat me as a partner and someone you care about. Someone who is for the most part really good to you.
We should both equals, and have equal importance in the relationship but I feel as though your opinion and judgements are weighed with more conviction than mine are.
Every day, say something nice to each other. We all need to hear words of affirmation, compliments, and to know that we are loved.

Underappreciated - I know that you say "thank you" when I bring you your food, and cook for you, but I do that out of respect for you and I don't feel as though I get the same respect back. When I get up, I offer you something to drink etc... when you get up you get something for yourself and dont offer (That is just an example, not a big deal - but it has undertones of underappreciation.) Ask if I need help with anything. Ask how my day was for once.

Doesnt let me be myself - I have changed a lot to become a better person, but I feel like it is never enough......................................

Communication! - You say that I dont listen to your points or "get it" but I do. I am allowed to have my own opinion on things, even if it doesnt match yours. I feel as though as soon as I disagree with something you say, and try to give my view on things you say "We are going in circles. You arent getting it!" and if I still dont agree you say that Im back peddaling. I listen to you, and I deserve the same respect.
A lot of times I can't find the words to tell you how Im feeling because I feel as though you are judging me and already picking apart my words before they even leave my lips. And once Im done talking, that is exactly what I feel you do. I cant continue to feel like that.
If we have a disagreement, we need to find a solution, A COMPROMISE, instead of just fighting. You get aggrivated with me, and then I end up leaving the situation. Instead of the negative word slinging and trying to make me overly see your point, we need to throw solutions at one another.

Small things that could be talked about and worked out are a level ten threat.

Unable to express emotion - If you have a feeling, an emotion, or a thought about us or the relationship - I should be the first one to know about it. We should be able to communicate whats going on in our minds and hearts. How are we supposed to know how the relationship is going for the other person if we dont talk about it?
I think there needs to be a set time, once a week, where we sit down for a half hour to an hour and just talk about things that are going on in our lives in a friendly atmosphere without condescending attitudes. Stresses, things that we want changed, what we can do to change them..

Way of handeling and dealing with things - This is not just in our relationship. Pent up anger eventually overflows. So I think the sit down time is really important so that an overflow of anger never happens.

Steps to a healthy sitdown:

1. Communicate.

The first thing you need to do is to sit down and talk to each other, without interruption and distraction. Furthermore, this conversation should be conducted in a calm and friendly atmosphere, without recriminations or anger. Between the two of you there needs to be a list made of all that you think is wrong with your relationship, irrespective of how insignificant individually you think these issues are. Similarly, a list of all the good points must also be noted, as these give you and your spouse something to build upon as you start the rebuilding process, if that is the choice you have both made.

2. Share feelings and emotions

Often it is difficult to share our feelings and emotions, even with those who are closet to us but, if you want are determined to sort out a troubled relationship, this needs to be done. Unless your boyfriend/girlfriend is aware of how you really feel it is unfair to expect them to be able to change or react in a positive way. Sharing is an integral part of the relationship and, as far as feelings and emotions are concerned, both people should be able to express themselves openly on these subjects.

3.Listen

A side of communication that many people do not pay enough attention to is listening. Whilst it is true we may hear the words that our partner is saying, how many times are we actually concentrating so hard on worrying about our response that we fail to hear the underlying message? There is a tendency to be defensive rather than constructive in such situations.

In a position as serious as trying to save a troubled relationship, we each need to listen attentively to what is being said, without interruption and, if possible, without taking offence at what may appear to be criticism. Only by listening carefully can we fully appreciate what is concerning our partner and then be able to analyse how we can best address those concerns. Only by taking this approach, and learning to truly listen, can we uncover all of the problems and move forward.

4.Make a plan

Once you have sorted out and understood all of the areas of difficulty within your relationship, from both peoples point of view, the next step is to make a plan, which will provide a forward path to resolve your problems. This plan will include details of how you are going to change things and what these are. It may include something simple like agreeing to spend one night a month dedicated purely to each other and the relationship, away from the pressures of everyday life. Alternatively, it could be a more complex issue, with one or other of you needing to be more accommodating in certain areas.

Whilst it is appreciated that mapping out a plan for your relationship might seem a little unromantic, it is necessary if you wish to save the relationship. After a while, once you find that it is having a positive effect, it will become second nature and you will enjoy the benefits, romantic and emotional, that the plan achieves.

5. Keep monitoring.

Having made the initial commitment to solve your problems by sitting down together and discussing them, the final piece of advice is that you should maintain this process throughout the future. There is no point in fixing the problems for today only to find that in a few months time either the solution is not working or other problems are occurring and you had not noticed. Make it a habit to monitor the relationship health. There is a need to continue these conversations about your relationship on a regular basis as this will keep you both close, in a good state at all times.

If both of you are committed to the above solutions, then there is no reason why your relationship should not weather the storm and come out the other side stronger, happier and more loving, and remain that way in the future.

Simply broken down

Step1
Separate complaints, which can be destructive, from constructive criticism, which you can learn from and build upon.
Step2
Understand your spouse's emotional needs. Listen to what your spouse is saying, but also try to understand why he or she is saying it.
Step3
Learn to communicate nondefensively and nonaggressively. Presenting facts or feelings in a neutral manner helps avoid escalation.
Step4
Stay calm and be direct. Be truthful with your spouse and with yourself. What are you really feeling?
Step5
Keep studying those first four steps. Practice makes perfect. And perfecting your marriage is worth all the practice you can put into it.

You live life beyond your PC. So now Windows goes beyond your PC. See how

On 6-22-2009, at 2:54, I responded to a family fight/domestic violence in progress detail, at 4515 South 1175 West #67. Sergeant Judd also responded, for back up, and assistance purposes. (k)(2) (b)(7)(C)

[redacted]

I located Jordan in the upper level bedroom of the home. Jordan was bleeding from a laceration on her foot, and reported that she was 28 weeks pregnant.

I immediately requested that Unified Fire Authority (UFA) personnel respond, and assess Jordan, and the unborn baby's medical conditions. While waiting for UFA to arrive, I requested that Jordan explain what had occurred.

Jordan stated that she, and Aaron had been verbally arguing, in regards to her suspecting that he was being unfaithful to her. Jordan stated that she attempted to get away from the argument, and entered into the couples bedroom. However, Aaron followed, and the verbal argument continued.

Jordan stated that during the verbal argument, she threw a glass tumbler that was sitting on the night stand, which struck the couples clothes dresser, and broke. According to Jordan, she then attempted to leave the bedroom, and was physically restrained by Aaron.

Jordan then explained that she was able to "break free" from Aaron, and enter into the other upper level bedroom, "in an attempt to get away from the argument". But again Aaron followed her.

When Jordan returned to the couples bedroom, she stated that Aaron again physically restrained her, and in an attempt to free herself from him, she stepped on a piece of broken glass, causing the laceration on her foot.

According to Jordan, when Aaron noticed that she was bleeding, he immediately called 911.

When I asked Jordan if she was injured beyond the obvious laceration to her foot, she stated that she did not believe so. When I asked Jordan to explain how Aaron had restrained her, she stated that he grabbed her around the torso, held onto her, threw her on the bed, and sat on her.

I did locate several red marks on Jordan's left side, which appeared to be consistent with finger marks, and being physically grabbed.

When UFA personnel arrived, I exited the bedroom to allow them to perform their assessment, and exited the residence to speak with Aaron.

(k)(2)
(b)(7)(C)

[redacted] I returned to the residence with my digital camera, and requested that Jordan complete an official witness statement. She also agreed.

It should be noted that Jordan refused transport to the hospital, and was released by UFA.

While Jordan completed her statement, I took digital photographs of the dresser, where it was struck by the glass tumbler, and of the broken glass on the floor. When I requested that Jordan allow me to take some photographs of her injuries, she began to question me, in regards to what was going to occur.

I explained to Jordan that Aaron accused her of throwing the glass at him, which she denied. Jordan then stated "don't you think I would have hit him with it, if I had thrown it at him?" Jordan then requested that I take no police action, and stated that she just wanted Aaron to leave her alone.

I explained to Jordan that because the altercation was considered a domestic violence situation, that Utah law was very clear on how the situation needed to be handled.

Jordan immediately became concerned that if Aaron was charged, he would loose his job, and their health insurance. She also expressed concern that if she was charged, she would likely not receive the legal immigrant status she was waiting for.

During our conversation, Jordan refused to allow me to photograph her injuries, and stated "I am not going to give you anything to use against either of us in court".

Because I determined that the throwing of the glass was the initial, and primary act of physical aggression, Jordan was issued citation #S1061764, for domestic violence assault. (k)(2) (b)(7)(C)

[redacted]

Because neither party was booked into jail, I did not issue a no contact order. However, I suggested that the couple allow each other time to calm down, and suggested that they not speak until the following day.

The digital photographs will be copied to a CD, and booked into Salt Lake County Evidence under this case number. The original witness statements will be placed into the report submission box, for scanning into the system.

No further information.

End of report.

Case Status: Closed, and completed.

TYPE OF REPORT (Documentation, Screening or Arrest): This is for documentation.

TYPE OF DOMESTIC INCIDENT (Verbal, Physical): This is a violation of a protective order.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN SUSPECT(S) AND VICTIM(S): The suspect, Aaron Poulsen, is the husband of the victim, Jordan Poulsen. Aaron and Jordan are in the process of being divorced.

CHILDREN (Names, Ages, Location): There were no children involved.

NARRATIVE: I was dispatched to a protective order violation. I made contact with the complainant, Jordan Poulsen, by telephone and found Aaron had called Jordan on 08/05/2010 at approximately 18:00 hours, which is two and a half hours after being served with the protective order. Aaron then made at least two more phone calls between 08/05 and 08/06/2010. On 08/07/2010, Aaron sent Jordan 10 text messages between 07:31 and 08:00 hours.

Jordan also advised that Aaron has been able to identify when she is online and working. Jordan says her company put a block on her work computer for calls coming from Utah. Jordan says Aaron has a floating IP address, which gets around the company's block.

INJURIES: There were none reported.

WITNESS STATEMENTS (From Whom): There were no witnesses.

WAS VICTIMS ASSISTANCE OFFERED: Victims Assistance was not required.

(k)(2) (b)(7)(C)

[redacted]

I called Jordan back and instructed her not to initiate any contact with Aaron, which she said she did not do, but acknowledged my instruction and stated she would not.

EMERGENCY CONTACT WITH PHONE NUMBER: Jordan's phone number is 801-647-9569.

SEARCH AND SEIZURE: There was no search conducted or items seized.

USE OF FORCE: There was no use of force.

CHAIN OF EVIDENCE: There was no evidence collected.

End of report.

NARRATIVE:

I received a written statement from Jordan Poulsen detailing her allegation further that the suspect, Aaron Poulsen, violated the protective order. Jordan reported that she obtained a protective order through Judge Medley's Court protecting her from ongoing harassment and stalking by her husband (Aaron Poulsen). Jordan reported that Aaron blatantly violated the order by calling and texting her after the order had been served. She reported that she recorded several of the conversations in which Aaron acknowledged that he was not supposed to contact her. Jordan further alleged that Aaron had accessed her online work account and left a message stating that she was a "liar". Jordan reported that since this violation of her online work account she had to block the entire state of Utah to prevent him from further online violations. Jordan reported that on August 7, 2010, Aaron entered into a text conversation with her that provided evidence that he violated the no contact order of the protective order. (See statement)

Jordan provided a copy of her call log that indicated that Aaron had called her on August 5, 2010, approximately three times. The following data was listed on the call log:

08/05	05:36 PM	Call Waiting	801-688-0727
08/05	05:47 PM	Call Waiting	801-688-0727
08/05	06:15 PM	Incoming	801-688-0727

Jordan provided a copy of her incoming calls received which indicated that Aaron had contacted her via telephone on 08/05/10 at 6:15 PM and the call lasted for 33 minutes. (See Attachment)

Jordan provided a copy of the text message conversation that ensued between she and Aaron on 08/07/10 at 8:00 AM. The following was represented as a true copy submitted by Jordan:

Aaron: "Last log on july 27th 2010. Liar. Just stop. Scheming me for spousal support jordan. Why? Why are u doing this to me? Anyways i.dunno how that text about kajol got to you. Bye"

Jordan: "Nor do I intend to ask you for any more money. You are already breaking your pockets by paying that whole sixty dollars for your son! Wouldn't want you to go into debt and not be" (The rest of the text is unreadable)

Aaron: "Once again like i said look back to thursday. That's the text i sent you when i thought i couldn't get him ugh. I was asleep at 11:30 last night jordan."

Jordan: "Second, how can you even see if I've been on f4f!? I had Utah blocked because of the last time you were stalking me at work."

Aaron: "Also the cops searched my place yesterday. No drugs, guns or booze"

I received a certified copy of protective order number 104903778 issued through the Third District Court, which listed Jordan-Lee Poulsen as the Petitioner and Aaron Kent Poulsen as the Respondent. The order was served on 08/05/10 at 4:25 PM by Officer Shannon Coolack. The order contains a Person Conduct Order, Contact for Mediation, and Stay Away Order. Under the Contact for Mediation order it specifies that the Respondent is allowed to have contact with the Petitioner only during court mediation sessions for their divorce or custody case that are scheduled with the Court Qualified Mediator.

[redacted] [redacted] Jordan denied that she initiated contact.

ACTIONS TAKEN:

I will submit a copy of this report to the District Attorney's Office for review and screening of charges against Aaron for violating a protective order (DV).

- ☐ a. Pay $ ______ / month in child support.
- ☐ b. Have child support withheld from the Respondent's earnings. (Utah Code § 62A-11, Parts 4 and 5)
- ☐ c. Pay $ ______ / month in spousal support.
- ☐ d. Pay 50% of the minor children's childcare expenses.
- ☐ e. Pay 50% of the minor children's medical expenses, including premiums, deductibles and co-payments.
- ☐ f. Pay $ ________ for the minor children's medical expenses related to the abuse and $ ________ for the Petitioner's medical expenses related to the abuse.

12 TNA ☒ Other Assistance Needed (List below any other orders needed to protect you and other protected people listed on page 1 of this form): Appointment of GAL. This Protective Order should not negatively impact Respondent's individual ability to travel.

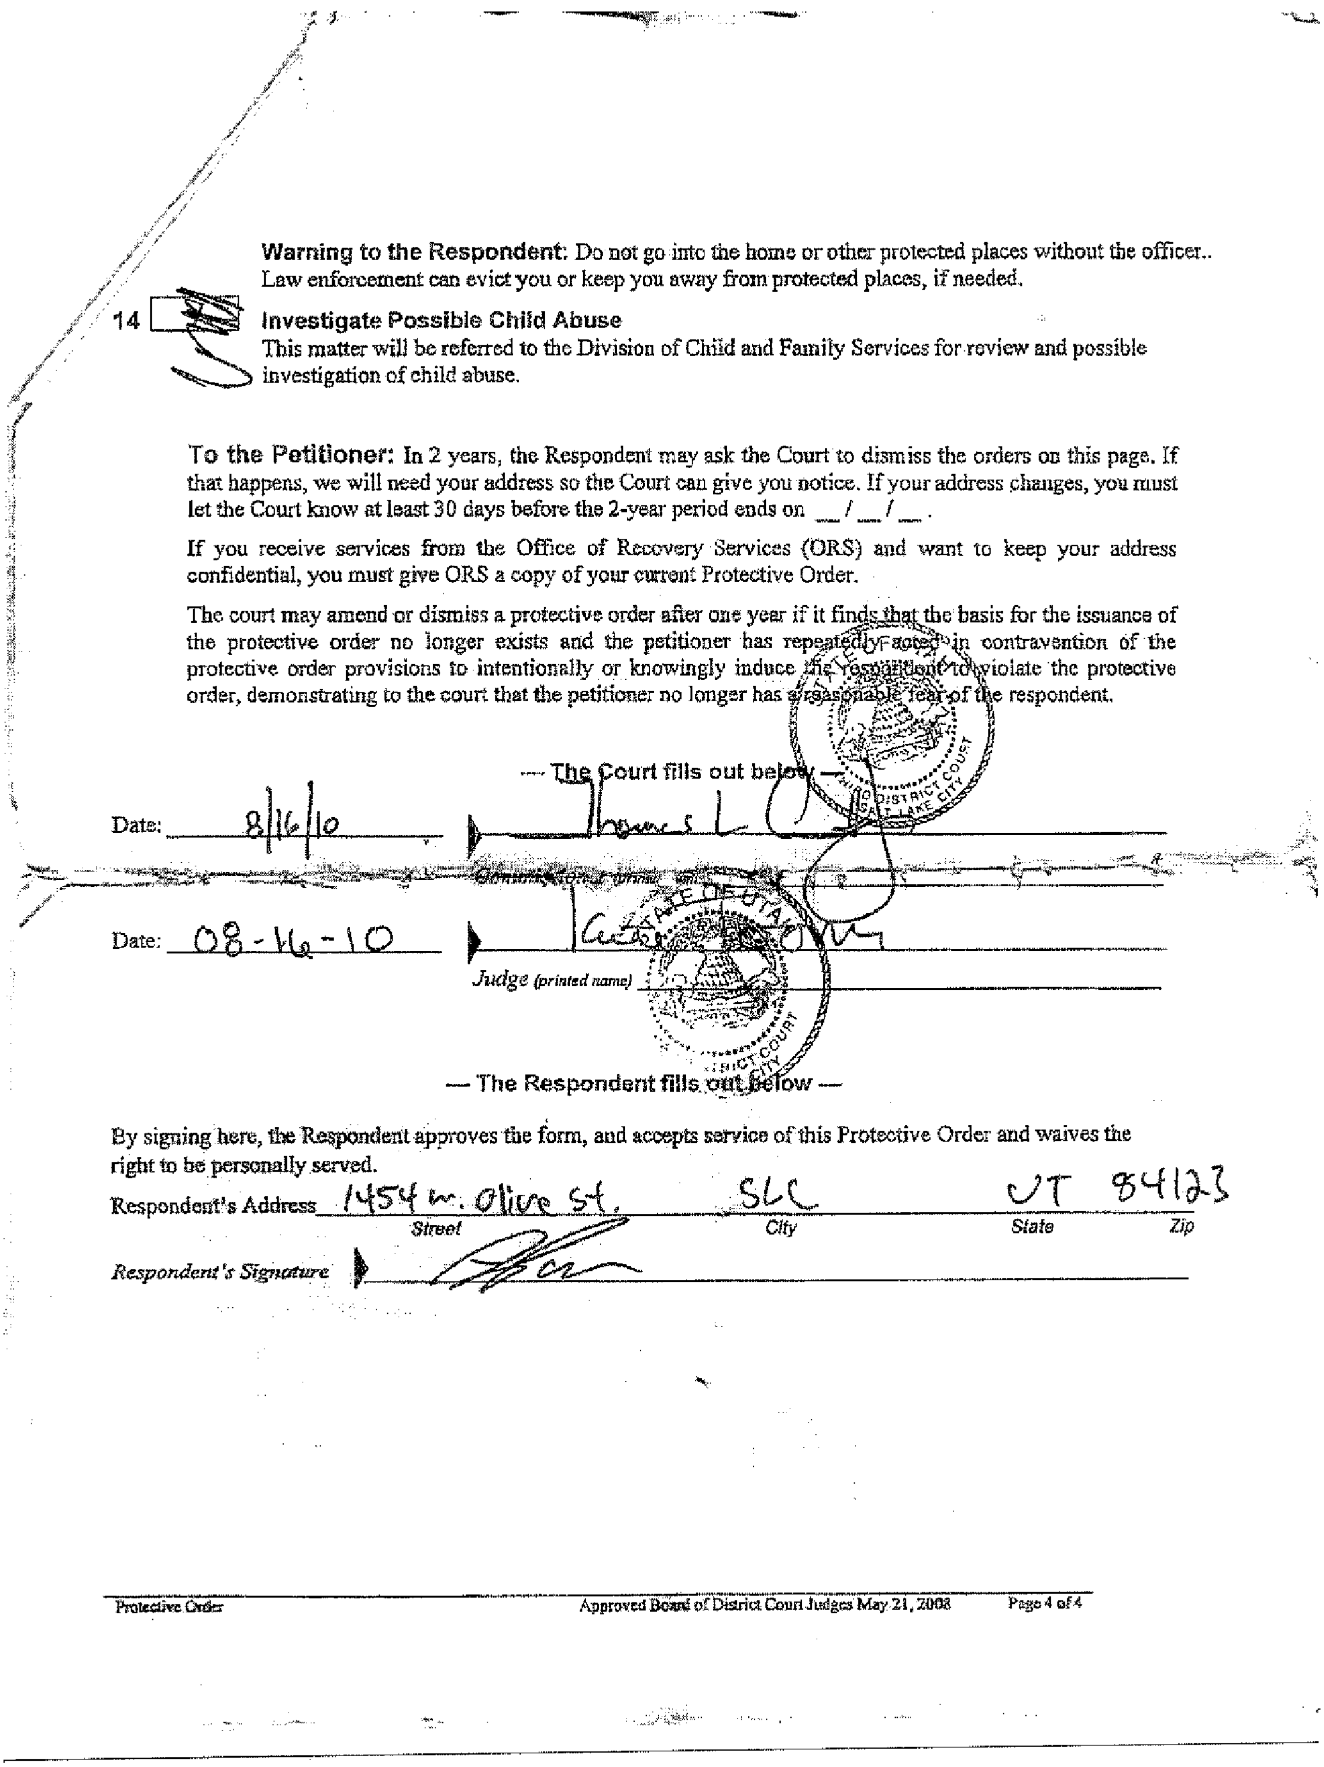
Orders to Agencies

13 TNA ☒ Law Enforcement to Assist A law enforcement officer from: ______________ will enforce the orders checked below:

- ☒ a. Help the Petitioner gain and keep control over home, car or other personal belongings.
- ☒ b. Help the Petitioner obtain custody of the children.
- ☒ c. Help the ☐ Respondent or ☒ Petitioner remove essential personal belongings from the home.

"Essential personal belongings" means daily use items, such as clothing, medications, jewelry, toiletries, financial or personal records solely in one person's name, or items needed to work at a job or go to school.

Protective order Pg.4.jpeg



Warning to the Respondent: Do not go into the home or other protected places without the officer.. Law enforcement can evict you or keep you away from protected places, if needed.

14 ☒ Investigate Possible Child Abuse
This matter will be referred to the Division of Child and Family Services for review and possible investigation of child abuse.

To the Petitioner: In 2 years, the Respondent may ask the Court to dismiss the orders on this page. If that happens, we will need your address so the Court can give you notice. If your address changes, you must let the Court know at least 30 days before the 2-year period ends on __/__/__.

If you receive services from the Office of Recovery Services (ORS) and want to keep your address confidential, you must give ORS a copy of your current Protective Order.

The court may amend or dismiss a protective order after one year if it finds that the basis for the issuance of the protective order no longer exists and the petitioner has repeatedly acted in contravention of the protective order provisions to intentionally or knowingly induce the respondent to violate the protective order, demonstrating to the court that the petitioner no longer has a reasonable fear of the respondent.

Attorney for Jordan-Lee Poulsen

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY

STATE OF UTAH

JORDAN LEE POULSEN,

Petitioner,

vs.

AARON KENT POULSEN,

Respondent.

VERIFIED RESPONSE TO MOTION TO VACATE PROTECTIVE ORDER

Civil No. 10493778

Honorable Tyrone E. Medley

Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

Petitioner, Jordan-Lee Poulsen, respectfully requests that this Court deny the Motion to Vacate or Dismiss the Protective Order filed by Respondent, on such grounds as follow:

1. Jordan-Lee Poulsen ("Jordan") obtained a protective order against Aaron Kent Poulsen ("Aaron"). She did so because she is terrified of him.

2. Aaron has been physically, verbally, and emotionally abusive to Jordan.

3. Aaron has admitted to physical abuse of Jordan.

4. Aaron's continued and present assertions that he has not abused Jordan is a continuation of the abuse, a typical attempt at manipulation and quest to regain some control over Jordan. These all are typical common traits and tactics used by abusers.

5. Aaron is "upset" because Jordan reported Aaron's violations of the protective order. This is not a reason to vacate or dismiss the protective order.

6. Aaron violated the protective order.

7. Aaron called Jordan the day that he was served with the temporary protective order. The conversation is recorded. In the conversation, Aaron admits that he is not supposed to be calling Jordan. He knows the protective order is in place, he calls her, he knows he is not supposed to call her, but he does it anyway.

8. Aaron's sole basis for his motion to vacate or dismiss is his allegation that Jordan is reporting his violations, and thus, causing him legal and other difficulty. All Aaron has to do is stop violating the protective order.

9. Contrary to Respondent's assertions, Jordan has suffered from significant physical, emotional and verbal abuse, is terrified of Aaron and needs the continuation of the Protective Order by this Court.

10. Currently, Jordan and Aaron are involved in divorce proceedings, entitled Poulsen vs. Poulsen, Civil No. 094905182, Third Judicial District Court in and for Salt Lake County, State of Utah ("divorce proceeding").

11. On or about March 23, 2010, Jordan filed an Affidavit in the divorce proceeding. A true and correct copy of the Affidavit is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by this reference.

12. Jordan's Affidavit details significant physical and verbal abuse by Aaron, including the following:

a. Aaron throwing his computer at her and jumping on top of Jordan with his hand on her throat;

b. Aaron pushing Jordan and causing her to fall down a flight of stairs;

c. Aaron violently shaking Jordan;

d. Aaron grabbing Jordan's right ankle and pulling her off the bed, slamming her on the ground and dragging her;

e. Aaron elbowing Jordan in the chest;

f. And other instances.

13. In addition, on March 23, 2010, Jordan filed an Affidavit of Travis Montgomery. A true and correct copy of this Affidavit is attached hereto as Exhibit "B"

14. In his Affidavit, Travis details verbal, emotional and physical abuse by Aaron to Jordan, including:

a. Calling her names;

b. Throwing Jordan out in the hallway naked, slamming the door and locking it;

c. Verbally putting Jordan down and assaulting her;

d. Telling Jordan that she deserved his treatment;

e. Telling Jordan, "I hope you have a miscarriage and everyone else does too.";

f. Having internet and other sexual relationships while Jordan was pregnant;

g. And other instances.

15. In addition, Travis corroborates Jordan's assertion that Aaron smokes and deals in marijuana, which Aaron has denied.

16. Travis testifies that Aaron offered marijuana to Travis and showed the marijuana to him. Also, that Aaron told Travis the drug sale proceeds paid for his rent.

17. In this regard, Aaron has posted statements on face book demonstrating that he sells and does drugs. See documents attached hereto as Exhibit "C" and incorporated herein by this reference.

18. In one of these screen shots, Aaron states: "I have had 6 calls for herb [marijuana] and I will be out until Tuesday."

19. There are many others.

20. In addition, Jordan has a video of Aaron's marijuana stash. That video has been emailed to opposing counsel and is available for demonstration to the Court.

21. An Affidavit of Rachel Franklin is attached hereto as Exhibit "D" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

22. In her Affidavit, Rachel notes that Aaron told her he sells marijuana.

23. In addition, Rachel discusses the abuse suffered by Jordan, the verbal abuse by Aaron's mother to Jordan, the disparaging remarks on face book by Aaron's mother about Jordan.

24. Rachel, also, details the verbal abuse that she witnesses by Aaron toward Jordan, and Aaron's controlling nature and attitude.

25. Finally, Rachel adds: "Aaron has dragged Jordan by her foot and gave her a black eye and then made her travel alone the next day, all the way to Louisiana for Christmas."

26. Another Affidavit filed on behalf of Jordan, was executed by Tawnya Lynch, a co-worker and previous landlord for Jordan, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "E" and incorporated herein by this reference.

27. Again, Aaron admitted to Tawnya that he was physically, emotionally and verbally abusive to Jordan.

28. Tawnya saw a text from Aaron where he stated that his goal was to leave her "broke and homeless with bad credit".

29. Tawnya details how Aaron would not leave Jordan alone. He constantly would text her and call her, even at work.

30. In fact, Aaron called Jordan's work just to find out if Jordan was there.

31. Finally, Tawnya references Jordan's fear of Aaron. She recites one instance when Jordan was living in the condominium that had been shared by her and Aaron. Jordan and Tawny were out. Aaron text Jordan and told her that he and his mother were at the condo throwing away her belongings and that they were going to change the locks. Jordan and Tawnya stopped what they were doing and Jordan called the police. She wanted the police to meet her at the condo because she did not feel safe even showing up at her own home.

32. Tawnya states: "Bottom line, he admitted to me that he abused her, he made her days stressful and caused her to not be able to stay focused at work, he doesn't think he needs to do anything at all for her or his son when it's not his time to have Kajol, he has tried to make her think that he best friend has turned against her and left her abandoned (which is manipulative and abusive behavior), and purposely makes every single day a struggle for her. Evan after being served a protective order, his threats did not cease."

33. As stated above, Aaron has admitted to having physically abused Jordan. A screen shot is attached hereto as Exhibit "F" and is incorporated herein by this reference. Therein, Aaron and Jordan are having a written conversation as follows:

Jordan:

> I already have proof that you've been physically abusive in the past, Aaron. So technically I already have that .. It's already justifiable.(Sigh.) Once again, there is NO WAY I CAN ABUSE the agreement just because I "simply feel like it". I would have to have PROOF.

Aaron:

> I have touched you like 3 times yo.... and the last time I vowed to never do it again (that one was the worst ever and a huge slap in the face)... its been two months...give me some credit on that....I know its wrong...

Jordan:

> If you want to be there for the birth, and around me after the birth, I need to feel comfortable and secure with you. I need to trust the person helping me birth our son. I need to be able to trust in you. There isnt much time, and this > is the only thing I can think of that will give me the reassurance quickly. There isnt enough time for you to build up trust on your word alone. It is going to take a LONG time for you to do that.

> Sign the paper saying you wont lie / womanize / be abusive.
> That is all I want.

(Emphasis added).

34. Aaron attaches texts and makes accusations regarding sexual contact between he and Jordan. He seems to assert that this demonstrates that Jordan made up all of this information and was not afraid of him.

35. First, Aaron provides the documentation out of context and does not include all of his sexual requests and responses.

36. Second, this is a married couple, who are trying to resolve their problems.

37. Jordan wanted to resolve their issues so they could be a family. Aaron and Jordan went to see two counselors, Julie Stout, L.C.S.W., and Todd Dunn, Ph.D. for family therapy. Aaron admitted to both counselors that he had abused Jordan.

38. It certainly is not unusual for an abused woman to attempt to reconcile with her husband and to participate in sex as part of that hoped for reconciliation. In fact, it often is part of the abuse cycle. The abuse happens. The couple makes up. The abuse happens again.

39. On July 21, 2010, Aaron called Jordan's cell phone sixty-seven (67) times. Jordan, ultimately, lost her job because of Aaron's harassment and her inability to deal with the anxiety and emotional distress caused by Aaron's conduct.

40. Jordan finally gained some strength and pursued the protective order. The Temporary Protective Order was entered on July 30, 2010.

41. Just prior to that time, on July 27, 2010, Jordan received a text message from Aaron stating "if u have one moment can u call me? I have a question. Will only take 10 seconds. If not no, worries." To which Jordan responded by asking if it was about the baby. In addition, Jordan sent an email to Aaron telling him that she did not want to speak with Aaron unless there was an emergency with Kajol, and stating: "I do not wish to have you anywhere near my residence." A true and correct copy of this email is attached hereto as Exhibit "G" and incorporated herein by this reference.

42. Since the entry of the Temporary Protective Order, Jordan has actively participated in group therapy with a domestic violence group. She has sought out information on abuse.

43. In addition, Jordan has converted to the LDS Faith, has quit smoking and never drinks alcohol.

44. Jordan participates in the West Jordan Victim Assistance Program support group for women who have bene in an abusive relationship. Attached hereto as Exhibit "H" and incorporated herein by this reference is a letter from the coordinator of the group regarding Jordan's participation.

45. Further, Jordan was seeing a therapist, Dr. Dodgion, who has determined that Jordan exhibits symptoms of Post Traumatic Stress Syndrome ("PTSD") from her memories of the abuse by Aaron. Dr. Dodgion reports that Jordan has been consistent and reliable in the information that she has provided to him about the events. In addition, she exhibits great anxiety and fear of Aaron.

46. Dr. Dodgion has authored an opinion, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "I" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

47. Jordan is terrified of Aaron and has good reason to be. This Court awarded a protective order, which protective order should remain in place.

48. Aaron was served with the Temporary Protective Order on August 5, 2010.

49. After he was served, Aaron called Jordan. Aaron stated as follows: "My bottom line for calling you, and I'm sorry for bothering you "cause I'm not supposed to". (Emphasis added.) Aaron is violating the protective order and he knows he is violating it.

50. A true and correct copy of the transcript of this telephone call is attached hereto as Exhibit "J" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

51. This is not the only violation of the protective order committed by Aaron.

52. Attached hereto as Exhibit "K" and incorporated herein by this reference is a screen shot showing that Aaron called Jordan three (3) times on August 5, 2010, after being served with the Temporary Protective Order.

53. In addition, on August 7, 2010, Aaron sent texts to Jordan, including admissions that he had been on her work web site. A screen shot of some of this texting is attached hereto as Exhibit "L" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

54. Also, Aaron attached pictures taken of Jordan, from her work web site, after the entry of the Protective Order. Again, in violation of that Order.

55. Jordan was working on a web site entitled Flirt 4 Free. She had blocked the entire State of Utah to keep Aaron from stalking her at work because he had been doing so. Yet, Aaron used a decoy web tool to get onto her site and take pictures of her in violation of the protective order.

56. In his vengeance and further attempts to demean Jordan, Aaron uses Jordan's work as a club with this Court.

57. Aaron fails to mention that he, also, has worked for these sites. That he entered into a contract, worked unilaterally on the site, and as a couple on the site. Videos of Aaron continue to be available on the site.

58. On August 13, 2010, West Jordan Victim Assistance Program, West Jordan Police Department, faxed a police report to counsel for Jordan. Attached hereto as Exhibit "M" and incorporated herein is a true and correct copy of the police report.

59. This police report indicates that Aaron called Jordan on August 5, 2010 at approximately 6:00 p.m., two-and-one-half hours after being served with the protective order. In addition, Aaron made at least two more telephone calls to Jordan between August 5 and August 6, 2010. Finally, the report notes that Aaron sent to Jordan ten text messages between 7:31 and 8:00 a.m.

60. The police reports states as follows:

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT:

> Aaron did violate a valid and properly served protective order when he admitted to contact with the protected party (Jordan-Lee Poulsen) via text message and telephone. Aaron acknowledged that the contact did occur; however, disputed that he initiated the contact.

ACTIONS TAKEN:

I will submit a copy of this report to the District Attorney's Office for review and screening of charges against Aaron for violating a protective order (DV).

61. One of the August 5, 2010 calls was previously referred to herein. The transcript demonstrates that Aaron initiated the contact and that he knew he was violating the protective order.

62. Not only has Jordan been abused by Aaron, but also, Jordan believes that her son is being abused. Please see photographs attached hereto as Exhibit "N" and incorporated herein by this reference.

63. Jordan consistently uses the police for parent time exchanges because of her terror. Aaron's mother has contributed to her fear and to the continuation of this cycle. Jordan objects to Sarah Poulsen providing care for her son. Jordan is entitled to a first right of refusal to care for her son while Aaron is at work. This first right of refusal was requested and agreed to by Aaron and his counsel.

64. In addition, Jordan does not have a driver's license, although she is working to obtain one. Further, she does not have a vehicle. Jordan has obtained the assistance of many of her friends, church companions and others for parent time exchanges. Most of these women have children of their own who interact and have play dates with Kajol after the parent time exchange. There is no reason to preclude her use of anyone who is willing and able to provide this assistance, particularly when the police are involved and Jordan is involved in every parent time exchange.

65. Jordan insists that Aaron be available when he picks up Kajol because he often has been at work and Sarah Poulsen provides care for Kajol until Aaron gets off work. Jordan should be able to provide for her son until Aaron gets off from work.

66. Jordan is not responsible for Aaron's attorneys fees or costs incurred herein.

67. Aaron, however, should be responsible for the attorneys fees and costs incurred by Jordan, particularly regarding the protective order actions, the need for representation in the criminal prosecutions and charges against Aaron and in this matter, all in excess of $30,000.00.

68. Aaron has abused Jordan physically, emotionally, verbally. He continues to attempt to gain back control over Jordan. She is desperately trying to change her life and to provide for her son. This proceeding is a continuation of the abuse by Aaron. It needs to stop.

69. The Motion to Vacate the Protective Order must be denied.

I already have proof that you've been physically abusive in the past, Aaron.. so technically I already have that...it's already justifiable.

Sigh. Once again, there is NO WAY I CAN ABUSE the agreement just because I "simply feel like it". I would have to have PROOF.

Aaron-Kajol Kent Poulsen August 26, 2009 at 4:[illegible]pm Report

i have touched you like 3 times yo..?? and the last time i vowed to never do it again (that one was the worst ever and a huge slap in the face)... its been two months... give me some credit on that..... i know its wrong...

Jordan Stothart-Poulsen August 26, 2009 at 4:24pm

If you want to be there for the birth, and around me after the birth, I need to feel comfortable and secure with you. I need to trust the person helping me birth our son. I need to be able to trust in you. There isnt much time, and this is the only thing I can think of that will give me the reassurance quickly. There isnt enough time for you to build up trust on your word alone. It is going to take a LONG time for you to do that.

Sign the paper saying you wont lie / womanize / be abusive.
That is all I want.

RE: Jordan Poulsen

Dear Ms. Flanders:

Per our conversation on this date, I met with Ms. Poulsen in individual therapy on three occasions in February of 2011 prior to her insurance being discontinued. She reported that her husband, Aaron, was frequently emotionally and verbally abusive, making demeaning remarks about her. Ms. Poulsen also maintained that he physically assaulted her on several occasions. She stated that he abused her while she was pregnant and on one occasion loaded a gun in front of her, which felt threatening. In spite of these episodes of violence Ms. Poulsen indicated that she did not report these incidents to the police "because I was too scared to charge him." Her reports of the abuse have been consistent over the course of therapy. The fact that Ms. Poulsen did not accuse her husband of a greater number of physically abusive incidents suggests that her report is not exaggerated and represents a credible account of what occurred.

In addition, Ms. Poulsen reported a number of symptoms that are consistent with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. She stated that she has recurrent (daily) and intrusive recollections of the abuse which cause her significant anxiety and fear. Ms. Poulsen also indicated that contact with her husband or even the smell of his clothing will trigger these emotions, as well. These symptoms are consistent with her report of having been the victim of abuse.

If you have any further questions in this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

David A. Dodgion, Ph.D.

Re: Ms. Jordan Poulsen

To Whom It May Concern:

Ms. Poulsen has been attending on a regular basis since July 2010 the West Jordan Victim Assistance Program support group for women who have been in an abusive relationship. This group meets regular once a week. We have classes on the Dynamics of Domestic Violence, Boundaries, Conflict Resolution, PTDS and self-esteem. Ms. Poulsen has been working hard to resolve some of her issues she has had because of her past relationship. She has been participating with the other class member and has gained some understanding of these dynamics. She states she is still fears about having any contact with Mr. Poulsen.

Please contact me if you have any questions regarding Ms. Poulsen at 801-566-6511.

Sincerely,

Diane B. Greaves, Coordinator

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this affidavit on behalf of Jordan Poulsen. I met Jordan mid-March 2010 when she started working with me at Sears Carpet and Air Duct Cleaning. It seemed that from the very beginning she was very proud of herself for trying to do something to get her life in order and do what was best for herself and her son. I realized very quickly that this is not at all what Aaron wanted. I do realize that this is a document that needs to be based on fact, so I will do my best to keep my personal feelings of the situation out of this. The very first week of Jordan working with me, Aaron called into the office to make sure she was at work...like he didn't believe that she even worked there or something. Other office staff members have also received calls from Aaron asking for information on Jordan basically stalking her at work. I heard from my manager that he had even acted like he was a customer who had been working with Jordan to try to get transferred to her. Another fact, the very first time I had a chance to talk to him long enough to say anything other than "hi", he flat out told me that he KNOWS he was an asshole to her throughout their entire relationship. I need to add in here that the only reason I even talked to him in the first place was because he was threatening Jordan with Child and Family Services for NO REASON! He was saying that it was because she wouldn't answer his questions about where she was staying. I'm sorry, but that is NO REASON to threaten to call Child and Family Services...especially since there were no grounds for it. Kajol was safe and happy and there was no reason for Aaron to be concerned. His main concern, so he says, was whether or not Kajol had his own room with his crib and I advised him that yes, he did. She was living in my home at the time because she had no place else to go thanks to him and his tricks, which I will get into later. She had told me that the main reason she didn't want him knowing every detail about her residence was because she was afraid of him trying to sabotage it....like he DID end up trying to do once he found out the tiniest little bit of information. Once I heard that he was going to try to punish Jordan by bringing MY FAMILY into his little game, risking her place of residence, I was not about to go for that! I sent him a long string of text messages telling him how I didn't appreciate him dragging my family into the crap he was trying to pull, and in the middle of me sending the messages he called me. He said that if I wanted to talk about it, we would talk but he wasn't going to do the texting back and forth bullshit. He said that after the way he treated her, he cannot understand why she stayed around like she did, that he did it on purpose to try to get her to leave but she wouldn't. He said that he never even liked her, and got sick to his stomach when he found out that she was pregnant with his child. He said that he didn't even want a child at all at that point in his life, but to have one with someone he absolutely HATED made him sick. The whole time of course I'm thinking to myself what a scumbag this guy is to even be taking advantage of and having sex with someone he claims to have never even liked! He said that he found himself being a person he didn't even recognize and admitted being physically, emotionally and verbally abusive to her...anything he could do to get her to go away. He said that when he found out she was pregnant he tried to get her to go back to Canada to have the baby so she could have the free healthcare because he didn't want to have to get married to put her on his insurance....and basically never come back. That's what he wanted. He told me that she was a nobody, never has been anybody, and has spent her life mooching off of one person after another and that was all she would ever be good for (supposedly trying to warn me). He told me that she just needed to disappear from Kajol's life and that would make everyone happy and everything better. He said "What she needs to do is just move back to Canada where she belongs and leave Kajol with me because she's nothing and never will be anything". I replied to that statement by telling him how I know first hand what a great mom she is, and that he has no right to say that she doesn't deserve to have her son because HE doesn't think she's worth anything. He sloughed what I said off like he didn't even care. He was completely degrading her to someone he didn't even know...someone that cares about her, almost as if he was trying to turn me against her so she would have no one. I did read a text one time that he had sent her that said his goal was to leave her "broke and homeless with bad credit". After having that conversation with Aaron, I told Jordan that I did not want my family or myself drug into anymore of the drama with her and Aaron. I told her to let him know that he better not bring me or my family into it again because I didn't want to be any more involved than I already was by offering her a place to stay. I told Jordan that I did not want any contact with Aaron, though I felt it was necessary for them to go through a third party for all contact, even that involving Kajol. I did not save his number in my phone because I had no desire to have any contact with him. Jordan has been very afraid of Aaron getting into my head throughout our whole friendship. She said he has slowly manipulated and caused friends to desert her in the past and she is afraid that he is going to do the same thing with me. He has went so far as to threaten her with that recently. I had posted a comment as my Facebook status regarding how sick I was of "a friend's ex" (Did not mention his name) saying that it wasn't his parent time when his child needed him and that as far as I was concerned it was ALWAYS your parent time once you're a parent. I had seen texts and heard him when she had him on speaker phone saying "I don't know Jordan, you figure it out, it's not my parent time and I'm not the low life loser who doesn't have a car or a license to get my son the places he needs to go." In his attempt to hurt and degrade her all he is doing is hurting his innocent son! The next day Aaron text messaged me, despite me telling Jordan just months earlier to tell him that I didn't want any contact with him, telling me that he wished I would get all of the facts about something before posting things on Facebook about it. Aaron is NOT a friend of mine on Facebook...neither are any of his friends. In order for him to know that I said ANYTHING in particular on my Facebook he would have had to have been stalking my page...and most likely Jordan's too because he has commented on things she has said on hers before. A conversation struck up and despite the fact that I had asked Jordan to tell him not to contact me, I text messaged him back because I felt the need to tell him how I felt about the stress he was putting Jordan and Kajol under. I voiced my concern to him about how if the animosity does not stop now it was going to ruin Kajol's life, because I believe it will. The very first message I sent back to him started out something like "Jordan is going to be pissed if she finds out that I'm replying to your message, but there are some things I need to say about the situation".

I told Jordan immediately that Aaron had sent me a message, and also told her when I replied. I was correct, she WAS VERY UPSET that I was talking to him because she ended up being right and all it really did was give him something to upset her with. Later he sent another message saying, "Hmmm...I thought you didn't want her to know that we were talking" which I replied with, "No, I never said that I didn't want her knowing, I said that she would be mad about it". I explained to him that I have nothing to hide from her because she is my friend. He said that she had been telling him that he was putting my job at risk by texting me at work and I told him that she was correct, we are not supposed to be texting at work. He did not send me any further messages, but continued the battle with Jordan, trying to make her feel like I had betrayed her by making comments like "See, even your friends side with me". I do not remember what all of the text messages that I received from him that day say because I was at work, he was sending long messages that were getting broken up into several messages, Jordan was freaking out that I was talking to him and there was just a lot going on. I handed my phone to Jordan and told her to feel free to read everything that was said because I had nothing to hide from her. She took my phone and read the messages, gave my phone back to me and I was planning on reading them over again later after work but my phone deleted my entire inbox so I was not able to. I remember one of the long strands of messages he sent was talking once again about how she was crazy as I was skimming through the messages. Once again, trying to bad mouth her to me in an attempt to turn me away from her into his secret ally. That also goes back to the "Hmmm...I thought you didn't want her to know that we were talking" comment. He said that like he was disappointed that I wasn't talking to him behind her back. He continues to this day, sending her text messages and calling her saying that I'm playing her and that I'm not really her friend. She had recorded him saying this to her, and I never told him that I was on his side, it is just his way of trying to scare her into thinking she's alone and worthless like a typical abuser does. Trying to get her to doubt our friendship and try to make her feel like I don't care about her and that is the farthest thing from the truth. The day prior to the texting back and forth between Aaron and myself, Jordan was late picking the baby up because we had gotten slammed at work and she was there finishing some things up with me so we could leave. Aaron was calling her phone repeatedly, she answered it one time telling him that she was still at work but was hurrying as fast as she could to get out of there so to stop calling her. She told the other office girl and myself that if the phone rang and it was his number not to even talk to him, and that she didn't want to talk to him because she was trying to hurry and get her work done so she could leave. Her phone kept ringing constantly, he was hanging up and then re-dialing over and over again. .Then, the office phone rang, it was his number. I answered it and said the Sears greeting pretending that I didn't know it was him and he hung up.

Both he and his Mother tried making Jordan think that I was playing sides from the very beginning. There was a time when I would drop Kajol off in the mornings after taking Jordan to work and between Aaron's mom's house and the office....a 5 MINUTE DRIVE...they would already have started something outrageous! I would barely even talk to his Mom, and next thing I know, Jordan's getting text messages saying stuff like, "Oh wow, Tawnya gave my mom some good info to use against you in court! lol! you're going down!". I would get back to the office and Jordan would be freaking out on me demanding to know exactly what was said because of the threatening text messages she'd been getting. This of course made it impossible for her to concentrate and focus throughout the day because it would start off with Aaron harassing her from the very beginning of the day! One time in particular, the only thing that was said between his mom and myself was her apologizing for me having to drop Kajol off at her house instead of her picking him up at our work, telling me about the conversation that she HEARD had taken place the night before and all I said was, "I know, I heard everything...and it's ok, I don't mind dropping him off.". That was one of the times that by the time I got back to the office, they had turned everything around and tried to make Jordan think I was against her.

It just goes to show how Aaron is always trying to play mind games with Jordan, make her feel insignificant and then right when she snaps or has had enough, he uses it against her to try to make it look like SHE'S the crazy one! I've seen this happen with several of my friends who have been victims of abuse....and more personally with my own Mom. Throughout the time I've known her it has been an EVERYDAY thing....EVERY SINGLE DAY there is SOMETHING going on where she has been upset by Aaron. She had trouble focusing at work because she would go to lunch and check her phone messages and it was always something with Aaron upsetting her. I had told her several times that when he does this, to ignore him....and DON'T respond. That of course is easier said than done because if she did ignore him he would say something that he KNEW would get her riled up. She was, and still is constantly having to call her lawyer because he's always up to something new. I heard her on the phone with both the IRS and the Department of Workforce Services everyday for almost 2 weeks trying to figure out how she could resolve the fact that Aaron had forged her signature electronically and stole her portion of the tax return. I HEARD THE GUY WITH THE IRS TELL HER THAT HER NAME WAS SIGNED ON THE PREVIOUS YEAR'S TAX RETURN. He stole money that was rightfully hers whether he believed that was the case or not! That reminds me that in our first, and last, phone conversation he told me that she had come into the marriage with nothing but a box of stuff and she needed to get over it and leave with nothing but a box of stuff. When she tried getting on assistance for daycare, she kept running into different difficulties because of Aaron lying to them about different things when he applied previously. His lying to them made it more difficult for her to follow the normal procedure. Once again...she had the guy from DWS on speakerphone and he was saying that Aaron was saying that they were already legally divorced...which is a LIE. He LIED to the government to get on assistance before she had a chance to. Then, he harassed her and tried to make her feel like a bad mom when she didn't have a response from DWS right away! He knew that by lying to them it was going to make it more difficult for her! Going back to her not having a place to live because of him...he had told her that she could stay at their Condo which they had lived in together, and he moved in with his mom. Jordan did not feel safe at the condo and would get very depressed when she was there because of the history the place had. One time her and I were hanging out after work and he text her and told her that him and his mom were at the condo throwing her belongings away and that they were going to change the locks. We stopped what we were doing and Jordan called the police to meet us there so that she would feel safe even showing up to her own home. Jordan and the police officer talked for a while and he said that he had remembered coming there before one time when Aaron and his mom had broken into the condo and tried to take Kajol from Jordan using force. How is she supposed to feel comfortable staying there by herself with the baby with him making lunatic moves like that at random? That is why she was staying with me in the first place so when he tries to pretend like he is Mr. Nice Guy by letting her stay at the condo when he moved to his mom's, that is only an act to try to make himself look good. I could continue on with this for pages and pages just in the short time I've known Jordan but I think the basis of my point has been made. Bottom line, he admitted to me that he had abused her, he made her days stressful and caused her to not be able to stay focused at work, he doesn't think he needs to do anything at all for her or his son when it's not his time to have Kajol, he has tried to make her think that her best friend has turned against her and left her abandoned (which is manipulative and abusive behavior), and purposely makes every single day a struggle for her. Even after being served a protective order, his threats did not cease. I was placed on the protective order because Jordan was living with us, I did not know what he was capable of doing considering he had admitted to abuse and becoming someone he didn't even like when he was around her, I wished to have no further contact with him and was sick and tired of his threats of just showing up at my house demanding that we show him around or threatening us with Child Protective Services when there was never a basis for it. I did not want him driving by to see if Jordan was still there while my children are playing outside alone and being afraid because they know what he drives and what he looks like. I don't know that he would ever try to hurt me or my kids, but I've seen some text messages that reflected him being capable of scary behavior. I know that all Jordan ever wanted was a family, and all she wants now that she has a home of her own is for Aaron to have Kajol when it's his time, be a Dad and leave her alone.

If there are any questions about anything that has been said in this please feel free to contact me.

AFFIDAVIT OF RACHEL FRANKLIN

Civil No. 094905182

Honorable Kate A. Toomy

Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

STATE OF VIRGINIA)
:ss.
County of)

I, Rachel Franklin, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am over the age of twenty-one years and am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from me personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, I could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. In the past year, I have been witness to my friend Jordan Poulsen's destructive marriage.

3. From the time I met Arron Poulsen ("Aaron") he has been controlling over every move that Jordan makes. Seeing her after she was with him for a while was like seeing a different person. She changed because Aaron did not like the person she was. Aaron was very rude and verbally abusive toward Jordan.

4. When we were talking about coming to visit Utah, Aaron told me that he has marijuana and that he sells it out of his home.

5. One time on the phone, Jordan told me about Aaron putting marijuana in a condom and putting it in his anus to smuggle it on a plane. Aaron was in the back ground saying, "I told you not to tell anyone."

6. Jordan hated that Aaron sold marijuana, but was fearful of what would happen if she told anyone besides close friends.

7. One of the times Jordan was physically abused, she called me after the police had left. She was eight months pregnant and hysterical. She said that Aaron tried to prevent her from leaving the room by grabbing the skin on her back. Then, Aaron sat on her stomach. Jordan cut her foot with a piece of broken glass while he was still sitting on her stomach. He, then, called the police. The officers told Jordan that if she did not take the charge Aaron would lose his job and the benefits for the baby.

8. Jordan was charged with domestic violence, although she was the one that was abused.

9. On countless occasions, Jordan has found naked pictures of other women on Aaron's phone, she has caught him kissing and fondling a girl in the back of a van at a festival and has spoken with a woman to whom Aaron had sent a naked picture through email.

10. On October 28th, when Jordan and Aaron were in another argument, Jordan called me crying. We talked for a while about the problem then got off the phone. Immediately, I put some uplifting words on her Facebook profile to make her feel better. An hour or so later, Aaron's mother started saying very nasty things about Jordan, saying her friends did not know the whole story, that Jordan was overreacting, that Jordan was a bad mom and cussing out all of Jordan's friends that were standing up for Jordan. I told Aaron's mom that she was being very childish and she proceeded to write to me a private message saying that I could not judge her because I was not old enough and that I should "fuck off." I think she wants to help Aaron get the baby and pretend to be the mother.

11. Jordan and Aaron once had a connecting flight in Arizona, with a couple of hours to spare. I picked them up so they would not have to wait at the airport. Every move Jordan made was scrutinized and picked apart by Aaron. Every word Jordan said was wrong unless Aaron approved. If he told her not to do something, she was expected not to do it. Aaron completely picked Jordan apart. Even the way she chewed and the number of beverages she was allowed to consume was decided by Aaron. If Jordan did not follow his way to a tee she knew she would be "punished" by Aaron saying hurtful things.

12. Aaron told Jordan she was not allowed to come back to Arizona.

13. I know that Aaron was very controlling over Jordan's money, also. Aaron took every single cent Jordan earned. I always would ask her to come visit, and despite her making decent money, she always was broke. One day, I asked Jordan why. She informed me that she let Aaron take her debit card and clear her bank account of her paychecks! He put her on some ridiculous $60.00 allowance.

14. Aaron is a very manipulative, vindictive person and will say and do anything to make himself seem like a better person and get his way.

15. He is making Jordan's life very difficult and she is suffering severely from his torture.

16. The Jordan I used to know was full of life and laughter. Over this past year, I have witnessed a slow emotional destruction to herself. She does not laugh anymore. Laughter was a big part of her life. I always here her cry.

17. Jordan just wants a good life for herself and her son. She loves him so much. She took such good care of herself during her pregnancy. She quit drinking and smoking cigarettes cold turkey. She took birthing classes. Jordan decided to do a natural NO DRUG water birth which was extremely painful and had to be emergency transferred to the hospital where she stuck to her plan and had the baby naturally.

18. Jordan had to deal with being a good mom while being with a husband who is not emotionally available to her needs because he does not care about her. She is a good mom. A loving person who just wanted a family.

19. I think that is why Jordan put up with all of Aaron's lies, infidelities and abuse. Jordan wanted something better than what she had growing up. She wanted a unified family.

20. I know she definitely gave Aaron more chances to be a decent father and husband than I would have given to him. Jordan loved Aaron despite his behavior and treatment of her.

21. Aaron is a repetitive liar and has been caught in many of them.

22. I have heard a recording of Aaron calling Jordan pathetic while she is on the ground crying after he abused her.

23. Aaron has dragged Jordan by her foot and gave her a black eye and then made her travel alone the next day, all the way to Louisiana for Christmas.

DATED this 12 day of May, 2011 ~~March, 20~~10.

AFFIDAVIT OF TRAVIS MONTGOMERY

Civil No. 094905182

Honorable Kate A. Toomy

Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

STATE OF TEXAS)
:ss.
County of_______________)

I, Travis Montgomery, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am twenty years of age and will be twenty one years of age in June, 2010. I am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from me personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, I could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. Jordan Poulsen ("Jordan") is my best friend.

3. Jordan's son is named after me.

4. I care a great deal for Jordan and her son.

5. It has been so difficult to sit back and watch Jordan, who is an amazing human being, be treated no better than a dog in the street.

6. Emotionally, I do not know how she pulled through this relationship with Aaron Poulsen ("Aaron") without having a complete mental breakdown from the torment and stress that Aaron has inflicted on her over the last two years.

7. Being Jordan's best friend, I made a few trips to Utah to visit her and we always talk online.

8. I could not stand the way Aaron spoke to her, the things he did to her and the twisting manipulations he would use on her to make his actions her fault and then bear down upon her until she would be the one apologizing for HIS actions!

9. I honestly believe she was brainwashed by him. Similar tactics are used when someone is being brainwashed.

10. How someone could continue to love someone who tells you on a regular basis that they hate you and screams "I HOPE YOU HAVE A MISCARRIAGE" and tells you that you are pathetic for staying is beyond me.

11. Jordan has a big heart, a forgiving heart. She forgave Aaron and tried to pull through because in her words she, "wanted to have a family." She could not see that he was in control and abusive.

12. When Jordan moved into Aaron's condo, it was a complete wreck. Jordan made the place into a home. She spent days cleaning, organizing and turning the residence into a family center.

13. Jordan was violently ill throughout her entire pregnancy.

14. Every time that I visited, Jordan was cleaning to maintain a nice environment for Aaron to come home to and always had dinner in the oven.

15. Aaron never knew how lucky he was to have Jordan. He always took for granted that she was a good wife and homemaker and tried to do everything a wife should do for him.

16. The first time I visited, Aaron showed me a gray case with a lot of marijuana in it. He told me he had, at that time, around half of a pound.

17. Aaron told me that the money he made from selling the marijuana paid for his rent, which he always paid to his mother in cash. Apparently, Aaron's mother owns the condo.

18. Aaron offered to smoke some marijuana with me. I do not smoke marijuana, so I politely declined.

19. The whole time I was visiting, there were people coming and going, buying the marijuana and leaving.

20. I remember when Aaron's band, Separation of Self, played at a music festival out in the desert called Dirt Festival. I filled in on bass. During the entire festival, Aaron was rude to Jordan. He was embarrassing her in front of people and shunning her. He controlled what she could and could not do.

21. Later that night, after Aaron's band played, no one could find him. Jordan asked me to go with her and help find him.

22. We located Aaron. He was in the back of a van kissing and groping a girl.

23. We watched, in shock, for quite some time before Jordan intervened.

24. I saw this unfold very clearly.

25. Jordan saw it clearly. She asked me, "Are they doing what I think they are doing?" I replied, "Yes!" Even when Aaron was confronted, he would not get out of the van!

26. The entire next day must have been completely miserable for Jordan. Aaron would not speak to her. When he did, it was some rude remark, insult, or manipulation to somehow make it her fault.

27. Aaron still denies that he was in the van with that woman doing what he was doing.

28. During that same visit, I was laying on the couch and Aaron and Jordan were upstairs. All of a sudden I heard him yelling at her, calling her names and saying things that I will not repeat. I heard their door open, so I peeked around the corner. Aaron threw Jordan violently into the hallway naked, slammed the door and locked it. Jordan was crying and trying to cover up. She was so embarrassed. She asked me to give her some of my clothes. I did and she put them on. She ended up sleeping on the second couch that night and crying herself to sleep.

29. The next day, Aaron was a complete and total jerk to Jordan, verbally putting her down, verbally assaulting her. Then, he would tell her that what he did was "all right" because she had said something he did not like, so therefore she deserved his treatment.

30. Aaron continued this behavior until Jordan finally broke and begged for forgiveness. I could not believe it! He literally had manipulated her into being the bad guy.

31. There have been times that Aaron would be yelling at Jordan, calling her names, verbally abusing her and he had no idea that I was on the phone listening.

32. I have heard him say, as she was crying and apologizing, "You are a fucking clown. You are a fucking joke. I am laughing at you, you stupid cunt".

33. Another time Jordan called me and was on the phone when I heard him yell in anger, "I hope you have a miscarriage and everyone else does too."

34. Jordan text messaged me when she was going to buy her first car. She was so excited. She called me on her way home and was telling me all about the vehicle. She said it was a Navigator and that she was so proud that it was her first car. I heard Aaron in the background say, "Yeah, I have to pay for the insurance on your new car."

35. It is my understanding that Aaron is now denying that the car was ever Jordan's. That is a lie. They had an agreement that it would be in his name because she is Canadian and does not have credit, but that she would pay for it and she would keep it, even if they were not together.

36. On New Year's Day, Jordan was on the phone with me sitting in her car (the Lincoln Navigator), crying and saying that Aaron had left her alone in the vehicle, in the middle of the street and took off walking. All of a sudden I heard her say, "DON'T TOUCH ME!" Aaron was grabbing for her, so she rolled up the window. I heard him say, "My arm is caught," and she said, "Please don't touch me! Leave me alone!"

37. Finally, Aaron left Jordan alone. She cried on the phone with me for about an hour, telling me how tired she was of the abuse and that she wanted to leave, but that Aaron and his mother would never let her leave with the baby. Jordan, of course, would never leave her child.

38. Jordan told me all the time that she hated that Aaron sold marijuana, but she was scared to say anything because of repercussions. She did tell me, however, that the only time Aaron was nice to her was when he was high on marijuana.

39. Jordan, also, would tell me often that she felt hopeless, like she never would be able to escape the torment because Aaron would never let her take the baby.

40. Jordan said that Aaron's mother would fund his lawyer fees.

41. Aaron never let Jordan have any money, so she was pretty much stuck. Aaron knew she was stuck and did it on purpose.

42. On several occasions, Jordan looked into going to a shelter. I helped her Google shelters in the area. Just when she would pack her things to leave, Aaron would come in and say, "I'm going to my mom's. You can just stay at the condo. So if anyone asks, you can not say I kicked you out."

43. Aaron did this every time she tried to leave, which threw her right back into the pattern.

44. Jordan let me hear a recording of when Aaron had been abusive and she locked herself in the bathroom trying to get away from him. He came in, called her "pathetic" because she was calling shelters, then said she could stay at the condo and he would move into his mother's house.

45. I saw texts between Aaron and Jordan in which Aaron was extremely abusive.

46. It was a two year relationship and a one year marriage.

47. It seemed like every other day he was doing something to her that was morally wrong and emotionally hurtful.

48. Aaron had internet relationships (sexual and emotional) online with other women while Jordan was pregnant.

49. When Jordan would stress out, she would get cramps and think the baby was in danger. When she was further along in her pregnancy, he would yell and scream at her.

50. Jordan said she could feel the baby make unusual movements and, then the baby would not move at all for a few days.

51. Despite endangering his own fetus, Aaron continued with his constant lies and abuse.

52. Aaron did not care about the baby or Jordan while she was pregnant. He cared more about seeing other women naked, and about sending and receiving nude photos.

53. Aaron has been extremely abusive to Jordan. Jordan's baby should not have to be raised in that kind of environment.

54. Jordan is looking for a job. She showed me her resume and showed me jobs for which she has applied.

55. Jordan is staying strong and stable for Kajol.

56. Jordan shows consistency and love for her baby.

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner, vs. JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Respondent.	AFFIDAVIT OF CRYSTAL CULLBRETH Civil No. 094905182 Honorable Kate A. Toomy Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

STATE OF UTAH)
:ss.
County of Salt Lake)

I, Crystal Cullbreth, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I have known Jordan since 2006.

2. From time to time, between August 6th, 2009, and August 14th, 2009, Aaron would state that Jordan is a psycho. He said she was crazy and needed to be institutionalized and/or checked into a mental hospital.

3. Aaron, also, used other words to describe Jordan such as, “bitch” and “cunt“. “Psychotic bitch” was used a lot, along with crazy and psycho.

4. Aaron constantly would harass me, asking for pictures of my breasts, of me in my underwear, or of me naked.

5. It seemed that Aaron would say things about Jordan to get me to send him mercy breast pictures, to get other disgusting material and to drive a wedge between Jordan's and my friendship so she would not find out that he basically was trying to strike up an affair with me while she was pregnant.

6. The first time he asked to see me naked was in June, 2009.

7. The second time he asked was August 2, 2009, via yahoo messenger.

8. I never sent anything to him, his requests disgusted me.

9. At one point, he sent to me explicit pornographic material and a picture of himself completely nude.

10. Aaron did admit to Jordan that he sent pornography to me and asked to see my breasts.

11. After this occurred, Aaron's mother sent emails to me telling me that I should not have told Jordan that Aaron was asking me to strike up an online relationship with him.

12. Aaron's mother harassed me. There is a difference between sticking up for your son and aiding him in cheating on, and lying to, his pregnant wife.

13. Aaron sent texts to me such as follows: "u did not send me pix i know. i sent u a porn pic, u sent a pic back with a link and u in ur costume"

14. Aaron often said, "show me your boobs. Take a picture, now." I always would say no, then change the subject. He always would come back and say, "show me your tits." I, again, of course, denied his request.

15. In addition, Arron, out of the blue, would send to me instant messages and ask how I was doing. When I would ask how he was, he would say something like, "I am married to Jordan, what do you think?"

16. It seemed like he did not care about the difficulties that Jordan was going through. She does not deserve this type of treatment. Jordan is a nice, caring, generous person.

17. Aaron was constant with his lies and clear disregard for Jordan's pregnancy, her well being, her safety, her feelings and for the safety of their baby.

01-13-10 Filed: COMPLETION REPORT FROM NEFA

Jordan Roy is the finest example and best role model anyone could have. No where is this fact more evident then the way she raises her son, Kajol. On a daily basis Jordan teaches Kajol many things that will inevitably make him a great example when he grows up. She teaches him not only what is right and wrong but why one thing is right and another is wrong. She teaches him manners, respect, and the way one should behave. And with Jordan being a single parent providing everything her son needs, as her ex husband provides virtually nothing in support, she keeps him clothed, safe, nurtured, healthy, and surrounded by only those who are good examples for Kajol.

Furthermore, Jordan is not only a great example to her son but also to those that she is around. Jordan is a model and upstanding citizen. She commits no crimes, she is not an alcoholic, she does not engage in drug use of any kind, or any illegal or questionable practices nor does she associate herself with anyone that does engage in these repugnant activities, including her ex husband Aaron Poulsen.

I have personally seen things that Aaron has written where he admits that he has guns in his home, he smokes and deals marijuana, and that he wants custody of Kajol because he and his mom don't like Jordan and want to hurt her. Aaron and his mother also frequently try to manipulate Jordan's friends by bad mouthing or defaming Jordan to bring her friends to their side. Jordan has said that she is scared of these people and rightly so and not just for herself but also for Kajol. The mother is very manipulative, mean, and petty. Aaron's mother cyber stalks Jordan and press her friend to say negative things about Jordan. And as for Aaron he is everything his mother is plus angry, violent and vindictive. Aaron has in the past physically, emotionally and mentally abused Jordan. These are ruthless people and for what they have done to Jordan and continue to do to Jordan, especially through Kajol, is wrong and distasteful. Yet, Jordan maintains a good morale when others might crack.

Jordan's ex, Aaron Poulsen, his mother and the rest of his family do nothing but bad mouth, try to manipulate and generally harass Jordan. On numerous occasions Kajol has gone to Aarons healthy and unscathed and come back with either bruises, scrapes, a staph infection, or a combination of injuries and maladies. Also, when Kajol is with Aaron and his mother they say negative and hurtful things about his mother, Jordan. However, Jordan never says anything bad about Aaron or his mother when Kajol is around. The way that the Poulsens treat Jordan would make most people go into a downward spiral and is highly unacceptable, but Jordan handles herself very well with the situation. And although it does make her sad that here son is in that environment, she knows she has people she can talk to an rely on.

Jordan is full of patience, love, and good moral fiber and those qualities can be seen on a daily and continual basis. She is a great friend, fantastic mother and wonderful person. She always has time for those in her life for whom she cares about. She is a very smart and caring woman able and willing to help friends and family with any problems they might have. And even if she doesn't have a solution, she invariably has a very sympathetic ear to listen and a shoulder to cry on if needed.

Jordan is very important to me and to many others. And in the time that I have know Jordan not only have I seen and witnessed these qualities, I have also been the recipient. Her great influence is infectious, her superb example second to none and her moral character as strong as a diamond. She is uncompromising in her values and diligent in keeping them in tact on a daily basis. You won't find anyone who is more loving, caring, steadfast, or firmly grounded than Jordan Roy.

To Whom It May Concern:

I was pleased when Jordan-Lee Poulsen asked me to write a letter on her behalf. I have known Jordan for about 3 years. Over the past year and a half in particular, we have spent time together as friends both in California and Utah, and maintained a regular correspondence. I have seen Jordan interact with her son and been a source of emotional support for her as she works through a difficult custody battle and divorce.

With her keen mind, sharp wit, and big heart, Jordan is a wonderful addition to the US. I hope you'll let her stay. She is also an incredibly caring and devoted mother to her son and focuses much of her energy on how to make sure he has a bright future. Though she has always been one of strong principle with a clear moral compass, she has worked to better herself through education, conversion to the Mormon Church, and eliminating her main vices (drinking, smoking). I have heard her struggles and seen her determination as she has succeeded in making all of these positive changes. She is an admirable woman and an asset to her community.

Thank you for the opportunity to share some of my thoughts about Jordan with you. Do not hesitate to contact me if you would like any additional information.

Sincerely,

To Whom it may concern,

My name is Lee Linford and currently I am a student at Utah Valley University studying in their Computer Sciences program. I grew up in a small town in Northern Utah called Tremonton were I graduated from Bear River High School in 2002. After high school I served an LDS mission in Brazil and then served active duty in the United States Army as a Signal Support Specialist. This job required me to have a Secret security clearance as I was dealing with highly sensitive information. I served a tour of duty in Iraq from February 2007 to May of 2008. In 2009 I finished my enlistment obligations and returned home to start my college career. I found employment with Pinnacle Security as an installation technician which I had to pass a back ground check to obtain this position. I worked with this company for two summer seasons and then moved on to Certified Alarm Services who is my current employer.

I met Jordan Paulson in November of 2010 during which time she was taking lessons from missionaries of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. I was very pleased to find out that she was taking positive steps to better her life considering the troubled background that she has had. The physical and mental abuse that she has endured would be enough to make anyone want to lash out and be destructive, but Jordan has taken the higher road and I admire her very much for that. Before I learned about any of this I wouldn't have guessed that any of these things had happened to her because of her loving and kind disposition. She is happiest when everyone else is happy or laughing around her and she will put herself out to make it so.

She is also a very dedicated mother to her son. When he is not around you will always hear from her without out fail "I can't wait till I can see Kajol" or "I miss my snuggy bunny" or she will literally be counting down the number of days, hours, minutes until he is back. Kajol is her world and there is nothing she wouldn't do for his benefit.

I am very lucky to have her as a friend. I have great confidence that I could come to her with any personal issue and she be right there willing to give me moral support or do what ever she could do to help me out in my time of need. I shouldn't feel unique in this aspect though because I know she would do this for anyone. There had been various times that I would go to her house she would have different people over for a dinner or some type of activity. She would use this time to make her home a safe haven for these people where they could relax, have fun, and feel good about themselves, because that is her nature. I would vouch for her character any time.

Sincerely,

Lee Linford

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter in regard to a request made from Jordan Roy. I have known Jordan for 10 months. I met her through a domestic violence support group that is based in the West Jordan Police Department. Jordan has been such a support to me and other women in the group. She has always been polite, caring, and understanding. She has displayed good moral character and would never participate in any activity that may harm her or her child. She is an excellent mother and her actions reflect good parenting skills. I am glad I have had the chance to get to know Jordan. She is an upstanding person and always see the positive side in everything. If you need further information, please feel free to contact me.

I Eileen Reid, has known Jordan Roy for about 10 months. I met her at a domestic violence group we attend together. In that time I have seen what a caring and wonderful mother she is to her son. She always puts him first in her life. She also has been there for me and other ladies from group, she offers her time and moral support, she has assisted me in information, with which online jobs sites were hiring, she also has offered to have us come to her home and escape the emotional turmoil me and my children have faced this past year, by offering to use her pool and hot tube, Jordan also calls and texts to see how I am doing, and wishes me Happy Holiday, what ever it may be, ie .. Merry Christmas, Happy Valentines Day, Happy Mothers Day, and makes me and others from group laugh when some of us really need one. We have learned the power of laughter, can and has helped us in our journey of escape from turmoil. These are my experiences with Jordan Roy.

To Whom it may concern.

I'm writing this letter on behalf of Jordan Roy Poulsen. I have known Jordan for a little over a year now. First as her hair stylist and during that time got to know Jordan and about her difficult time through her abusive relationship, divorce and custody battle with her ex Aaron Poulsen. I have been living with Jordan as her room mate for about 4 months now. During this time we have become very close. I have witnessed her strength through all the personal attacks made by her Ex and his family.

I sometimes do child exchanges for Jordan and have witnessed how difficult Aaron's mother makes each and every exchange.

I have also been witness to Aaron's harassment via his family.

From what I have seen, this is a continuation of the abuse by Aaron and his family.

Jordan is a great mom. She loves her little boy so much and does everything possible to make sure he has the most healthy loving environment to grow up in. She taught him sign language which has greatly helped him in developing his speech. She teaches him manners, keeps him on a schedule for meals, play time, nap time, and bed time. Kajol her son is very smart and very advanced for his age. He is not even 2 years old yet and speaks very well and is already potty training. This is because Jordan's whole life revolves around her son and she works very hard in all aspects to provide for him.

Jordan is very selective with the people whom she surrounds herself and her son. As a result there are very loving, caring, trustworthy friends surrounding us which is not only great for them but makes me feel comforted in living here with her.

As a friend Jordan has been wonderful and supportive. I work long hours and she is happy to provide me with dinner when I get home and helps me with anything I may need. She has helped me through my difficult times and I am so grateful to her. She is the kind of friend that would give the shirt off her back to help them. She is always willing to help others weather its a warm meal, sending them home with food when they cant afford it or just a shoulder to cry on. I feel so thankful to have her in my life and it baffles me that someone would want to treat someone so wonderful the way that her ex has and is still trying to sabotage her.

I hope that you find that she is a great person and deserves only the best. I hope that her life will become peaceful and safe and that she may put all of this terrible past behind her someday and that these legal issues may result in happiness for herself and her son.

Sincerely,
Audrey Wagner

"I understand and acknowledge that, under section 262 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), as an alien who has been or will be in the United States for more than 30 days, I am required to register with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. I understand and acknowledge that, under section 265 of the Act, I am required to provide USCIS with my current address and written notice of any change of address within ten days of the change. I understand and acknowledge that USCIS will use the most recent address that I provide to USCIS, on any form containing these acknowledgements, for all purposes, including the service of a Notice to Appear should it be necessary for USCIS to initiate removal proceedings against me. I understand and acknowledge that if I change my address without providing written notice to USCIS, I will be held responsible for any communications sent to me at the most recent address that I provided to USCIS. I further understand and acknowledge that, if removal proceedings are initiated against me and I fail to attend any hearing, including an initial hearing based on service of the Notice to Appear at the most recent address that I provided to USCIS or as otherwise provided by law, I may be ordered removed in my absence, arrested, and removed from the United States."

Selective Service Registration

The following applies to you if you are a male at least 18 years old, but not yet 26 years old, who is required to register with the Selective Service System: "I understand that my filing Form I-485 with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services authorizes USCIS to provide certain registration information to the Selective Service System in accordance with the Military Selective Service Act. Upon USCIS acceptance of my application, I authorize USCIS to transmit to the Selective Service System my name, current address, Social Security Number, date of birth, and the date I filed the application for the purpose of recording my Selective Service registration as of the filing date. If, however, USCIS does not accept my application, I further understand that, if so required, I am responsible for registering with the Selective Service by other means, provided I have not yet reached age 26."

Applicant's Certification

I certify, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that this application and the evidence submitted with it is all true and correct. I authorize the release of any information from my records that U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) needs to determine eligibility for the benefit I am seeking.

Part 8. Sponsor's Contract.

Please note that, by signing this Form I-864, you agree to assume certain specific obligations under the Immigration and Nationality Act and other Federal laws. The following paragraphs describe those obligations. Please read the following information carefully before you sign the Form I-864. If you do not understand the obligations, you may wish to consult an attorney or accredited representative.

What is the Legal Effect of My Signing a Form I-864?

If you sign a Form I-864 on behalf of any person (called the "intending immigrant") who is applying for an immigrant visa or for adjustment of status to a permanent resident, and that intending immigrant submits the Form I-864 to the U.S. Government with his or her application for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status, under section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act these actions create a contract between you and the U. S. Government. The intending immigrant's becoming a permanent resident is the "consideration" for the contract.

Under this contract, you agree that, in deciding whether the intending immigrant can establish that he or she is not inadmissible to the United States as an alien likely to become a public charge, the U.S. Government can consider your income and assets to be available for the support of the intending immigrant.

What If I choose Not to Sign a Form I-864?

You cannot be made to sign a Form I-864 if you do not want to do so. But if you do not sign the Form I-864, the intending immigrant may not be able to become a permanent resident in the United States.

What Does Signing the Form I-864 Require Me to do?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then, until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, you must:

-- Provide the intending immigrant any support necessary to maintain him or her at an income that is at least 125 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for his or her household size (100 percent if you are the petitioning sponsor and are on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces and the person is your husband, wife, unmarried child under 21 years old.)

-- Notify USCIS of any change in your address, within 30 days of the change, by filing Form I-865.

What Other Consequences Are There?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, your income and assets may be considered ("deemed") to be available to that person, in determining whether he or she is eligible for certain Federal means-tested public benefits and also for State or local means-tested public benefits, if the State or local government's rules provide for consideration ("deeming") of your income and assets as available to the person.

This provision does not apply to public benefits specified in section 403(c) of the Welfare Reform Act such as, but not limited to, emergency Medicaid, short-term, non-cash emergency relief; services provided under the National School Lunch and Child Nutrition Acts; immunizations and testing and treatment for communicable diseases; and means-tested programs under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Contract continued on following page.

What If I Do Not Fulfill My Obligations?

If you do not provide sufficient support to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, that person may sue you for this support.

If a Federal, State or local agency, or a private agency provides any covered means-tested public benefit to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, the agency may ask you to reimburse them for the amount of the benefits they provided. If you do not make the reimbursement, the agency may sue you for the amount that the agency believes you owe.

If you are sued, and the court enters a judgment against you, the person or agency that sued you may use any legally permitted procedures for enforcing or collecting the judgment. You may also be required to pay the costs of collection, including attorney fees.

If you do not file a properly completed Form I-865 within 30 days of any change of address, USCIS may impose a civil fine for your failing to do so.

When Will These Obligations End?

Your obligations under a Form I-864 will end if the person who becomes a permanent resident based on a Form I-864 that you signed:

- Becomes a U.S. citizen;
- Has worked, or can be credited with, 40 quarters of coverage under the Social Security Act;
- No longer has lawful permanent resident status, and has departed the United States;
- Becomes subject to removal, but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status, based on a new affidavit of support, if one is required; or
- Dies.

Note that divorce does not terminate your obligations under this Form I-864.

Your obligations under a Form I-864 also end if you die. Therefore, if you die, your Estate will not be required to take responsibility for the person's support after your death. Your Estate may, however, be responsible for any support that you owed before you died.

(Print Sponsor's Name)

certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that:

a. I know the contents of this affidavit of support that I signed.

b. All the factual statements in this affidavit of support are true and correct.

c. I have read and I understand each of the obligations described in Part 8, and I agree, freely and without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, to accept each of those obligations in order to make it possible for the immigrants indicated in Part 3 to become permanent residents of the United States;

d. I agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction of any Federal or State court that has subject matter jurisdiction of a lawsuit against me to enforce my obligations under this Form I-864;

e. Each of the Federal income tax returns submitted in support of this affidavit are true copies, or are unaltered tax transcripts, of the tax returns I filed with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service; and

To Whom It May Concern:

Jordan-Lee is seen in my office for her current pregnancy. Provisional recommendations from the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices recommends pregnant women not be immunized w/ Tdap until after delivery. It is considered a schedule C medication and should only be administered if serious risks to mother exist.

I will be happy to administer the Tdap after Jordan delivers her baby, Her due date is September 14, 2009.

Please contact me with any questions or concerns.

Re: WAC1133000197/A96829525

Dear Sir or Madam,

This letter is in reference to your Form I-751, Petition to Remove the Condition on Residence. This is to notify you that your petition has been relocated to the USCIS Field Office listed below for adjudication. That office will schedule an interview for you. When an interview date becomes available, that office will notify you in a separate notice of the date and time you will need to appear for the interview.

When you appear for the interview, you must bring this notice and your appointment notice, along with evidence to establish that the marriage through which you gained your conditional residence status was entered into in good faith. This evidence may include, but is not limited to, joint bank accounts, joint leases, joint mortgage, insurance policies, canceled checks, joint bills, children's birth certificates, income tax returns, wills, affidavits from acquaintances, photos, etc. If you are applying under one of the exemption provisions, you will be required to bring evidence to support your claim.

Any further correspondence concerning your petition should be directed to your local Field Office at the address shown below.

Applicant/Petitioner Name: ROY, JORDAN LEE
Beneficiary:

Dear Sir/Madam:

Upon consideration, it is ordered that your Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status (Form I-539) be denied for the following reasons(s):

A B2/B1 nonimmigrant is defined in Section 101(a)(15)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act as:

> an alien (other than one coming for the purpose of study or of performing skilled or unskilled labor or as a representative of foreign press, radio, film, or other foreign information media coming to engage in such vocation) having a residence in a foreign country which he has no intention of abandoning and who is visiting the United States temporarily for business or temporarily for pleasure;

You do not appear to qualify as a B-2 nonimmigrant visitor as you have stated you were not able to remain in your place of residence after you were injured and not able to work at your part-time job. You were invited to stay with friends indefinitely in the United States and now you are pregnant and engaged. Your finance is supporting you and you plan to marry, then file the proper paperwork.

You have failed to establish your stay is temporary and that you have a residence in a foreign country which you have no intention of abandoning.

Therefore, your application is denied.

This decision leaves you without lawful immigration status and you are therefore present in the United States in violation of the law. You are required to depart the United States. Remaining in the United States without authorization may result in the initiation of removal proceedings against you and may affect your ability to return to the United States in the future.

NOTICE OF INCLUSION IN FAMILY LAW CASE MANAGEMENT PROGRAM AND SETTING CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE [Local Rule 13.23]	CASE NO.: 06FC2994

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD - READ THIS NOTICE:

THIS CASE HAS BEEN INCLUDED in the Family Law Case Management Program pursuant to the Local Rules for Amador Superior Court, Rule 13.23.

COURT SUPERVISION UNTIL DISPOSITION: This case shall be subject to active court management and supervision until entry of Judgment or Dismissal. Each side in this action is expected to proceed to the prompt resolution of this matter.

HEARING DATE: A Case Management Conference has been scheduled for 3/23/07 at 9:00 AM / PM in Dept. TBA. Counsel or self-represented parties are expected to read and be familiar with Local Rule 13.23 and must file and serve a Family Law Case Management Conference Statement at least 15 days prior to the hearing.

APPEARANCE AT HEARING: Counsel of record and each self-represented party in the action shall attend the Family Law Case Management Conference at the Court location stated above. In accordance with procedures under Local Rule 13.23, the Court may notify counsel or parties that no appearance is required at the Case Management Conference. Unless notified by the Court that no appearance is necessary, counsel of record or self-represented parties must appear in person or by telephone.

TENTATIVE RULINGS: At 2:00 p.m. on the day before the scheduled conference, the court will post tentative rulings on its website, www.amadorcourt.org. Any party who wishes to contest the ruling must make a request for hearing, by calling 209-223-6360, and also notify the opposing party no later than 4:00 p.m. on the day before the hearing. If a hearing is not requested and the opposing party is not notified before 4:00 p.m., the tentative ruling will become the final ruling of the court.

SERVE THIS NOTICE: It is the responsibility of the petitioner to serve the other party with a copy of this notice along with the Summons and Petition. The petitioner must serve the Summons and Petition along with this notice on the respondent within 60 days of filing. The respondent must file and serve the Response within 30 days of the date of service. Local Rules & Forms are available at www.amadorcourt.org.

NOTICE: Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse under the other spouse's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay on death bank account, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the right of a spouse as beneficiary of the other spouse's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance polices, retirement plans, and credit reports to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions. However, some changes may require the agreement of your spouse or a court order (see Family Code sections 231–235).

You have 30 calendar days after this Summons and Petition are served on you to file a Response (form FL-120 or FL-123) at the court and have a copy served on the petitioner. A letter or phone call will not protect you.

If you do not file your Response on time, the court may make orders affecting your marriage or domestic partnership, your property, and custody of your children. You may be ordered to pay support and attorney fees and costs. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the clerk for a fee waiver form.

If you want legal advice, contact a lawyer immediately. You can get information about finding lawyers at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), or by contacting your local county bar association.

Tiene 30 días corridos después de haber recibido la entrega legal de esta Citación y Petición para presentar una Respuesta (formulario FL-120 ó FL-123) ante la corte y efectuar la entrega legal de una copia al demandante. Una carta o llamada telefónica no basta para protegerlo.

Si no presenta su Respuesta a tiempo, la corte puede dar órdenes que afecten su matrimonio o pareja de hecho, sus bienes y la custodia de sus hijos. La corte también le puede ordenar que pague manutención, y honorarios y costos legales. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario un formulario de exención de cuotas.

Si desea obtener asesoramiento legal, póngase en contacto de inmediato con un abogado. Puede obtener información para encontrar a un abogado en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en el sitio Web de los Servicios Legales de California (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org) o poniéndose en contacto con el colegio de abogados de su condado.

NOTICE: The restraining orders on page 2 are effective against both spouses or domestic partners until the petition is dismissed, a judgment is entered, or the court makes further orders. These orders are enforceable anywhere in California by any law enforcement officer who has received or seen a copy of them.

AVISO: Las órdenes de restricción que figuran en la página 2 valen para ambos cónyuges o pareja de hecho hasta que se despida la petición, se emita un fallo o la corte dé otras órdenes. I sent Ba[redacted] an email asking if she heard anything from immigration, [redacted] havent checked that email account today.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
i am saying when chris moves out his room is available...if you want to live with me full blown then you can move your stuff into his room and have more room for your other clothes when they come..

and if you want to live full blown with me that means i need $350 a month and thats not inlcuding power and comcast

Hey there. Nothing from immigration as of today's mail. "

Jordan Roy Report
I think when Chris moves out you should find another roommate.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
so that means you wont be able to help pay for things?

Jordan Roy Report
It means that with three people it would be cheaper.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
well then i would have to split the bills 3 ways... so you are looking around $300 a month each for everything

Jordan Roy Report
You are right. Modeling isnt a guarantee and isnt stable. So I dont know what to do.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
i dont think i will be able to find anyone.. that i trust

Jordan Roy Report
...AND if I get caught making money in the States, I could get banned from the US for 5-10 years.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
well sorry for all the arguing

Jordan Roy Report
Thank you for the apology, it means a lot to me. I'm sorry too.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
how long has it been since you submitted immigration stuff?

did your grandma need to mail you stuff too?

Jordan Roy Report
I sent it all in around May 12th. On the immigration website it says that it should only take [redacted]eks to hear a reply. I assume it is taking so long because [redacted]y are digging into my past... I lived illegally in the States for 13 years when I was a minor thanks to my mom...and in numerous places too. Im sure tracking down information on me is quite difficult.

What kind of stuff would grandma send me? she has December.

Jordan Roy Report

...P.S) Jessica wrote me back.

Jordan Roy Report

aaaaaaannnnd P.P.S) I found out when Jonathan fuckingHoward is going to LA

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

you said grandma has passport papers

what dod jessica say?

when is jon going to be in L.A?

Jordan Roy Report

Yeah, but I cant get ahold of my cousin Phil to give the address to.

Jon will be in LA THIS sunday.

This is what Jessica said:

You are right Jordan, I owe you an apology.

I am sorry.

That was inappropriate.

Thank you for being civil, I appreciate it, I know I don't want drama with you either.

I can tell you are a good person who has her shit straight.

I wish you well.

And p.s. This isn't trying to earn me brownie points, I'm not gonna be like that, but I love your pics, you are a gorgeous girl.

Take care.

Jordan Roy Report

I dont think Im going to be able to go to LA due to money issues.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

oh got ya

man that sucks

hmmmmm surprise....now you guys can be friends

Jordan Roy Report

Nope. We will not be friends. I sent her a message basically being like "Thanks, peace out"

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

well chris is moving to vernal with his family i guess....

Between You and Jordan Roy

Jordan Roy Report ← Aug 2008

You looked so good to me when you left. I wish you didnt have to go. There was something peaceful about the way you smelled and the way you kissed me. I think even Brigs felt that, because as soon as we got upstairs, he started sniffing your pillow and your side of the bed, then burrowed under the covers and laid with his head on your pillow. So cute. Wish you were here.
So..... I got a job tonight. Webcam girl. But I dont have to show anything. I just talk to people, I dont have to show nudity if I dont want, and I can quit at any time. I start at making $1.75 a minute, and I can work as much as I want or as little as I want. Which means I can make as much money as I want. I am my own boss. The company is in Toronto, so I wont be working illegally, I can even claim it on my Canadian taxes. They said if I need money for clothes or whatever they will give me a $500 front this Friday. They even picked out a fake name for me... Jayden Jagger...sigh. heh.
I dont want anyone to know. Not even Chris or Renee. NO ONE. Please please keep this between you and me ONLY. Im not even telling Nillah. And Nillah knows EVERYTHING.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

awww thanks

i wont say anything if u decide to do it......

hope that didnt upset you...i never know how to word things without you getting upset sometimes :(doh

have a good day

Jordan Roy Report

Would it really matter if we broke up and I said that? We would already be broken up. lol... but I wouldnt do that.
I do want you to realize that I would never do this if I didnt have the desperate need to give you money. And I am NOT throwing that in your face, Im saying that it is for us, so that we dont have to struggle..and so that you arent so stressed out. I just dont want you to worry. I am willing to do what it takes to make sure you dont have that stress. And if this is what I gotta do, this is what I gotta do. I am very uncomfortable doing it,its embarassing. VERY EMBARASSING.... but Ill suck it up I guess. I know you dont like waking up for work at 5am either, but you do what you gotta do.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

yeah but waking up at 5am is a part of a normal job to me....

if u dont want to do it, dont. sounds like u really dont.

i dunno, like i was saying before..if you are that desperate u may as well find gigs of work where you are out traveling for days or something and making bank....i dunno.

Jordan Roy Report

Its not that simple. It is far more difficult to find people willing to pay your travel costs AND pay you than people locally who only have to cover a simple gas cost. SLC is a dead market. We will see how this agency works out for me finding work.
I think that I should give the webcam thing a week and see how it goes. We need the money :(

i thought they were CAN?

Jordan Roy November 13, 2008 at 2:11pm Report

Nope, my studio is in Canada, but the company is American.

Wheeeeen are you cumming home for momma?

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen November 13, 2008 at 2:14pm

what? that doesn't make sense? hmmm im confused... u said u are working for a CAN company hence the CAN pay

Jordan Roy November 13, 2008 at 2:19pm Report

The STUDIO I work for is in Canada. Flirt 4 Free (the site) is in the US. They have studios everywhere...
Canada, Russia, Mexico etc etc.
Each studio broadcasts about 50 girls.

So does that mean you are coming home now?

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen September 3, 2008 at 2:35pm

how does taxes work for your job?
did they figure out how to pay you yet?

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen September 3, 2008 at 2:41pm

what is does this mean?

CPP and EI that has to be paid by Canadians

Jordan Roy September 3, 2008 at 3:49pm Report

Just tell them it's a loan from your girl. In April I will file a T-4 and that will take care of my Canadian taxes.

Im beat. Fucking Briggs dude. I tossed his little fawn ass out earlier so I could get some sleep. I wanted to get up early so I could work earlier today for longer. Grrrr. Im so sweepy my head hurts. I'm sorry I didnt come down last night. I ended up being in pvt for a long long time. Since Sunday, I've sold 492.73 minutes. Which means 492.73 x $1.75... you do the math :) I just covered what we spent on the entire trip (car/flight/hotel) in less than 2 days. lol.
Anyway, is the airport/hotel/San Fran thing bad? We got a car... is it far? A friend of mine was telling me last night that we should take the time and go out to Napa/Sonoma. I think I've been through the Napa Valley before and if my memory serves, it was breathtaking.
Tonight when you get off work, we need to go to Walmart. I know how much you hate Walmart with the fire of a thousand suns, but I need to get some of those plastic organizer drawers (like my nightside table/your sock drawers) so I can organize the closet. This room is driving me bananas. lol.

PLEASE COME TO: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
2/I485/RM1
ON: 8/12/2009
AT: 9:30:00 AM

You are hereby notified to appear for the interview appointment, as scheduled below, for the completion of your Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (Form I-485) and any supporting applications or petitions. Failure to appear for this interview and/or failure to bring the below listed items will result in the denial of your application. (8 CFR 103.2(b)(13))

Who should come with you?

- ☐ If your eligibility is based on your marriage, your husband or wife must come with you to the interview.
- ☐ If you do not speak English fluently, you should bring an interpreter.
- ☐ Your attorney or authorized representative may come with you to the interview.
- ☐ If your eligibility is based on a parent/child relationship and the child is a minor, the petitioning parent and the child must appear for the interview.

NOTE:* Every adult (over 18 years of age) who comes to the interview must bring Government-issued photo identification, such as a driver's license or ID card, in order to enter the building and to verify his/her identity at the time of the interview. You do not need to bring your children unless otherwise instructed. Please be on time, but do not arrive more than 45 minutes early. We may record or videotape your interview.

YOU MUST BRING THE FOLLOWING ITEMS WITH YOU: (Please use as a checklist to prepare for your interview)

- ☐ This Interview Notice and your Government issued photo identification.
- ☐ A completed medical examination (Form I-693) and vaccination supplement in a sealed envelope (unless already submitted).
- ☐ A completed Affidavit(s) of Support (Form I-864) with all required evidence, including the following, for each of your sponsors (unless already submitted):
  - ☐ Federal Income Tax returns and W-2's, or certified IRS printouts, for the past 3 years;
  - ☐ Letters from each current employer, verifying current rate of pay and average weekly hours, and pay stubs for the past 2 months;
  - ☐ Evidence of your sponsor's and/or co-sponsor's United States Citizenship or Lawful Permanent Resident status.
- ☐ All documentation establishing your eligibility for Lawful Permanent Resident status.
- ☐ Any immigration-related documentation ever issued to you, including any Employment Authorization Document (EAD) and any Authorization for Advance Parole (Form I-512).
- ☐ All travel documents used to enter the United States, including Passports, Advance Parole documents (I-512) and I-94s (Arrival/Departure Document).
- ☐ Your Birth Certificate.
- ☐ Your petitioner's Birth Certificate and your petitioner's evidence of United States Citizenship or Lawful Permanent Resident Status.
- ☐ If you have children, bring a Birth Certificate for each of your children.
- ☐ If your eligibility is based on your marriage, in addition to your spouse coming to the interview with you, bring:
  - ☐ A certified copy of your Marriage Document issued by the appropriate civil authority.
  - ☐ Your spouse's Birth Certificate and your spouse's evidence of United States Citizenship or Lawful Permanent Resident status;
  - ☐ If either you or your spouse were ever married before, all divorce decrees/death certificates for each prior marriage/former spouse;
  - ☐ Birth Certificates for all children of this marriage, and custody papers for your children and for your spouse's children not living with you;
- ☐ Supporting evidence of your relationship, such as copies of any documentation regarding joint assets or liabilities you and your spouse may have together.
- ☐ This may include: tax returns, bank statements, insurance documents (car, life, health), property documents (car, house, etc.), rental agreements, utility bills, credit cards, contracts, leases, photos, correspondence and/or any other documents you feel may substantiate your relationship.
- ☐ Original and copy of each supporting document that you submitted with your application. Otherwise, we may keep your originals for our records.
- ☐ If you have ever been arrested, bring the related Police Report and the original or certified Final Court Disposition for each arrest, even if the charges have been dismissed or expunged. If no court record is available, bring a letter from the court with jurisdiction indicating this.
- ☐ A certified English translation for each foreign language document. The translator must certify that s/he is fluent in both languages, and that the translation in its entirety IS complete and accurate.

YOU MUST APPEAR FOR THIS INTERVIEW- If an emergency, such as your own illness or a close relative's hospitalization, prevents you from appearing, call the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 as soon as possible. Please be advised that rescheduling will delay processing of application/petition, and may require some steps to be repeated. It may also affect your eligibility for other immigration benefits while this application is pending.

If you have questions, please call the USCIS National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 (hearing impaired TDD service is 1-800-767-1833).

Attorney for Petitioner: AARON KENT POULSEN

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

AARON KENT POULSEN,	:	DECREE OF DIVORCE
Petitioner,	:
vs.	:	Civil No. 094905182
JORDAN-LEE POULSEN,	:	Honorable Kate A. Toomey
Respondent.	:	Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

NOW, THEREFORE, THE COURT, having reviewed and accepted the parties' Stipulation, and having made and entered the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now makes and enters the following Decree of Divorce:

IT SHALL BE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED:

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

1.Petitioner and Respondent shall be granted a divorce from each other on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because they have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of their marriage impossible. As such, the parties have an adequate basis for divorce under 30-3-1(3), Utah Code Annotated, and they shall be and are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from each other dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

CHILDREN

2.There has been one (1) child born to Petitioner and Respondent who is presently under legal age and whose initials and date of birth are: K.N.R.P., September 17, 2009.

CHILD CUSTODY

3.Petitioner and Respondent shall be and are hereby awarded JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child. Both Petitioner and Respondent shall act in good faith and use their best efforts to mutually agree on decisions as they arise. Notwithstanding, shall an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, neither party shall be the final decision-maker. The parties shall attend mediation to resolve any issues regarding the child that the parties cannot agree on. Emergency decisions and everyday minor decisions shall be made by whichever parent has the child at the time of the decision.

4.Petitioner and Respondent shall be and are hereby awarded JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child.

5.The parties shall share equal parent-time with the minor child as follows:

a.Respondent shall have the child each Monday and Tuesday, including those overnights;

b.Petitioner shall have the child each Wednesday and Thursday, including those overnights;

c.The parties shall alternate weekends from Friday through Sunday, including those overnights, in accordance with the practice already established by the parties.

d.When it is Petitioner's weekend, he shall have the child from Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. until Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Petitioner's weekend, his

e.When it is Respondent's weekend, she shall have the child from Friday morning at 9:30 a.m. until Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Respondent's weekend, her parent-time shall begin on Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., and end on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

f.If either party is unable to personally care for the child for a period of three (3) consecutive hours or more, that party shall offer the right to provide personal care to the other parent, and if the other parent so accepts, the other parent is responsible for transportation at the beginning and the ending of the right-of-first-refusal parent-time.

6.The parties shall share holidays equally each year as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree on a holiday schedule, then the schedule provided by § 30-3-35, Utah Code Annotated, shall apply, which provides as follows:

a.Holidays take precedence over the weekend visitation, and changes shall not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend visitation schedule;

b.If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the party entitled to the holiday shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day;

c.At the election of the party entitled to the holiday, that party may begin parent-time from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed at the beginning of the holiday weekend until 7:00 p.m. on the last day of the holiday weekend;

d.If a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the party with the holiday shall be entitled to this lengthier holiday period;

e.Additionally, either party may take the other party's parent-time during the week for up to two (2) days, and not during holidays, if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides two (2) weeks' notice. The parties shall make their best efforts to allow either party to take the other party's holiday parent-time if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides three (3) weeks' notice, but if the parties cannot agree, then they shall revert to the statutory holiday schedule. The parties shall make up the taken parent-time within a reasonable time, but no later than one (1) month after the taken parent-time.

7.In years ending in an odd number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the day before or after the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

b.Martin Luther King Jr., beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until Monday at 7:00 p.m. unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Spring Break or Easter holiday, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school lets out for the holiday until 7:00 p.m. on the Sunday before school resumes;

d.July 4th, beginning 6:00 p.m. on the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or no later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Labor Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and continuing until Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

f.The fall school break, if applicable, commonly known as U.E.A. weekend, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

g.Veteran's Day holiday beginning 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday, and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday; and

h.The first portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, including Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, continuing until 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or until 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire holiday is equally divided.

8.In years ending in an even number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. and ending at 9:00 p.m.;

b.President's Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until 7:00 p.m. on Monday unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Memorial Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and ending Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

d.July 24th beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or not later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Columbus Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday and continuing until 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

f.Halloween on October 31, or the day Halloween is traditionally celebrated in the local community from after school until 9:00 p.m. if on a school day, or from 4:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

g.Thanksgiving holiday, beginning Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.; and

h.The second portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, beginning 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or at 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire Christmas holiday is equally divided.

i.Respondent is entitled to the odd year holidays in even years and the even year holidays in odd years.

j.Father's Day shall be spent with the Petitioner every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

k.Mother's Day shall be spent with the Respondent every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

l.Each party shall be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted time during the child's summer vacation from school for purposes of vacation;

m.Notification of extended visitation or vacation weeks with the child shall be provided at least (30) days in advance to the other parent; and n.Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration;

o.Virtual parent time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, shall be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration, provided that if the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

i.the best interests of the child;

ii.each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and

iii.any other factors the court considers material.

PARENTING PLAN

9.The minor child shall spend 182 overnights in the home of the Petitioner and 183 overnights in the home of the Respondent each year. Pursuant to 30-3-10.1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, the following parenting plan shall be ordered and followed:

a.The parents shall discuss with each other and mutually decide the significant decisions regarding the child, including, but not limited to, the child's education, health care, and religious upbringing. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of the child.

b.Day to day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' child shall be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.

c.Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan shall be discussed and mutually decided by both parents. Neither parent has the final say over the other parent. Should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, then the parties shall attend mediation before litigating.

d.Should the Petitioner and Respondent have a dispute regarding parenting of the child, and said dispute cannot be resolved between themselves, then the dispute shall be resolved through mediation before any other avenue of dispute resolution can be utilized.

e.Should either parent feel that a decision made under paragraphs a, b, c and d above is contrary to the best interests of the child, that parent may arrange for counseling or mediation through a mutually agreed upon counselor or mediator. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling/mediation and a copy provided to each party. Any costs associated with this procedure are to be shared equally between the parties. No dispute may be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through counseling or mediation. If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent. The Court has the right of review from any counseling or mediation.

f.The child's regular school hours shall not be interrupted for parent-time. Petitioner and Respondent shall both have access to all school reports and personnel.

g.At the request of either the Petitioner or the Respondent, pick-ups and drop-offs shall be curbside or as agreed upon in writing. Each party shall notify the other party as to who will be acting as third party for any child exchanges.

h.Both parents shall plan weekly parenting time on a monthly basis and shall make a best effort to provide 48 hours notice of change and in the event that the parent not scheduled for time with the child cannot cover for the parent who is scheduled, then the scheduled parent shall be responsible for making accommodations for the child.

i.The parent who is ending his or her parent-time shall drop the child off at the home of the other parent, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

j.Both parents shall allow liberal phone communications and shall encourage the child to call the other parent. Each parent shall allow the minor child to contact the other parent at anytime the minor child desires to have telephone contact. Should a parent buy a personal cell phone for the child to use while with the other parent, either parent shall have the right to take the cell phone away from the child's possession for disciplinary purposes only, and provided that upon request the child is permitted to call the other parent or receive calls from the other parent. The cell phone shall go where the child goes and the child shall be permitted to use the cell phone when the child wants to call one of the parents.

k.Each party has the right to contact the child on a daily basis by phone. This call can take place between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. This call shall not be unreasonably denied by the residing parent, as long as it does not conflict with existing plans, scheduled events, or interfere with the child's customary routine, thereby causing emotional discomfort.

l.If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set out above under this Parent Time section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

m.Both parents shall communicate with each other prior to forming conclusions about things that the child tells the parents. The reason for this provision is to try to eliminate the misunderstandings and misinterpretations that the parents may be affected by if the parents believe everything the child says prior to discussing what was said with the other parent. This, also, shall help to eliminate the child playing the parents against each other.

n.Both parents shall be concerned for the best interest and well-being of the child; therefore, both parents shall be governed by the following principles:

i.The parties shall have a co-parenting relationship which shall be built on trust and respect;

ii.The parties shall establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the child's needs;

iii.The parties shall support each other in their respective parenting roles and shall say positive words about the other parent to the child and shall be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent. This purpose is honorable for the child to develop good self-esteem;

iv.The parties shall listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;

v.The parties shall make all attempts to resolve conflict between them and shall utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they personally are unsuccessful;

vi.The parties shall solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;

vii.If tension arises in a telephone call, the parties shall take a break from the telephone call or leave their conversations to e-mail;

viii.The parties shall work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;

ix.The parties shall live by the golden rule that they shall treat each other as they would like to be treated;

x.The parties shall start over and recommit to this parenting plan when one or both of them steps outside of the plan and forgets about a commitment made in this plan; and

o.Any clothing, toys, and other items of the child's personal effects shall be exchanged by the parties, and returned in clean condition, in order to facilitate the child's visits.

p.The Advisory Guidelines as set forth in §30-3-33, Utah Code Annotated, shall be binding upon the parties. The parties, also shall be required to implement the spirit and intent, including the actual provisions, of §30-3-32, Utah Code Annotated.

q.Both parents shall be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the child. The parents, also, shall prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent.

r.Each party shall notify the other whenever that party intends to take the child on any overnight trip that is at least two (2) nights, and provide each other with a travel itinerary with addresses and telephone numbers where they may be reached in the event of an emergency. Each party shall obtain the other's written permission to take the child if a trip interferes with the other parent's parenting time.

s.Neither party shall excessively drink alcohol in the presence of the minor child or be hung over or drunk while in the presence of the minor child. Further, Petitioner and Respondent shall not do any illegal drugs or abuse any prescription medication.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF CUSTODY EVALUATOR

10.Petitioner and Respondent shall follow the recommendations of the custody evaluator with some variations, as follows:

a.The minor child shall be put in pre-school or daycare beginning in the fall of 2012 at a mutually agreed-upon pre-school or daycare. Beginning on March 1, 2013, and continuing until September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50.00 per month toward the child's day care/preschool, and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount. Beginning on October 1, 2013, when the child begins day care/preschool closer to Respondent's home, the parties shall split the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis, meaning that Petitioner shall pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs and Respondent shall pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs.

b.When the minor child begins kindergarten, the minor child shall attend Hayden Peak Elementary School in the Jordan School District unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The child shall continue his education in the Jordan School District for junior high and high school. As soon as the minor child begins kindergarten, Respondent shall drop the minor child off at Petitioner's home for his parent-time on Wednesday afternoons and alternating Thursday afternoons.

c.Petitioner shall pay for 100% of the therapy for the minor child for up to two (2) years following the signing of the Stipulation. After the two-year period, the parties shall split all therapy costs for the child on a 50/50 basis. The therapist for the child shall be someone who is on Petitioner's insurance.

d.Both Petitioner and Respondent shall attend therapy and/or counseling, and follow the recommendations of their respective therapists and/or counselors. Therapy may end upon the recommendation of the therapist. Each party shall be solely responsible for payment of his or her counseling sessions.

e.Each party shall inform the other party of the identity of any third party conducting child exchanges or providing surrogate care. The exchanges may also occur at the child's school or day care, or curbside at the residences of the parties.

f.The minor child shall reside in Salt Lake County until at least the age of 12 years. If any parent desires to move after this time, that parent shall notify the other parent pursuant to the current version of Utah Code Ann. Section 30-3-37 (a minimum of 60 days' advance written notice) and the parties shall attend mediation to discuss parent-time and custody before litigating the matter in court.

COOPERATION ON CO-PARENTING

11.The parties shall regularly discuss the day-to-day routines and decisions being implemented in their homes to help the child feel comfortable in both homes by minimizing the differences in parenting styles. The parties shall adhere to the following:

a.Neither shall be required to follow the suggestions of the other party unless ordered by the Court;

b.Both parents shall cooperate in fostering the best interest of their child;

c.Each parent has the right to create an independent life with the child, allowing each to continue to play a full and active role in providing a sound emotional, moral, social, and educational environment for the child; and

d.Both parents shall share information on any condition, problem, significant fact, or circumstance, which may affect the other parent's relationship with, or the well-being of, the child.

NON-INVOLVEMENT

12.Neither party shall ask, nor attempt in any way to have, the child transfer messages between the parties, either verbal or written. The parents shall contact each other directly via phone or email to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and shall not involve the child.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL FUNCTIONS

13.Both parties shall be entitled to participate in all social and school functions involving their child.

ILLNESS

14.The parties shall notify the other when the child is ill. When the child is ill, regularly scheduled parenting times shall be discussed with both parents prior to the parenting time to decide whether the parenting time shall be rescheduled. Neither parent shall use illness of the child as a means to frustrate the other parent's parent-time.

RESPECT AND COOPERATION

15.Both parents shall recognize that the best interests of the child require them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the child. Both parents shall use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships between the child by encouraging affection, promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent. In addition, both parties shall adhere to the following:

a.Neither parent shall attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the child in any form. Neither parent shall make, nor shall they allow, another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other parent in the presence of the child;

b.The parents shall cooperate and include each other in their child's day care, health care, school, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and shall notify each other of their child's regular activities; and

c.The parents shall not involve the child in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other, but they may jointly discuss issues with their child to get his input.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH PARENT-TIME

16.Both parties shall never schedule or promote to the child any special events or activities that fall on the other party's parenting time without first obtaining permission from that party in the following manner:

a.The requesting party shall notify the other party of the event or activity and discuss with the other party the benefits of the child's attendance prior to discussing it with the child. If the other party already has something scheduled or decides that the child cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent shall abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the child;

b.The child shall be free to express his interest in any activity to either parent at any time; and

c.Neither party shall interfere with the other party's parenting time in any form. If either parent denies physical access to scheduled parent time without just cause, that parent shall pay all costs associated with mediation, arbitration, or court related legal fees, associated with resolving the violation and to ensure freedom from future violations.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH THE PARTIES' PERSONAL LIVES

17.Each party shall be completely free from the interference, authority and control over the other, except as impacts the care of the child, as set forth in this document. Each party shall have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other. Further, if the court finds either party's actions against the other to be dishonest, deceptive, frivolous, or in any way that violates the guidelines set forth in this document, the court can order the offending party to pay all costs for mediation and legal fees incurred by the other party, plus damages for suffering and reasonable fees for time spent in defense.

TEMPORARY ADJUSTMENTS

18.The parties shall be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parenting plan schedule for unexpected situations. The parent seeking an adjustment shall give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least 24 hours except in an emergency). The other party shall use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment, but shall not unreasonably refuse.

RELATIVES

19.Ongoing relationships between the child and relatives shall be encouraged and continued.

CONTACT INFORMATION

20.Each party shall keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

CHILD SUPPORT

21.Petitioner's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3,118, and Respondent's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $2,253. Based on the incomes and the overnights of 182 for Petitioner and 183 for Respondent, the child support order would be $63.00 per month. However, child support shall be deviated to $0, because Petitioner is paying 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Respondent, and Respondent is paying 100% of the life insurance policy on the child, and anticipates, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, paying 100% of the child's dental and vision insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Petitioner.

22.This child support order shall commence January 2013. There is no child support arrearage between the parties. Pursuant to 78B-12-112, Utah Code Annotated, child support shall be payable in full by the 1st day of each month or it shall be due one-half by the 5th and one-half on the 20th of each month.

23.Pursuant to 78B-12-219, Utah Code Annotated, there shall be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

24.Pursuant to 78B-12-216, Utah Code Annotated, there shall be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

25.Child support shall continue until the minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during his normal and expected graduating class, whichever occurs later.

26.An order authorizing Universal Withholding Relief, pursuant to Part 4, Chapter 11, title 62A, Utah Code Annotated, shall be awarded if the child support obligor becomes thirty (30) days delinquent in the payment of child support obligations.

MEDICAL INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

27.Pursuant to 78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated, Petitioner and Respondent shall provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of the minor child. Petitioner shall continue to provide medical insurance for the minor child, and Petitioner shall be solely responsible for 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums. There is no medical premium arrearage between the parties.

28.Respondent shall provide life, dental, and vision insurance for the minor child, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, and Respondent shall be solely responsible for 100% of the child's life, dental, and vision premiums.

29.Petitioner and Respondent shall divide equally all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses of the minor child and which are not covered by insurance, subject to the conditions as stated below. There are no arrearages for any out-of-pocket medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses for the child. For a non-emergency or non-essential expense to qualify for 50% reimbursement, the parties shall discuss and confer with each other before incurring the expense, otherwise the expense shall be solely paid for by the party who incurred the expense without discussing it with the other party and/or over the objection of the other party, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

30.Both parties shall be responsible for any and all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses that they incur on behalf of themselves. There are no arrearages for any such charges between the parties. For any outstanding or existing medical debts, the parties shall take the debts in their names and hold the other party harmless of any such debts.

31.The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in the §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

32.The parent who incurs medical expenses shall be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of payment within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

33.The parent who incurs the medical expenses shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

34.Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

35.Each parent shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

36.Each parent shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

37.Pursuant to Section 78B-12-214, Utah Code Annotated, both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related, career, or occupational training child care expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

38.If a parent incurs an actual expense for child care, the other parent shall begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of child care expense and proof of payment of said expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

from the child care provider for any expenses incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

40.The parent who incurred the child care expense shall be reimbursed by the other parent on a monthly basis, but no later than thirty (30) days after sending a receipt to the other parent for such expenses. If the parent seeking reimbursement of the child care expenses fails to provide written verification of those expenses and proof of payment of said expenses within thirty (30) days of incurring said expenses, that parent waives the right to reimbursement of said expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

41.Child care costs shall only be divided if the cost is incurred due to the parent being at work, career or occupational training; otherwise the party is responsible for all costs of that child care, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

42.Both parents shall allow the other parent to have input as to choosing the child care provider. Both parties shall give the other parent first chance to provide care for the child if the need arises.

MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

43.Petitioner and Respondent shall respectively pay one-half of all extracurricular activity expenses of the minor child. However, any extracurricular activity shall be agreed to jointly by the parties, prior to the child being enrolled or taking part in such activities. If the parties are unable to jointly agree to the extracurricular activity, either party shall be entitled to have the child participate in the extracurricular activity if that party pays entirely for the extracurricular activity. The parties shall act in good faith in deciding whether the minor child shall participate in an extracurricular activity.

DIVORCE EDUCATION

44.Both parties have taken the required "Divorce Education for Parents" class and provided proof to counsel and to the Court.

REAL PROPERTY

45.During the course of the marriage, neither the Petitioner nor the Respondent has acquired any real property.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, PENSION FUNDS, ETC.

46.Petitioner and Respondent each shall retain all monies contained in any retirement accounts, pension funds, or individual retirement accounts, other than social security, that are in their own respective names, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

47.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain items of personal property.

48.Petitioner shall be awarded the following items of personal property and shall be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by the Respondent:

a.His personal effects and his sole personal property.

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Petitioner by Respondent;

49.Respondent shall be awarded the following items of personal property and shall be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

a.Her personal effects and her sole personal property;

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Respondent by Petitioner;

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS AND CHECKING ACCOUNTS

50.Petitioner and Respondent do not have money held in joint savings or checking accounts.

51.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Petitioner's sole name shall be awarded to the Petitioner.

52.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Respondent's sole name shall be awarded to the Respondent.

STOCKS, BONDS, AND MISCELLANEOUS SECURITIES

53.Each party shall be awarded whatever stocks, bonds, and miscellaneous securities are in his or her sole name.

SEPARATE PROPERTY

54.All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of acquisition prior to marriage, family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources, except as specifically addressed herein shall be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

55.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain debts and obligations.

56.Petitioner shall assume and pay and hold Respondent harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Petitioner subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Petitioner above;

c.Debt owed to U.S. Bank;

d.Debt owed to Chase;

e.All debts in his name;

f.All medical bills incurred prior to May 13, 2010;

57.Respondent shall assume and pay and hold Petitioner harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Respondent subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010, except as specifically addressed herein;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Respondent above.

58.Petitioner and Respondent shall provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce and shall notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the Court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

DELINQUENCY IN PAYMENTS

59.If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt shall remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset shall be placed immediately on the market for sale to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes a payment on a delinquent debt to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

60.The allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other; therefore, the parties shall not be able to discharge the debts in bankruptcy. This provision shall not bind the bankruptcy court.

REFINANCE

61.Each party shall offer their best efforts to remove each other from any debts, obligations, loans, etc. by refinance or otherwise and put the loan or obligation solely in their respective name, and to assume responsibility for and release any financial burden from the other party.

BANKRUPTCY

62.If either party files for bankruptcy, it shall constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances for any subsequent petition to modify regarding any financial issues herein.

TAXES AND TAX EXEMPTION

63.Petitioner and Respondent shall alternate each year the entitlement to claim any and all tax exemptions related to their minor child such that Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in odd-numbered years, and Respondent shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in even-numbered years.

ALIMONY

64.Petitioner shall pay to Respondent a total of $14,000 in alimony, to be paid in monthly installments of $200.00 beginning in March of 2013 until paid in full. Each monthly installment is due by the first of the month. In the event that Petitioner is thirty (30) days late on a monthly installment, the amount due shall be accelerated so that the total amount unpaid shall be due and owing, and Respondent shall have the right to initiate garnishment or other collection proceedings for the amount then due and owing. The alimony award is considered a settlement of the parties' I-864 issue. Upon any such default, nothing shall prevent the parties from negotiating a new installment payment plan on the amount due and owing, provided that any agreement shall be in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court.

65.Petitioner's alimony obligation shall not terminate upon Respondent's remarriage or cohabitation or for any other reason except in the event of the death of either party.

I-864 AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT

66.As long as Petitioner is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent shall not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864 Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

SURNAME CHANGE

67.The surname of Respondent shall be changed to Roy unless Respondent chooses otherwise.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

68.Petitioner and Respondent each shall pay their own respective attorney's fees and costs associated with all aspects of their divorce.

COOPERATION

69.Each party shall cooperate with the other, through counsel and otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure that the

Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

70.Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

71.Both parties shall be restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child about the issues in this case or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or visitation, which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Both parties also shall be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

72.Both parties shall be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or shall remove the child from such circumstances.

DEFAULT

73.If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in this document, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of this document.

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner, vs. JORDAN-LEE POULSEN, Respondent.	FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW Civil No. 094905182 Honorable Kate A. Toomey Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

FINDINGS OF FACT

JURISDICTION

1.Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of the action in accordance with 30-3-1(2), Utah Code Annotated.

2.Respondent is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of the action in accordance with 30-3-1(2), Utah Code Annotated.

3.Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to 78B-13-1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, in that:

a.Utah is the home state of the minor child at the time of the commencement of this proceeding.

b.Said minor child has resided in the State of Utah since the time of his birth or at least the majority of his life.

c.Neither Petitioner nor Respondent have been a party, witness, or have participated in any other capacity in any other litigation concerning the custody of the subject minor child in this State or any other State.

d.Petitioner and Respondent do not have information of any custody proceeding concerning the subject minor child pending in a court of this State or any other State.

e.Petitioner and Respondent do not know of any person not a party to these proceedings who have physical custody of the subject minor child and who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to said child.

MARRIAGE STATUS

4.Petitioner and Respondent were married on or about March 14, 2009, in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and are presently married.

5.Petitioner and Respondent separated in or about January of 2010, and currently are separated.

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

6.Petitioner and Respondent should be granted a divorce from each other on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because they have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of their marriage impossible. As such, the parties have an adequate basis for divorce under 30-3-1(3), Utah Code Annotated, and they should be awarded a Decree of Divorce from each other dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

CHILDREN

7.There has been one (1) child born to Petitioner and Respondent who is presently under legal age and whose initials and date of birth are: K.N.R.P., September 17, 2009.

CHILD CUSTODY

8.Given the relationships and dealings between Petitioner and Respondent concerning past, present, and future Legal custody issues, it would be in the best interest of the child that Petitioner and Respondent be awarded JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child. Both Petitioner and Respondent should act in good faith and use their best efforts to mutually agree on decisions as they arise. Notwithstanding, should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, neither party should be the final decision-maker. The parties should attend mediation to resolve any issues regarding the child that the parties cannot agree on. Emergency decisions and everyday minor decisions should be made by whichever parent has the child at the time of the decision.

9.Given the relationships and dealings between Petitioner and Respondent concerning past, present, and future Physical custody issues, it would be in the best interest of the minor child that Petitioner and Respondent be awarded JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child.

10.The parties should share equal parent-time with the minor child as follows:

a.Respondent should have the child each Monday and Tuesday, including those overnights;

b.Petitioner should have the child each Wednesday and Thursday, including those overnights;

c.The parties should alternate weekends from Friday through Sunday, including those overnights, in accordance with the practice already established by the parties.

d. When it is Petitioner's weekend, he should have the child from Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. until Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Petitioner's weekend, his parent-time should start on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. and end on Friday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

e. When it is Respondent's weekend, she should have the child from Friday morning at 9:30 a.m. until Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Respondent's weekend, her parent-time should begin on Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., and end on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

f. If either party is unable to personally care for the child for a period of three (3) consecutive hours or more, that party should offer the right to provide personal care to the other parent, and if the other parent so accepts, the other parent is responsible for transportation at the beginning and the ending of the right-of-first-refusal parent-time.

11. The parties should share holidays equally each year as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree on a holiday schedule, then the schedule provided by § 30-3-35, Utah Code Annotated, should apply, which provides as follows:

a. Holidays take precedence over the weekend visitation, and changes should not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend visitation schedule;

b. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the party entitled to the holiday should be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day;

c. At the election of the party entitled to the holiday, that party may begin parent-time from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed at the beginning of the holiday weekend until 7:00 p.m. on the last day of the holiday weekend;

d. If a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the party with the holiday should be entitled to this lengthier holiday period;

e. Additionally, either party may take the other party's parent-time during the week for up to two (2) days, and not during holidays, if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides two (2) weeks' notice. The parties should make their best efforts to allow either party to take the other party's holiday parent-time if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides three (3) weeks' notice, but if the parties cannot agree, then they should revert to the statutory holiday schedule. The parties should make up the taken parent-time within a reasonable time, but no later than one (1) month after the taken parent-time.

12. In years ending in an odd number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a. The child's birthday on the day before or after the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

b. Martin Luther King Jr., beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until Monday at 7:00 p.m. unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c. Spring Break or Easter holiday, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school lets out for the holiday until 7:00 p.m. on the Sunday before school resumes;

d. July 4th, beginning 6:00 p.m. on the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or no later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e. Labor Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and continuing until Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

f. The fall school break, if applicable, commonly known as U.E.A. weekend, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

g. Veteran's Day holiday beginning 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday, and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday; and

h. The first portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, including Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, continuing until 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or until 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire holiday is equally divided.

13. In years ending in an even number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a. The child's birthday on the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. and ending at 9:00 p.m.;

b. President's Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until 7:00 p.m. on Monday unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c. Memorial Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and ending Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

d.July 24th beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or not later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Columbus Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday and continuing until 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

f.Halloween on October 31, or the day Halloween is traditionally celebrated in the local community from after school until 9:00 p.m. if on a school day, or from 4:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

g.Thanksgiving holiday, beginning Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.; and

h.The second portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, beginning 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or at 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire Christmas holiday is equally divided.

i.Respondent is entitled to the odd year holidays in even years and the even year holidays in odd years.

j.Father's Day should be spent with the Petitioner every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

k.Mother's Day should be spent with the Respondent every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

l.Each party should be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted time during the child's summer vacation from school for purposes of vacation;

m. Notification of extended visitation or vacation weeks with the child should be provided at least (30) days in advance to the other parent; and

n. Telephone contact should be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration;

o. Virtual parent time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, should be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration, provided that if the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court should decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

  i. the best interests of the child;

  ii. each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and

  iii. any other factors the court considers material.

PARENTING PLAN

14. The minor child should spend 182 overnights in the home of the Petitioner and 183 overnights in the home of the Respondent each year. Pursuant to 30-3-10.1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, the following parenting plan should be ordered and followed:

a. The parents should discuss with each other and mutually decide the significant decisions regarding the child, including, but not limited to, the child's education, health care, and religious upbringing. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of the child.

b. Day to day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' child should be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.

c.Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan should be discussed and mutually decided by both parents. Neither parent has the final say over the other parent. Should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, then the parties should attend mediation before litigating.

d.Should the Petitioner and Respondent have a dispute regarding parenting of the child, and said dispute cannot be resolved between themselves, then the dispute should be resolved through mediation before any other avenue of dispute resolution can be utilized.

e.Should either parent feel that a decision made under paragraphs a, b, c and d above is contrary to the best interests of the child, that parent may arrange for counseling or mediation through a mutually agreed upon counselor or mediator. A written record should be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling/mediation and a copy provided to each party. Any costs associated with this procedure are to be shared equally between the parties. No dispute may be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through counseling or mediation. If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent. The Court has the right of review from any counseling or mediation.

f.The child's regular school hours should not be interrupted for parent-time. Petitioner and Respondent should both have access to all school reports and personnel.

g.At the request of either the Petitioner or the Respondent, pick-ups and drop-

h.Both parents should plan weekly parenting time on a monthly basis and should make a best effort to provide 48 hours notice of change and in the event that the parent not scheduled for time with the child cannot cover for the parent who is scheduled, then the scheduled parent should be responsible for making accommodations for the child.

i.The parent who is ending his or her parent-time should drop the child off at the home of the other parent, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

j.Both parents should allow liberal phone communications and should encourage the child to call the other parent. Each parent should allow the minor child to contact the other parent at anytime the minor child desires to have telephone contact. Should a parent buy a personal cell phone for the child to use while with the other parent, either parent should have the right to take the cell phone away from the child's possession for disciplinary purposes only, and provided that upon request the child is permitted to call the other parent or receive calls from the other parent. The cell phone should go where the child goes and the child should be permitted to use the cell phone when the child wants to call one of the parents.

k.Each party has the right to contact the child on a daily basis by phone. This call can take place between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. This call should not be unreasonably denied by the residing parent, as long as it does not conflict with existing plans, scheduled events, or interfere with the child's customary routine, thereby causing emotional discomfort.

l.If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set out above under this Parent Time section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

m.Both parents should communicate with each other prior to forming conclusions about things that the child tells the parents. The reason for this provision is to try to eliminate the misunderstandings and misinterpretations that the parents may be affected by if the parents believe everything the child says prior to discussing what was said with the other parent. This, also, should help to eliminate the child playing the parents against each other.

n.Both parents should be concerned for the best interest and well-being of the child; therefore, both parents should be governed by the following principles:

  i.The parties should have a co-parenting relationship which should be built on trust and respect;

  ii.The parties should establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the child's needs;

  iii.The parties should support each other in their respective parenting roles and should say positive words about the other parent to the child and should be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent. This purpose is honorable for the child to develop good self-esteem;

  iv.The parties should listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;

  v.The parties should make all attempts to resolve conflict between them and should utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they personally are unsuccessful;

  vi.The parties should solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;

vii.If tension arises in a telephone call, the parties should take a break from the telephone call or leave their conversations to e-mail;

viii.The parties should work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;

ix.The parties should live by the golden rule that they should treat each other as they would like to be treated;

x.The parties should start over and recommit to this parenting plan when one or both of them steps outside of the plan and forgets about a commitment made in this plan; and

o.Any clothing, toys, and other items of the child's personal effects should be exchanged by the parties, and returned in clean condition, in order to facilitate the child's visits.

p.The Advisory Guidelines as set forth in §30-3-33, Utah Code Annotated, should be binding upon the parties. The parties, also should be required to implement the spirit and intent, including the actual provisions, of §30-3-32, Utah Code Annotated.

q.Both parents should be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the child. The parents, also, should prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent.

r.Each party should notify the other whenever that party intends to take the child on any overnight trip that is at least two (2) nights, and provide each other with a travel itinerary with addresses and telephone numbers where they may be reached in the event of an emergency. Each party should obtain the other's written permission to take the child if a trip interferes with the other parent's parenting time.

s.Neither party should excessively drink alcohol in the presence of the minor child or be hung over or drunk while in the presence of the minor child. Further, Petitioner and Respondent should not do any illegal drugs or abuse any prescription medication.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF CUSTODY EVALUATOR

15.Petitioner and Respondent should follow the recommendations of the custody evaluator with some variations, as follows:

a.The minor child should be put in pre-school or daycare beginning in the fall of 2012 at a mutually agreed-upon pre-school or daycare. Beginning on March 1, 2013, and continuing until September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50.00 per month toward the child's day care/preschool, and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount. Beginning on October 1, 2013, when the child begins day care/preschool closer to Respondent's home, the parties should split the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis, meaning that Petitioner should pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs and Respondent should pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs.

b.When the minor child begins kindergarten, the minor child should attend Hayden Peak Elementary School in the Jordan School District unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The child should continue his education in the Jordan School District for junior high and high school. As soon as the minor child begins kindergarten, Respondent should drop the minor child off at Petitioner's home for his parent-time on Wednesday afternoons and alternating Thursday afternoons.

c.Petitioner should pay for 100% of the therapy for the minor child for up to two (2) years following the signing of the Stipulation. After the two-year period, the parties should split all therapy costs for the child on a 50/50 basis. The therapist for the child should be someone who is on Petitioner's insurance.

d.Both Petitioner and Respondent should attend therapy and/or counseling, and follow the recommendations of their respective therapists and/or counselors. Therapy may end upon the recommendation of the therapist. Each party should be solely responsible for payment of his or her counseling sessions.

e.Each party should inform the other party of the identity of any third party conducting child exchanges or providing surrogate care. The exchanges may also occur at the child's school or day care, or curbside at the residences of the parties.

f.The minor child should reside in Salt Lake County until at least the age of 12 years. If any parent desires to move after this time, that parent should notify the other parent pursuant to the current version of Utah Code Ann. Section 30-3-37 (a minimum of 60 days' advance written notice) and the parties should attend mediation to discuss parent-time and custody before litigating the matter in court.

COOPERATION ON CO-PARENTING

16.The parties should regularly discuss the day-to-day routines and decisions being implemented in their homes to help the child feel comfortable in both homes by minimizing the differences in parenting styles. The parties should adhere to the following:

a.Neither should be required to follow the suggestions of the other party unless ordered by the Court;

b.Both parents should cooperate in fostering the best interest of their child;

c.Each parent has the right to create an independent life with the child, allowing each to continue to play a full and active role in providing a sound emotional, moral, social, and educational environment for the child; and

d.Both parents should share information on any condition, problem, significant fact, or circumstance, which may affect the other parent's relationship with, or the well-being of, the child.

NON-INVOLVEMENT

17.Neither party should ask, nor attempt in any way to have, the child transfer messages between the parties, either verbal or written. The parents should contact each other directly via phone or email to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and should not involve the child.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL FUNCTIONS

18.Both parties should be entitled to participate in all social and school functions involving their child.

ILLNESS

19.The parties should notify the other when the child is ill. When the child is ill, regularly scheduled parenting times should be discussed with both parents prior to the parenting time to decide whether the parenting time should be rescheduled. Neither parent should use illness of the child as a means to frustrate the other parent's parent-time.

RESPECT AND COOPERATION

20.Both parents should recognize that the best interests of the child require them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the child. Both parents should use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships between the child by encouraging affection, promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent. In addition, both parties should adhere to the following:

a.Neither parent should attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the child in any form. Neither parent should make, nor should they allow, another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other parent in the presence of the child;

b.The parents should cooperate and include each other in their child's day care, health care, school, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and should notify each other of their child's regular activities; and

c.The parents should not involve the child in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other, but they may jointly discuss issues with their child to get his input.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH PARENT-TIME

21.Both parties should never schedule or promote to the child any special events or activities that fall on the other party's parenting time without first obtaining permission from that party in the following manner:

a.The requesting party should notify the other party of the event or activity and discuss with the other party the benefits of the child's attendance prior to discussing it with the child. If the other party already has something scheduled or decides that the child cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent should abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the child;

b.The child should be free to express his interest in any activity to either parent at any time; and

c.Neither party should interfere with the other party's parenting time in any form. If either parent denies physical access to scheduled parent time without just cause, that parent should pay all costs associated with mediation, arbitration, or court related legal fees, associated with resolving the violation and to ensure freedom from future violations.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH THE PARTIES' PERSONAL LIVES

22.Each party should be completely free from the interference, authority and control over the other, except as impacts the care of the child, as set forth in this document. Each party should have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other. Further, if the court finds either party's actions against the other to be dishonest, deceptive, frivolous, or in any way that violates the guidelines set forth in this document, the court can order the offending party to pay all costs for mediation and legal fees incurred by the other party, plus damages for suffering and reasonable fees for time spent in defense.

TEMPORARY ADJUSTMENTS

23.The parties should be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parenting plan schedule for unexpected situations. The parent seeking an adjustment should give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least 24 hours except in an emergency). The other party should use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment, but should not unreasonably refuse.

RELATIVES

24.Ongoing relationships between the child and relatives should be encouraged and continued.

CONTACT INFORMATION

25.Each party should keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

CHILD SUPPORT

26.Petitioner's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3,118, and Respondent's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $2,253. Based on the incomes and the overnights of 182 for Petitioner and 183 for Respondent, the child support order would be $63.00 per month. However, child support is deviated to $0, because Petitioner is paying 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Respondent, and Respondent is paying 100% of the life insurance policy on the child, and anticipates, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, paying 100% of the child's dental and vision insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Petitioner.

27.This child support order should commence January 2013. There is no child support arrearage between the parties. Pursuant to 78B-12-112, Utah Code Annotated, child support should be payable in full by the 1st day of each month or it should be due one-half by the 5th and one-half on the 20th of each month.

28.Pursuant to 78B-12-219, Utah Code Annotated, it is fair and reasonable that there should be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

29.Pursuant to 78B-12-216, Utah Code Annotated, it is fair and reasonable that there should be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

30.Child support should continue until the minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during his normal and expected graduating class, whichever occurs later.

31.An order authorizing Universal Withholding Relief, pursuant to Part 4, Chapter 11, title 62A, Utah Code Annotated, should be awarded if the child support obligor becomes thirty (30) days delinquent in the payment of child support obligations.

MEDICAL INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

32.Pursuant to 78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated, Petitioner and Respondent should provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of the minor child. Petitioner should continue to provide medical insurance for the minor child, and Petitioner should be solely responsible for 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums. There is no medical premium arrearage between the parties.

33.Respondent should provide life, dental, and vision insurance for the minor child, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, and Respondent should be solely responsible for 100% of the child's life, dental, and vision premiums.

34.Petitioner and Respondent should divide equally all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses of the minor child and which are not covered by insurance, subject to the conditions as stated below. There are no arrearages for any out-of-pocket medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses for the child. For a non-emergency or non-essential expense to qualify for 50% reimbursement, the parties should discuss and confer with each other before incurring the expense, otherwise the expense should be solely paid for by the party who incurred the expense without discussing it with the other party and/or over the objection of the other party, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

35.Both parties should be responsible for any and all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses that they incur on behalf of themselves. There are no arrearages for any such charges between the parties. For any outstanding or existing medical debts, the parties should take the debts in their names and hold the other party harmless of any such debts.

36.The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses should provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in the §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

37.The parent who incurs medical expenses should be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of payment within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

38.The parent who incurs the medical expenses should be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

39.Petitioner and Respondent should cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

40.Each parent should provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

41.Each parent should provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

42.Pursuant to Section 78B-12-214, Utah Code Annotated, both parties should share equally the reasonable work-related, career, or occupational training child care expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and

43.If a parent incurs an actual expense for child care, the other parent should begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of child care expense and proof of payment of said expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

44.The parent who incurs child care expenses should provide written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter within thirty (30) days of receiving a bill from the child care provider for any expenses incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

45.The parent who incurred the child care expense should be reimbursed by the other parent on a monthly basis, but no later than thirty (30) days after sending a receipt to the other parent for such expenses. If the parent seeking reimbursement of the child care expenses fails to provide written verification of those expenses and proof of payment of said expenses within thirty (30) days of incurring said expenses, that parent waives the right to reimbursement of said expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50

toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

46.Child care costs should only be divided if the cost is incurred due to the parent being at work, career or occupational training; otherwise the party is responsible for all costs of that child care, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

47.Both parents should allow the other parent to have input as to choosing the child care provider. Both parties should give the other parent first chance to provide care for the child if the need arises.

MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

48.Petitioner and Respondent should respectively pay one-half of all extracurricular activity expenses of the minor child. However, any extracurricular activity should be agreed to jointly by the parties, prior to the child being enrolled or taking part in such activities. If the parties are unable to jointly agree to the extracurricular activity, either party should be entitled to have the child participate in the extracurricular activity if that party pays entirely for the extracurricular activity. The parties should act in good faith in deciding whether the minor child should participate in an extracurricular activity.

DIVORCE EDUCATION

49.Both parties have taken the required "Divorce Education for Parents" class and provided proof to counsel and to the Court.

REAL PROPERTY

50.During the course of the marriage, neither the Petitioner nor the Respondent has acquired any real property.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, PENSION FUNDS, ETC.

51.Petitioner and Respondent each should retain all monies contained in any retirement accounts, pension funds, or individual retirement accounts, other than social security, that are in their own respective names, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

52.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain items of personal property.

53.Petitioner should be awarded the following items of personal property and should be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by the Respondent:

a.His personal effects and his sole personal property.

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Petitioner by Respondent;

54.Respondent should be awarded the following items of personal property and should be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

a.Her personal effects and her sole personal property;

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Respondent by Petitioner;

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS AND CHECKING ACCOUNTS

55.Petitioner and Respondent do not have money held in joint savings or checking accounts.

56.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Petitioner's sole name should be awarded to the Petitioner.

57.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Respondent's sole name should be awarded to the Respondent.

STOCKS, BONDS, AND MISCELLANEOUS SECURITIES

58.Each party should be awarded whatever stocks, bonds, and miscellaneous securities are in his or her sole name.

SEPARATE PROPERTY

59.All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of acquisition prior to marriage, family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources, except as specifically addressed herein should be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

60.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain debts and obligations.

61.Petitioner should assume and pay and hold Respondent harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Petitioner subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Petitioner above;

c.Debt owed to U.S. Bank;

d.Debt owed to Chase;

e.All debts in his name;

f.All medical bills incurred prior to May 13, 2010;

62.Respondent should assume and pay and hold Petitioner harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Respondent subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010, except as specifically addressed herein;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Respondent above.

63.Petitioner and Respondent should provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce and should notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the Court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

DELINQUENCY IN PAYMENTS

64.If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt should remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset should be placed immediately on the market for sale to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes a payment on a delinquent debt to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

REQUEST FOR NON-DISCHARGEABILITY IN BANKRUPTCY

65.The allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other; therefore, the parties should not be able to discharge the debts in bankruptcy. This provision does not bind the bankruptcy court.

REFINANCE

66.Each party should offer their best efforts to remove each other from any debts, obligations, loans, etc. by refinance or otherwise and put the loan or obligation solely in their respective name, and to assume responsibility for and release any financial burden from the other party.

BANKRUPTCY

67.If either party files for bankruptcy, it should constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances for any subsequent petition to modify regarding any financial issues herein.

TAXES AND TAX EXEMPTION

68.Petitioner and Respondent should alternate each year the entitlement to claim any and all tax exemptions related to their minor child such that Petitioner should be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in odd-numbered years, and Respondent should be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in even-numbered years.

ALIMONY

69.Petitioner should pay to Respondent a total of $14,000 in alimony, to be paid in monthly installments of $200.00 beginning in March of 2013 until paid in full. Each monthly installment is due by the first of the month. In the event that Petitioner is thirty (30) days late on a monthly installment, the amount due should be accelerated so that the total amount unpaid should be due and owing, and Respondent should have the right to initiate garnishment or other collection proceedings for the amount then due and owing. The alimony award is considered a settlement of the parties' I-864 issue. Upon any such default, nothing should prevent the parties from negotiating a new installment payment plan on the amount due and owing, provided that any agreement should be in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court.

70.Petitioner's alimony obligation should not terminate upon Respondent's remarriage or cohabitation or for any other reason except in the event of the death of either party.

I-864 AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT

71.As long as Petitioner is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent should not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864 Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

SURNAME CHANGE

72.The surname of Respondent should be changed to Roy unless Respondent chooses otherwise.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

73.Petitioner and Respondent each should pay their own respective attorney's fees and costs associated with all aspects of their divorce.

COOPERATION

74.Each party should cooperate with the other, through counsel and otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

75.Each party should execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

76.Both parties should be restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child about the issues in this case or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or visitation, which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Both parties also should be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

77.Both parties should be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and should have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or should remove the child from such circumstances.

DEFAULT

78.If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in this document, the party in default should be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of this document.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Court concludes that as set out above under the Court's Findings of Fact, the parties are subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, the parties have irreconcilable differences, and the parties are entitled to a Decree of Divorce, the same to become final upon entry herein.

2. The Court concludes that the terms of the Decree of Divorce are in the best interests of the child and are fair and reasonable, and all other issues of dispute have been resolved with the Court pursuant to the above Findings of Fact.

IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT FOR THE

DISTRICT OF UTAH

JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Plaintiff, v. AARON POULSEN, Defendant.	COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATION OF U.S. IMMIGRATION LAW (8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A)) AND THE USCIS FORM I-864 AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT UNDER SECTION 213A OF THE IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALITY ACT Civil No.: 2:25-cv-425

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a lawsuit to recover damages owed by the Defendant for violating financial support provisions of U.S. immigration law, 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A), and an associated contract termed the United States and Immigration Services Form I-864, Affidavit of Support Under Section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act ("Affidavit of Support").

2. Defendant Aaron Poulsen served as the immigration sponsor for his former wife, Plaintiff Jordan Lee Poulsen. By doing so, Mr. Poulsen was required to maintain Ms. Poulsen's income at 125 percent of the poverty line. This duty was imposed by Congress so that immigration sponsors, not the American public, serve as a financial safety net for new immigrants. Mr. Poulsen has breached that contractual obligation.

3. This lawsuit seeks an assessment of damages equal to the difference between Ms. Poulsen's actual annual income and 125 percent of the poverty line. The lawsuit further seeks to compel Mr. Poulsen's compliance with the Affidavit of Support until it terminates by operation of law.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. The District of Utah has subject matter jurisdiction as this action arises under the federal Immigration and Nationality Act 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(e)(1); 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Mr. Poulsen because, by signing the Affidavit of Support, he submitted to the jurisdiction of any court with subject matter jurisdiction over Ms. Poulsen's claims. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(C).

6. Venue is proper in this District as Mr. Poulsen resides within the District, to wit, in West Jordan, Utah. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1).

7. Venue is additionally proper in this District as Mr. Poulsen's omissions, giving rise to this claim, occurred within the District. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2).

8. Venue in this District is also proper because Mr. Poulsen's waiver of personal jurisdiction in signing the Affidavit of Support also operates to waive objections to venue as to any court with subject matter jurisdiction over Ms. Poulsen's claim.

III. PARTIES

9. Plaintiff Jordan Lee Poulsen is a citizen of Canada and a lawful permanent resident ("Resident") of the United States of America.

10. Ms. Poulsen resides in Pleasant View, Utah.

11. Defendant Aaron Poulsen is a U.S. citizen and Ms. Poulsen's former spouse. He resides in West Jordan, Utah.

12. Mr. Poulsen served as Ms. Poulsen's immigration sponsor and executed an Affidavit of Support, thereby contractually promising to provide a specified level of financial assistance to Ms. Poulsen.

13. Mr. Poulsen lives in West Jordan, Utah.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Ms. Poulsen's immigration to the United States.

14. The parties were married in Utah on March 15, 2009.

15. On April 21, 2009, Mr. Poulsen signed a U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS") Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative (the "Visa Petition"). A copy of the Visa Petition is attached as Exhibit 2.

16. On the same day, Ms. Poulsen signed a USCIS Form I-485, Application to Adjust Status ("Adjustment Application"). A copy of the Adjustment Application is attached as Exhibit 3.

17. Adjudication of the Adjustment Application required USCIS to assess whether Ms. Poulsen was subject to any of the grounds of inadmissibility enumerated in the Immigration and Nationality Act. See 8 U.S.C. § 1182. Among these is public charge inadmissibility.

Execution of the Affidavit of Support.

18. Since 1882, federal law has excluded the immigration of individuals considered "likely to become a public charge." Act of Aug. 3, 1882, 22 Stat. 214; 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(4). Public charge inadmissibility bars individuals likely to become financially dependent on American taxpayers.

19. In family-based immigration matters, the INA imposes a specific requirement for overcoming public charge inadmissibility. Family-based applicants – including those in cases predicated on marriage – are per se inadmissible on public charge grounds unless they provide a properly executed Affidavit of Support. 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(4)(C); see also 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(a)(2)(ii) (listing narrow categories of exceptions).

20. Ms. Poulsen did not qualify for any of the grounds that would have exempted her from the requirement to file an Affidavit of Support as a requirement for her Adjustment Application.

21. As the visa petitioner, Mr. Poulsen was required to file an Affidavit of Support. Under federal law in effect at all times material to this Complaint, USCIS could not lawfully have approved Ms. Poulsen's Adjustment Application unless Mr. Poulsen, as the petitioner, filed an Affidavit of Support.

22. On April 21, 2009, Mr. Poulsen signed an Affidavit of Support, listing Ms. Poulsen as the intending immigrant beneficiary (the "Affidavit of Support"). A copy of the Affidavit of Support is attached as Exhibit 1.

23. The Affidavit of Support was filed with Ms. Poulsen's Adjustment Application. Once filed in this matter, the Affidavit of Support was executed by operation of law and became an enforceable contract. 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(a)(1)(ii).

24. USCIS approved the Visa Petition and Ms. Poulsen's Adjustment Application on August 12, 2009.

25. Ms. Poulsen became an LPR on August 12, 2009, triggering Mr. Poulsen's legal obligations under the Affidavit of Support.

26. Because Ms. Poulsen's admission was predicated on a marriage that, at the time, was fewer than 24 months in duration, her LPR status was designated as "conditional."

27. On July 11, 2011, Ms. Poulsen signed and thereafter filed a USCIS Form I-751, Petition to Remove Conditions on Residency ("Petition to Remove Conditions on Residency"). A copy of the Petition to Remove Conditions on Residency is attached as Exhibit 4.

28. USCIS approved Ms. Poulsen's Petition to Remove Conditions on Residency.

29. Ms. Poulsen has maintained uninterrupted status as an LPR since the status was originally conferred on August 12, 2009. A copy of her current residency card is attached as Exhibit 5.

Terms of the Affidavit of Support.

30. Once executed, the Affidavit of Support constituted a binding contract between Mr. Poulsen and the United States government.

31. By signing the Affidavit of Support, Mr. Poulsen agreed to three distinct legal obligations.

32. First, he agreed to provide Ms. Poulsen with any support necessary to maintain her income at 125 percent of the Federal poverty guidelines ("Poverty Line") for her household size. The first of these three obligations is the basis for this Complaint.

33. Second, he agreed to repay the cost of federally funded means-tested public benefits provided to Ms. Poulsen.

34. Finally, Mr. Poulsen agreed to report any change in his residential address to USCIS within 30 days. Failing to timely report such an address change subjects Mr. Poulsen to a civil fine per 8 C.F.R. § 213a.3(b).

35. As used in the Affidavit of Support, 8 U.S.C. § 1183a, and 8 C.F.R. Part 213a, "income" means an individual's total income (or adjusted gross income for those who file IRS Form 1040EZ) for purposes of the individual's U.S. Federal income tax liability, including a joint income tax return. 8 C.F.R. § 213a.1.

36. By signing the Affidavit of Support, Mr. Poulsen acknowledged that Ms. Poulsen can sue him to enforce her right to financial support. Mr. Poulsen further agreed to submit to the personal jurisdiction of any federal or state court with subject matter jurisdiction over a lawsuit against him to enforce the Affidavit.

37. Mr. Poulsen certified under penalty of perjury that he had read and understood each part of the obligations described in the Affidavit of Support. He certified that his agreement was made freely and without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion to accept the obligations in the Affidavit of Support.

38. Mr. Poulsen's duties under the Affidavits of Support commenced on August 12, 2009.

Separation, Divorce and Mr. Poulsen's Violation of Support Duty.

39. Since before the celebration of their marriage, the parties' relationship had been marked by a high degree of conflict.

40. On November 25, 2009, Mr. Poulsen filed a petition for divorce in the Third Judicial District of Salt Lake County. Cause No. 094905182. Over 15 years later, litigation in that case remains ongoing, concerning disputes over the parties' one child.[1]

[1] The child was born in the United States and is not considered a member of Ms. Poulsen's household for the purpose of Mr. Poulsen's financial obligations under federal law. Further reference to the child is omitted from this Complaint in the interest of their privacy.

41. The family law court entered a final decree of divorce (the "Divorce Decree") on April 15, 2013. A copy of the Divorce Decree is attached as Exhibit 7.

42. The Divorce Decree awarded Ms. Poulsen $14,000 in alimony, based,in part on Mr. Poulsen having executed the Affidavit of Support. Ex. 7, p. 26.

43. The Divorce Decree further stated (Ex. 7, p. 26, emphasis added):

> As long as Petitioner is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent shall not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864 Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period [sic] during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

44. The purport and intent of the Decree was to absolve Mr. Poulsen of liability under the Affidavit of Support while he maintained payment of $200/month.

45. Mr. Poulsen continued monthly payments of $200/month through March 2018.[2] He has provided no support to Ms. Poulsen since then.

46. Ms. Poulsen's income through December 31, 2023, is set forth in her Social Security earnings statement, attached as Exhibit 5.

47. Ms. Poulsen had no income in 2024.

[2] Beginning June 2017, Mr. Poulsen paid $100/month of this sum to a third party, per an agreement of the parties codified in a May 25, 2017 order of the family court.

48. For the purpose of damages calculation under the Affidavit of Support, Ms. Poulsen has had a household of one at all times material to this matter, as she is the sole immigrant sponsored by the Affidavit of Support.

49. Ms. Poulsen has resided in one of the 48 contiguous States since becoming a U.S. Resident.

50. Table one calculates Ms. Poulsen's damages under the Affidavits of Support through December 31, 2024, as the difference between her taxable income and 125 percent of the poverty line for a household of one as in effect for each listed year in the lower 48 states.

Table 1

Calculation of Damages Owed Through December 31, 2024

Year	Poverty Line (FPG)	125% FPG	Income	Damages
2018	$12,140.00	$15,175	$0	$11,376[3]
2019	$12,490.00	$15,613	$0	$15,613
2020	$12,760.00	$15,950	$0	$15,950
2021	$12,880.00	$16,100	$8,644	$7,456
2022	$13,590.00	$16,988	$19,168	$0
2023	$14,580.00	$18,225	$0	$18,225
2024	$15,060.00	$18,825	$0	$18,825
			Total:	$87,445

[3] $1,264/month x 9 months.

51. As a result of Mr. Poulsen's failure to provide her with financial support, Ms. Poulsen has suffered additional direct damages since January 1, 2025, in an amount to be determined at trial.

The Affidavit of Support Remains in Effect.

52. The Affidavit of Support lists five conditions subsequent (the "Terminating Events"), the occurrence of which end Mr. Poulsen's obligations under the contract. None of these Terminating Events has occurred.

53. Mr. Poulsen's obligations conclude once Ms. Poulsen becomes a U.S. citizen (the "First Terminating Event"). Ms. Poulsen is neither a U.S. citizen nor has she applied to naturalize.

54. Mr. Poulsen's obligations conclude Ms. Poulsen has worked or can receive credit for 40 quarters of work under the Social Security Act (the "Second Terminating Event"). Ms. Poulsen has neither worked nor can receive credit for 40 quarters of work under the Social Security Act. See Exhibit 5 (assessing Ms. Poulsen with 32 quarters of coverage as of January 21, 2025, exclusive of tax year 2024, which was not yet reported).

55. Mr. Poulsen's obligations under the Affidavits of Support conclude once Ms. Poulsen is no longer a Resident and has departed the U.S. (the "Third Terminating Event"). 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i)(C). Ms. Poulsen has neither lost status as a Resident nor thereafter left the U.S.

56. Mr. Poulsen's obligations under the Affidavit of Support conclude if Ms. Poulsen is subject to an order of removal but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status based on a new affidavit of support, if required (the "Forth Terminating Event"). 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i)(D). Ms. Poulsen has never been in removal proceedings, let alone been subject to an order of removal.

57. Mr. Poulsen's obligations under the Affidavits of Support conclude once Ms. Poulsen dies (the "Fifth Terminating Event"). 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i)(E). Ms. Poulsen is still alive.

58. Mr. Poulsen's duties under the Affidavits of Support remain in effect.

V. CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

1 – Violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A)

59. Ms. Poulsen re-alleges and incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully stated herein.

60. By executing the Affidavit of Support, Mr. Poulsen became responsible for providing assistance to Ms. Poulsen in compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A), to wit, to provide any assistance required to keep Ms. Poulsen's household income at a level equal to at least 125 percent of the poverty line.

61. Mr. Poulsen's duties under 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A) was triggered when Ms. Poulsen became a Resident on August 12, 2009.

62. Since April 2018, Ms. Poulsen's income has been below 125 percent of the poverty line, as set forth in Table 1, above.

63. Mr. Poulsen has provided no financial assistance to Ms. Poulsen since April 2018.

64. Mr. Poulsen has violated 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A) and is liable for damages of $87,445, through December 31, 2024, plus an additional sum to be determined at trial, equal to the difference between Ms. Poulsen's annual income since January 1, 2025 and 125 percent of the federal poverty line.

2 – Breach of contract as authorized by 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(e)(1)

65. Ms. Poulsen re-alleges and incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully stated herein.

66. By executing the Affidavit of Support, Mr. Poulsen entered into an express written contract with the United States Government.

67. Ms. Poulsen is a third-party beneficiary of the Affidavits of Support.

68. Ms. Poulsen has standing as a third party to enforce her rights under the Affidavits of Support.

69. Under the express terms of the Affidavit of Support, Mr. Poulsen agreed to provide Ms. Poulsen with any support necessary to maintain her at an income that is at least 125 percent of the poverty line for her household size.

70. Mr. Poulsen's responsibility to provide income support commenced on August 12, 2009, when Ms. Poulsen became a lawful permanent resident of the United States.

71. All conditions precedent to Mr. Poulsen's duty to perform on the Affidavit of Support were fulfilled as of August 12, 2009.

72. Mr. Poulsen has breached the Affidavit of Support by failing to provide income support to Ms. Poulsen

73. As a result of Mr. Poulsen's breach, Ms. Poulsen has suffered damages in the amount of April 2018 through December 31, 2024, plus an additional sum to be determined at trial, equal to the difference between Ms. Poulsen's annual income since January 1, 2025 and 125 percent of the federal poverty line.

VI. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Ms. Poulsen requests the following relief from the Court:

A. Entry of judgment against the Defendants and in favor of Ms. Poulsen each and every cause of action asserted herein.

B. An award of actual damages in the amount of $87,445, representing the sum owed through December 31, 2024.

C. An award of actual damages in an amount equivalent to 125% of the poverty line for a household size of one, minus annual earned income, for the period from January 1, 2025, to the date on which the judgment issues.

D. An order of specific performance, requiring Mr. Poulsen to make monthly payments to Ms. Poulsen for the amount set forth in Paragraph C above, until such time as a Terminating Event occurs. That such payments shall be due by the fifth calendar day of each month and deposited in the trust account of Ms. Poulsen's law firm.

E. An award of all Ms. Poulsen's attorney fees and costs per 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c) and the fee and cost provision within the Affidavit of Support Contracts.

F. The right to amend this complaint to conform to the evidence presented at trial.

G. An award of pre-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed by law.

H. An award of post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed by law.

I. Such other and further relief in Ms. Poulsen's favor as the Court may deem just and equitable under the circumstances.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I.(a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.Cv.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.
United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.
Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.
Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If there are multiple nature of suit codes associated with the case, pick the nature of suit code that is most applicable. Click here for: Nature of Suit Code Descriptions.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.
Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.
Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441.
Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.
Multidistrict Litigation – Transfer. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407.
Multidistrict Litigation – Direct File. (8) Check this box when a multidistrict case is filed in the same district as the Master MDL docket.
PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE IS NOT AN ORIGIN CODE 7. Origin Code 7 was used for historical records and is no longer relevant due to changes in statue.

VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553 Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service.

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.
Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction.
Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

Part 8. Sponsor's Contract.

Please note that, by signing this Form I-864, you agree to assume certain specific obligations under the Immigration and Nationality Act and other Federal laws. The following paragraphs describe those obligations. Please read the following information carefully before you sign the Form I-864. If you do not understand the obligations, you may wish to consult an attorney or accredited representative.

What is the Legal Effect of My Signing a Form I-864?

If you sign a Form I-864 on behalf of any person (called the "intending immigrant") who is applying for an immigrant visa or for adjustment of status to a permanent resident, and that intending immigrant submits the Form I-864 to the U.S. Government with his or her application for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status, under section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act these actions create a contract between you and the U. S. Government. The intending immigrant's becoming a permanent resident is the "consideration" for the contract.

Under this contract, you agree that, in deciding whether the intending immigrant can establish that he or she is not inadmissible to the United States as an alien likely to become a public charge, the U.S. Government can consider your income and assets to be available for the support of the intending immigrant.

What If I choose Not to Sign a Form I-864?

You cannot be made to sign a Form I-864 if you do not want to do so. But if you do not sign the Form I-864, the intending immigrant may not be able to become a permanent resident in the United States.

What Does Signing the Form I-864 Require Me to do?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then, until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, you must:

-- Provide the intending immigrant any support necessary to maintain him or her at an income that is at least 125 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for his or her household size (100 percent if you are the petitioning sponsor and are on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces and the person is your husband, wife, unmarried child under 21 years old.)

-- Notify USCIS of any change in your address, within 30 days of the change, by filing Form I-865.

What Other Consequences Are There?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, your income and assets may be considered ("deemed") to be available to that person, in determining whether he or she is eligible for certain Federal means-tested public benefits and also for State or local means-tested public benefits, if the State or local government's rules provide for consideration ("deeming") of your income and assets as available to the person.

This provision does not apply to public benefits specified in section 403(c) of the Welfare Reform Act such as, but not limited to, emergency Medicaid, short-term, non-cash emergency relief; services provided under the National School Lunch and Child Nutrition Acts; immunizations and testing and treatment for communicable diseases; and means-tested programs under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Contract continued on following page.

What If I Do Not Fulfill My Obligations?

If you do not provide sufficient support to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, that person may sue you for this support.

If a Federal, State or local agency, or a private agency provides any covered means-tested public benefit to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, the agency may ask you to reimburse them for the amount of the benefits they provided. If you do not make the reimbursement, the agency may sue you for the amount that the agency believes you owe.

If you are sued, and the court enters a judgment against you, the person or agency that sued you may use any legally permitted procedures for enforcing or collecting the judgment. You may also be required to pay the costs of collection, including attorney fees.

If you do not file a properly completed Form I-865 within 30 days of any change of address, USCIS may impose a civil fine for your failing to do so.

When Will These Obligations End?

Your obligations under a Form I-864 will end if the person who becomes a permanent resident based on a Form I-864 that you signed:

- Becomes a U.S. citizen;
- Has worked, or can be credited with, 40 quarters of coverage under the Social Security Act;
- No longer has lawful permanent resident status, and has departed the United States;
- Becomes subject to removal, but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status, based on a new affidavit of support, if one is required; or
- Dies.

Note that divorce does not terminate your obligations under this Form I-864.

Your obligations under a Form I-864 also end if you die. Therefore, if you die, your Estate will not be required to take responsibility for the person's support after your death. Your Estate may, however, be responsible for any support that you owed before you died.

30. I, Aaron Poulsen

Your registration with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

"I understand and acknowledge that, under section 262 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), as an alien who has been or will be in the United States for more than 30 days, I am required to register with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. I understand and acknowledge that, under section 265 of the Act, I am required to provide USCIS with my current address and written notice of any change of address within ten days of the change. I understand and acknowledge that USCIS will use the most recent address that I provide to USCIS, on any form containing these acknowledgements, for all purposes, including the service of a Notice to Appear should it be necessary for USCIS to initiate removal proceedings against me. I understand and acknowledge that if I change my address without providing written notice to USCIS, I will be held responsible for any communications sent to me at the most recent address that I provided to USCIS. I further understand and acknowledge that, if removal proceedings are initiated against me and I fail to attend any hearing, including an initial hearing based on service of the Notice to Appear at the most recent address that I provided to USCIS or as otherwise provided by law, I may be ordered removed in my absence, arrested, and removed from the United States."

Selective Service Registration

The following applies to you if you are a male at least 18 years old, but not yet 26 years old, who is required to register with the Selective Service System: "I understand that my filing Form I-485 with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services authorizes USCIS to provide certain registration information to the Selective Service System in accordance with the Military Selective Service Act. Upon USCIS acceptance of my application, I authorize USCIS to transmit to the Selective Service System my name, current address, Social Security Number, date of birth, and the date I filed the application for the purpose of recording my Selective Service registration as of the filing date. If, however, USCIS does not accept my application, I further understand that, if so required, I am responsible for registering with the Selective Service by other means, provided I have not yet reached age 26."

Applicant's Certification

I certify, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that this application and the evidence submitted with it is all true and correct. Your Social Security Statement

JORDANLEE POULSEN

January 21, 2025

Retirement Benefits

To get retirement benefits, you need 40 credits of work. Your record shows you have 32 credits at this time. This includes credits not yet reported on your earnings record from last year and this year if you continued to work.
Your full retirement age is 67, based on your date of birth: [redacted], 1984.
Learn more at ssa.gov/benefits/retirement/learn.html .

Disability Benefits

To get benefits if you become disabled right now, you need 20 credits of work. You had to earn these credits in the last 10 years. Your record shows you do not have enough credits at this time to receive disability benefits. Learn more at ssa.gov/disability.

Survivors Benefits

You have earned enough credits for your eligible family members to receive survivors benefits. If you die this year, members of your family who may qualify for monthly benefits include:

Minor child:	$768
Spouse, if caring for a disabled child or child younger than age 16:	$768
Spouse, if benefits start at full retirement age:	$1,025
Total family benefits cannot be more than:	$1,537

Your spouse or minor child may be eligible for an additional one-time death benefit of $255. Learn more at ssa.gov/survivors.

How Credits Help You Qualify for Benefits

You need 40 credits to become eligible (also known as being fully insured) for retirement benefits. You can still earn credits and become fully insured if you work. You can earn up to four credits per year. The amount needed for a credit rises most years. You can find the current amount at ssa.gov/benefits/retirement/planner/credits.html .

Medicare

To get Medicare benefits at age 65, you need 40 credits of work. Your record shows you have 32 credits at this time. However, even if you don't have enough credits when you reach age 65, you may contact Social Security to learn whether you are eligible to buy Medicare coverage.
Medicare is the federal health insurance program for people:

- age 65 and older,
- under 65 with certain disabilities, and
- of any age with End-Stage Renal Disease (ESRD) (permanent kidney failure requiring dialysis or a kidney transplant).

We base benefit estimates on current law, which Congress has revised before and may revise again to address needed changes. Learn more about Social Security's future at ssa.gov/ThereForMe.

Earnings Record

Review your earnings history below to ensure it is accurate because we base your future benefits on our record of your earnings. There's a limit to the amount of earnings you pay Social Security taxes on each year. Earnings above the limit do not appear on your earnings record. If you find an error, view your full earnings record online and call 1-800-772-1213.

Taxes Paid

Total estimated Social Security and Medicare taxes paid over your working career based on your Earnings Record:

Social Security taxes	Medicare taxes
You paid: $8,143	You paid: $2,001
Employer(s): $8,572	Employer(s): $2,001

Earnings Not Covered by Social Security

You may also have earnings from work not covered by Social Security, where you did not pay Social Security taxes. This work might have been for federal, state, or local government or in a foreign country. If you participate in a retirement plan or receive a pension based on work for which you did not pay Social Security tax, it could lower your benefits. Learn more at ssa.gov/gpo-wep .

Important Things to Know about Your Social Security Benefits

- Social Security benefits are not intended to be your only source of retirement income. You may need other savings, investments, pensions, or retirement accounts to make sure you have enough money when you retire.
- You need at least 10 years of work (40 credits) to qualify for retirement benefits. Your benefit amount is based on your highest 35 years of earnings. If you have fewer than 35 years of earnings, years without work count as 0 and may reduce your benefit amount.
- If you get retirement or disability benefits, your spouse and children also may qualify for benefits.
- If you and your spouse both work, use the my Social Security Retirement Calculator to estimate spousal benefits.
- If you are divorced and were married for 10 years, you may be able to claim benefits on your ex-spouse's record.

Attorney for Petitioner: AARON KENT POULSEN

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner,
vs.
JORDAN-LEE POULSEN,
Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No. 094905182
Honorable Kate A. Toomey
Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

NOW, THEREFORE, THE COURT, having reviewed and accepted the parties' Stipulation, and having made and entered the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now makes and enters the following Decree of Divorce:

IT SHALL BE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED:

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

1. Petitioner and Respondent shall be granted a divorce from each other on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because they have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of their marriage impossible. As such, the parties have an adequate basis for divorce under 30-3-1(3), Utah Code Annotated, and they shall be and are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from each other dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

CHILDREN

2.There has been one (1) child born to Petitioner and Respondent who is presently under legal age and whose initials and date of birth are: K.N.R.P., [redacted] 2009.

CHILD CUSTODY

3.Petitioner and Respondent shall be and are hereby awarded JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child. Both Petitioner and Respondent shall act in good faith and use their best efforts to mutually agree on decisions as they arise. Notwithstanding, shall an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, neither party shall be the final decision-maker. The parties shall attend mediation to resolve any issues regarding the child that the parties cannot agree on. Emergency decisions and everyday minor decisions shall be made by whichever parent has the child at the time of the decision.

4.Petitioner and Respondent shall be and are hereby awarded JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child.

5.The parties shall share equal parent-time with the minor child as follows:

a.Respondent shall have the child each Monday and Tuesday, including those overnights;

b.Petitioner shall have the child each Wednesday and Thursday, including those overnights;

c.The parties shall alternate weekends from Friday through Sunday, including those overnights, in accordance with the practice already established by the parties.

d.When it is Petitioner's weekend, he shall have the child from Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. until Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Petitioner's weekend, his parent-time shall start on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. and end on Friday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

e.When it is Respondent's weekend, she shall have the child from Friday morning at 9:30 a.m. until Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Respondent's weekend, her parent-time shall begin on Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., and end on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

f.If either party is unable to personally care for the child for a period of three (3) consecutive hours or more, that party shall offer the right to provide personal care to the other parent, and if the other parent so accepts, the other parent is responsible for transportation at the beginning and the ending of the right-of-first-refusal parent-time.

6.The parties shall share holidays equally each year as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree on a holiday schedule, then the schedule provided by § 30-3-35, Utah Code Annotated, shall apply, which provides as follows:

a.Holidays take precedence over the weekend visitation, and changes shall not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend visitation schedule;

b.If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the party entitled to the holiday shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day;

c.At the election of the party entitled to the holiday, that party may begin parent-time from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed at the beginning of the holiday weekend until 7:00 p.m. on the last day of the holiday weekend;

d.If a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the party with the holiday shall be entitled to this lengthier holiday period;

e.Additionally, either party may take the other party's parent-time during the week for up to two (2) days, and not during holidays, if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides two (2) weeks' notice. The parties shall make their best efforts to allow either party to take the other party's holiday parent-time if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides three (3) weeks' notice, but if the parties cannot agree, then they shall revert to the statutory holiday schedule. The parties shall make up the taken parent-time within a reasonable time, but no later than one (1) month after the taken parent-time.

7.In years ending in an odd number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the day before or after the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

b.Martin Luther King Jr., beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until Monday at 7:00 p.m. unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Spring Break or Easter holiday, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school lets out for the holiday until 7:00 p.m. on the Sunday before school resumes;

d.July 4th, beginning 6:00 p.m. on the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or no later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Labor Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and continuing until Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

f.The fall school break, if applicable, commonly known as U.E.A. weekend, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

g.Veteran's Day holiday beginning 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday, and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday; and

h.The first portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, including Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, continuing until 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or until 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire holiday is equally divided.

8.In years ending in an even number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. and ending at 9:00 p.m.;

b.President's Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until 7:00 p.m. on Monday unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Memorial Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and ending Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

d.July 24th beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or not later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Columbus Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday and continuing until 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

f.Halloween on October 31, or the day Halloween is traditionally celebrated in the local community from after school until 9:00 p.m. if on a school day, or from 4:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

g.Thanksgiving holiday, beginning Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.; and

h.The second portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, beginning 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or at 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire Christmas holiday is equally divided.

i.Respondent is entitled to the odd year holidays in even years and the even year holidays in odd years.

j.Father's Day shall be spent with the Petitioner every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

k.Mother's Day shall be spent with the Respondent every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

l.Each party shall be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted time during the child's summer vacation from school for purposes of vacation;

m.Notification of extended visitation or vacation weeks with the child shall be provided at least (30) days in advance to the other parent; and n.Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration;

o.Virtual parent time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, shall be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration, provided that if the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

i.the best interests of the child;

ii.each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and

iii.any other factors the court considers material.

PARENTING PLAN

9.The minor child shall spend 182 overnights in the home of the Petitioner and 183 overnights in the home of the Respondent each year. Pursuant to 30-3-10.1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, the following parenting plan shall be ordered and followed:

a.The parents shall discuss with each other and mutually decide the significant decisions regarding the child, including, but not limited to, the child's education, health care, and religious upbringing. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of the child.

b.Day to day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' child shall be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.

c.Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan shall be discussed and mutually decided by both parents. Neither parent has the final say over the other parent. Should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, then the parties shall attend mediation before litigating.

d.Should the Petitioner and Respondent have a dispute regarding parenting of the child, and said dispute cannot be resolved between themselves, then the dispute shall be resolved through mediation before any other avenue of dispute resolution can be utilized.

e.Should either parent feel that a decision made under paragraphs a, b, c and d above is contrary to the best interests of the child, that parent may arrange for counseling or mediation through a mutually agreed upon counselor or mediator. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling/mediation and a copy provided to each party. Any costs associated with this procedure are to be shared equally between the parties. No dispute may be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through counseling or mediation. If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent. The Court has the right of review from any counseling or mediation.

f.The child's regular school hours shall not be interrupted for parent-time. Petitioner and Respondent shall both have access to all school reports and personnel.

g.At the request of either the Petitioner or the Respondent, pick-ups and drop-offs shall be curbside or as agreed upon in writing. Each party shall notify the other party as to who will be acting as third party for any child exchanges.

h.Both parents shall plan weekly parenting time on a monthly basis and shall make a best effort to provide 48 hours notice of change and in the event that the parent not scheduled for time with the child cannot cover for the parent who is scheduled, then the scheduled parent shall be responsible for making accommodations for the child.

i.The parent who is ending his or her parent-time shall drop the child off at the home of the other parent, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

j.Both parents shall allow liberal phone communications and shall encourage the child to call the other parent. Each parent shall allow the minor child to contact the other parent at anytime the minor child desires to have telephone contact. Should a parent buy a personal cell phone for the child to use while with the other parent, either parent shall have the right to take the cell phone away from the child's possession for disciplinary purposes only, and provided that upon request the child is permitted to call the other parent or receive calls from the other parent. The cell phone shall go where the child goes and the child shall be permitted to use the cell phone when the child wants to call one of the parents.

k.Each party has the right to contact the child on a daily basis by phone. This call can take place between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. This call shall not be unreasonably denied by the residing parent, as long as it does not conflict with existing plans, scheduled events, or interfere with the child's customary routine, thereby causing emotional discomfort.

l.If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set out above under this Parent Time section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

m.Both parents shall communicate with each other prior to forming conclusions about things that the child tells the parents. The reason for this provision is to try to eliminate the misunderstandings and misinterpretations that the parents may be affected by if the parents believe everything the child says prior to discussing what was said with the other parent. This, also, shall help to eliminate the child playing the parents against each other.

n.Both parents shall be concerned for the best interest and well-being of the child; therefore, both parents shall be governed by the following principles:

  i.The parties shall have a co-parenting relationship which shall be built on trust and respect;

  ii.The parties shall establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the child's needs;

  iii.The parties shall support each other in their respective parenting roles and shall say positive words about the other parent to the child and shall be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent. This purpose is honorable for the child to develop good self-esteem;

  iv.The parties shall listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;

  v.The parties shall make all attempts to resolve conflict between them and shall utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they personally are unsuccessful;

  vi.The parties shall solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;

  vii.If tension arises in a telephone call, the parties shall take a break from the telephone call or leave their conversations to e-mail;

  viii.The parties shall work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;

  ix.The parties shall live by the golden rule that they shall treat each other as they would like to be treated;

x.The parties shall start over and recommit to this parenting plan when one or both of them steps outside of the plan and forgets about a commitment made in this plan; and

xi.The parties shall see the other parent as a resource, consultant and ally. The parties shall work together effectively as co-parents to promote the best interests of the child.

o.Any clothing, toys, and other items of the child's personal effects shall be exchanged by the parties, and returned in clean condition, in order to facilitate the child's visits.

p.The Advisory Guidelines as set forth in §30-3-33, Utah Code Annotated, shall be binding upon the parties. The parties, also shall be required to implement the spirit and intent, including the actual provisions, of §30-3-32, Utah Code Annotated.

q.Both parents shall be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the child. The parents, also, shall prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent.

r.Each party shall notify the other whenever that party intends to take the child on any overnight trip that is at least two (2) nights, and provide each other with a travel itinerary with addresses and telephone numbers where they may be reached in the event of an emergency. Each party shall obtain the other's written permission to take the child if a trip interferes with the other parent's parenting time.

s.Neither party shall excessively drink alcohol in the presence of the minor child or be hung over or drunk while in the presence of the minor child. Further, Petitioner and Respondent shall not do any illegal drugs or abuse any prescription medication.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF CUSTODY EVALUATOR

10.Petitioner and Respondent shall follow the recommendations of the custody evaluator with some variations, as follows:

a.The minor child shall be put in pre-school or daycare beginning in the fall of 2012 at a mutually agreed-upon pre-school or daycare. Beginning on March 1, 2013, and continuing until September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50.00 per month toward the child's day care/preschool, and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount. Beginning on October 1, 2013, when the child begins day care/preschool closer to Respondent's home, the parties shall split the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis, meaning that Petitioner shall pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs and Respondent shall pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs.

b.When the minor child begins kindergarten, the minor child shall attend Hayden Peak Elementary School in the Jordan School District unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The child shall continue his education in the Jordan School District for junior high and high school. As soon as the minor child begins kindergarten, Respondent shall drop the minor child off at Petitioner's home for his parent-time on Wednesday afternoons and alternating Thursday afternoons.

c.Petitioner shall pay for 100% of the therapy for the minor child for up to two (2) years following the signing of the Stipulation. After the two-year period, the parties shall split all therapy costs for the child on a 50/50 basis. The therapist for the child shall be someone who is on Petitioner's insurance.

d.Both Petitioner and Respondent shall attend therapy and/or counseling, and follow the recommendations of their respective therapists and/or counselors. Therapy may end upon the recommendation of the therapist. Each party shall be solely responsible for payment of his or her counseling sessions.

e.Each party shall inform the other party of the identity of any third party conducting child exchanges or providing surrogate care. The exchanges may also occur at the child's school or day care, or curbside at the residences of the parties.

f.The minor child shall reside in Salt Lake County until at least the age of 12 years. If any parent desires to move after this time, that parent shall notify the other parent pursuant to the current version of Utah Code Ann. Section 30-3-37 (a minimum of 60 days' advance written notice) and the parties shall attend mediation to discuss parent-time and custody before litigating the matter in court.

COOPERATION ON CO-PARENTING

11.The parties shall regularly discuss the day-to-day routines and decisions being implemented in their homes to help the child feel comfortable in both homes by minimizing the differences in parenting styles. The parties shall adhere to the following:

a.Neither shall be required to follow the suggestions of the other party unless ordered by the Court;

b.Both parents shall cooperate in fostering the best interest of their child;

c.Each parent has the right to create an independent life with the child, allowing each to continue to play a full and active role in providing a sound emotional, moral, social, and educational environment for the child; and

d.Both parents shall share information on any condition, problem, significant fact, or circumstance, which may affect the other parent's relationship with, or the well-being of, the child.

NON-INVOLVEMENT

12.Neither party shall ask, nor attempt in any way to have, the child transfer messages between the parties, either verbal or written. The parents shall contact each other directly via phone or email to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and shall not involve the child.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL FUNCTIONS

13.Both parties shall be entitled to participate in all social and school functions involving their child.

ILLNESS

14.The parties shall notify the other when the child is ill. When the child is ill, regularly scheduled parenting times shall be discussed with both parents prior to the parenting time to decide whether the parenting time shall be rescheduled. Neither parent shall use illness of the child as a means to frustrate the other parent's parent-time.

RESPECT AND COOPERATION

15.Both parents shall recognize that the best interests of the child require them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the child. Both parents shall use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships between the child by encouraging affection, promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent. In addition, both parties shall adhere to the following:

a.Neither parent shall attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the child in any form. Neither parent shall make, nor shall they allow, another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other parent in the presence of the child;

b.The parents shall cooperate and include each other in their child's day care, health care, school, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and shall notify each other of their child's regular activities; and

c.The parents shall not involve the child in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other, but they may jointly discuss issues with their child to get his input.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH PARENT-TIME

16.Both parties shall never schedule or promote to the child any special events or activities that fall on the other party's parenting time without first obtaining permission from that party in the following manner:

a.The requesting party shall notify the other party of the event or activity and discuss with the other party the benefits of the child's attendance prior to discussing it with the child. If the other party already has something scheduled or decides that the child cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent shall abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the child;

b.The child shall be free to express his interest in any activity to either parent at any time; and

c.Neither party shall interfere with the other party's parenting time in any form. If either parent denies physical access to scheduled parent time without just cause, that parent shall pay all costs associated with mediation, arbitration, or court related legal fees, associated with resolving the violation and to ensure freedom from future violations.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH THE PARTIES' PERSONAL LIVES

17.Each party shall be completely free from the interference, authority and control over the other, except as impacts the care of the child, as set forth in this document. Each party shall have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other. Further, if the court finds either party's actions against the other to be dishonest, deceptive, frivolous, or in any way that violates the guidelines set forth in this document, the court can order the offending party to pay all costs for mediation and legal fees incurred by the other party, plus damages for suffering and reasonable fees for time spent in defense.

TEMPORARY ADJUSTMENTS

18.The parties shall be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parenting plan schedule for unexpected situations. The parent seeking an adjustment shall give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least 24 hours except in an emergency). The other party shall use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment, but shall not unreasonably refuse.

RELATIVES

19.Ongoing relationships between the child and relatives shall be encouraged and continued.

CONTACT INFORMATION

20.Each party shall keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

CHILD SUPPORT

21.Petitioner's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3,118, and Respondent's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $2,253. Based on the incomes and the overnights of 182 for Petitioner and 183 for Respondent, the child support order would be $63.00 per month. However, child support shall be deviated to $0, because Petitioner is paying 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Respondent, and Respondent is paying 100% of the life insurance policy on the child, and anticipates, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, paying 100% of the child's dental and vision insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Petitioner.

22.This child support order shall commence January 2013. There is no child support arrearage between the parties. Pursuant to 78B-12-112, Utah Code Annotated, child support shall be payable in full by the 1st day of each month or it shall be due one-half by the 5th and one-half on the 20th of each month.

23.Pursuant to 78B-12-219, Utah Code Annotated, there shall be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

24.Pursuant to 78B-12-216, Utah Code Annotated, there shall be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

25.Child support shall continue until the minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during his normal and expected graduating class, whichever occurs later.

26.An order authorizing Universal Withholding Relief, pursuant to Part 4, Chapter 11, title 62A, Utah Code Annotated, shall be awarded if the child support obligor becomes thirty (30) days delinquent in the payment of child support obligations.

MEDICAL INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

27.Pursuant to 78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated, Petitioner and Respondent shall provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of the minor child. Petitioner shall continue to provide medical insurance for the minor child, and Petitioner shall be solely responsible for 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums. There is no medical premium arrearage between the parties.

28.Respondent shall provide life, dental, and vision insurance for the minor child, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, and Respondent shall be solely responsible for 100% of the child's life, dental, and vision premiums.

29.Petitioner and Respondent shall divide equally all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses of the minor child and which are not covered by insurance, subject to the conditions as stated below. There are no arrearages for any out-of-pocket medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses for the child. For a non-emergency or non-essential expense to qualify for 50% reimbursement, the parties shall discuss and confer with each other before incurring the expense, otherwise the expense shall be solely paid for by the party who incurred the expense without discussing it with the other party and/or over the objection of the other party, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

30.Both parties shall be responsible for any and all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses that they incur on behalf of themselves. There are no arrearages for any such charges between the parties. For any outstanding or existing medical debts, the parties shall take the debts in their names and hold the other party harmless of any such debts.

31.The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in the §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

32.The parent who incurs medical expenses shall be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of payment within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

33.The parent who incurs the medical expenses shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

34.Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

35.Each parent shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

36.Each parent shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

37.Pursuant to Section 78B-12-214, Utah Code Annotated, both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related, career, or occupational training child care expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

38.If a parent incurs an actual expense for child care, the other parent shall begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of child care expense and proof of payment of said expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

39.The parent who incurs child care expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter within thirty (30) days of receiving a bill

from the child care provider for any expenses incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

40.The parent who incurred the child care expense shall be reimbursed by the other parent on a monthly basis, but no later than thirty (30) days after sending a receipt to the other parent for such expenses. If the parent seeking reimbursement of the child care expenses fails to provide written verification of those expenses and proof of payment of said expenses within thirty (30) days of incurring said expenses, that parent waives the right to reimbursement of said expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

41.Child care costs shall only be divided if the cost is incurred due to the parent being at work, career or occupational training; otherwise the party is responsible for all costs of that child care, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

42.Both parents shall allow the other parent to have input as to choosing the child care provider. Both parties shall give the other parent first chance to provide care for the child if the need arises.

MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

43.Petitioner and Respondent shall respectively pay one-half of all extracurricular activity expenses of the minor child. However, any extracurricular activity shall be agreed to jointly by the parties, prior to the child being enrolled or taking part in such activities. If the parties are unable to jointly agree to the extracurricular activity, either party shall be entitled to have the child participate in the extracurricular activity if that party pays entirely for the extracurricular activity. The parties shall act in good faith in deciding whether the minor child shall participate in an extracurricular activity.

DIVORCE EDUCATION

44.Both parties have taken the required "Divorce Education for Parents" class and provided proof to counsel and to the Court.

REAL PROPERTY

45.During the course of the marriage, neither the Petitioner nor the Respondent has acquired any real property.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, PENSION FUNDS, ETC.

46.Petitioner and Respondent each shall retain all monies contained in any retirement accounts, pension funds, or individual retirement accounts, other than social security, that are in their own respective names, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

47.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain items of personal property.

48.Petitioner shall be awarded the following items of personal property and shall be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by the Respondent:

a.His personal effects and his sole personal property.

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Petitioner by Respondent;

49.Respondent shall be awarded the following items of personal property and shall be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

a.Her personal effects and her sole personal property;

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Respondent by Petitioner;

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS AND CHECKING ACCOUNTS

50.Petitioner and Respondent do not have money held in joint savings or checking accounts.

51.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Petitioner's sole name shall be awarded to the Petitioner.

52.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Respondent's sole name shall be awarded to the Respondent.

STOCKS, BONDS, AND MISCELLANEOUS SECURITIES

53.Each party shall be awarded whatever stocks, bonds, and miscellaneous securities are in his or her sole name.

SEPARATE PROPERTY

54.All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of acquisition prior to marriage, family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources, except as specifically addressed herein shall be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

55.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain debts and obligations.

56.Petitioner shall assume and pay and hold Respondent harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Petitioner subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Petitioner above;

c.Debt owed to U.S. Bank;

d.Debt owed to Chase;

e.All debts in his name;

f.All medical bills incurred prior to May 13, 2010;

57.Respondent shall assume and pay and hold Petitioner harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Respondent subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010, except as specifically addressed herein;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Respondent above.

58.Petitioner and Respondent shall provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce and shall notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the Court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

DELINQUENCY IN PAYMENTS

59.If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt shall remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset shall be placed immediately on the market for sale to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes a payment on a delinquent debt to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

60.The allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other; therefore, the parties shall not be able to discharge the debts in bankruptcy. This provision shall not bind the bankruptcy court.

REFINANCE

61.Each party shall offer their best efforts to remove each other from any debts, obligations, loans, etc. by refinance or otherwise and put the loan or obligation solely in their respective name, and to assume responsibility for and release any financial burden from the other party.

BANKRUPTCY

62.If either party files for bankruptcy, it shall constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances for any subsequent petition to modify regarding any financial issues herein.

TAXES AND TAX EXEMPTION

63.Petitioner and Respondent shall alternate each year the entitlement to claim any and all tax exemptions related to their minor child such that Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in odd-numbered years, and Respondent shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in even-numbered years.

ALIMONY

64.Petitioner shall pay to Respondent a total of $14,000 in alimony, to be paid in monthly installments of $200.00 beginning in March of 2013 until paid in full. Each monthly installment is due by the first of the month. In the event that Petitioner is thirty (30) days late on a monthly installment, the amount due shall be accelerated so that the total amount unpaid shall be due and owing, and Respondent shall have the right to initiate garnishment or other collection proceedings for the amount then due and owing. The alimony award is considered a settlement of the parties' I-864 issue. Upon any such default, nothing shall prevent the parties from negotiating a new installment payment plan on the amount due and owing, provided that any agreement shall be in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court.

65.Petitioner's alimony obligation shall not terminate upon Respondent's remarriage or cohabitation or for any other reason except in the event of the death of either party.

I-864 AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT

66.As long as Petitioner is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent shall not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864 Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

SURNAME CHANGE

67.The surname of Respondent shall be changed to Roy unless Respondent chooses otherwise.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

68.Petitioner and Respondent each shall pay their own respective attorney's fees and costs associated with all aspects of their divorce.

COOPERATION

69.Each party shall cooperate with the other, through counsel and otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure that the

Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

70.Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

71.Both parties shall be restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child about the issues in this case or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or visitation, which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Both parties also shall be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

72.Both parties shall be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or shall remove the child from such circumstances.

DEFAULT

73.If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in this document, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of this document.

DATED this _____ day of April, 2013.

Attorney for Petitioner: AARON KENT POULSEN

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner, vs. JORDAN-LEE POULSEN, Respondent.	:	FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW Civil No. 094905182 Honorable Kate A. Toomey Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

---

FINDINGS OF FACT

JURISDICTION

1.Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of the action in accordance with 30-3-1(2), Utah Code Annotated.

2.Respondent is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of the action in accordance with 30-3-1(2), Utah Code Annotated.

3.Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to 78B-13-1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, in that:

a.Utah is the home state of the minor child at the time of the commencement of this proceeding.

b.Said minor child has resided in the State of Utah since the time of his birth or at least the majority of his life.

c.Neither Petitioner nor Respondent have been a party, witness, or have participated in any other capacity in any other litigation concerning the custody of the subject minor child in this State or any other State.

d.Petitioner and Respondent do not have information of any custody proceeding concerning the subject minor child pending in a court of this State or any other State.

e.Petitioner and Respondent do not know of any person not a party to these proceedings who have physical custody of the subject minor child and who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to said child.

MARRIAGE STATUS

4.Petitioner and Respondent were married on or about March 14, 2009, in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and are presently married.

5.Petitioner and Respondent separated in or about January of 2010, and currently are separated.

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

6.Petitioner and Respondent should be granted a divorce from each other on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because they have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of their marriage impossible. As such, the parties have an adequate basis for divorce under 30-3-1(3), Utah Code Annotated, and they should be awarded a Decree of Divorce from each other dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

CHILDREN

7.There has been one (1) child born to Petitioner and Respondent who is presently under legal age and whose initials and date of birth are: K.N.R.P., September 17, 2009.

CHILD CUSTODY

8.Given the relationships and dealings between Petitioner and Respondent concerning past, present, and future Legal custody issues, it would be in the best interest of the child that Petitioner and Respondent be awarded JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child. Both Petitioner and Respondent should act in good faith and use their best efforts to mutually agree on decisions as they arise. Notwithstanding, should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, neither party should be the final decision-maker. The parties should attend mediation to resolve any issues regarding the child that the parties cannot agree on. Emergency decisions and everyday minor decisions should be made by whichever parent has the child at the time of the decision.

9.Given the relationships and dealings between Petitioner and Respondent concerning past, present, and future Physical custody issues, it would be in the best interest of the minor child that Petitioner and Respondent be awarded JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child.

10.The parties should share equal parent-time with the minor child as follows:

a.Respondent should have the child each Monday and Tuesday, including those overnights;

b.Petitioner should have the child each Wednesday and Thursday, including those overnights;

c.The parties should alternate weekends from Friday through Sunday, including those overnights, in accordance with the practice already established by the parties.

d. When it is Petitioner's weekend, he should have the child from Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. until Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Petitioner's weekend, his parent-time should start on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. and end on Friday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

e. When it is Respondent's weekend, she should have the child from Friday morning at 9:30 a.m. until Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Respondent's weekend, her parent-time should begin on Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., and end on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

f. If either party is unable to personally care for the child for a period of three (3) consecutive hours or more, that party should offer the right to provide personal care to the other parent, and if the other parent so accepts, the other parent is responsible for transportation at the beginning and the ending of the right-of-first-refusal parent-time.

11. The parties should share holidays equally each year as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree on a holiday schedule, then the schedule provided by § 30-3-35, Utah Code Annotated, should apply, which provides as follows:

a. Holidays take precedence over the weekend visitation, and changes should not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend visitation schedule;

b. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the party entitled to the holiday should be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day;

c.At the election of the party entitled to the holiday, that party may begin parent-time from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed at the beginning of the holiday weekend until 7:00 p.m. on the last day of the holiday weekend;

d.If a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the party with the holiday should be entitled to this lengthier holiday period;

e.Additionally, either party may take the other party's parent-time during the week for up to two (2) days, and not during holidays, if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides two (2) weeks' notice. The parties should make their best efforts to allow either party to take the other party's holiday parent-time if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides three (3) weeks' notice, but if the parties cannot agree, then they should revert to the statutory holiday schedule. The parties should make up the taken parent-time within a reasonable time, but no later than one (1) month after the taken parent-time.

12.In years ending in an odd number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the day before or after the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

b.Martin Luther King Jr., beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until Monday at 7:00 p.m. unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Spring Break or Easter holiday, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school lets out for the holiday until 7:00 p.m. on the Sunday before school resumes;

d.July 4th, beginning 6:00 p.m. on the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or no later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Labor Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and continuing until Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

f.The fall school break, if applicable, commonly known as U.E.A. weekend, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

g.Veteran's Day holiday beginning 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday, and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday; and

h.The first portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, including Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, continuing until 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or until 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire holiday is equally divided.

13.In years ending in an even number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. and ending at 9:00 p.m.;

b.President's Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until 7:00 p.m. on Monday unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Memorial Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and ending Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

d.July 24th beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or not later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Columbus Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday and continuing until 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

f.Halloween on October 31, or the day Halloween is traditionally celebrated in the local community from after school until 9:00 p.m. if on a school day, or from 4:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

g.Thanksgiving holiday, beginning Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.; and

h.The second portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, beginning 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or at 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire Christmas holiday is equally divided.

i.Respondent is entitled to the odd year holidays in even years and the even year holidays in odd years.

j.Father's Day should be spent with the Petitioner every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

k.Mother's Day should be spent with the Respondent every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

l.Each party should be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted time during the child's summer vacation from school for purposes of vacation;

m.Notification of extended visitation or vacation weeks with the child should be provided at least (30) days in advance to the other parent; and n.Telephone contact should be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration;

o.Virtual parent time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, should be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration, provided that if the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court should decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

i.the best interests of the child;

ii.each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and

iii.any other factors the court considers material.

PARENTING PLAN

14.The minor child should spend 182 overnights in the home of the Petitioner and 183 overnights in the home of the Respondent each year. Pursuant to 30-3-10.1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, the following parenting plan should be ordered and followed:

a.The parents should discuss with each other and mutually decide the significant decisions regarding the child, including, but not limited to, the child's education, health care, and religious upbringing. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of the child.

b.Day to day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' child should be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.

c.Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan should be discussed and mutually decided by both parents. Neither parent has the final say over the other parent. Should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, then the parties should attend mediation before litigating.

d.Should the Petitioner and Respondent have a dispute regarding parenting of the child, and said dispute cannot be resolved between themselves, then the dispute should be resolved through mediation before any other avenue of dispute resolution can be utilized.

e.Should either parent feel that a decision made under paragraphs a, b, c and d above is contrary to the best interests of the child, that parent may arrange for counseling or mediation through a mutually agreed upon counselor or mediator. A written record should be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling/mediation and a copy provided to each party. Any costs associated with this procedure are to be shared equally between the parties. No dispute may be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through counseling or mediation. If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent. The Court has the right of review from any counseling or mediation.

f.The child's regular school hours should not be interrupted for parent-time. Petitioner and Respondent should both have access to all school reports and personnel.

g.At the request of either the Petitioner or the Respondent, pick-ups and drop-

h.Both parents should plan weekly parenting time on a monthly basis and should make a best effort to provide 48 hours notice of change and in the event that the parent not scheduled for time with the child cannot cover for the parent who is scheduled, then the scheduled parent should be responsible for making accommodations for the child.

i.The parent who is ending his or her parent-time should drop the child off at the home of the other parent, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

j.Both parents should allow liberal phone communications and should encourage the child to call the other parent. Each parent should allow the minor child to contact the other parent at anytime the minor child desires to have telephone contact. Should a parent buy a personal cell phone for the child to use while with the other parent, either parent should have the right to take the cell phone away from the child's possession for disciplinary purposes only, and provided that upon request the child is permitted to call the other parent or receive calls from the other parent. The cell phone should go where the child goes and the child should be permitted to use the cell phone when the child wants to call one of the parents.

k.Each party has the right to contact the child on a daily basis by phone. This call can take place between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. This call should not be unreasonably denied by the residing parent, as long as it does not conflict with existing plans, scheduled events, or interfere with the child's customary routine, thereby causing emotional discomfort.

l.If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set out above under this Parent Time section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

m.Both parents should communicate with each other prior to forming conclusions about things that the child tells the parents. The reason for this provision is to try to eliminate the misunderstandings and misinterpretations that the parents may be affected by if the parents believe everything the child says prior to discussing what was said with the other parent. This, also, should help to eliminate the child playing the parents against each other.

n.Both parents should be concerned for the best interest and well-being of the child; therefore, both parents should be governed by the following principles:

i.The parties should have a co-parenting relationship which should be built on trust and respect;

ii.The parties should establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the child's needs;

iii.The parties should support each other in their respective parenting roles and should say positive words about the other parent to the child and should be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent. This purpose is honorable for the child to develop good self-esteem;

iv.The parties should listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;

v.The parties should make all attempts to resolve conflict between them and should utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they personally are unsuccessful;

vi.The parties should solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;

vii.If tension arises in a telephone call, the parties should take a break from the telephone call or leave their conversations to e-mail;

viii.The parties should work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;

ix.The parties should live by the golden rule that they should treat each other as they would like to be treated;

x.The parties should start over and recommit to this parenting plan when one or both of them steps outside of the plan and forgets about a commitment made in this plan; and

xi.The parties should see the other parent as a resource, consultant and ally. The parties should work together effectively as co-parents to promote the best interests of the child.

o.Any clothing, toys, and other items of the child's personal effects should be exchanged by the parties, and returned in clean condition, in order to facilitate the child's visits.

p.The Advisory Guidelines as set forth in §30-3-33, Utah Code Annotated, should be binding upon the parties. The parties, also should be required to implement the spirit and intent, including the actual provisions, of §30-3-32, Utah Code Annotated.

q.Both parents should be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the child. The parents, also, should prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent.

r.Each party should notify the other whenever that party intends to take the child on any overnight trip that is at least two (2) nights, and provide each other with a travel itinerary with addresses and telephone numbers where they may be reached in the event of an emergency. Each party should obtain the other's written permission to take the child if a trip interferes with the other parent's parenting time.

s.Neither party should excessively drink alcohol in the presence of the minor child or be hung over or drunk while in the presence of the minor child. Further, Petitioner and Respondent should not do any illegal drugs or abuse any prescription medication.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF CUSTODY EVALUATOR

15.Petitioner and Respondent should follow the recommendations of the custody evaluator with some variations, as follows:

a.The minor child should be put in pre-school or daycare beginning in the fall of 2012 at a mutually agreed-upon pre-school or daycare. Beginning on March 1, 2013, and continuing until September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50.00 per month toward the child's day care/preschool, and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount. Beginning on October 1, 2013, when the child begins day care/preschool closer to Respondent's home, the parties should split the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis, meaning that Petitioner should pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs and Respondent should pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs.

b.When the minor child begins kindergarten, the minor child should attend Hayden Peak Elementary School in the Jordan School District unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The child should continue his education in the Jordan School District for junior high and high school. As soon as the minor child begins kindergarten, Respondent should drop the minor child off at Petitioner's home for his parent-time on Wednesday afternoons and alternating Thursday afternoons.

c.Petitioner should pay for 100% of the therapy for the minor child for up to two (2) years following the signing of the Stipulation. After the two-year period, the parties should split all therapy costs for the child on a 50/50 basis. The therapist for the child should be someone who is on Petitioner's insurance.

d.Both Petitioner and Respondent should attend therapy and/or counseling, and follow the recommendations of their respective therapists and/or counselors. Therapy may end upon the recommendation of the therapist. Each party should be solely responsible for payment of his or her counseling sessions.

e.Each party should inform the other party of the identity of any third party conducting child exchanges or providing surrogate care. The exchanges may also occur at the child's school or day care, or curbside at the residences of the parties.

f.The minor child should reside in Salt Lake County until at least the age of 12 years. If any parent desires to move after this time, that parent should notify the other parent pursuant to the current version of Utah Code Ann. Section 30-3-37 (a minimum of 60 days' advance written notice) and the parties should attend mediation to discuss parent-time and custody before litigating the matter in court.

COOPERATION ON CO-PARENTING

16.The parties should regularly discuss the day-to-day routines and decisions being implemented in their homes to help the child feel comfortable in both homes by minimizing the differences in parenting styles. The parties should adhere to the following:

a.Neither should be required to follow the suggestions of the other party unless ordered by the Court;

b.Both parents should cooperate in fostering the best interest of their child;

c.Each parent has the right to create an independent life with the child, allowing each to continue to play a full and active role in providing a sound emotional, moral, social, and educational environment for the child; and

d.Both parents should share information on any condition, problem, significant fact, or circumstance, which may affect the other parent's relationship with, or the well-being of, the child.

NON-INVOLVEMENT

17.Neither party should ask, nor attempt in any way to have, the child transfer messages between the parties, either verbal or written. The parents should contact each other directly via phone or email to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and should not involve the child.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL FUNCTIONS

18.Both parties should be entitled to participate in all social and school functions involving their child.

ILLNESS

19.The parties should notify the other when the child is ill. When the child is ill, regularly scheduled parenting times should be discussed with both parents prior to the parenting time to decide whether the parenting time should be rescheduled. Neither parent should use illness of the child as a means to frustrate the other parent's parent-time.

RESPECT AND COOPERATION

20.Both parents should recognize that the best interests of the child require them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the child. Both parents should use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships between the child by encouraging affection, promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent. In addition, both parties should adhere to the following:

a.Neither parent should attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the child in any form. Neither parent should make, nor should they allow, another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other parent in the presence of the child;

b.The parents should cooperate and include each other in their child's day care, health care, school, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and should notify each other of their child's regular activities; and

c.The parents should not involve the child in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other, but they may jointly discuss issues with their child to get his input.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH PARENT-TIME

21.Both parties should never schedule or promote to the child any special events or activities that fall on the other party's parenting time without first obtaining permission from that party in the following manner:

a.The requesting party should notify the other party of the event or activity and discuss with the other party the benefits of the child's attendance prior to discussing it with the child. If the other party already has something scheduled or decides that the child cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent should abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the child;

b.The child should be free to express his interest in any activity to either parent at any time; and

c.Neither party should interfere with the other party's parenting time in any form. If either parent denies physical access to scheduled parent time without just cause, that parent should pay all costs associated with mediation, arbitration, or court related legal fees, associated with resolving the violation and to ensure freedom from future violations.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH THE PARTIES' PERSONAL LIVES

22.Each party should be completely free from the interference, authority and control over the other, except as impacts the care of the child, as set forth in this document. Each party should have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other. Further, if the court finds either party's actions against the other to be dishonest, deceptive, frivolous, or in any way that violates the guidelines set forth in this document, the court can order the offending party to pay all costs for mediation and legal fees incurred by the other party, plus damages for suffering and reasonable fees for time spent in defense.

TEMPORARY ADJUSTMENTS

23.The parties should be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parenting plan schedule for unexpected situations. The parent seeking an adjustment should give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least 24 hours except in an emergency). The other party should use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment, but should not unreasonably refuse.

RELATIVES

24.Ongoing relationships between the child and relatives should be encouraged and continued.

CONTACT INFORMATION

25.Each party should keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

CHILD SUPPORT

26.Petitioner's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3,118, and Respondent's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $2,253. Based on the incomes and the overnights of 182 for Petitioner and 183 for Respondent, the child support order would be $63.00 per month. However, child support is deviated to $0, because Petitioner is paying 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Respondent, and Respondent is paying 100% of the life insurance policy on the child, and anticipates, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, paying 100% of the child's dental and vision insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Petitioner.

27.This child support order should commence January 2013. There is no child support arrearage between the parties. Pursuant to 78B-12-112, Utah Code Annotated, child support should be payable in full by the 1st day of each month or it should be due one-half by the 5th and one-half on the 20th of each month.

28.Pursuant to 78B-12-219, Utah Code Annotated, it is fair and reasonable that there should be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

29.Pursuant to 78B-12-216, Utah Code Annotated, it is fair and reasonable that there should be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

30.Child support should continue until the minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during his normal and expected graduating class, whichever occurs later.

31.An order authorizing Universal Withholding Relief, pursuant to Part 4, Chapter 11, title 62A, Utah Code Annotated, should be awarded if the child support obligor becomes thirty (30) days delinquent in the payment of child support obligations.

MEDICAL INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

32.Pursuant to 78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated, Petitioner and Respondent should provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of the minor child. Petitioner should continue to provide medical insurance for the minor child, and Petitioner should be solely responsible for 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums. There is no medical premium arrearage between the parties.

33.Respondent should provide life, dental, and vision insurance for the minor child, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, and Respondent should be solely responsible for 100% of the child's life, dental, and vision premiums.

34.Petitioner and Respondent should divide equally all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses of the minor child and which are not covered by insurance, subject to the conditions as stated below. There are no arrearages for any out-of-pocket medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses for the child. For a non-emergency or non-essential expense to qualify for 50% reimbursement, the parties should discuss and confer with each other before incurring the expense, otherwise the expense should be solely paid for by the party who incurred the expense without discussing it with the other party and/or over the objection of the other party, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

35.Both parties should be responsible for any and all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses that they incur on behalf of themselves. There are no arrearages for any such charges between the parties. For any outstanding or existing medical debts, the parties should take the debts in their names and hold the other party harmless of any such debts.

36.The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses should provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in the §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

37.The parent who incurs medical expenses should be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of payment within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

38.The parent who incurs the medical expenses should be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

39.Petitioner and Respondent should cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

40.Each parent should provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

41.Each parent should provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

42.Pursuant to Section 78B-12-214, Utah Code Annotated, both parties should share equally the reasonable work-related, career, or occupational training child care expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and

43.If a parent incurs an actual expense for child care, the other parent should begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of child care expense and proof of payment of said expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

44.The parent who incurs child care expenses should provide written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter within thirty (30) days of receiving a bill from the child care provider for any expenses incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

45.The parent who incurred the child care expense should be reimbursed by the other parent on a monthly basis, but no later than thirty (30) days after sending a receipt to the other parent for such expenses. If the parent seeking reimbursement of the child care expenses fails to provide written verification of those expenses and proof of payment of said expenses within thirty (30) days of incurring said expenses, that parent waives the right to reimbursement of said expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50

toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

46.Child care costs should only be divided if the cost is incurred due to the parent being at work, career or occupational training; otherwise the party is responsible for all costs of that child care, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

47.Both parents should allow the other parent to have input as to choosing the child care provider. Both parties should give the other parent first chance to provide care for the child if the need arises.

MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

48.Petitioner and Respondent should respectively pay one-half of all extracurricular activity expenses of the minor child. However, any extracurricular activity should be agreed to jointly by the parties, prior to the child being enrolled or taking part in such activities. If the parties are unable to jointly agree to the extracurricular activity, either party should be entitled to have the child participate in the extracurricular activity if that party pays entirely for the extracurricular activity. The parties should act in good faith in deciding whether the minor child should participate in an extracurricular activity.

DIVORCE EDUCATION

49.Both parties have taken the required "Divorce Education for Parents" class and provided proof to counsel and to the Court.

REAL PROPERTY

50.During the course of the marriage, neither the Petitioner nor the Respondent has acquired any real property.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, PENSION FUNDS, ETC.

51.Petitioner and Respondent each should retain all monies contained in any retirement accounts, pension funds, or individual retirement accounts, other than social security, that are in their own respective names, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

52.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain items of personal property.

53.Petitioner should be awarded the following items of personal property and should be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by the Respondent:

a.His personal effects and his sole personal property.

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Petitioner by Respondent;

54.Respondent should be awarded the following items of personal property and should be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

a.Her personal effects and her sole personal property;

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Respondent by Petitioner;

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS AND CHECKING ACCOUNTS

55.Petitioner and Respondent do not have money held in joint savings or checking accounts.

56.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Petitioner's sole name should be awarded to the Petitioner.

57.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Respondent's sole name should be awarded to the Respondent.

STOCKS, BONDS, AND MISCELLANEOUS SECURITIES

58.Each party should be awarded whatever stocks, bonds, and miscellaneous securities are in his or her sole name.

SEPARATE PROPERTY

59.All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of acquisition prior to marriage, family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources, except as specifically addressed herein should be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

60.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain debts and obligations.

61.Petitioner should assume and pay and hold Respondent harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Petitioner subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Petitioner above;

c.Debt owed to U.S. Bank;

d.Debt owed to Chase;

e.All debts in his name;

f.All medical bills incurred prior to May 13, 2010;

62.Respondent should assume and pay and hold Petitioner harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Respondent subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010, except as specifically addressed herein;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Respondent above.

63.Petitioner and Respondent should provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce and should notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the Court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

DELINQUENCY IN PAYMENTS

64.If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt should remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset should be placed immediately on the market for sale to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes a payment on a delinquent debt to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

REQUEST FOR NON-DISCHARGEABILITY IN BANKRUPTCY

65.The allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other; therefore, the parties should not be able to discharge the debts in bankruptcy. This provision does not bind the bankruptcy court.

REFINANCE

66.Each party should offer their best efforts to remove each other from any debts, obligations, loans, etc. by refinance or otherwise and put the loan or obligation solely in their respective name, and to assume responsibility for and release any financial burden from the other party.

BANKRUPTCY

67.If either party files for bankruptcy, it should constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances for any subsequent petition to modify regarding any financial issues herein.

TAXES AND TAX EXEMPTION

68.Petitioner and Respondent should alternate each year the entitlement to claim any and all tax exemptions related to their minor child such that Petitioner should be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in odd-numbered years, and Respondent should be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in even-numbered years.

ALIMONY

69.Petitioner should pay to Respondent a total of $14,000 in alimony, to be paid in monthly installments of $200.00 beginning in March of 2013 until paid in full. Each monthly installment is due by the first of the month. In the event that Petitioner is thirty (30) days late on a monthly installment, the amount due should be accelerated so that the total amount unpaid should be due and owing, and Respondent should have the right to initiate garnishment or other collection proceedings for the amount then due and owing. The alimony award is considered a settlement of the parties' I-864 issue. Upon any such default, nothing should prevent the parties from negotiating a new installment payment plan on the amount due and owing, provided that any agreement should be in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court.

70.Petitioner's alimony obligation should not terminate upon Respondent's remarriage or cohabitation or for any other reason except in the event of the death of either party.

I-864 AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT

71.As long as Petitioner is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent should not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864 Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

SURNAME CHANGE

72.The surname of Respondent should be changed to Roy unless Respondent chooses otherwise.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

73.Petitioner and Respondent each should pay their own respective attorney's fees and costs associated with all aspects of their divorce.

COOPERATION

74.Each party should cooperate with the other, through counsel and otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

75.Each party should execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

76.Both parties should be restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child about the issues in this case or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or visitation, which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Both parties also should be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

77.Both parties should be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and should have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or should remove the child from such circumstances.

DEFAULT

78.If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in this document, the party in default should be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of this document.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Court concludes that as set out above under the Court's Findings of Fact, the parties are subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, the parties have irreconcilable differences, and the parties are entitled to a Decree of Divorce, the same to become final upon entry herein.

2. The Court concludes that the terms of the Decree of Divorce are in the best interests of the child and are fair and reasonable, and all other issues of dispute have been resolved with the Court pursuant to the above Findings of Fact.

Attorneys for Defendant

IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Plaintiff, vs. AARON POULSEN, Defendant.	ANSWER TO COMPLAINT Civil No. 2:25-cv-425 Judge Magistrate Judge Jared C. Bennet

COMES NOW Defendant, Aaron Poulsen, by and through his attorney of record, Adam L. Crayk, of Stowell Crayk, PLLC, and hereby answers the Complaint as follows:

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff fails to state a claim for which relief can be granted.

ANSWER TO PLEADING ON THE MERITS

Defendant answers the pleadings on the merits as follows:

1. This allegation is not a fact but rather a conclusion asserted by Plaintiff to which no affirmative answer is required. Notwithstanding, Defendant admits the allegation in part and denies the allegation in part. Admit that the general legal subject matter of the litigation involves the enforcement of an Affidavit of Support I-864 Form under Section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, but deny that Defendant is liable for all damages sought.

2. Defendant admits this allegation in part and neither admits nor denies the allegation in part. Defendant admits that he served as an immigration sponsor for his former wife, Plaintiff, Jordan Lee Poulson. The remainder of the allegation is not a fact but rather a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant denies that portion of the allegation.

3. This allegation is not a fact but is a legal conclusion or statement of unsubstantiated opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant denies this allegation except that portion of which limits Plaintiff's damages, if any to the difference between Plaintiff's actual or imputed income and 125 percent of the poverty line, subject to various offsets and affirmative defenses.

4. This allegation is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation and reserves the right to assert lack of either personal or subject matter jurisdiction as affirmative defenses.

5. This allegation is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation and reserves the right to assert lack of either personal or subject matter jurisdiction as affirmative defenses.

6. This allegation is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation and reserves the right to assert improper forum or venue as affirmative defenses.

7. This allegation is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation and reserves the right to assert improper forum or venue as affirmative defenses.

8. This allegation is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative defense is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation and reserves the right to assert improper forum or venue as affirmative defenses.

9. Neither admit nor deny that status of Plaintiff's citizenship for lack of information but admit that Plaintiff is a permanent resident of the United States of America unless by Plaintiff's conduct she has engaged in disqualifying conduct which precludes said residency and/or naturalization.

10. Admit.

11. Admit.

12. Admit so much of this allegation as alleges that Defendant served as Plaintiff's immigration sponsor and that Defendant executed an Affidavit of Support in conjunction with said sponsorship, but neither admit nor deny the remaining portion of this allegation which is a legal conclusion to which no affirmative response is required.

13. Admit. See Answer to 11, supra.

14. Admit.

24. Admit.

25. Neither admit nor deny this allegation which contains an undefined acronym as well as a legal conclusion or expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required.

26. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation. However, Defendant admits that Plaintiff's status was designated "conditional."

27. Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation for lack of personal knowledge.

28. Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation for lack of personal knowledge.

29. Admit that Exhibit 5 speaks for itself, but neither admit nor deny the remaining portions of this allegation for lack of personal knowledge.

30. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation.

31. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation. Defendant admits that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself and to the extent that this allegation is consistent with the express language of said Affidavit of Support it is admitted and to the extent that the allegation is not consistent with the express language of said Affidavit of Support it is denied.

32. This allegation is not a fact but rather either a legal conclusion or an expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation. Defendant admits that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself and to the extent that this allegation is consistent with the express language of said Affidavit of Support it is admitted and to the extent that the allegation is not consistent with the express language of said Affidavit of Support it is denied.

Defendant admits that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself and to the extent that this allegation is consistent with the express language of said Affidavit of Support it is admitted and to the extent that the allegation is not consistent with the express language of said Affidavit of Support it is denied.

38. Admit.

39. Defendant admits that the parties' marriage was rife with irreconcilable differences, but neither admit nor deny that portion of the allegation which states that the same was true "since before the celebration of their marriage."

40. Admit so much of this allegation as alleges that Defendant filed a Petition for Divorce in the Third Judicial District Court of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, Case No. 094905182, but deny the remaining portion of the allegation as stated. The initial divorce proceedings were concluded by the parties reaching a final stipulation and the Court based thereon entering a Decree of Divorce on April 15, 2013. Post decree proceedings in any divorce case are subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the Utah State District Court in all divorce proceedings which may include but is not limited to proceedings related to child custody and the best interest of the child. Therefore, Defendant denies the mischaracterization that the litigation in the case remains "ongoing" implying that no resolution of the action ever occurred.

41. Admit and affirmatively allege that the Decree of Divorce speaks for itself.

42. Admit the Decree of Divorce speaks for itself. To the extent this allegation is consistent with the terms of the Decree of Divorce it is admitted and to the extent the allegation is not consistent with the terms of the Decree of Divorce, it is denied.

43. Admit the Decree of Divorce speaks for itself. To the extent this allegation is consistent with the terms of the Decree of Divorce it is admitted and to the extent the allegation is not consistent with the terms of the Decree of Divorce, it is denied.

44. This allegation is not a fact but rather a legal conclusion or expert opinion to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation.

45. Admit so much of this allegation as asserts that Defendant complied with the terms of the Decree of Divorce making the payments to Plaintiff as required by the terms of the Decree of Divorce but deny all remaining portions of this allegation as written.

46. Admit that Exhibit 5 speaks for itself but neither admit nor deny that the same is a true and correct copy of all of Ms. Poulsen’s income as the Social Security earnings statement reflects only that income which was reported and/or subject to Social Security withholdings and may not reflect the Plaintiff’s actual or imputed income which was either not reported and/or not subject to income withholding.

47. Neither admit nor deny for lack of information.

48. Admit.

49. Neither admit nor deny for lack of information.

50. Neither admit nor deny for lack of information as it relates to that portion of the allegation as alleges the income earned and/or reported by Plaintiff and assert that the portion of the allegation which asserts the Poverty Line and/or 125% of said Poverty Line are either legal conclusions or expert conclusions to which no affirmative response is required and therefore Defendant neither admits or denies those portions of the allegation.

51. Deny.

52. Admit that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself but neither admit nor deny the remaining portions of this allegation for lack of information or knowledge.

53. Admit that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself but neither admit nor deny the remaining portions of this allegation for lack of information or knowledge.

54. Admit that the Affidavit of Support speaks for itself but neither admit nor deny the remaining portions of this allegation for lack of information or knowledge.

70. Admit.

71. This is a legal conclusion for which no affirmative response is required and therefore the Defendant neither admits nor denies this allegation.

72. Denied.

73. Denied.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff’s claims may be barred in whole or in part because the core disputes arise from the State divorce proceeding which has already assumed jurisdiction over the enforcement of the I-864, and therefore subject matter jurisdiction is vested in the Third Judicial District Court for Salt Lake County, State of Utah.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because venue is properly laid in the Third Judicial District Court for Salt Lake County, State of Utah.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff has not received any means-tested public benefits.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because at all times Plaintiff's financial resources exceeded the 125% of the poverty line for a household of one.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because of the lack of standing to assert the claims contained in the Complaint.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff may have accumulated 40 or more quarters of work thereby releasing Defendant of any liability under the terms of the I-864 Affidavit of Support, or alternatively, Plaintiff had the ability to accumulate 40 or more quarters of work and voluntarily chose not to work.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because any third party beneficiary status of the contract between Defendant and the United States government only inures to the benefit of Plaintiff if a third party provides means-tested benefits and thereafter seeks to collect said benefits which then requires Defendant to indemnify the Plaintiff up to 125% of poverty line for said amounts sought to be collected by said third party.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part under the doctrine of election of remedies as said remedies were elected by Plaintiff in the parties' final stipulation and resulting Decree of Divorce in the Utah State divorce court action.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff fraudulently induced Defendant to execute the I-864 form under the promise of the continuation of the marriage at which time Plaintiff had no intention of maintaining.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff's recovery, if any, is limited by the terms of the parties' Divorce Decree, to wit: $200 per month pursuant to the terms of the parties' Divorce Decree, which Plaintiff accepted as satisfaction of the I-864 obligation during the period of payment and about which Defendant paid.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of waiver.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because of equitable estoppel.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff failed to mitigate her damages.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Defendant is entitled to various set-offs, including direct payments to Plaintiff as well as in-kind payments or contributions which should be credited for their economic value. Furthermore, Plaintiff owes Defendant over $9,000 in child support.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff was voluntarily under employed and should have income imputed to her based on her skill, education and training which affords Plaintiff the ability to yield a substantially greater earning power than the income asserted by Plaintiff. Further, relying on the requirements of divorce proceedings in the State of Utah, at a minimum, Plaintiff should at least be imputed to minimum wage for any year she claims she made no income.

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part by the statute of limitations for written contracts pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-2-309.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part by the equitable doctrine of laches.

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of unclean hands.

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff and Defendant entered into various novations which apply to the relief sought.

TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff’s claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff and Defendant have entered into various accords and satisfactions which may apply to the relief sought by Plaintiff.

TWENTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff’s claims may be barred in whole or in part because as between Plaintiff and Defendant, there was a failure of consideration.

TWENTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff’s claims may be barred in whole or in part by the rule of parole evidence.

TWENTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff’s claims may be barred in whole or in part because some or all of Plaintiff's claims are barred, estopped, and/or waived by the performance of Defendant of his responsibilities under the subject agreements.

TWENTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff’s claims may be barred in whole or in part based on the statute of frauds.

TWENTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff’s claims may be barred in whole or in part because some or all of Plaintiff's claims are barred, estopped and/or waived by Plaintiff's own breach of the subject agreements.

TWENTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff’s claims may be barred in whole or in part because some or all of the relief requested by Plaintiff would result in Plaintiff being unjustly enriched.

TWENTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff’s claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff is estopped, and/or has waived her claim by her own violation of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

TWENTY-NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because of a lack of meeting of the minds of the parties to the contract.

THIRTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff has failed to join an indispensable party.

THIRTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff left the United States on extended basis during the claimed periods.

THIRTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff was married at least twice subsequent to her marriage to Defendant and received corresponding support from her then spouses.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff should take nothing by means of her Complaint which should be dismissed with prejudice.

THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF UTAH

JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Plaintiff, v. AARON POULSEN, Defendant.	ORDER Case No. 2:25-cv-00425-JCB Magistrate Judge Jared C. Bennett

Under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 73, all parties have consented to Judge Jared C. Bennett conducting all proceedings in this case, including entry of final judgment.[1] Before the court is the parties' joint motion to stay discovery.[2] For the reasons set forth in the motion, for good cause shown, and based upon the parties' stipulation, the court GRANTS the motion.

Accordingly, the court HEREBY ORDERS:

1. On or before September 12, 2025, Plaintiff may file a facial challenge to the affirmative defenses in Defendant's answer.
2. Discovery is stayed until the court resolves Plaintiff's facial challenge to the affirmative defenses in Defendant's answer.

---

[1] ECF No. 10.

[2] ECF No. 13.

3. Within 28 days after the court resolves Plaintiff's facial challenge to the affirmative defenses in Defendant's answer, the parties must comply with the requirements of Paragraph 3 of the Order to Propose Schedule.[3]

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 25th day of August 2025.

I already have proof that you've been physically abusive in the past, Aaron.. so technically I already have that...it's already justifiable.

Sigh. Once again, there is NO WAY I CAN ABUSE the agreement just because I "simply feel like it". I would have to have PROOF.

If you want to be there for the birth, and around me after the birth, I need to feel comfortable and secure with you. I need to trust the person helping me birth our son. I need to be able to trust in you. There isnt much time, and this is the only thing I can think of that will give me the reassurance quickly. There isnt enough time for you to build up trust on your word alone. It is going to take a LONG time for you to do that.

Sign the paper saying you wont lie / womanize / be abusive.

Re: Poulsen vs. Poulsen
Civil No. 094905182

Dear Margaret:

I appreciate all you are doing in this case. In response to the issues and allegations that occurred yesterday, I have been gathering information, including with the help of my client.

First, I requested information regarding Kajol and the alleged denial to give the prescription to Aaron. Either Aaron completely misunderstood, or he is using this circumstance to create an incorrect impression. Kajol was not given a prescription for his illness. The doctor said to give him gatorade or pedia ade and to keep him hydrated. Kajol, also, had a slight amount of fluid in his ear, which he regularly does, for which the doctor provided a prescription and told Jordan to get it filled if she wanted. She did not get it filled. Jordan states that she explained this to Carlie. Consequently, Jordan did not deny prescription medication to the father of Kajol.

Second, it is my information that the statements on face book were removed quite some time ago and did not apply to this hearing.

Third, Aaron continues to go into Jordan's work chat room, which is a violation of the protective order. The violations are being investigated. I believe it be greatly to his benefit to be advised to stop this behavior post haste (I am certain you are providing this advice.)

Fourth, in Aaron's most recent Affidavit, ¶ 19, he states "I am not, nor have ever been, a marijuana dealer. Scott is not now, nor to my knowledge has ever been, called Big Scott, and is not, nor has ever been, a drug dealer."

Attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein is a screen shot from June 17, 2009, at 1:51 p.m., from Aaron-Kajol Poulsen, stating as follows:

wasup?

Also here is all I can think of too invite:
Baby shower invites:
Dusty and Renee
Paul and Jamie (Invited through FB)
Dave and Erica (Erica invited through FB)
Big Scott and Amy
Bryson and Candy
Nick and Chelsea
Jadey
Micah

In addition, attached hereto as Exhibit "B" is a screen shot from June 17, 2009, from Aaron-Kajol Poulsen stating as follows:

"I have had 6 calls for herb [marijuana] and I will be out until Tuesday."

Fifth, in his Affidavit and at court in our discussions, Aaron strenuously denied that the incident occurred at the hospital. I have a recording of Jordan and Aaron wherein Aaron admits that he performed the "fake punch" by stating that "it was justified". I will send the recording to you via email.

Sixth, Aaron continues to deny that he ever has been physically violent with Jordan. Attached hereto as Exhibit "C" and incorporated herein by this reference is a screen shot from August 26, 2009, starting at 4:21 p.m., from Jordan and Aaron, stating as follows:

Jordan:

I already have proof that you've been physically abusive in the past, Aaron. So technically I already have that .. It's already justifiable.

Sigh. Once again, there is NO WAY I CAN ABUSE the agreement just because I "simply feel like it". I would have to have PROOF.

Aaron:

> I have touched you like 3 times yo.... and the last time I vowed to never do it again (that one was the worst ever and a huge slap in the face)... its been two months...give me some credit on that....I know its wrong...

Jordan:

> If you want to be there for the birth, and around me after the birth, I need to feel comfortable and secure with you. I need to trust the person helping me birth our son. I need to be able to trust in you. There isnt much time, and this is the only thing I can think of that will give me the reassurance quickly. There isnt enough time for you to build up trust on your word alone. It is going to take a LONG time for you to do that.

Sign the paper saying you wont lie / womanize / be abusive.
That is all I want.

Seventh, Aaron repeatedly states that he has not gone to Immigration and has not attempted to have Jordan deported. I have a recording wherein Aaron refers to going to Immigration, her green card and Jordan's marrying Aaron for money. Again, I will attempt to email this recording.

I am not providing this information to invoke more of a fight in this case. I understand that you believe in your client. I, also, know that Jordan has made her mistakes. In fact, she readily admits them. Jordan, however, is not psychotic, has emotional responses but is not irresponsible and is justifiably terrified of Aaron. She, however, does want the best for Kajol and believes that Kajol needs his father. She is concerned and would like Aaron to seek some counseling. She currently is attending sessions and will continue to seek help regarding her inclusion in this dysfunctional relationship.

We talked about trying to get these two people divorced. I believe that is the goal we should seek together. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Brenda L. Flanders

Re: Poulsen vs. Poulsen
Civil No. 094905182

Dear John:

I received your correspondence dated today, but cannot read the text messages attached thereto. It is true that we need to try to calm this situation so that these parties can separate. Some of the information exchanges between you and I will be necessary to achieve this result.

In your letter, you state that Mr. Poulsen's mother and sister came to deliver the child's accessory but Ms. Poulsen was not there, so they left it inside the condominium. The toy that was left is not the same. Apparently, the baby cannot jump in it, which is the behavior that the baby favored in the jump-a-roo. More importantly, Mr. Poulsen's mother and sister removed the baby's cradle, baby's clothes and other items. In addition, Mr. Poulsen, his mother, or his sister, removed the external hard drive on which my client keeps her files, including her work files. Ms. Poulsen needs the hard drive returned immediately. My client is willing to remove all of her files from the hard drive and to return the hard drive to Mr. Poulsen. Finally, while Mr. Poulsen's mother and sister were in the condominium, they went through my client's suitcase and other belongings. Not only is this a violation of privacy, it is illegal. During our conversation, you and I agreed that Mr. Poulsen would not be going into the condominium as long as it is my client's residence. I assumed that such an agreement also included agents of Mr. Poulsen. Please confirm that it does and that Mr. Poulsen's family will not enter the premises while we work out this situation.

Ms. Poulsen is attempting to find employment so that she can move from the condominium. She is preparing to move, but is not moving yet. She does not intend to take property that does not belong to her. Again, she has asked to have until April 15, 2010, to relocate.

On another matter, Ms. Poulsen was attempting to work last night and Mr. Poulsen interrupted her work and caused her to be unable to earn any money. Mr. Poulsen's interference with her current work, does not assist Ms. Poulsen in relocating. Please advise your client to refrain from such behavior.

I would like to suggest a meeting between the you, your client, my client and I. Perhaps we could work through some of the issues and get some things on paper so that the texting and other negative communication can stop. I left a message with your office in this regard. Please contact me so that we can discuss your thoughts on such a meeting.

I look forward to reaching some amicable solutions in this matter and to discussing the same with you next week.

Sincerely,

Brenda L. Flanders

Case No. 094905182

Dear John:

I have tried contacting you regarding scheduling a Settlement Conference or a Mediation to resolve current financial issues regarding the above mentioned case. If I do not hear from you regarding this matter within the next week, we will need to schedule a hearing with the court to resolve those issues.

In addition I understand that Aaron has filed his 2009 taxes and claimed both Jordan and the baby. He needs to immediately pay one half of the refund to Jordan or amend his taxes to not claim Jordan. Any refund he has received, then, will add to the financial issues that need to be resolved.

If you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact my office.

STATE OF IDAHO)
:ss.
County of_______________)

I, Matthew Redno, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am over the age of twenty-one years and am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from me personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, I could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. I spent approximately three weeks of January, 2010, living in a condo with Jordan and Aaron Poulsen in Taylorsville, Utah.

3. I moved there because Jordan had told me that she would help me find some work and I was welcome to stay with her until I found my own place.

4. Aaron, also, agreed to this arrangement.

5. When I arrived, I was welcomed by Jordan. That same day, I met her friend, who offered me a job.

6. Jordan and I had been friends since 2006. We met when we both were living in Virginia.

7. Over the course of the last four (4) years, Jordan and I became good friends and she always has been a great person to me.

8. Jordan always has worked hard for what is her's and she always has put family and friends first.

9. I never have seen Jordan happier than when she told me she was pregnant with Kajol. Like any new mother, she was scared, but so full of excitement.

10. During my time with Jordan and Aaron, I always felt a bit of uneasiness. I was not sure if it was because I was there or if it was caused by other issues.

11. As time went on, it became more apparent that there were issues between Jordan and Aaron.

12. On several occasions, Jordan and Aaron would argue over different things.

13. There were times that Aaron's yelling was loud enough that I could hear him when I was in another part of the house.

14. There were a few times that I gave Jordan rides to different appointments. During those times, I heard conversations between Jordan and Aaron.

15. The conversations were very intense and often involved threats by Aaron toward Jordan.

16. The threats included Aaron taking away the baby from Jordan, not allowing her to see the baby, kicking her out of the house and taking the vehicle that they had bought together, which was meant to be her vehicle.

17. On two separate occasions, Jordan called me into the bathroom to show me that she had large amounts of blood in the toilet. Once from vomiting, and the other she passed blood instead of stool. We both believed that this was caused by the large amount of stress from which Jordan was suffering.

18. Jordan was hospitalized due to these issues.

19. Aaron took her to the hospital, but made her feel bad about it the whole time.

20. During my stay, on several occasions, I witnessed Aaron selling marijuana.

21. The person(s) would come into the house, hand Aaron cash and he would hand them plastic bags of what appeared to be, and smelled like, marijuana. This happened more then a half dozen times.

22. I, also, witnessed him smoking marijuana on two occasions.

23. In addition, I was concerned about Aaron's mother and how she treated Jordan. She was very rude toward Jordan and seemed to enjoy the thought of Jordan losing her baby.

24. One day Arron's mother came through the house with a video camera. She video taped the house. She invaded everyone's privacy and gave Jordan an ultimatum that she be out of the house in thirty days. She is very negative towards Jordan.

25. While I was there, Jordan took very good care of Kajol, her son. Kajol generally was happy and well mannered. Jordan spent most of her time caring for him. Aaron was anything but an attentive father.

26. On several occasions he would hand off Kajol stating that it, "was not his turn" to change his diaper or to feed him.

27. It appeared that Aaron was scared of dealing with a child. I, also, saw Aaron using Kajol as a bargaining tool with Jordan.

28. Aaron seems to use Kajol as a way to control Jordan.

29. Jordan is an excellent mother and should be taking care of her son. She would do anything for that little boy. To take him away from her would be detrimental to kajol, as well as to Jordan.

30. Jordan is a perfect mother and should be the parent that continues to provide primary care for Kajol.

DATED this ____ day of March, 2010.

STATE OF VIRGINIA)
:ss.
County of)

I, Rachel Franklin, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am over the age of twenty-one years and am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from me personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, I could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. In the past year, I have been witness to my friend Jordan Poulsen's destructive marriage.

3. From the time I met Arron Poulsen ("Aaron") he has been controlling over every move that Jordan makes. Seeing her after she was with him for a while was like seeing a different person. She changed because Aaron did not like the person she was. Aaron was very rude and verbally abusive toward Jordan.

4. When we were talking about coming to visit Utah, Aaron told me that he has marijuana and that he sells it out of his home.

5. One time on the phone, Jordan told me about Aaron putting marijuana in a condom and putting it in his anus to smuggle it on a plane. Aaron was in the back ground saying, "I told you not to tell anyone."

6. Jordan hated that Aaron sold marijuana, but was fearful of what would happen if she told anyone besides close friends.

7. One of the times Jordan was physically abused, she called me after the police had left. She was eight months pregnant and hysterical. She said that Aaron tried to prevent her from leaving the room by grabbing the skin on her back. Then, Aaron sat on her stomach. Jordan cut her foot with a piece of broken glass while he was still sitting on her stomach. He, then, called the police. The officers told Jordan that if she did not take the charge Aaron would lose his job and the benefits for the baby.

8. Jordan was charged with domestic violence, although she was the one that was abused.

9. On countless occasions, Jordan has found naked pictures of other women on Aaron's phone, she has caught him kissing and fondling a girl in the back of a van at a festival and has spoken with a woman to whom Aaron had sent a naked picture through email.

10. On October 28th, when Jordan and Aaron were in another argument, Jordan called me crying. We talked for a while about the problem then got off the phone. Immediately, I put some uplifting words on her Facebook profile to make her feel better. An hour or so later, Aaron's mother started saying very nasty things about Jordan, saying her friends did not know the whole story, that Jordan was overreacting, that Jordan was a bad mom and cussing out all of Jordan's friends that were standing up for Jordan. I told Aaron's mom that she was being very childish and she proceeded to write to me a private message saying that I could not judge her because I was not old enough and that I should "fuck off." I think she wants to help Aaron get the baby and pretend to be the mother.

11. Jordan and Aaron once had a connecting flight in Arizona, with a couple of hours to spare. I picked them up so they would not have to wait at the airport. Every move Jordan made was scrutinized and picked apart by Aaron. Every word Jordan said was wrong unless Aaron approved. If he told her not to do something, she was expected not to do it. Aaron completely picked Jordan apart. Even the way she chewed and the number of beverages she was allowed to consume was decided by Aaron. If Jordan did not follow his way to a tee she knew she would be "punished" by Aaron saying hurtful things.

12. Aaron told Jordan she was not allowed to come back to Arizona.

13. I know that Aaron was very controlling over Jordan's money also. Aaron took every single cent Jordan earned. I always would ask her to come visit, and despite her making decent money, she always was broke. One day, I asked Jordan why. She informed me that she let Aaron take her debit card and clear her bank account of her paychecks! He put her on some ridiculous $60.00 allowance.

14. Aaron is a very manipulative, vindictive person and will say and do anything to make himself seem like a better person and get his way.

15. He is making Jordan's life very difficult and she is suffering severely from his torture.

16. The Jordan I used to know was full of life and laughter. Over this past year, I have witnessed a slow emotional destruction to herself. She does not laugh anymore. Laughter was a big part of her life. I always here her cry.

17. Jordan just wants a good life for herself and her son. She loves him so much. She took such good care of herself during her pregnancy. She quit drinking and smoking cigarettes cold turkey. She took birthing classes. Jordan decided to do a natural NO DRUG water birth which was extremely painful and had to be emergency transferred to the hospital where she stuck to her plan and had the baby naturally.

18. Jordan had to deal with being a good mom while being with a husband who is not emotionally available to her needs because he does not care about her. She is a good mom. A loving person who just wanted a family.

19. I think that is why Jordan put up with all of Aaron's lies, infidelities and abuse. Jordan wanted something better than what she had growing up. She wanted a unified family.

20. I know she definitely gave Aaron more chances to be a decent father and husband than I would have given to him. Jordan loved Aaron despite his behavior and treatment of her.

21. Aaron is a repetitive liar and has been caught in many of them.

22. I have heard a recording of Aaron calling Jordan pathetic while she is on the ground crying after he abused her.

23. Aaron has dragged Jordan by her foot and gave her a black eye and then made her travel alone the next day, all the way to Louisiana for Christmas.

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner, vs. JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Respondent.	AFFIDAVIT OF MONIQUE CURCI Civil No. 094905182 Honorable Kate A. Toomy Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

STATE OF)
:ss.
County of)

I, Monique Curci, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am over the age of twenty-one years and am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from me personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, i could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. I have known Jordan Poulsen ("Jordan") for fifteen years.

3. Jordan always has had a unique personality with a flair and zest for life.

4. She always was a strong person who did not take any guff from anyone.

5. During her relationship with Aaron, she became withdrawn, depressed and began to have severe anxiety because of his control and abuse.

6. In attempts to keep Jordan under his control, Aaron would threaten to leave her, tell her to, "get the fuck out of his condo," tell her that he never loved her. He wished a miscarriage upon her, and even tried to distance her from her friends when they would see how he would treat her.

7. I personally have seen messages and conversations between them in which he was verbally, emotionally and mentally abusive. Even Jordan's body image changed because of things Aaron would say about her.

8. After Jordan had the baby, she expressed to me that she and Aaron were taking a shower together and Aaron told her that her breasts sagged and he found that unattractive. This is only one instance of the emotional abuse.

9. Jordan changed from confident to completely repressed.

10. During a phone call I placed to Jordan, Aaron took the phone and began speaking with me. He clearly stated, "You should come down to Utah and visit. We can "blaze" (smoke marijuana). I have some killer shit you could try." When I responded that I did not know when I would be able to visit, he stated, "It is ok. Whenever you want to come. I sell it, so I never go without. I always have some good shit (marijuana) in stock."

11. On another occasion, Jordan and Aaron had been in a fight. Aaron messaged me on Facebook instant messenger. We began speaking about the fight.

12. During this time, Aaron said that he had become so angry he had physically assaulted Jordan. Aaron attempted to validate his behavior by saying that Jordan is, "such a bitch, she deserves it."

13. I, also, have seen messages between Jordan and Aaron in which Aaron admits to courting, womanizing and having inappropriate relationships with other women before, during and after Jordan's pregnancy.

14. During a conversation I had with Aaron, he admitted to, "fing up with other women."

15. I can only imagine the fear, hurt and anxiety Jordan must have gone through being eight months pregnant, alone in a place where she had no friends or family, no one to turn to, and catching her husband and the father of her child being involved with other women.

16. On several other occasions, I spoke with Jordan directly after altercations with Aaron. She asked me to secretly come and pick her up in an attempt to escape the physical, emotional and mental abuse from Aaron to her and her unborn child. Jordan felt she was in danger, and was even more worried about her unborn child.

17. I, also, recall vividly, Jordan showing me messages that she found between Aaron and his mother. These messages stated that Aaron only was telling her he loved her to keep her in the states so Jordan would give birth to the baby and Aaron could take custody of the child and raise it with his mother.

18. His mother agreed.

19. When Jordan told Aaron she thought he and his mother were plotting to take the baby, Aaron called Jordan crazy and told her she was paranoid despite her having evidence.

20. In messages that I have seen personally, Aaron makes attempts to manipulate, lie and twist his way out of things.

21. I have witnessed Aaron's mother posting absolutely inappropriate things to Jordan's friends on Facebook, when they stood up for Jordan. She told them, "Fuck you" and things of that nature.

22. From the things I have witnessed via phone, messenger, text, email and Facebook, Aaron's mother aids Aaron in his patterns of abuse and complete domination over Jordan to gain control and access to their child, Kajol.

23. In other messages I have seen that Aaron has written, Aaron has demonstrated an extreme racial hate for those of Mexican descent.

24. I am proud to be Native American, so racial slurs are something that I remember and do not take lightly.

25. Jordan's personality has changed completely since her relationship with Aaron.

26. I could tell through conversations that her need for help in getting away from Aaron was severe and that she showed all the signs of an abused woman. She refused to leave him because she, "loved him and wanted to give him a chance to change and to be a father," however, the change never occurred despite Jordan's efforts to go to marriage and individual counseling. Jordan gave every effort to save her marriage for her child and to fulfill her duties as a wife.

27. Jordan would not give up on her family.

28. After some time it became apparent that she had all of the symptoms of battered wife syndrome which caused all of her friends and family great worry.

29. Aaron made her pregnancy, which should have been a time of blessed joy, a complete hell. He stressed her out to the point of exhaustion and pre-term labor.

30. Jordan never has expressed anything but love, warmth and affection when speaking of her son, Kajol.

31. She keeps me updated on him and his progress from the first time he rolled over, his first foods, the first time he smiled.

32. Jordan is a good mother who loves and cares for her child.

33. She did a completely natural birth so that her child could come into this world drug free and have the best possible start at life despite her own pain and complications in birthing him. That is not something someone who does not care for her child would do or even consider.

34. It is my observation from speaking with both parties, more so from Aaron's own words to me, that Aaron should most definitely NOT be left to care for any child, let alone a child six months of age.

35. I believe Aaron needs a mental evaluation and needs to continue in counseling (it is my knowledge that he quit going after a few sessions saying that Jordan has all the problems and that he did not do anything wrong ever), take an anger management course, a domestic violence class and drug rehabilitation.

36. I have two children myself, ages seven and five, and I would not let Aaron babysit my children or provide care for them full time.

37. I have seen Jordan's spirit crushed over the last two years.

38. I think the mental and emotional anguish that my friend has had to endure at the hands of this man is unforgivable and does not support his potential ability to provide stable care to an infant.

vs.	Civil No. 094905182
JORDAN-LEE POULSEN, Respondent.	Honorable Kate A. Toomey Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

STATE OF UTAH)
:ss.
County of Salt Lake)

I, Jordan-Lee Poulsen, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am over the age of twenty-one years and am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from my personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, I could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. The Petitioner, Aaron Kent Poulsen ("Aaron"), and I met in or about May, 2008, while I was living in Maryland.

3. At that time, I was performing volunteer work for a company called Hollywood Music T.V. interviewing bands for its on-line television station.

4. Aaron is in a band entitled "Separation of Self".

5. Aaron and I began an internet courtship.

6. Aaron, then, invited me to travel to Salt Lake City, Utah, to go on tour with his band and film life on the road for my show.

7. I accepted Aaron's invitation.

8. Aaron took money out of the band's bank account and paid for my ticket to fly from Maryland to Salt Lake City. I traveled on July 17, 2008.

9. My plan was to film the documentary.

10. Aaron and I began dating, however, and he asked me not to leave Salt Lake City.

11. A few weeks into our relationship, while I was using his cell phone, I noticed texts from him professing to miss his former girlfriend. He had written that he was "going through Jessica withdrawals". Jessica was his former girlfriend.

12. When I asked Aaron about the texts, he assured me that he wanted to be with me and that our relationship was, and would be, okay.

13. A couple of months later, Aaron and I traveled to an event called the Dirt Fest in the desert. Many people drive out to the desert for a heavy metal show.

14. During one of the nights of the show, Aaron disappeared. A friend of mine named Travis and I scoured the terrain looking for Aaron. We found him in the back of a van. I could not believe what I was seeing, so I watched until I knew that I was seeing what I thought I was seeing.

15. Aaron was fondling, groping and kissing another woman. I was angry and yelled at him, asking what he was doing because he has a girlfriend.

16. Aaron told me that I imagined what I had seen. He called me names, including a "bitch".

17. A few weeks later, Aaron and I got into another argument about him speaking to his former girlfriend.

18. Aaron threw my computer across the room and jumped on top of me with his hand on my throat.

19. After he left me there alone, I called my friend, Jadey, who arrived with our roommate, Chris, to console me.

20. A while after that, I asked Aaron to spend some time with me. He said that he did not wish to spend time with me.

21. This hurt my feelings and he could tell.

22. I was walking down the stairs with a drink in my hand. He said, "FINE! LET'S GO THEN" in a very loud voice. He pushed me, almost causing me to fall down the flight of stairs.

23. I immediately walked outside to have a moment to myself to cry.

24. He followed me, snatched the cigarette out of my hand and threw it against the neighbor's car.

25. He, then, grabbed me by both of my shoulders and shook me violently, telling me what a horrible person I am.

26. Aaron and I have had other fights.

27. During some of our fights, the verbal, emotional and mental abuse would be so unbearable I would start to pack my things and begin calling homeless shelters to find a place to stay. Even being homeless would have been better than the severe verbal beatings he would give to me. It hurt more than the physical beatings.

28. I remember one time that he said such hateful things to me, I was on my hands and knees, at his feet, crying so hard that I could barely breathe and I was begging him to stop.

29. He just kicked me away and said, "Look at you, look at you. You're so pathetic. Look how pathetic you are". Then, he laughed at me.

30. I never will forget. It broke every piece of me.

31. Somewhere along the way, he broke my spirit like a beaten dog.

32. I began to believe him. I believed him when he said that it was all my fault. The guilt would eat me alive.

33. He would tell me how terrible I was and how it was no wonder that all my former boyfriends left me because I am such a flawed person.

34. He began to control every aspect of my personality, what was all right to say or do and what was not.

35. Even the way that I chewed bothered him, so I tried to change the way I chewed.

36. Aaron told me that I deserved to be abused and I began to believe him.

37. Because I believed him, I always went back to him, I always forgave him, even though he never apologized.

38. Aaron told me that he did not need to apologize because "he was just saying the truth". In addition, he would say that he "would not apologize for being honest just because it hurts you."

39. I think that people will read this and not understand how someone can be pushed around physically and take it. Or be told that they are nothing and take it.

40. To be honest, I do not know why people take it.

41. I took it because I loved him and I wanted him to love me back. To kiss me without being asked. To hold my hand. To snuggle with me at night time. To look me in the eyes and, finally, say "Jordan, I love you".

42. I thought that he would change. But, it only got worse.

43. Eventually, I became tired of constantly being put down and started sticking up a bit for myself. I never should have done that, it almost cost me my unborn child. It only made things worse.

44. Around September, 2008, Aaron told me that if I did not find a job, he would kick me out. I am a Canadian citizen. I did not have a work visa in the United States. I had to take a job as a "web cam model" for customers online.

45. When I got the job, this is the message that I sent to Aaron:

Jordan Stothart-Poulsen August 21, 2008, 6:25 a.m.

> I do want you to realize that I would never do this if I didn't have the desperate need to give you money. And I am NOT throwing that in your face, I'm saying that it is for us, so that we don't have to struggle . . . and so that you aren't so stressed out. I just don't want you to worry. I am willing to do what it takes to make sure you don't have that stress. And if this is what I gotta do, this is what I gotta do. I am very uncomfortable doing it, it's embarrassing. VERY EMBARRASSING. . . but I'll suck it up I guess. I know you don't like waking up for work at 5 a.m. either, but you do what you gotta do.

46. From this time forward, every cent that I earned went to Aaron. I gave him my Canadian debit card and he pulled money out and used it how he saw fit as the primary bill payer.

47. As time went on, I caught him speaking with his former girlfriend, Jessica, several times. Every time I would ask him about it, he would lie. Each time I asked caused a giant blowout and, of course, it all became my fault and I was attacked.

48. In December, 2008, we went to Temple Square. I lit a cigarette. I was not aware of this being a sign of disrespect. If I had of been, I would not have lit the cigarette. Aaron became very angry with me. We did not speak during the entire train and car ride home.

49. When we arrived home, I sat down, turned on the television and poured myself a glass of wine.

50. He began yelling at me.

51. I tried to ignore him, so he stood in front of the television.

52. I continued to try to ignore him.

53. He grabbed the wine out of my hand and poured it out. He, then, took the rest of the bottle of wine and poured it out while saying, "You f. . .ing bitch. You wonder why no one likes you. It's because you're sloppy. Everyone hates you. I haven't wanted to be with you ever since you got here."

54. He threw the glass against the table and it shattered all over the living room floor.

55. I, then, went upstairs in an attempt to remove myself from the argument.

56. He followed me, yelling.

57. He came toward the bed and I covered my head in case he punched me.

58. Instead, Aaron grabbed my right ankle and drug me off of the bed.

59. My back slammed against the ground and knocked the wind out of me.

60. He continued to drag me. I hit the door frame and began to sob.

61. He told me to "shut the f... up and stop playing the victim."

62. He drug me down two excruciating flights of stairs on my back by holding my ankle.

63. At the bottom of the stairs, he drug me though the broken glass.

64. I just laid there crying on my side as he told me to "get the f... out of his condo".

65. What I did not know at the time, is that I was a few weeks pregnant with our child.

66. Aaron and I were supposed to go and visit my family in Louisiana three days after this incident. He canceled his plane ticket and I was forced to go alone.

67. Aaron told me that he no longer wanted to be with me.

68. I was so sore physically, mentally and emotionally, that I somewhat agreed to break up.

69. I went to Louisiana by myself and was surrounded by friends and family, who helped me heal.

70. I had to return to Salt Lake City to pack my belongings and to retrieve my dog.

71. I arranged for a friend to travel all of the way to Salt Lake City and to drive back with my possessions because I had no car and no license.

72. When I arrived home, Aaron began his mind control, again.

73. Aaron told me how compatible we are when it comes to sex, how he loves it, how he wished I could stay, how he cared about me.

74. On January 2, 2009, I took a pregnancy test. It was positive.

75. Aaron and I talked. He said that he wanted to try to work things out.

76. A few days later, he went to a music convention in Los Angeles, California. He told people that he hates me, that I am a monster, that he could not believe he had "gotten someone like me, pregnant".

77. The list of insults was endless.

78. I had found out that I was pregnant three days earlier and I had people sending emails to me and informing me that Aaron was saying these things.

79. Then, I found information on his phone. At the time, he was plotting to send me back to Canada, pregnant, so that I could have the baby alone with free health care.

80. A couple of weeks later, I found a conversation between him and another female named Pamela Redd, with whom Aaron had a previous relationship. He was asking when she was going to "come suck his dick" and when she was going to send him more naked photos, amongst other dirty, immoral and inappropriate things.

81. I asked him why he was doing this. Instead of an apology, he lied to me. Then, when I provided evidence, he told me to "deal with it". He said, "now you know how I really feel". Then, he screamed at me as I cried.

82. I began to feel terrible cramps. I thought they would go away. Instead, they got worse. The more we fought, the worse the cramps became, until I was in tears, unable to sleep and throwing up profusely.

83. I asked him to stop yelling at me and to quit putting me down. I asked him to leave me alone if he was not going to help me.

84. He told me what a horrible person I am, that it was no wonder my former boyfriends had left me and that my former husband had divorced me.

85. I begged him to stop and screamed that he was going to make me miscarry.

86. He screamed, "I want you to miscarry! I hope you miscarry! I'm not the only one who wants you to, either. My mom wants you to miscarry! The baby would be better off miscarried than raised by you!"

87. Aaron's torment continued. He stated, "I keep trying to get rid of you, but you keep crawling back. You are f...ing pathetic. You only got pregnant to trap me."

88. It got so bad that I tried to get away from him by locking myself in the bathroom. He stood outside the door and screamed at me.

89. I went to three separate rooms in an attempt to remove myself from the situation. He followed.

90. He punched the other bathroom door when I went in there to throw up.

91. I said, "you are being extremely emotionally and verbally abusive to me. I want you to leave me alone. I am going to end up miscarrying."

92. He yelled back, "You deserve to be abused!.

93. This went on all day. Finally, he left that night and I had to call a friend to take me to the emergency room.

94. Through my entire pregnancy, I was extremely ill with hyperemesis. I was bed ridden.

95. Aaron constantly would harass me about cleaning the condo, even though I was, unable physically.

96. In the beginning of July, 2009, Aaron was upset about something and we got into an argument.

97. I went into our bedroom to try to avoid the situation. Aaron put his head through the entire bedroom door, I have a picture of the bedroom door. When I looked at him, I said "What is wrong with you?"

98. He replied, "fear is the only way to get through to you! It's the only thing you understand!"

99. The fight ensued. I began to feel terrible cramps. He continued yelling. It got so bad that I was forced to go to the hospital. Aaron had caused me so much stress that it sent me into pre-term labor. I had to stay in the hospital while the medical personnel tried to stop the labor and contractions.

100. Two days after I was released from the hospital, Aaron, again, was communicating with his former girlfriend.

101. On August 24, 2009, a friend, Crystal, told me that Aaron was asking for nude photos from her, that he was sending her emails and the like.

102. I asked Aaron about Crystal's representations.

103. He admitted that he asked to see a picture of her. I asked him why and he told me that it was because he was mad at me.

104. On August 25, 2009, at 9:20 a.m., Aaron sent a message to his mother. The message is as follows:

I haven't called yet.

it will be easier to figure out custody when the baby is born.

> jordan is right though, I haven't fully loved her and I have been lying to her here in there for months now.
>
> its not fair to her . . . she is also right about me caring about the baby more than her.
>
> 1) thats why I married her, so that she could have health care to deliver the baby here in the states
>
> 2) so she could have a green card to stay here and raise the baby
>
> enough is enough, she isnt going to leave . . .the baby will be born here and then I am going to take steps to proceed with the divorce . . . I will get a second job to pay back all the money to you as well if I can juggle that with a baby . . .
> she cant leave thats for sure
>
> 1) she cant fly so close to her due date
> 2) she has a court date sept 2nd, if she fails to appear she will have a warrant which in turn will strip her of her green cared
> 3) she has no one that wants to take in a pregnant girl with a pug
>
> Unless she fleas the country and goes to have the baby in Canada she is stuck here.

105. As you can see, Aaron and his mother have been plotting to take my baby away from me since before his birth.

106. When I was seven months pregnant, Aaron attached me three times, thus endangering the child in me. I had bruises all over me as is noted in the police report.

107. On September 17, 2009, I gave birth to my son. I decided to do a natural delivery so my son would come into this world a sober, alert, drug fee individual. I took birthing classes and did many hours of research online. I wanted to give him the best start at life that I possibly could give him. I carried him for nine months. I knew his every pattern and movement, when he was sleeping, when he had the hiccups. He is the only person I ever have fallen in love with before meeting and the only person I ever have fallen in love with madly upon laying my eyes on him.

108. As soon as he was born, they put him on my chest. Skin to skin. I just cried.

109. All I could say was, "I just had a baby!" and "He's perfect!"

110. Aaron told me that he did not really have any feelings after eighteen hours of labor and that the only thing he really felt was happy that it was all over because he was tired. He said, "I thought I would feel more than I do." He did not cry or smile when he saw our son.

111. After the delivery, I was in a great deal of pain. I struggled for weeks. I ripped my stitches and had no muscle control over my bladder. This lasted about seven weeks and I still struggle with this.

112. Aaron took off from work for two weeks to help with the baby. At that time, he did a good job. I was in so much pain, I could barely roll over in bed.

113. After he went to work, everything went downhill.

114. Aaron believed that because he was back to work, I should be responsible for cleaning the entire condo and caring for the baby. He would not listen to reason or hear that I was hurt. I just could not do it all.

115. The average time for a woman to heal after giving birth is six weeks. It took me longer. The day that the six weeks expired, Aaron began harassing me to go back to work and would not stop until I finally give in despite the pain and agreed to try.

116. Aaron made me work nights, 8:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m. His mom would take the baby on Wednesday night so that I could work. Aaron would sit downstairs while I worked and the baby slept on Friday through Sunday nights. Then, I would have to stay up with the baby all day, again, through the week while he worked. I never slept. I nearly went mad from sleep deprivation.

117. Aaron did not care how I was doing.

118. Aaron said that he would help but really did not. He cleaned the kitchen a couple of times and then complained and called me lazy.

119. I was mentally, emotionally and physically drained.

120. Even my doctor told Aaron that he had to start helping me, that Aaron should start taking the baby some times so that I could sleep.

121. Despite my cries for help, Aaron was not emotionally available to me. As soon as it seemed he was interested, I would find out another lie he had told, or about another female he had romanced.

122. During this time, Aaron's mother, also, started in on me, saying that I needed to be on medication, accusing me of sleeping all day and partying all night.

123. I did not party. I was breast feeding and could not drink, except on special occasions and when I had pumped and stored enough milk, which was not often.

124. It was a struggle to get Aaron even to hold the baby at home.

125. Eventually, when our son was three months old, Aaron told me that he was not bonding with our baby. He said that perhaps, when our son became five or six years old, he would bond with him because then they would be able to communicate and do things together. Aaron, also, said that he "wasn't ready to be a full time father or husband" and "maybe when he was thirty-five to thirty-six years old and his band was finished, he would be ready to settle down."

126. From two weeks old, I have been the primary caretaker of our son, Kajol. I spent every day with him, teaching him a schedule, a routine.

127. I got Kajol to smile for the first time. I heard him giggle for the first time.

128. I watched him roll over for the first time.

129. I started him on baby food. I set his food schedule, nap schedule, picked out his clothes.

130. Currently, Aaron calls me to get this information for the times that he has our son.

131. When I am with Kajol, I play with him. I give him snuggles and kiss him. I blow on his tummy to make him laugh. I rock him and sing the song "Edelweiss" to him.

132. When Kajol is not around, I listen to the song over and over while I miss him. I think about holding him and singing it to him while he looks at me with his big beautiful innocent unknowing eyes.

133. I tickle Kajol and laugh with him.

134. I cherish every smile, every giggle, every new accomplishment, every tear, every moment I have with him. He is the light in my life. He makes every single day worth getting out of bed and striving to be a better person. I want him to be as proud of me as I am of him, one day.

135. It breaks my soul when I have to hand over the child that I carried, birthed and cared for every single day to an abusive drug dealer, who literally has said that he "is going to teach his son how to deal with cunts like me".

136. Aaron constantly yells at me when we are with Kajol. He does not care that this will and does affect our son.

137. I do not want to take his father away from Kajol. He needs both parents.

138. Aaron, however, needs to learn how to parent and how to treat people respectfully, without mental, emotional, or physical abuse. I fear for my child. I would like Aaron to have to attend anger management and parenting classes.

139. I am no angel. During the two years that Aaron and I have been together, I have made mistakes. I am willing to, and I am trying to, better myself and accomplish things, but I did not deserve the treatment bestowed on me by Aaron and neither does my son.

140. Finally, in this regard, Aaron sells marijuana. I did not know this until I had moved to Salt Lake City, Utah.

141. Just a couple of weekends ago, Aaron took Kajol to a friend of his, who, also, sells drugs.

142. I do not want my son around drugs.

143. Currently, my employment is quite limited. I cannot and do not work the job that I obtained at Petitioner's request around my son. I am searching for a new job. I have sent out hundreds of resumes and have attended several interviews. I hope to have regular, consistent employment soon.

144. Contrary to Aaron's assertions, I am staying out at night and choosing not to work. I have found a safe environment in which to raise my child.

145. Aaron states that we "informally agreed" that I could stay in our condominium until April 15, 2010. We did reach this agreement. Shortly thereafter, Aaron told me that I need to move immediately. In addition, he informed me that his mother had contacted an attorney and was having me evicted.

146. Aaron was coming into the condominium and taking things that belonged to me. He even took the external drive on which all of my data was stored. I had to have my counsel call his attorney to obtain retrieval of my external drive.

147. At that same time, Aaron took all of the cable boxes and the internet, thus keeping me from working, as well as, from watching television.

148. Again, I had to have my attorney contact his counsel to regain the cable boxes and internet.

149. At that point, we all agreed that Aaron would not come into the condominium.

150. Immediately thereafter, Aaron had his sister and mother come into the condominium and take things that belonged to me, and things that belong to my son.

151. I realize that Aaron and I need to share items for our son, however, we should be reaching agreements on these items, he should not be coming in when I am not there and taking things that I or our baby need.

152. I must find a place to reside that is safe and free from this type of interference.

153. I do not have money to provide for myself. I am moving in with a friend, who has agreed to let Kajol and I reside in her home.

154. When Aaron and I decided that I should remain in the United States, I required a sponsor.

155. Aaron agreed to be my sponsor. Attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated by this reference, is a copy of the Affidavit of Support that Aaron signed. It is my understanding that by agreeing to be my sponsor, Aaron has a duty to support me.

156. I am in need of support until I can obtain full time employment and consistent income.

157. I have incurred medical bills, I have a cell phone bill, and a few other expenses. Aaron has been responsible for paying these bills.

158. Currently, Aaron is refusing to pay these bills and has threatened to turn off my cell phone.

159. I need him to continue to pay these expenses during these proceedings.

160. I have been covered by Aaron's insurance. I cannot obtain medical insurance on my own, I have medical issues and I need to have Aaron continue to provide insurance for me.

161. I have had several people send in statements regarding the events that they have witnessed between Aaron and I. I am in the process of obtaining signed affidavits from these individuals.

162. To provide notice, I am attaching these affidavits hereto as Exhibit "B". Upon receipt of signature pages, I will file the original affidavits with the Court.

163. Contrary to the statements made in Petitioner's Affidavit, he is not stable and would not provide a healthy, stable environment.

164. Contrary to the statements in Petitioner's Affidavit, I am stable other than the stress that I have suffered from my relationship with the Petitioner and his abuse.

165. Petitioner works a full time job. In addition, he is in the band and has many time commitments based upon his membership.

166. Petitioner practices with the band at least two nights each week.

167. Petitioner's band is recording an album, which requires additional commitment.

168. Petitioner's band plays concerts as often as possible, again, requiring time commitments.

169. Finally, Petitioner tours with his band, causing him to be away for extended periods of time.

CUSTODY

1. Aaron mentions our agreement to joint physical custody. We did reach that agreement.

2. Aaron asserts that I have interfered with his rights to our child. I have not. We had a disagreement and I explained that I needed to keep our child overnight while we tried to reach a resolution.

3. We did reach a resolution and I assisted in Aaron having an additional night to make up for that night.

4. We have been sharing joint physical custody.

5. I am concerned about Aaron's behavior, his need to continue to assert control and abuse over me in the presence of my child. I would like Aaron to be a good, consistent father to Kajol. I would like Aaron to take anger management and parenting classes and be a parent to his son.

Part 8. Sponsor's Contract.

Please note that, by signing this Form I-864, you agree to assume certain specific obligations under the Immigration and Nationality Act and other Federal laws. The following paragraphs describe those obligations. Please read the following information carefully before you sign the Form I-864. If you do not understand the obligations, you may wish to consult an attorney or accredited representative.

What is the Legal Effect of My Signing a Form I-864?

If you sign a Form I-864 on behalf of any person (called the "intending immigrant") who is applying for an immigrant visa or for adjustment of status to a permanent resident, and that intending immigrant submits the Form I-864 to the U.S. Government with his or her application for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status, under section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act these actions create a contract between you and the U. S. Government. The intending immigrant's becoming a permanent resident is the "consideration" for the contract.

Under this contract, you agree that, in deciding whether the intending immigrant can establish that he or she is not inadmissible to the United States as an alien likely to become a public charge, the U.S. Government can consider your income and assets to be available for the support of the intending immigrant.

What If I choose Not to Sign a Form I-864?

You cannot be made to sign a Form I-864 if you do not want to do so. But if you do not sign the Form I-864, the intending immigrant may not be able to become a permanent resident in the United States.

What Does Signing the Form I-864 Require Me to do?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then, until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, you must:

- Provide the intending immigrant any support necessary to maintain him or her at an income that is at least 125 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for his or her household size (100 percent if you are the petitioning sponsor and are on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces and the person is your husband, wife, unmarried child under 21 years old.)
- Notify USCIS of any change in your address, within 30 days of the change, by filing Form I-865.

What Other Consequences Are There?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, your income and assets may be considered ("deemed") to be available to that person, in determining whether he or she is eligible for certain Federal means-tested public benefits and also for State or local means-tested public benefits, if the State or local government's rules provide for consideration ("deeming") of your income and assets as available to the person.

This provision does not apply to public benefits specified in section 403(c) of the Welfare Reform Act such as, but not limited to, emergency Medicaid, short-term, non-cash emergency relief; services provided under the National School Lunch and Child Nutrition Acts; immunizations and testing and treatment for communicable diseases; and means-tested programs under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Contract continued on following page.

What If I Do Not Fulfill My Obligations?

If you do not provide sufficient support to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, that person may sue you for this support.

If a Federal, State or local agency, or a private agency provides any covered means-tested public benefit to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, the agency may ask you to reimburse them for the amount of the benefits they provided. If you do not make the reimbursement, the agency may sue you for the amount that the agency believes you owe.

If you are sued, and the court enters a judgment against you, the person or agency that sued you may use any legally permitted procedures for enforcing or collecting the judgment. You may also be required to pay the costs of collection, including attorney fees.

If you do not file a properly completed Form I-865 within 30 days of any change of address, USCIS may impose a civil fine for your failing to do so.

When Will These Obligations End?

Your obligations under a Form I-864 will end if the person who becomes a permanent resident based on a Form I-864 that you signed:

- Becomes a U.S. citizen;
- Has worked, or can be credited with, 40 quarters of coverage under the Social Security Act;
- No longer has lawful permanent resident status, and has departed the United States;
- Becomes subject to removal, but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status, based on a new affidavit of support, if one is required; or
- Dies.

Note that divorce does not terminate your obligations under this Form I-864.

Your obligations under a Form I-864 also end if you die. Therefore, if you die, your Estate will not be required to take responsibility for the person's support after your death. Your Estate may, however, be responsible for any support that you owed before you died.

ELECTRONIC POSTMARK - CERTIFICATION OF ELECTRONIC FILING
TAXPAYER: Aaron K & Jordan Poulsen
PRIMARY SSN: [redacted]-7598

FEDERAL RETURN SUBMITTED: January 25, 2010 05:49 AM PST
FEDERAL RETURN ACCEPTANCE DATE: 01/25/2010

The Intuit Electronic Postmark shows the date and time Intuit received your federal tax return. The Intuit Electronic Postmark documents the filing date of your income tax return, and the electronic postmark information should be kept on file with your tax return and other tax-related documentation.

There are two important aspects of the Intuit Electronic Postmark:

1. THE INTUIT ELECTRONIC POSTMARK.
The electronic postmark shows the date and time Intuit received the federal return, and is deemed the filing date if the date of the electronic postmark is on or before the date prescribed for filing of the federal individual income tax return.

TIMELY FILING:
For your federal return to be considered filed on time, your return must be postmarked on or before midnight April 15, 2010. Intuit's electronic postmark is issued in the Pacific Time (PT) zone. If you are not filing in the PT zone, you will need to add or subtract hours from the Intuit Electronic Postmark time to determine your local postmark time. For example, if you are filing in the Eastern Time (ET) zone and you electronically file your return at 9 AM on April 15, 2010, your Intuit electronic postmark will indicate April 15, 2010, 6 AM. If your federal tax return is rejected, the IRS still considers it filed on time if the electronic postmark is on or before April 15, 2010, and a corrected return is submitted and accepted before April 20, 2010. If your return is submitted after April 20, 2010, a new time stamp is issued to reflect that your return was submitted after the IRS deadline and, consequently, is no longer considered to have been filed on time.

If you request an automatic six-month extension, your return must be electronically postmarked by midnight October 15, 2010. If your federal tax return is rejected, the IRS will still consider it filed on time if the electronic postmark is on or before October 15, 2010, and the corrected return is submitted and accepted by October 20, 2010.

2. THE ACCEPTANCE DATE.
Once the IRS accepts the electronically filed return, the acceptance date will be provided by the Intuit Electronic Filing Center. This date is proof that the IRS accepted the electronically filed return.

This letter is to confirm that Jordan and Aaron Poulsen have been seeing me for therapy to work on issues in their relationship, including anger management and improved communication skills. They are progressing in therapy in terms of volatility levels and reports of improved communication at home related to skills taught in our sessions.

Their dates of service since June 22, 2009 are:

6/22/09

7/1/09

7/14/09

What am I [illegible] the hospital for again? I forgot

I noticed this morning when you left you just said good bye, but didn't give me a kiss or tell me you love me.

Are you sure you want to stay with me? Or do you feel like you have to because of the baby? Please just be honest with me. If the fight was it and you don't feel love for me, please just be honest.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

to see if they [illegible] the birthing [illegible] get [illegible] some how [illegible] something

sorry

I do love you but its just as much for the baby too.... im at a loss. its a vicious cycle... tension, explosion, calm, tension, explosion, calm... We are both just at a loss right now....

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

So I ask you the same question

"Are you sure you want to stay with me? Or do you feel like you have to because of the baby? Please just be honest with me. If the fight was it and you don't feel love for me, please just be honest."

Jordan Roy

Of course I love you. Even if I weren't pregnant I would still want to stay with you...
I guess the feeling isn't mutual... So where do you want to go from here then?

Jordan Roy

You said you are at a loss and you have love for me, but its just as much for the baby... I think I took it at face value. If you don't want to stay together I would rather just move on now.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

yes the love for u and the baby are equal and r my equal reason for staying in this .

im at a loss with myself not you.

Jordan Roy

You are being inappropriate with other women. I said that I don't

Jordan Roy

You are being inappropriate with other women. I said that I don't want my son to see you doing that to me, and me constantly having a broken heart over it, crying. That is not the kind of person I want my son to aspire to be. When he finds someone who loves him and that he loves, I want him to be true to her, honest, and devoted to ONLY her.

I said I wanted a divorce because you keep saying you will stop being inappropriate with other women, but you continue to do the same thing to me over and over... My heart can only take so much. You are breaking my heart by doing these things... and you don't seem to care.

Yes, it would hurt - but if parting ways is what you want, then I would rather go through it now before the baby is born rather than go through it when the baby is here and able to see the pain and go through it himself.

"Thats why I ask you the same that you are asking me."

I already answered it with this.
Of course I love you. Even if I weren't pregnant I would still want to stay with you...
I guess the feeling isn't mutual... So where do you want to go from here then?

sleighride each evening. Reservations are required and are offered at 5:30, 6:30 or 7:30 PM. We take you on a sleigh ride for approximately 20 minutes to our mountain lodge for dinner. Once at the lodge, there is a musician who plays the guitar and sings for entertainment throughout the evening. When everyone is finished with their meal & entertainment, a sleigh ride is provided back to the base of the resort. The sleigh ride and dinner evening lasts approximately two to two and a half hours.

Jordan Roy
Do you want chicken noodle soup, baked chicken, brisket or pork chops for dinner?

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
BRISK!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Jordan Roy
Are you excited about the baby? The more I think about it, the more excited I get. I cant wait to see what it looks like
I cant wait to see you hold it in your arms for the first time and look at it. I just cant wait.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
i am up and down though. getting the thing here is the stressful part awwww

Jordan Roy
Well just be excited!
We will figure it all out!!

BEAR BOP
hi

hope you have a good day
3 more weeks, yay! excited?

fyi.. my mom use to have money in her bank to cover rent so that it could be pulled out on the 5th and if we were ever late it wouldn't matter. but now she doesn't have that money to cover it so we need to pay rent on the 5th instead of later. so the last check you get of each month need to have some rent money and the 1st check you get of each month will cover the other bills - cellphone, power, cable, christmas tree.. when u wanna get one?

our date is next weekend.
december shores afm loud

i have the hugest headache for some reason

dexter is the shit. thanks for showing me it im hungry. fuck work. hohohoanonymous.

this weekend we should finish christmas shopping, ok?

love

OFFICER: CSO D. Brickell DATE: Mon Aug 09 17:47:35 MDT 2010

TYPE OF REPORT (Documentation, Screening or Arrest): This is for documentation.

TYPE OF DOMESTIC INCIDENT (Verbal, Physical): This is a violation of a protective order.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN SUSPECT(S) AND VICTIM(S): The suspect, Aaron Poulsen, is the husband of the victim, Jordan Poulsen. Aaron and Jordan are in the process of being divorced.

CHILDREN (Names, Ages, Location): There were no children involved.

NARRATIVE: I was dispatched to a protective order violation. I made contact with the complainant, Jordan Poulsen, by telephone and found Aaron had called Jordan on 08/05/2010 at approximately 18:00 hours, which is two and a half hours after being served with the protective order. Aaron then made at least two more phone calls between 08/05 and 08/06/2010. On 08/07/2010, Aaron sent Jordan 10 text messages between 07:31 and 08:00 hours.

Jordan also advised that Aaron has been able to identify when she is online and working. Jordan says her company put a block on her work computer for calls coming from Utah. Jordan says Aaron has a floating IP address, which gets around the company's block.

INJURIES: There were none reported.

WITNESS STATEMENTS (From Whom): There were no witnesses.

WAS VICTIMS ASSISTANCE OFFERED: Victims Assistance was not required. (k)(2) (b)(7)(C)

[redacted]

I called Jordan back and instructed her not to initiate any contact with Aaron, which she said she did not do, but acknowledged my instruction and stated she would not.

EMERGENCY CONTACT WITH PHONE NUMBER: Jordan's phone number is 801-647-9569.

SEARCH AND SEIZURE: There was no search conducted or items seized.

USE OF FORCE: There was no use of force.

CHAIN OF EVIDENCE: There was no evidence collected.

End of report.

2	KANGAS, JAMES	15:36:35 08/12/2010

OFFICER:Kangas DATE:Thu Aug 12 15:36:45 MDT 2010

NARRATIVE:

I received a written statement from Jordan Poulsen detailing her allegation further that the suspect, Aaron Poulsen, violated the protective order. Jordan reported that she obtained a protective order through Judge Medley's Court protecting her from ongoing harassment and stalking by her husband (Aaron Poulsen). Jordan reported that Aaron blatantly violated the order by calling and texting her after the order had been served. She reported that she recorded several of the conversations in which Aaron acknowledged that he was not supposed to contact her. Jordan further alleged that Aaron had accessed her online work account and left a message stating that she was a "liar". Jordan reported that since this violation of her online work account she had to block the entire state of Utah to prevent him from further online violations. Jordan reported that on August 7, 2010, Aaron entered into a text conversation with her that provided evidence that he violated the no contact order of the protective order. (See statement)

Jordan provided a copy of her call log that indicated that Aaron had called her on August 5, 2010, approximately three times. The following data was listed on the call log:

08/05 05:36 PM	Call Waiting	801-688-0727
08/05 05:47 PM	Call Waiting	801-688-0727
08/05 06:15 PM	Incoming	801-688-0727

Jordan provided a copy of her incoming calls received which indicated that Aaron had contacted her via telephone on 08/05/10 at 6:15 PM and the call lasted for 33 minutes. (See Attachment)

Jordan provided a copy of the text message conversation that ensued between she and Aaron on 08/07/10 at 8:00 AM. The following was represented as a true copy submitted by Jordan:

Aaron: "Last log on july 27th 2010. Liar. Just stop. Scheming me for spousal support jordan. Why? Why are u doing this to me? Anyways i.dunno how that text about kajol got to you. Bye"

Jordan: "Nor do I intend to ask you for any more money. You are already breaking your pockets by paying that whole sixty dollars for your son! Wouldn't want you to go into debt and not be" (The rest of the text is unreadable)

Aaron: "Once again like i said look back to thursday. That's the text i sent you when i thought i couldn't get him ugh. I was asleep at 11:30 last night jordan."

Jordan: "Second, how can you even see if I've been on f4f!? I had Utah blocked because of the last time you were stalking me at work."

Aaron: "Also the cops searched my place yesterday. No drugs, guns or booze"

I received a certified copy of protective order number 104903778 issued through the Third District Court, which listed Jordan-Lee Poulsen as the Petitioner and Aaron Kent Poulsen as the Respondent. The order was served on 08/05/10 at 4:25 PM by Officer Shannon Coolack. The order contains a Person Conduct Order, Contact for Mediation, and Stay Away Order. Under the Contact for Mediation order it specifies that the Respondent is allowed to have contact with the Petitioner only during court mediation sessions for their divorce or custody case that are scheduled with the Court Qualified Mediator.

[redacted] The officer contacted Jordan and inquired as to Aaron's allegation that she initiated contact. Jordan denied that she initiated contact.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT:

Aaron did violate a valid and properly served protective order when he admitted to contact with the protected party (Jordan-Lee Poulsen) via text [redacted] (k)(2) (b)(7)(C)

ACTIONS TAKEN:

I will submit a copy of this report to the District Attorney's Office for review and screening of charges against Aaron for violating a protective order (DV).

CASE #10C013616

Cue Card 21 Other Offenses

Short, Concise Synopsis.

COMPLAINANT RECEIVING HARASSING PHONE CALLS FROM HER ESTRANGED HUSBAND WHICH CAUSED HER TO LOSE HER JOB - CHARGES WILL BE SCREENED WITH THE CITY ATTORNEYS OFFICE FOR PHONE HARASSMENT CHARGES.

1. Type of offense.

PHONE HARASSMENT.

2. Premises (including business name and address).

6170 SOUTH 380 WEST.

3. Relationship between suspect(s) and victim(s).

HUSBAND AND WIFE.

4. Additional information.

I WAS DISPATCHED ON A PHONE HARASSMENT CALL WHERE I WAS CONTACTING MY COMPLAINANT MISS JORDAN POULSEN BY PHONE.

JORDAN INDICATED THAT TODAY BETWEEN 17:30 AND 18:16 HOURS HER SOON-TO-BE-EX-HUSBAND MR. AARON POULSEN HAD CALLED HER CELL PHONE SIXTY-SEVEN TIMES. AFTER HAVING CALLED HER PHONE AND HER NOT ANSWERING ANY OF THE PHONE CALLS, HE THEN ATTEMPTED TO CONTACT HER PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT AND HARASSED SEVERAL OF THE EMPLOYEES AT THAT LOCATION.

JORDAN WAS INFORMED AT THAT TIME BY HER EMPLOYER THAT THEY WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO TOLERATE THE PHONE HARASSMENT THAT THEY WERE GETTING FROM HER HUSBAND AND THAT SHE WOULD NEED TO TERMINATE HER EMPLOYMENT. AS OF TODAY'S DATE/July 21ST JORDAN POULSEN NO LONGER WORKS AT THAT BUSINESS DUE TO THE HARASSING PHONE CALLS FROM MR. POULSEN. HER PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT IS SEAR'S CARPET AND AIR DUCT CLEANING THAT IS RUN BY A COMPANY CALLED MILLER & SONS.

MISS POULSEN INDICATED THAT SHE IS IN THE PROCESS OF A DIVORCE WITH HER HUSBAND AARON AND THAT WAS THE REASON FOR THE HARASSING PHONE CALLS.

I DID NOT HAVE ANY CONTACT WITH THE SUSPECT, AARON POULSEN ON THE PHONE HARASSMENT CASE. I WAS UNABLE TO REACH HIM BY PHONE, AND NO VOICE MAIL WAS ALLOWED TO BE LEFT ON HIS CELL PHONE AT THAT TIME.

I WILL FORMALLY SCREEN THE CHARGES WITH THE CITY ATTORNEYS OFFICE FOR PHONE HARASSMENT AGAINST MR. POULSEN.

I INFORMED JORDAN THAT SHE SHOULD SAVE ALL OF THE CALLS FROM MR. POULSEN ON TODAY'S DATE, THAT IF SHE IS ABLE TO SAVE THOSE ENTRIES IN HER PHONE THAT SHE

SHOULD DO SO, SO THAT WE HAVE THAT EVIDENCE FOR OUR CASE. JORDAN HAD SAID THAT SHE DID NOT HAVE ANY WAY OF COMING TO MURRAY IN ORDER FOR US TO TAKE PICTURES OF HER PHONE WITH ALL OF THE CALLS FROM MR. POULSEN.

I HAVE NO FURTHER INFORMATION ON THE PHONE HARASSMENT CASE AT THIS TIME AND THIS CASE WILL REMAIN ACTIVE.

5. Closing.

6. Disposition (Active, Inactive, Closed, Cleared by Arrest).

I called and spoke with Jordan, and she stated that she is upset over losing a job that she loved. She stated that this is not the first time the suspect has done this sort of thing to her. She told me about how the suspect had been texting her coworker earlier in the morning on 7/21/10, and that he has repeatedly called and harassed her boss. She told me that both her boss, Don Miller, and coworker, Tanya Lynch, were providing affidavits to her attorney. She explained that they both know the suspect has been harassing them and others at her workplace since Jordan began working there. I suggested that she send these statements to our office as well -so it can be included in the report. She stated she believes that the harassment, (texts, emails, frequent phone calls) stem from him threatening or wanting to make her "broke, homeless and with bad credit." She explained that it is going to be difficult for her to cover the bills, and she feels that it was definitely intentional to get her to loose her job. She said that several reports have been made with Taylorsville Police, and she said they call them to help out during their custody exchanges. She stated that he has contacted US Customs and Immigration to try and get her in trouble and has threatened to prevent her green card from being renewed. She had explained how she had sought a exparte protective order at one time, but he and his attorney had already filed one the day before, which gave him temporary full custody of their kid for a period of time. She said the order was eventually dismissed. She also stated that the suspect had assaulted her when she was 8 months pregnant, and then she ended up getting cited since they didn't believe her, and the charges were eventually dropped against her. So, there has been a history between them in Taylorsville City that I was not aware of. I told her about the CVR program and that she could try to apply for help with a portion of her wage loss. She stated that she wished she could get some sort of relief order that would help to stop the harassing phone calls to every place she works at, etc. I will forward the information she sends to me to our Detective Sergeant for further review.

Incident #: 10C013616

07/21/10 M. BLACK
CASE #10C013616

Cue Card 21 Other Offenses

Short, Concise Synopsis.

COMPLAINANT RECEIVING HARASSING PHONE CALLS FROM HER ESTRANGED HUSBAND WHICH CAUSED HER TO LOSE HER JOB - CHARGES WILL BE SCREENED WITH THE CITY ATTORNEYS OFFICE FOR PHONE HARASSMENT CHARGES.

1. Type of offense.

PHONE HARASSMENT.

2. Premises (including business name and address).

6170 SOUTH 380 WEST.

3. Relationship between suspect(s) and victim(s).

HUSBAND AND WIFE.

4. Additional information.

I WAS DISPATCHED ON A PHONE HARASSMENT CALL WHERE I WAS CONTACTING MY COMPLAINANT MISS JORDAN POULSEN BY PHONE.

JORDAN INDICATED THAT TODAY BETWEEN 17:30 AND 18:16 HOURS HER SOON-TO-BE-EX-HUSBAND MR. AARON POULSEN HAD CALLED HER CELL PHONE SIXTY-SEVEN TIMES. AFTER HAVING CALLED HER PHONE AND HER NOT ANSWERING ANY OF THE PHONE CALLS, HE THEN ATTEMPTED TO CONTACT HER PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT AND HARASSED SEVERAL OF THE EMPLOYEES AT THAT LOCATION.

JORDAN WAS INFORMED AT THAT TIME BY HER EMPLOYER THAT THEY WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO TOLERATE THE PHONE HARASSMENT THAT THEY WERE GETTING FROM HER HUSBAND AND THAT SHE WOULD NEED TO TERMINATE HER EMPLOYMENT. AS OF TODAY'S DATE/July 21ST JORDAN POULSEN NO LONGER WORKS AT THAT BUSINESS DUE TO THE HARASSING PHONE CALLS FROM MR. POULSEN. HER PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT IS SEAR'S CARPET AND AIR DUCT CLEANING THAT IS RUN BY A COMPANY CALLED MILLER & SONS.

MISS POULSEN INDICATED THAT SHE IS IN THE PROCESS OF A DIVORCE WITH HER HUSBAND AARON AND THAT WAS THE REASON FOR THE HARASSING PHONE CALLS.

I DID NOT HAVE ANY CONTACT WITH THE SUSPECT, AARON POULSEN ON THE PHONE HARASSMENT CASE. I WAS UNABLE TO REACH HIM BY PHONE, AND NO VOICE MAIL WAS ALLOWED TO BE LEFT ON HIS CELL PHONE AT THAT TIME.

I WILL FORMALLY SCREEN THE CHARGES WITH THE CITY ATTORNEYS OFFICE FOR PHONE HARASSMENT AGAINST MR. POULSEN.

I INFORMED JORDAN THAT SHE SHOULD SAVE ALL OF THE CALLS FROM MR. POULSEN ON TODAY'S DATE, THAT IF SHE IS ABLE TO SAVE THOSE ENTRIES IN HER PHONE THAT SHE SHOULD DO SO, SO THAT WE HAVE THAT EVIDENCE FOR OUR CASE. JORDAN HAD SAID THAT SHE DID NOT HAVE ANY WAY OF COMING TO MURRAY IN ORDER FOR US TO TAKE

Incident #: 10C013616

PICTURES OF HER PHONE WITH ALL OF THE CALLS FROM MR. POULSEN.

I HAVE NO FURTHER INFORMATION ON THE PHONE HARASSMENT CASE AT THIS TIME AND THIS CASE WILL REMAIN ACTIVE.

RE: Jordan Poulsen

Dear Ms. Flanders:

Per our conversation on this date, I met with Ms. Poulsen in individual therapy on three occasions in February of 2011 prior to her insurance being discontinued. She reported that her husband, Aaron, was frequently emotionally and verbally abusive, making demeaning remarks about her. Ms. Poulsen also maintained that he physically assaulted her on several occasions. She stated that he abused her while she was pregnant and on one occasion loaded a gun in front of her, which felt threatening. In spite of these episodes of violence Ms. Poulsen indicated that she did not report these incidents to the police "because I was too scared to charge him." Her reports of the abuse have been consistent over the course of therapy. The fact that Ms. Poulsen did not accuse her husband of a greater number of physically abusive incidents suggests that her report is not exaggerated and represents a credible account of what occurred.

In addition, Ms. Poulsen reported a number of symptoms that are consistent with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. She stated that she has recurrent (daily) and intrusive recollections of the abuse which cause her significant anxiety and fear. Ms. Poulsen also indicated that contact with her husband or even the smell of his clothing will trigger these emotions, as well. These symptoms are consistent with her report of having been the victim of abuse.

If you have any further questions in this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

David A. Dodgion, Ph.D.

Re: I-751 Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence with Waiver of Joint Filing
Petitioner: POULSEN, Jordan (A 096 829 525)

To Whom It May Concern,

I am filing the enclosed I-751 Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence on behalf of my client, Jordan Poulsen. Ms. Poulsen entered into a good faith marriage with Aaron Poulsen, but the couple is currently in divorce proceedings because she has suffered from substantial domestic abuse at the hands of her husband. Some of the domestic violence incidents include him dragging her down the stairs through broken glass, physically abusing her while she was pregnant with their child, and pointing a gun at her face.

Ms. Poulsen is seeking a waiver of the joint filing because they entered the marriage in good faith but there has been substantial domestic violence. Although I am also submitting proof of domestic abuse, I understand that we can only check one category for the waiver of the joint filing requirement. I believe that Ms. Poulsen is eligible for both categories, box d. and e., good faith marriage and abuse, specified under Part 2 of the I-751 Petition form.

Enclosed are as follows:

1. G-28 Notice of Appearance as Attorney
2. I-912 Fee Waiver with accompanying evidence
3. I-751 Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence
4. Affidavit of Jordan Poulsen
5. Proof of Good Faith Marriage

AFFIDAVIT OF JORDAN POULSEN (A 096 829 525)
IN SUPPORT OF I-751 SELF-PETITION
AS BATTERED SPOUSE OF A U.S. CITIZEN
UNDER THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

SPOUSE IS A UNITED STATES CITIZEN

My husband, Aaron Kent Poulsen, was born on September 22, 1981, in Salt Lake City, Utah, and is a United States Citizen.

RESIDENCE IN THE UNITED STATES WITH THE ABUSER

My husband and I resided together in Salt Lake City, Utah from July, 2008 to January, 2010.

GOOD FAITH MARRIAGE

My husband Aaron and I met in or about May, 2008, while I was visiting friends in Maryland. At that time, I was performing volunteer work for a company called Hollywood Music T.V. interviewing bands for its on-line television station. Aaron is in a band entitled Separation of Self. We began an internet courtship. He later invited me to travel to Salt Lake City, Utah, to go on tour with his band and film life on the road for my show. I decided to accept his invitation, and he took money out of the bands bank account and paid for my ticket to fly from Maryland to Salt Lake City.

I traveled to Salt Lake City on July 17, 2008, and my plan was to film the documentary, and then leave Salt Lake. However, we began dating and he asked me not to leave Salt Lake City.

We began living together immediately. We shared a common bond in musical taste and interests, TV shows, and nightlife. We also had an intense physical attraction to one another. I found out I was pregnant January 2, 2009. We decided in March of 2009 to get married and start our family together.

BATTERING AND EXTREME CRUELTY

A few weeks into our relationship, while I was using his cell phone, I noticed texts from him professing to miss his former girlfriend. He had written that he was going through Jessica withdrawals. Jessica was his former girlfriend. When I asked Aaron about the texts, he assured me that he wanted to be with me and that our relationship was, and would be, okay.

A couple of months later, Aaron and I traveled to an event called the Dirt Fest in the desert. Many people drive out to the desert for a heavy metal show. During one of the nights of the show, Aaron disappeared. A friend of mine named Travis and I scoured the terrain looking for Aaron. We found him in the back of a van. I could not believe what I was seeing, so I watched until I knew that I was seeing what I thought I was seeing. Aaron was fondling, groping and kissing another woman. I was angry and yelled at him, asking what he was doing because he has a girlfriend. Aaron told me that I imagined what I had seen. He called me names, including a bitch.

A few weeks later, Aaron and I got into another argument about him speaking to his former girlfriend. Aaron threw my computer across the room and jumped on top of me with his hand on my throat, strangling me. After, he left me there alone and I called my friend, Jadey, who arrived with our roommate, Chris, to console me.

A while after that, I asked Aaron to spend some time with me. He said that he did not wish to spend time with me. This hurt my feelings and he could tell. I was walking down the stairs with a drink in my hand. He said, "FINE! LETS GO THEN," in a very loud voice. Then, he pushed me. almost causing me to fall down the flight of stairs. I immediately walked outside to have a moment to myself to cry. He followed me, snatched the cigarette out of my hand and threw it against the neighbors car. He, then, grabbed me by both of my shoulders and shook me violently, telling me what a horrible person I was.

Aaron and I have had other fights. During some of our fights, the verbal, emotional and mental abuse would be so unbearable I would start to pack my things and begin calling homeless shelters to find a place to stay. Even being homeless would have been better than the severe verbal beatings he would give to me. It hurt more than the physical beatings.

I remember one time that he said such hateful things to me, I was on my hands and knees, at his feet, crying so hard that I could barely breathe and I was begging him to stop. He just kicked me away and said, "Look at you, look at you. You're so pathetic. Look how pathetic you are." Then, he laughed at me. I never will forget. It broke every piece of me.

Somewhere along the way, he broke my spirit like a beaten dog. I began to believe him. I believed him when he said that it was all my fault. The guilt would eat me alive.

He would tell me how terrible I was and how it was no wonder that all my former boyfriends left me because I am such a flawed person. He began to control every aspect of my personality, what was all right to say or do and what was not. Even the way that I chewed bothered him, so I tried to change the way I chewed.

Aaron told me that I deserved to be abused and I began to believe him. Because I believed him, I always went back to him, I always forgave him, even though he never apologized. Aaron told me that he did not need to apologize because he was just saying the truth. In addition, he would say that he would not apologize for being honest just because it hurts you.

I think that people will read this and not understand how someone can be pushed around physically and take it, or be told that they are nothing and take it. To be honest, I do not know why people take it. I took it because I loved him and I wanted him to love me back, to kiss me without being asked, to hold my hand, to snuggle with me at night time, to look me in the eyes and, finally, say Jordan, I love you. I thought that he would change. But, it only got worse.

Eventually, I became tired of constantly being put down and started sticking up a bit for myself. I never should have done that, it almost cost me my unborn child. It only made things worse.

Around September, 2008, Aaron told me that if I did not find a job, he would kick me out. I am a Canadian citizen, and at that time I did not have a work visa in the United States. I ended up having to take a job as a web cam model for customers online. When I got the job, this is the message that I sent to Aaron:

Jordan Stothart-Poulsen - August 21, 2008, 6:25 a.m.

> I do want you to realize that I would never do this if I didnt have the desperate need to give you money. And I am NOT throwing that in your face, Im saying that it is for us, so that we dont have to struggle . . . and so that you arent so stressed out. I just dont want you to worry. I am willing to do what it takes to make sure you dont have that stress. And if this is what I gotta do, this is what I gotta do. I am very uncomfortable doing it, its embarrassing. VERY EMBARRASSING. . . but Ill suck it up I guess. I know you dont like waking up for work at 5 a.m. either, but you do what you gotta do.

From this time forward, every cent that I earned went to Aaron. I gave him my Canadian debit card and he pulled money out and used it how he saw fit as the primary bill payer.

As time went on, I caught him speaking with his former girlfriend, Jessica, several times. Every time I would ask him about it, he would lie. Each time I asked it caused a giant blowout and, of course, it all became my fault and I was attacked.

In December, 2008, we went to Temple Square. I lit a cigarette. I was not aware of this being a sign of disrespect. If I had been, I would not have lit the cigarette. Aaron became very angry with me. We did not speak during the entire train and car ride home. When we arrived home, I sat down, turned on the television and poured myself a glass of wine. He began yelling at me. I tried to ignore him, so he stood in front of the television. I continued to try to ignore him. Then, he grabbed the wine out of my hand and poured it out. He, then, took the rest of the bottle of wine and poured it out while saying, "You f. . .ing bitch. You wonder why no one likes you. It's because you're sloppy. Everyone hates you. I haven't wanted to be with you ever since you got here."

He threw the glass against the table and it shattered all over the living room floor. I, then, went upstairs in an attempt to remove myself from the argument, but he followed me, yelling. He came toward the bed and I covered my head in case he punched me. Instead, Aaron grabbed my right ankle and dragged me off of the bed. My back slammed against the ground and knocked the wind out of me. He continued to drag me. I hit the door frame and began to sob. He told me to shut the f... up and stop playing the victim. He dragged me down two excruciating flights of stairs on my back by holding my ankle. At the bottom of the stairs, he dragged me though the broken glass. I just laid there crying on my side as he told me to get the f... out of his condo. What I did not know at the time, is that I was a few weeks pregnant with our child.

Aaron and I were supposed to go and visit my family in Louisiana three days after this incident. He canceled his plane ticket and I was forced to go alone. He told me that he no longer wanted to be with me. I was so sore physically, mentally and emotionally, that I somewhat agreed to break up.

I went to Louisiana by myself and was surrounded by friends and family, who helped me heal. I had to return to Salt Lake City to pack my belongings and to retrieve my dog.
I arranged for a friend to travel all of the way to Salt Lake City and to drive back with my possessions because I had no car and no license.

When I arrived home, Aaron began his mind control, again. Aaron told me how compatible we are when it comes to sex, how he loves it, how he wished I could stay, and how he cared about me.

On January 2, 2009, I took a pregnancy test. It was positive. Aaron and I talked. He said that he wanted to try to work things out. A few days later, he went to a music convention in Los Angeles, California. He told people that he hated me, that I am a monster, and that he could not believe he had gotten someone like me, pregnant. Three days after I found out I was I already had people sending emails to me informing me that Aaron was saying these things.

Then, I found information on his phone. At the time, he was plotting to send me back to Canada, pregnant, so that I could have the baby alone with free health care. A couple of weeks later, I found a conversation between him and another female named Pamela Redd, with whom Aaron had a previous relationship. He was asking when she was going to come suck his dick, and when she was going to send him more naked photos, among other dirty, immoral and inappropriate things.

I asked him why he was doing this. Instead of an apology, he lied to me. Then, when I provided evidence, he told me to deal with it. He said, now you know how I really feel. Then, he screamed at me as I cried. I began to feel terrible cramps. I thought they would go away. Instead, they got worse. The more we fought, the worse the cramps became, until I was in tears, unable to sleep and throwing up profusely. I asked him to stop yelling at me and to quit putting me down. I asked him to leave me alone if he was not going to help me. He told me what a horrible person I was, that it was no wonder my former boyfriends had left me and that my former husband had divorced me. I begged him to stop and screamed that he was going to make me miscarry. He screamed, I want you to miscarry! I hope you miscarry! Im not the only one who wants you to, either. My mom wants you to miscarry! The baby would be better off miscarried than raised by you!

Aarons torment continued. He stated, I keep trying to get rid of you, but you keep crawling back. You are f...ing pathetic. You only got pregnant to trap me. It got so bad that I tried to get away from him by locking myself in the bathroom. He stood outside the door and screamed at me. I went to three separate rooms in an attempt to remove myself from the situation, but he followed. He punched the other bathroom door when I went in there to throw up. I said, you are being extremely emotionally and verbally abusive to me. I want you to leave me alone. I am going to end up miscarrying." He yelled back, "You deserve to be abused!" This went on all day. Finally, he left that night and I had to call a friend to take me to the emergency room.

In June of 2009, I went through Aaron's phone and discovered that he had been having an internet affair with a woman named Crystal Culbreth. He had been sending photos of his naked penis, and begging her for nude photos. He had also been sending her various pornographic material. He was also talking with her daily about sexual things. When I confronted him horrible an argument ensued. Aaron loaded his handgun in front of me and pointed it directly at my face. He said that he "couldnt take it anymore". He then said he was going to kill himself. He eventually put the gun down and I fled upstairs. He followed me to continue the argument. Instead of arguing and putting the baby in further harm's way by letting him distress me even more, I made an attempt to leave the room. I went into the nursery, and he followed. I again, trying to avoid the situation, went back into the bedroom. He grabbed me by my shoulders and threw me violently onto the bed. He then mounted me sat on my pregnant stomach so that I could not move. He held me down by the skin on my back violently leaving red fingerprint marks and bruises. The look in his eyes had changed. His eyes were evil and cold. I was terrified and in so much pain. I screamed for help, but no one called the police. I was able to break free and try to make a run for the nursery, but he caught me and threw me back on the bed, again sitting on my pregnant stomach in the same fashion. He made an attempt to strike my face, but I was able to block him. In an attempt to free myself from the attack, I sliced my foot on a piece of glass that was on the floor. I was able to reach down and dip my hand in the blood that was spirting out and put it directly into his face for him to see to try and stop his uncontrollable rage. Thinking that he had caused me to miscarry the baby he began to panic and called 911. When the officers arrived, they noted all of my injuries. Because of the evidence and my various injuries, they read Aaron his Miranda rights and placed him under arrest for battering me and nearly killing my unborn child. The officers interviewed me and told me that he was going to jail. By this time his mother had arrived and kept telling me, "He isn't going to be able to go to work tomorrow. He is going to lose his job and you won't have insurance for the baby", and, "You aren't going to be able to get your immigration" and things of that nature. Out of fear, I asked the officer not to take him to jail. The officer explained that in Utah, if there is a domestic violence incident that they have to take one party or the other to jail. He told me that instead of taking

Aaron to jail, he could give me a citation. He asked me to weigh my decision VERY heavily and gave me a moment alone with Aaron's mother to weigh the decision. His mother talked me into taking the charge telling me that "they will just dismiss it in court". I ended up agreeing to take the citation. I pled not guilty and the charge was ultimately dismissed and expunged. I did not feel my baby move for two weeks after this incident. I feared my child had been killed from the attack. We went to therapy the next day and he admitted to all of this. Directly after this incident, Aaron was upset about something and we got into an argument. I went into our bedroom to try to avoid the situation. Aaron put his head through the entire bedroom door, I have a picture of the bedroom door. When I looked at him, I said "What is wrong with you?" He replied, "fear is the only way to get through to you! It's the only thing you understand!"

The fight ensued, and I began to feel terrible cramps. He continued yelling. It got so bad that I was forced to go to the hospital. Aaron had caused me so much stress from the attack in June and the abuse following, that it sent me into pre-term labor. I had to stay in the hospital while the medical personnel tried to stop the labor and contractions. Two days after I was released from the hospital, Aaron, again, was communicating sexually with his former girlfriend, Jessica.

In a desperate attempt to save our marriage, I went to both personal counseling and marriage counseling with Julie Stout. We also attended counseling with Todd Dunn. Aaron quit going to marriage counseling saying "It's not me that has the problem".

During another incident, my son was in the hospital for three days with a blood infection. Aaron also chose to stay those three days in the hospital. While I was asleep, Aaron went through my phone and became jealous over messages between a male friend and myself. He stood over me and punched at my face. He leaned close to me and said "no one would ever f*cking know!" At that moment I hit record on my phone and have him recorded telling me punching at my face is quote "justified because you're such a bitch". My son saw and heard the entire incident and, as you can hear in the recording, is distressed. Later in the recorded conversation he says, "You're going to look like a gold digger." I said, "You know that's not true", to which he replies, "Yeah, but I'm going to MAKE you look like a gold digger who married me for a green card. And it's panning out to look pretty good because I've already been to immigration." This recording is transcribed and can be found submitted with these documents.

There were several other instances of abuse that occurred. Most of the time I did not call the police out of fear because Aaron not only had guns, but also told me. "I know people who can have you taken care of", and, "I'll just call immigration and tell them you married me for a green card and I'll be rid of you and have Kajol. My mom and I will raise him."

Through my entire pregnancy, I was extremely ill with hyperemesis. I was bed ridden. Aaron constantly would harass me about cleaning the condo, even though I was unable physically.

On September 17, 2009, I gave birth to my son. As soon as he was born, they put him on my chest. All I could say was, I just had a baby! and Hes perfect!" Aaron told me that he did not really have any feelings after eighteen hours of labor and that the only thing he really felt was happy that it was all over because he was tired. He said, I thought I would feel more than I do. He did not cry or smile when he saw our son. After a baby is born, the skin is purple for a few moments. Upon seeing this Aaron began accusing me of sleeping with a Latino.

After the delivery, I was in a great deal of pain. I struggled for weeks. I ripped my stitches and had no muscle control over my bladder. This lasted about seven weeks and I still struggle with this. Aaron took off from work for two weeks to help with the baby. At that time, he did a good job. I was in so much pain, I could barely roll over in bed. After he went to work, everything went downhill.

Aaron believed that because he was back to work, I should be responsible for cleaning the entire condo and caring for the baby. He would not listen to reason or hear that I was hurt. I just could not do it all. The average time for a woman to heal after giving birth is six weeks. It took me longer. The day that the six weeks expired, Aaron began harassing me to go back to work and would not stop until I finally give in despite the pain and agreed to try.

Aaron made me work nights, 8:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m. His mom would take the baby on Wednesday night so that I could work. Aaron would sit downstairs while I worked and the baby slept on Friday through Sunday nights. Then, I would have to stay up with the baby all day, again, through the week while he worked. I never slept. I nearly went mad from sleep deprivation.

Aaron did not care how I was doing, and he hardly ever helped me. Despite my cries for help, Aaron was not emotionally available to me. As soon as it seemed he was interested, I would find out another lie he had told, or about another female he had romanced.

During this time, Aarons mother, also, started in on me, saying that I needed to be on medication, accusing me of sleeping all day and partying all night. I didn't party. I was breast feeding and could not drink, except on special occasions and when I had pumped and stored enough milk, which was not often.

It was a struggle to get Aaron even to hold the baby at home. Eventually, when our son was three months old, Aaron told me that he was not bonding with our baby. He said that perhaps, when our son became five or six years old, he would bond with him because then they would be able to communicate and do things together. Aaron, also, said that he wasnt ready to be a full time father or husband and maybe when he was thirty-five to thirty-six years old and his band was finished, he would be ready to "settle down."

It breaks my soul when I have to hand over the child that I carried, birthed and cared for every single day to an abusive drug dealer, who literally has said that he is going to teach his son how to deal with cunts like me. Aaron constantly yells at me when we are with Kajol. He does not care that this will and does affect our son.

Finally, in this regard, Aaron sells marijuana, and I've seen it. I did not know this until I had moved to Salt Lake City, Utah. I do not want my son around drugs.

Aaron and I separated at the end of January, 2010. Throughout our marriage, Aaron held my immigration status and green card over my head stating things like, "I'll have you f*cking deported and you'll have to leave your own son here. I'll have full custody soon." He's also stated, "Go ahead and tell people I sell pot. No one will believe you and then I will just call immigration on you". Also "Shut the f*ck up or I'll call immigration and tell them you only married me for a greencard". Also via text he stated "I've gone to immigration. Sh*t is coming when you reapply that you have no idea about. Good luck getting to stay here." In another incident on February 2, 2010, I was forced to call the police on his mother, who assaulted me in an attempt to take my child. During the incident, I had a major panic attack and was rushed to the hospital unable to breathe and with a heartbeat of 165. Because I had called the police (despite him threatening me that "if you ever call the police I will have you taken care of"), he text messaged me this:

"From Aaron at Feb 4, 2010 20:35 :

And if u really want to be difficult I can make a call to uscis tomorrow. My lawyer does immigration too. So lol yourself.

Send To Aaron at Feb 4, 2010 20:36 :

You keep saying "you can move and I'll just see the baby" so why don't you just go with that? You know you can't raise him by yourself

From Aaron at Feb 4, 2010 20:36 :

We had a deal until you went all drama queen jordo tonight!!!!! So uncalled for with the cops and fire and rescue. Omg. Drama queen.

Send To Aaron at Feb 4, 2010 20:36 :

Go ahead. No judge is going to let a mother leave the country without her child. And there is a condition to my green card that says if you threaten me with it I can keep it

From Aaron at Feb 4, 2010 20:37 :

You can't raise him by yourself!!! And your mom? Good luck with that. Poor Kajol.

These text messages are saved.

Aaron controlled every aspect of my life. My money, my friends, and where I went. If someone stuck up for me, he either scared them away with violence towards me, or manipulated them into thinking I was crazy. I had no one. I was so alone. I became very depressed.

In March of 2010 I was hired at Sears Carpet & Air Duct Cleaning. From day one Aaron was out to sabotage the job for me. He would call in pretending to be a customer asking if I were working to "see if I was lying about being at work". I took several calls from him myself in which I recognized the phone number and answered, he would ask for me and when I asked what I wanted he would then say "Just making sure you're at work and not lying". We were not even together! I did file a report against him in Murray, UT regarding the harassment at Sears. I eventually lost my job with the company because of this sort of behavior from him. It was at this point, when Sears accepted a resignation, that I decided I had had enough and pursued a protective order.

I was forced to go back to my job online as a webcam model, and to this very day, Aaron Poulsen constantly stalks me at work, taking photos to "prove that I'm working" despite orders to stay away from my work places. He has also stated that he films me with video recording software while I am at work. I have a text of him saying this saved.

Aaron and I are currently in divorce proceedings, and it has been a battle. In May, 2011, Aaron tried to get the protective order against him dismissed, but the judge did not allow for it to be dismissed and I won the case to keep the protective order permanent. Aaron has violated the protective order on several occasions and faces charges stemming from these violations, yet has not ceased in trying to resume control over me, which is a common trait of an abuser. Aaron has threatened to "have me taken care of" several times. He was especially threatening when he found out that I had told my attorney that he is a pot dealer and mentioned where he gets his marijuana from. Aaron has his mother call my friends, family, and speak to my third party during child exchanges in order to find out personal information about me, such as "When I'm home alone during the day" and "what times I sleep during the day seeing as I work nights". My friend, Kristen McNinch audio recorded this conversation. Two friends have had to write police reports because of Aaron's mother's constant harassment. Sara Poulsen (Aaron's mother) is working in Aaron's behalf. I believe that he is gathering information about when I am home alone so that he can physically assault me (or worse) without fear of getting caught. I live in daily fear of Mr. Poulsen. I make sure that my doors and all windows are locked at all times, and my neighbors have been informed to call the police if he is seen. Mr. Poulsen STILL has guns in his home despite it being a Federal offence to have one and has been recently charged by the police.

GOOD MORAL CHARACTER

I have never hurt anyone and try to live my life as a good person with morals and family values. The only incident in which I was cited by the police was the incident that is mentioned above.

In August of 2010 I converted to the LDS faith and am now a devout Mormon. I have quit smoking cigarettes and never drink. I attend church every Sunday for 3 hours, and participate in almost all church activities that are held after church hours. I read scripture daily with my son, and by myself. I am an active member in my community in helping others through the church and on my own. I have also made it my mission to help other battered women cope with their traumas. I currently attend the West Jordan Victim Assistance Program support group for battered women at the local police station. I am also in counseling for Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder directly related to Aaron's abuse. The only time I have had problems with the law is the incident mentioned above. I am trying to move on from this and I want to give my son a good life.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and accurate.

Dated this 6th day of July, 2011.

she said if i do get married it better be really nice with lots of friends lo

Jordan Roy
Well even if it is my only option...I cant force you to marry me. And I wouldnt want you to do it unless you really wanted to anyway.

Yeah, those work hours arent very cool.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
so come may what are you going to do?

An email correspondence between Aaron and myself. I think it shows that I tried. God did I try... for so long.

I should be your best friend. The one you tell everything to. The only one you trust completely and vice versa.
Instead I'm the one you hide shit from.

I dont want to be one of those wives that has to investigate everything because I cant trust my husband and that is exactly what you are forcing me to become and I hate it. I just want to be able to trust you... and I was starting to be able to and things were going well. I was really starting to trust you. Now im just back to square one and I am crushed. My heart is broken.

i have told you just as much stuff that has happened......

well i am done with facebook..... i am done with myspace..... sucks cuz bands hit me up for shit. but i guess i have to do it.

you have my password...... i dunno what else to do...

Anyway, my point is that the fact that I told you about it says a lot about my character.
The fact that I respect you enough to do that regardless of weather you get mad at me or not. (Even though I shot him down and told him that yes, I would tell you).
The fact that I told you something like this is telling about me.
It says I won't hide anything from you weather its big or small dude.

i would TOTALLY tell you if something like that happend.... duh...

thats a MAJOR MAJOR MAJOR MAJOR think

an ex asking me how i am doing and me telling her how happy i am is waaaaaaaaaaaay different one of my freinds eh? i doubt i have any real "friends" that would do that.

By the way - One of your good friends tried to fuck me last night because pregnant chicks turn him on. He wanted to come over because he knew you weren't here and that I was upset.
I shot him down.

See how easy honesty is?

lawren-sent me pics to get on my nuts.... those pics should have been deleted the moment you and i were together.... I HAD NO INTEREST IN HER, SHE WAS THE POSTER CHILD OF SLUT jon, jenny, TS- was th biggest mistake i made. At the time i was mad as hell at you just liek you are with me, saying anything and everything that makes you feel better as long as it something negative to vent about me.... i vented to the wrong people... BIG MISTAKE.

pam- was innocent sexual jokes, since thats how our relationship is... was inapporporiate and a mistake on my part to think that having a relationship like that with a girl is ok.

amanda- she contacted me and i told you

pam- she contacted me and i told you

jenny- contacted me and i told you

crystal- asked for types of porn i thought would make her friend eric disgusted, i sent a reply with pic of two pornstars that i like and said " this is all i am into" she replied with attached pics of herself... i did not reply to that... should have came to you about it... i no longer talk to her... you asked if i have talked to her and i said "only through threads and posts she has commented on"

jessica- contacted me last night for the 1st time since sept. asking how i was.. i said i am happy and and everything is going great, i am excited to be a dad and things are good, she said i am glad things are going good for you, i said u too.... didnt want to start drama with you cause i felt it was a damned if i do damned if i dont situtation. should have told you right away like pam and jenny.

you say i put my hands on you like whip- ouch, i may have tossed you on a bed but through you through a 2 story window is extreme... i am nothing like that and would never doa anything like that to you... last night proved my self control, it was about to get bad like on fathers day....

you say that i am no better than will and he betrayed you once and you left... he betrayed you and then you married him and moved to cali, thats not leaving someone after finding out they actually fucked someone else... i would never ever ever ever ever ever ever KISS, TOUCH, FUCK, OR LET SOMEONE BITCH OF ANY KIND TOUCH ME OR DO ANYTHING SEXUAL TO ME WHILE IN A RELATIONSHIP... i have had that happen to me FOUR TIMES... i know how bad the feels... so i am nothing like will, nothing..

as far as jake, i am no where near as phsychologically fucked up like he is... his lies were far worse than anything i have said to you.... and you said you think he cheated on you on tour, we wants to watch vince fuck you, he fucked an underage teen... i am nothing like that.

so for you to say i am the worst man you have ever been with is extreme... i have done everything in my power to make a difficlut tricky situation as easy and gving as possible (your green card, a place to live, clothes, food, trips to see your family etc) i do everything i can to make you happy.

sorry i with held imformation that is crucial that you need to know about every woman in my life that talks to me.... i guess thats where you and i are different, i dont care who you talk to, who flirts with you, who send you racy comments cause i trust you through and through 110%... even after you still talked to jason after i asked you not to and i found out (and yes there were 2 times i found out where you didnt tell me) i did not flinch... i did not go ballistic.. i used to be like that when i was 23.... i know you wont cheat on me in anyway... and i will NEVER CHEAT ON YOU in anyway.

sorry i lied AGAIN.... all i know is that things could be worse than me just not telling that i told an ex that i havent spoken to in almost a year how happy i was with. i could have been like the low fucks that you were with before, cheating, lieing about MAJOR SHIT, throwing you through windows.

i am sorry this journey has been rough, i am sorry.. i am doing what i can.. but i guess what i think is best is not....

so i dont know what to do from here..

i know we have been through some shit... this rough journey is almost over.... our lives ar about to get so much easier and i am sorry for hiding that text from jessica from you....

all i can say is i thought it would be best to avoid a fight is i handled on my own and told her how happy i was with you..

sorry

> The fact that you concealed her name with an alias tells me a few things. First, it tells me you didnt care how I felt over the matter (even though you were sooooo sorry over it). Second, it tells me that you had every intention of keeping in touch with her regardless of how much it hurt me. "What Jordan doesn't know wont hurt her". And finally third, that you have been talking to her under this alias for quite some time. All the evidence points to exactly that. Sorry, but I don't believe that you haven't talked to her since last September.

you are right, i should have been straight forwarf and said "jessica asked me how i am doing, and i rubbed in her face how happy i am" i swear on my dads grave, last time i heard from her was sept 22nd, 2008 "happy birthday", "thanks"......

so i need to know what you want to do...you sound set on it being "over", what that intells i have no idea... so you are wanting to divorce?

You did lie. You said you would come to me honestly with things that you knew I would want to know about such as Pam, or Jenny, or Jessica, or Amanda, or anyone or anything else that needed to be honestly addressed in our marriage instead of hidden, lied about etc.
You KNEW the secrecy and things going on behind my back is THE major thing that crushes me, and yet you continue to do it anyway.

I'm sorry Aaron. I want to believe you... but I just can't believe someone who lies to my face.

You broke my heart and have risked the baby due to stress.

I would have respected you more if you would have done what you said and deleted her when you said you did.
I would have respected you more if you would have come to me and said "Jessica messaged me".
We went over that in therapy and you swore you would come to be honestly if Jenny/Pam etc messaged you. Another lie.

I want to believe you. I do...
but this is just one too many times that you have betrayed my trust.
You have done 99% of this shit (Jenny/Pam/Jessica/Crystal) while I've been pregnant with our son. Which is the worst part.

I have been through more trying to carry our son than in any other relationship emotionally.

It's terrible to know that I've let you do this to me this many times because I loved you so so so so so much. I put up with more from you than I did with Will after 6 years of being together. He betrayed my trust ONCE. ONCE. And I was gone and he never saw me again.
You have now betrayed my trust in major ways more than a handful.
Whip put his hands on me twice and I left and moved miles away, you've now gotten away with it three times... One major time while I was carrying our precious son.
Jake treated me like shit... and I ended up leaving his sorry ass. Yet you treat me like shit, and I've stayed out of love because I thought you would really change and honor me and become a good husband.

I am ashamed that i have allowed myself to be treated this way. I am even more ashamed that I've allowed our son to be inside me and feel the stress as I am being treated like this.

I want to believe that you love me, but I also know from experience with liars (Jake, Will, Whip) that it's easy for a liar to look into my eyes and say "I love you" and then turn around and break my heart. You've joined them in doing that repeatedly, which is what you have in common with them. My heart can't take any more. Its so fucking shattered. I'm so hurt.

so once again i ask you, what are we doing... are you wanting a divorce? answer... you are done with me, that established.... so what now? divorce? i dunno what you want.

First off, I would like to say that I am NOT down for moving out and continuing this relationship.
I feel as though moving out is taking a step back instead of a step forward, and even if I moved out and we kept dating we would just be working towards taking the next step which is moving in together anyway. So I dont want to do that. I would be extremely unhappy.

Things I find wrong in our relationship:

Disrespect - Eventhough jokes are okay sometimes, there are some things that I find innapropriate and that hurt my feelings. Please mind what you say to me, treat me as a partner and someone you care about. Someone who is for the most part really good to you.
We should both equals, and have equal importance in the relationship but I feel as though your opinion and judgements are weighed with more conviction than mine are.
Every day, say something nice to each other. We all need to hear words of affirmation, compliments, and to know that we are loved.

Underappreciated - I know that you say "thank you" when I bring you your food, and cook for you, but I do that out of respect for you and I don't feel as though I get the same respect back. When I get up, I offer you something to drink etc... when you get up you get something for yourself and dont offer (That is just an example, not a big deal - but it has undertones of underappreciation.) Ask if I need help with anything. Ask how my day was for once.

Doesnt let me be myself - I have changed a lot to become a better person, but I feel like it is never enough..

Communication! - You say that I dont listen to your points or "get it" but I do. I am allowed to have my own opinion on things, even if it doesnt match yours. I feel as though as soon as I disagree with something you say, and try to give my view on things you say "We are going in circles. You arent getting it!" and if I still dont agree you say that Im back peddaling. I listen to you, and I deserve the same respect.
A lot of times I can't find the words to tell you how Im feeling because I feel as though you are judging me and already picking apart my words before they even leave my lips. And once Im done talking, that is exactly what I feel you do. I cant continue to feel like that.
If we have a disagreement, we need to find a solution, A COMPROMISE, instead of just fighting. You get aggrivated with me, and then I end up leaving the situation. Instead of the negative word slinging and trying to make me overly see your point, we need to throw solutions at one another.

Small things that could be talked about and worked out are a level ten threat.

Unable to express emotion - If you have a feeling, an emotion, or a thought about us or the relationship - I should be the first one to know about it. We should be able to communicate whats going on in our minds and hearts. How are we supposed to know how the relationship is going for the other person if we dont talk about it?
I think there needs to be a set time, once a week, where we sit down for a half hour to an hour and just talk about things that are going on in our lives in a friendly atmosphere without condescending attitudes. Stresses, things that we want changed, what we can do to change them..

Way of handeling and dealing with things - This is not just in our relationship. Pent up anger eventually overflows. So I think the sit down time is really important so that an overflow of anger never happens.

Steps to a healthy sitdown:

1. Communicate.

The first thing you need to do is to sit down and talk to each other, without interruption and distraction. Furthermore, this conversation should be conducted in a calm and friendly atmosphere, without recriminations or anger. Between the two of you there needs to be a list made of all that you think is wrong with your relationship, irrespective of how insignificant individually you think these issues are. Similarly, a list of all the good points must also be noted, as these give you and your spouse something to build upon as you start the rebuilding process, if that is the choice you have both made.

2. Share feelings and emotions

Often it is difficult to share our feelings and emotions, even with those who are closet to us but, if you want are determined to sort out a troubled relationship, this needs to be done. Unless your boyfriend/girlfriend is aware of how you really feel it is unfair to expect them to be able to change or react in a positive way. Sharing is an integral part of the relationship and, as far as feelings and emotions are concerned, both people should be able to express themselves openly on these subjects.

3.Listen

A side of communication that many people do not pay enough attention to is listening. Whilst it is true we may hear the words that our partner is saying, how many times are we actually concentrating so hard on worrying about our response that we fail to hear the underlying message? There is a tendency to be defensive rather than constructive in such situations.

In a position as serious as trying to save a troubled relationship, we each need to listen attentively to what is being said, without interruption and, if possible, without taking offence at what may appear to be criticism. Only by listening carefully can we fully appreciate what is concerning our partner and then be able to analyse how we can best address those concerns. Only by taking this approach, and learning to truly listen, can we uncover all of the problems and move forward.

4.Make a plan

Once you have sorted out and understood all of the areas of difficulty within your relationship, from both peoples point of view, the next step is to make a plan, which will provide a forward path to resolve your problems. This plan will include details of how you are going to change things and what these are. It may include something simple like agreeing to spend one night a month dedicated purely to each other and the relationship, away from the pressures of everyday life. Alternatively, it could be a more complex issue, with one or other of you needing to be more accommodating in certain areas.

Whilst it is appreciated that mapping out a plan for your relationship might seem a little unromantic, it is necessary if you wish to save the relationship. After a while, once you find that it is having a positive effect, it will become second nature and you will enjoy the benefits, romantic and emotional, that the plan achieves.

5. Keep monitoring.

Having made the initial commitment to solve your problems by sitting down together and discussing them, the final piece of advice is that you should maintain this process throughout the future. There is no point in fixing the problems for today only to find that in a few months time either the solution is not working or other problems are occurring and you had not noticed. Make it a habit to monitor the relationship health. There is a need to continue these conversations about your relationship on a regular basis as this will keep you both close, in a good state at all times.

If both of you are committed to the above solutions, then there is no reason why your relationship should not weather the storm and come out the other side stronger, happier and more loving, and remain that way in the future.

Simply broken down

Step1
Separate complaints, which can be destructive, from constructive criticism, which you can learn from and build upon.
Step2
Understand your spouse's emotional needs. Listen to what your spouse is saying, but also try to understand why he or she is saying it.
Step3
Learn to communicate nondefensively and nonaggressively. Presenting facts or feelings in a neutral manner helps avoid escalation.
Step4
Stay calm and be direct. Be truthful with your spouse and with yourself. What are you really feeling?
Step5
Keep studying those first four steps. Practice makes perfect. And perfecting your marriage is worth all the practice you can put into it.

You live life beyond your PC. So now Windows goes beyond your PC. See how

On 6-22-2009, at 2:54, I responded to a family fight/domestic violence in progress detail, at 4515 South 1175 West #67. Sergeant Judd also responded, for back up, and assistance purposes. (k)(2) (b)(7)(C)

[redacted]

I located Jordan in the upper level bedroom of the home. Jordan was bleeding from a laceration on her foot, and reported that she was 28 weeks pregnant.

I immediately requested that Unified Fire Authority (UFA) personnel respond, and assess Jordan, and the unborn baby's medical conditions. While waiting for UFA to arrive, I requested that Jordan explain what had occurred.

Jordan stated that she, and Aaron had been verbally arguing, in regards to her suspecting that he was being unfaithful to her. Jordan stated that she attempted to get away from the argument, and entered into the couples bedroom. However, Aaron followed, and the verbal argument continued.

Jordan stated that during the verbal argument, she threw a glass tumbler that was sitting on the night stand, which struck the couples clothes dresser, and broke. According to Jordan, she then attempted to leave the bedroom, and was physically restrained by Aaron.

Jordan then explained that she was able to "break free" from Aaron, and enter into the other upper level bedroom, "in an attempt to get away from the argument". But again Aaron followed her.

When Jordan returned to the couples bedroom, she stated that Aaron again physically restrained her, and in an attempt to free herself from him, she stepped on a piece of broken glass, causing the laceration on her foot.

According to Jordan, when Aaron noticed that she was bleeding, he immediately called 911.

When I asked Jordan if she was injured beyond the obvious laceration to her foot, she stated that she did not believe so. When I asked Jordan to explain how Aaron had restrained her, she stated that he grabbed her around the torso, held onto her, threw her on the bed, and sat on her.

I did locate several red marks on Jordan's left side, which appeared to be consistent with finger marks, and being physically grabbed.

When UFA personnel arrived, I exited the bedroom to allow them to perform their assessment, and exited the residence to speak with Aaron.

[redacted]

(k)(2)
(b)(7)(C)

[redacted] I returned to the residence with my digital camera, and requested that Jordan complete an official witness statement. She also agreed.

It should be noted that Jordan refused transport to the hospital, and was released by UFA.

While Jordan completed her statement, I took digital photographs of the dresser, where it was struck by the glass tumbler, and of the broken glass on the floor. When I requested that Jordan allow me to take some photographs of her injuries, she began to question me, in regards to what was going to occur.

I explained to Jordan that Aaron accused her of throwing the glass at him, which she denied. Jordan then stated "don't you think I would have hit him with it, if I had thrown it at him?" Jordan then requested that I take no police action, and stated that she just wanted Aaron to leave her alone.

I explained to Jordan that because the altercation was considered a domestic violence situation, that Utah law was very clear on how the situation needed to be handled.

Jordan immediately became concerned that if Aaron was charged, he would loose his job, and their health insurance. She also expressed concern that if she was charged, she would likely not receive the legal immigrant status she was waiting for.

During our conversation, Jordan refused to allow me to photograph her injuries, and stated "I am not going to give you anything to use against either of us in court".

Because I determined that the throwing of the glass was the initial, and primary act of physical aggression, Jordan was issued citation #S1061764, for domestic violence assault.

(k)(2) (b)(7)(C)

[redacted]

Because neither party was booked into jail, I did not issue a no contact order. However, I suggested that the couple allow each other time to calm down, and suggested that they not speak until the following day.

The digital photographs will be copied to a CD, and booked into Salt Lake County Evidence under this case number. The original witness statements will be placed into the report submission box, for scanning into the system.

No further information.

End of report.

Case Status: Closed, and completed.

TYPE OF REPORT (Documentation, Screening or Arrest): This is for documentation.

TYPE OF DOMESTIC INCIDENT (Verbal, Physical): This is a violation of a protective order.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN SUSPECT(S) AND VICTIM(S): The suspect, Aaron Poulsen, is the husband of the victim, Jordan Poulsen. Aaron and Jordan are in the process of being divorced.

CHILDREN (Names, Ages, Location): There were no children involved.

NARRATIVE: I was dispatched to a protective order violation. I made contact with the complainant, Jordan Poulsen, by telephone and found Aaron had called Jordan on 08/05/2010 at approximately 18:00 hours, which is two and a half hours after being served with the protective order. Aaron then made at least two more phone calls between 08/05 and 08/06/2010. On 08/07/2010, Aaron sent Jordan 10 text messages between 07:31 and 08:00 hours.

Jordan also advised that Aaron has been able to identify when she is online and working. Jordan says her company put a block on her work computer for calls coming from Utah. Jordan says Aaron has a floating IP address, which gets around the company's block.

INJURIES: There were none reported.

WITNESS STATEMENTS (From Whom): There were no witnesses.

WAS VICTIMS ASSISTANCE OFFERED: Victims Assistance was not required.

(k)(2) (b)(7)(C)

[redacted]

I called Jordan back and instructed her not to initiate any contact with Aaron, which she said she did not do, but acknowledged my instruction and stated she would not.

EMERGENCY CONTACT WITH PHONE NUMBER: Jordan's phone number is 801-647-9569.

SEARCH AND SEIZURE: There was no search conducted or items seized.

USE OF FORCE: There was no use of force.

CHAIN OF EVIDENCE: There was no evidence collected.

End of report.

NARRATIVE:

I received a written statement from Jordan Poulsen detailing her allegation further that the suspect, Aaron Poulsen, violated the protective order. Jordan reported that she obtained a protective order through Judge Medley's Court protecting her from ongoing harassment and stalking by her husband (Aaron Poulsen). Jordan reported that Aaron blatantly violated the order by calling and texting her after the order had been served. She reported that she recorded several of the conversations in which Aaron acknowledged that he was not supposed to contact her. Jordan further alleged that Aaron had accessed her online work account and left a message stating that she was a "liar". Jordan reported that since this violation of her online work account she had to block the entire state of Utah to prevent him from further online violations. Jordan reported that on August 7, 2010, Aaron entered into a text conversation with her that provided evidence that he violated the no contact order of the protective order. (See statement)

Jordan provided a copy of her call log that indicated that Aaron had called her on August 5, 2010, approximately three times. The following data was listed on the call log:

08/05	05:36 PM	Call Waiting	801-688-0727
08/05	05:47 PM	Call Waiting	801-688-0727
08/05	06:15 PM	Incoming	801-688-0727

Jordan provided a copy of her incoming calls received which indicated that Aaron had contacted her via telephone on 08/05/10 at 6:15 PM and the call lasted for 33 minutes. (See Attachment)

Jordan provided a copy of the text message conversation that ensued between she and Aaron on 08/07/10 at 8:00 AM. The following was represented as a true copy submitted by Jordan:

Aaron: "Last log on july 27th 2010. Liar. Just stop. Scheming me for spousal support jordan. Why? Why are u doing this to me? Anyways i.dunno how that text about kajol got to you. Bye"

Jordan: "Nor do I intend to ask you for any more money. You are already breaking your pockets by paying that whole sixty dollars for your son! Wouldn't want you to go into debt and not be" (The rest of the text is unreadable)

Aaron: "Once again like i said look back to thursday. That's the text i sent you when i thought i couldn't get him ugh. I was asleep at 11:30 last night jordan."

Jordan: "Second, how can you even see if I've been on f4f!? I had Utah blocked because of the last time you were stalking me at work."

Aaron: "Also the cops searched my place yesterday. No drugs, guns or booze"

I received a certified copy of protective order number 104903778 issued through the Third District Court, which listed Jordan-Lee Poulsen as the Petitioner and Aaron Kent Poulsen as the Respondent. The order was served on 08/05/10 at 4:25 PM by Officer Shannon Coolack. The order contains a Person Conduct Order, Contact for Mediation, and Stay Away Order. Under the Contact for Mediation order it specifies that the Respondent is allowed to have contact with the Petitioner only during court mediation sessions for their divorce or custody case that are scheduled with the Court Qualified Mediator.

Attorney for Jordan-Lee Poulsen

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY

STATE OF UTAH

JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Petitioner, vs. AARON KENT POULSEN, Respondent.	VERIFIED RESPONSE TO MOTION TO VACATE PROTECTIVE ORDER Civil No. 10493778 Honorable Tyrone E. Medley Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

Petitioner, Jordan-Lee Poulsen, respectfully requests that this Court deny the Motion to Vacate or Dismiss the Protective Order filed by Respondent, on such grounds as follow:

1. Jordan-Lee Poulsen ("Jordan") obtained a protective order against Aaron Kent Poulsen ("Aaron"). She did so because she is terrified of him.

2. Aaron has been physically, verbally, and emotionally abusive to Jordan.

3. Aaron has admitted to physical abuse of Jordan.

4. Aaron's continued and present assertions that he has not abused Jordan is a continuation of the abuse, a typical attempt at manipulation and quest to regain some control over Jordan. These all are typical common traits and tactics used by abusers.

5. Aaron is "upset" because Jordan reported Aaron's violations of the protective order. This is not a reason to vacate or dismiss the protective order.

6. Aaron violated the protective order.

7. Aaron called Jordan the day that he was served with the temporary protective order. The conversation is recorded. In the conversation, Aaron admits that he is not supposed to be calling Jordan. He knows the protective order is in place, he calls her, he knows he is not supposed to call her, but he does it anyway.

8. Aaron's sole basis for his motion to vacate or dismiss is his allegation that Jordan is reporting his violations, and thus, causing him legal and other difficulty. All Aaron has to do is stop violating the protective order.

9. Contrary to Respondent's assertions, Jordan has suffered from significant physical, emotional and verbal abuse, is terrified of Aaron and needs the continuation of the Protective Order by this Court.

10. Currently, Jordan and Aaron are involved in divorce proceedings, entitled Poulsen vs. Poulsen, Civil No. 094905182, Third Judicial District Court in and for Salt Lake County, State of Utah ("divorce proceeding").

11. On or about March 23, 2010, Jordan filed an Affidavit in the divorce proceeding. A true and correct copy of the Affidavit is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by this reference.

12. Jordan's Affidavit details significant physical and verbal abuse by Aaron, including the following:

a. Aaron throwing his computer at her and jumping on top of Jordan with his hand on her throat;

b. Aaron pushing Jordan and causing her to fall down a flight of stairs;

c. Aaron violently shaking Jordan;

d. Aaron grabbing Jordan's right ankle and pulling her off the bed, slamming her on the ground and dragging her;

e. Aaron elbowing Jordan in the chest;

f. And other instances.

13. In addition, on March 23, 2010, Jordan filed an Affidavit of Travis Montgomery. A true and correct copy of this Affidavit is attached hereto as Exhibit "B"

14. In his Affidavit, Travis details verbal, emotional and physical abuse by Aaron to Jordan, including:

a. Calling her names;

b. Throwing Jordan out in the hallway naked, slamming the door and locking it;

c. Verbally putting Jordan down and assaulting her;

d. Telling Jordan that she deserved his treatment;

e. Telling Jordan, "I hope you have a miscarriage and everyone else does too.";

f. Having internet and other sexual relationships while Jordan was pregnant;

g. And other instances.

15. In addition, Travis corroborates Jordan's assertion that Aaron smokes and deals in marijuana, which Aaron has denied.

16. Travis testifies that Aaron offered marijuana to Travis and showed the marijuana to him. Also, that Aaron told Travis the drug sale proceeds paid for his rent.

17. In this regard, Aaron has posted statements on face book demonstrating that he sells and does drugs. See documents attached hereto as Exhibit "C" and incorporated herein by this reference.

18. In one of these screen shots, Aaron states: "I have had 6 calls for herb [marijuana] and I will be out until Tuesday."

19. There are many others.

20. In addition, Jordan has a video of Aaron's marijuana stash. That video has been emailed to opposing counsel and is available for demonstration to the Court.

21. An Affidavit of Rachel Franklin is attached hereto as Exhibit "D" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

22. In her Affidavit, Rachel notes that Aaron told her he sells marijuana.

23. In addition, Rachel discusses the abuse suffered by Jordan, the verbal abuse by Aaron's mother to Jordan, the disparaging remarks on face book by Aaron's mother about Jordan.

24. Rachel, also, details the verbal abuse that she witnesses by Aaron toward Jordan, and Aaron's controlling nature and attitude.

25. Finally, Rachel adds: "Aaron has dragged Jordan by her foot and gave her a black eye and then made her travel alone the next day, all the way to Louisiana for Christmas."

26. Another Affidavit filed on behalf of Jordan, was executed by Tawnya Lynch, a co-worker and previous landlord for Jordan, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "E" and incorporated herein by this reference.

27. Again, Aaron admitted to Tawnya that he was physically, emotionally and verbally abusive to Jordan.

28. Tawnya saw a text from Aaron where he stated that his goal was to leave her "broke and homeless with bad credit".

29. Tawnya details how Aaron would not leave Jordan alone. He constantly would text her and call her, even at work.

30. In fact, Aaron called Jordan's work just to find out if Jordan was there.

31. Finally, Tawnya references Jordan's fear of Aaron. She recites one instance when Jordan was living in the condominium that had been shared by her and Aaron. Jordan and Tawny were out. Aaron text Jordan and told her that he and his mother were at the condo throwing away her belongings and that they were going to change the locks. Jordan and Tawnya stopped what they were doing and Jordan called the police. She wanted the police to meet her at the condo because she did not feel safe even showing up at her own home.

32. Tawnya states: "Bottom line, he admitted to me that he abused her, he made her days stressful and caused her to not be able to stay focused at work, he doesn't think he needs to do anything at all for her or his son when it's not his time to have Kajol, he has tried to make her think that he best friend has turned against her and left her abandoned (which is manipulative and abusive behavior), and purposely makes every single day a struggle for her. Evan after being served a protective order, his threats did not cease."

33. As stated above, Aaron has admitted to having physically abused Jordan. A screen shot is attached hereto as Exhibit "F" and is incorporated herein by this reference. Therein, Aaron and Jordan are having a written conversation as follows:

Jordan:

I already have proof that you've been physically abusive in the past, Aaron. So technically I already have that .. It's already justifiable.(Sigh.) Once again, there is NO WAY I CAN ABUSE the agreement just because I "simply feel like it". I would have to have PROOF.

Aaron:

I have touched you like 3 times yo.... and the last time I vowed to never do it again (that one was the worst ever and a huge slap in the face)... its been two months...give me some credit on that....I know its wrong...

Jordan:

If you want to be there for the birth, and around me after the birth, I need to feel comfortable and secure with you. I need to trust the person helping me birth our son. I need to be able to trust in you. There isnt much time, and this > is the only thing I can think of that will give me the reassurance quickly. There isnt enough time for you to build up trust on your word alone. It is going to take a LONG time for you to do that.

>
> Sign the paper saying you wont lie / womanize / be abusive.
> That is all I want.

(Emphasis added).

34. Aaron attaches texts and makes accusations regarding sexual contact between he and Jordan. He seems to assert that this demonstrates that Jordan made up all of this information and was not afraid of him.

35. First, Aaron provides the documentation out of context and does not include all of his sexual requests and responses.

36. Second, this is a married couple, who are trying to resolve their problems.

37. Jordan wanted to resolve their issues so they could be a family. Aaron and Jordan went to see two counselors, Julie Stout, L.C.S.W., and Todd Dunn, Ph.D. for family therapy. Aaron admitted to both counselors that he had abused Jordan.

38. It certainly is not unusual for an abused woman to attempt to reconcile with her husband and to participate in sex as part of that hoped for reconciliation. In fact, it often is part of the abuse cycle. The abuse happens. The couple makes up. The abuse happens again.

39. On July 21, 2010, Aaron called Jordan's cell phone sixty-seven (67) times. Jordan, ultimately, lost her job because of Aaron's harassment and her inability to deal with the anxiety and emotional distress caused by Aaron's conduct.

40. Jordan finally gained some strength and pursued the protective order. The Temporary Protective Order was entered on July 30, 2010.

41. Just prior to that time, on July 27, 2010, Jordan received a text message from Aaron stating "if u have one moment can u call me? I have a question. Will only take 10 seconds. If not no, worries." To which Jordan responded by asking if it was about the baby. In addition, Jordan sent an email to Aaron telling him that she did not want to speak with Aaron unless there was an emergency with Kajol, and stating: "I do not wish to have you anywhere near my residence." A true and correct copy of this email is attached hereto as Exhibit "G" and incorporated herein by this reference.

42. Since the entry of the Temporary Protective Order, Jordan has actively participated in group therapy with a domestic violence group. She has sought out information on abuse.

43. In addition, Jordan has converted to the LDS Faith, has quit smoking and never drinks alcohol.

44. Jordan participates in the West Jordan Victim Assistance Program support group for women who have bene in an abusive relationship. Attached hereto as Exhibit "H" and incorporated herein by this reference is a letter from the coordinator of the group regarding Jordan's participation.

45. Further, Jordan was seeing a therapist, Dr. Dodgion, who has determined that Jordan exhibits symptoms of Post Traumatic Stress Syndrome ("PTSD") from her memories of the abuse by Aaron. Dr. Dodgion reports that Jordan has been consistent and reliable in the information that she has provided to him about the events. In addition, she exhibits great anxiety and fear of Aaron.

46. Dr. Dodgion has authored an opinion, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "I" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

47. Jordan is terrified of Aaron and has good reason to be. This Court awarded a protective order, which protective order should remain in place.

48. Aaron was served with the Temporary Protective Order on August 5, 2010.

49. After he was served, Aaron called Jordan. Aaron stated as follows: "My bottom line for calling you, and I'm sorry for bothering you "cause I'm not supposed to". (Emphasis added.) Aaron is violating the protective order and he knows he is violating it.

50. A true and correct copy of the transcript of this telephone call is attached hereto as Exhibit "J" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

51. This is not the only violation of the protective order committed by Aaron.

52. Attached hereto as Exhibit "K" and incorporated herein by this reference is a screen shot showing that Aaron called Jordan three (3) times on August 5, 2010, after being served with the Temporary Protective Order.

53. In addition, on August 7, 2010, Aaron sent texts to Jordan, including admissions that he had been on her work web site. A screen shot of some of this texting is attached hereto as Exhibit "L" and is incorporated herein by this reference.

54. Also, Aaron attached pictures taken of Jordan, from her work web site, after the entry of the Protective Order. Again, in violation of that Order.

55. Jordan was working on a web site entitled Flirt 4 Free. She had blocked the entire State of Utah to keep Aaron from stalking her at work because he had been doing so. Yet, Aaron used a decoy web tool to get onto her site and take pictures of her in violation of the protective order.

56. In his vengeance and further attempts to demean Jordan, Aaron uses Jordan's work as a club with this Court.

57. Aaron fails to mention that he, also, has worked for these sites. That he entered into a contract, worked unilaterally on the site, and as a couple on the site. Videos of Aaron continue to be available on the site.

58. On August 13, 2010, West Jordan Victim Assistance Program, West Jordan Police Department, faxed a police report to counsel for Jordan. Attached hereto as Exhibit "M" and incorporated herein is a true and correct copy of the police report.

59. This police report indicates that Aaron called Jordan on August 5, 2010 at approximately 6:00 p.m., two-and-one-half hours after being served with the protective order. In addition, Aaron made at least two more telephone calls to Jordan between August 5 and August 6, 2010. Finally, the report notes that Aaron sent to Jordan ten text messages between 7:31 and 8:00 a.m.

60. The police reports states as follows:

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT:

> Aaron did violate a valid and properly served protective order when he admitted to contact with the protected party (Jordan-Lee Poulsen) via text > message and telephone. Aaron acknowledged that the contact did occur; however, disputed that he initiated the contact.

>
> ACTIONS TAKEN:
>
> I will submit a copy of this report to the District Attorney's Office for review and screening of charges against Aaron for violating a protective order (DV).

61. One of the August 5, 2010 calls was previously referred to herein. The transcript demonstrates that Aaron initiated the contact and that he knew he was violating the protective order.

62. Not only has Jordan been abused by Aaron, but also, Jordan believes that her son is being abused. Please see photographs attached hereto as Exhibit "N" and incorporated herein by this reference.

63. Jordan consistently uses the police for parent time exchanges because of her terror. Aaron's mother has contributed to her fear and to the continuation of this cycle. Jordan objects to Sarah Poulsen providing care for her son. Jordan is entitled to a first right of refusal to care for her son while Aaron is at work. This first right of refusal was requested and agreed to by Aaron and his counsel.

64. In addition, Jordan does not have a driver's license, although she is working to obtain one. Further, she does not have a vehicle. Jordan has obtained the assistance of many of her friends, church companions and others for parent time exchanges. Most of these women have children of their own who interact and have play dates with Kajol after the parent time exchange. There is no reason to preclude her use of anyone who is willing and able to provide this assistance, particularly when the police are involved and Jordan is involved in every parent time exchange.

65. Jordan insists that Aaron be available when he picks up Kajol because he often has been at work and Sarah Poulsen provides care for Kajol until Aaron gets off work. Jordan should be able to provide for her son until Aaron gets off from work.

66. Jordan is not responsible for Aaron's attorneys fees or costs incurred herein.

67. Aaron, however, should be responsible for the attorneys fees and costs incurred by Jordan, particularly regarding the protective order actions, the need for representation in the criminal prosecutions and charges against Aaron and in this matter, all in excess of $30,000.00.

68. Aaron has abused Jordan physically, emotionally, verbally. He continues to attempt to gain back control over Jordan. She is desperately trying to change her life and to provide for her son. This proceeding is a continuation of the abuse by Aaron. It needs to stop.

69. The Motion to Vacate the Protective Order must be denied.

I already have proof that you've been physically abusive in the past, Aaron.. so technically I already have that...it's already justifiable.

Sigh. Once again, there is NO WAY I CAN ABUSE the agreement just because I "simply feel like it". I would have to have PROOF.

i have touched you like 3 times yo... and the last time i vowed to never do it again (that one was the worst ever and a huge slap in the face)... its been two months... give me some credit on that..... i know its wrong...

If you want to be there for the birth, and around me after the birth, I need to feel comfortable and secure with you. I need to trust the person helping me birth our son. I need to be able to trust in you. There isnt much time, and this is the only thing I can think of that will give me the reassurance quickly. There isnt enough time for you to build up trust on your word alone. It is going to take a LONG time for you to do that.

Sign the paper saying you wont lie / womanize / be abusive.
That is all I want.

RE: Jordan Poulsen

Dear Ms. Flanders:

Per our conversation on this date, I met with Ms. Poulsen in individual therapy on three occasions in February of 2011 prior to her insurance being discontinued. She reported that her husband, Aaron, was frequently emotionally and verbally abusive, making demeaning remarks about her. Ms. Poulsen also maintained that he physically assaulted her on several occasions. She stated that he abused her while she was pregnant and on one occasion loaded a gun in front of her, which felt threatening. In spite of these episodes of violence Ms. Poulsen indicated that she did not report these incidents to the police "because I was too scared to charge him." Her reports of the abuse have been consistent over the course of therapy. The fact that Ms. Poulsen did not accuse her husband of a greater number of physically abusive incidents suggests that her report is not exaggerated and represents a credible account of what occurred.

In addition, Ms. Poulsen reported a number of symptoms that are consistent with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. She stated that she has recurrent (daily) and intrusive recollections of the abuse which cause her significant anxiety and fear. Ms. Poulsen also indicated that contact with her husband or even the smell of his clothing will trigger these emotions, as well. These symptoms are consistent with her report of having been the victim of abuse.

If you have any further questions in this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

David A. Dodgion, Ph.D.

Re: Ms. Jordan Poulsen

To Whom It May Concern:

Ms. Poulsen has been attending on a regular basis since July 2010 the West Jordan Victim Assistance Program support group for women who have been in an abusive relationship. This group meets regular once a week. We have classes on the Dynamics of Domestic Violence, Boundaries, Conflict Resolution, PTDS and self-esteem. Ms. Poulsen has been working hard to resolve some of her issues she has had because of her past relationship. She has been participating with the other class member and has gained some understanding of these dynamics. She states she is still fears about having any contact with Mr. Poulsen.

Please contact me if you have any questions regarding Ms. Poulsen at 801-566-6511.

Sincerely,

Diane B. Greaves, Coordinator

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this affidavit on behalf of Jordan Poulsen. I met Jordan mid-March 2010 when she started working with me at Sears Carpet and Air Duct Cleaning. It seemed that from the very beginning she was very proud of herself for trying to do something to get her life in order and do what was best for herself and her son. I realized very quickly that this is not at all what Aaron wanted. I do realize that this is a document that needs to be based on fact, so I will do my best to keep my personal feelings of the situation out of this. The very first week of Jordan working with me, Aaron called into the office to make sure she was at work...like he didn't believe that she even worked there or something. Other office staff members have also received calls from Aaron asking for information on Jordan basically stalking her at work. I heard from my manager that he had even acted like he was a customer who had been working with Jordan to try to get transferred to her. Another fact, the very first time I had a chance to talk to him long enough to say anything other than "hi", he flat out told me that he KNOWS he was an asshole to her throughout their entire relationship. I need to add in here that the only reason I even talked to him in the first place was because he was threatening Jordan with Child and Family Services for NO REASON! He was saying that it was because she wouldn't answer his questions about where she was staying. I'm sorry, but that is NO REASON to threaten to call Child and Family Services...especially since there were no grounds for it. Kajol was safe and happy and there was no reason for Aaron to be concerned. His main concern, so he says, was whether or not Kajol had his own room with his crib and I advised him that yes, he did. She was living in my home at the time because she had no place else to go thanks to him and his tricks, which I will get into later. She had told me that the main reason she didn't want him knowing every detail about her residence was because she was afraid of him trying to sabotage it....like he DID end up trying to do once he found out the tiniest little bit of information. Once I heard that he was going to try to punish Jordan by bringing MY FAMILY into his little game, risking her place of residence, I was not about to go for that! I sent him a long string of text messages telling him how I didn't appreciate him dragging my family into the crap he was trying to pull, and in the middle of me sending the messages he called me. He said that if I wanted to talk about it, we would talk but he wasn't going to do the texting back and forth bullshit. He said that after the way he treated her, he cannot understand why she stayed around like she did, that he did it on purpose to try to get her to leave but she wouldn't. He said that he never even liked her, and got sick to his stomach when he found out that she was pregnant with his child. He said that he didn't even want a child at all at that point in his life, but to have one with someone he absolutely HATED made him sick. The whole time of course I'm thinking to myself what a scumbag this guy is to even be taking advantage of and having sex with someone he claims to have never even liked! He said that he found himself being a person he didn't even recognize and admitted being physically, emotionally and verbally abusive to her...anything he could do to get her to go away. He said that when he found out she was pregnant he tried to get her to go back to Canada to have the baby so she could have the free healthcare because he didn't want to have to get married to put her on his insurance....and basically never come back. That's what he wanted. He told me that she was a nobody, never has been anybody, and has spent her life mooching off of one person after another and that was all she would ever be good for (supposedly trying to warn me). He told me that she just needed to disappear from Kajol's life and that would make everyone happy and everything better. He said "What she needs to do is just move back to Canada where she belongs and leave Kajol with me because she's nothing and never will be anything". I replied to that statement by telling him how I know first hand what a great mom she is, and that he has no right to say that she doesn't deserve to have her son because HE doesn't think she's worth anything. He sloughed what I said off like he didn't even care. He was completely degrading her to someone he didn't even know...someone that cares about her, almost as if he was trying to turn me against her so she would have no one. I did read a text one time that he had sent her that said his goal was to leave her "broke and homeless with bad credit". After having that conversation with Aaron, I told Jordan that I did not want my family or myself drug into anymore of the drama with her and Aaron. I told her to let him know that he better not bring me or my family into it again because I didn't want to be any more involved than I already was by offering her a place to stay. I told Jordan that I did not want any contact with Aaron, though I felt it was necessary for them to go through a third party for all contact, even that involving Kajol. I did not save his number in my phone because I had no desire to have any contact with him. Jordan has been very afraid of Aaron getting into my head throughout our whole friendship. She said he has slowly manipulated and caused friends to desert her in the past and she is afraid that he is going to do the same thing with me. He has went so far as to threaten her with that recently. I had posted a comment as my Facebook status regarding how sick I was of "a friend's ex" (Did not mention his name) saying that it wasn't his parent time when his child needed him and that as far as I was concerned it was ALWAYS your parent time once you're a parent. I had seen texts and heard him when she had him on speaker phone saying "I don't know Jordan, you figure it out, it's not my parent time and I'm not the low life loser who doesn't have a car or a license to get my son the places he needs to go." In his attempt to hurt and degrade her all he is doing is hurting his innocent son! The next day Aaron text messaged me, despite me telling Jordan just months earlier to tell him that I didn't want any contact with him, telling me that he wished I would get all of the facts about something before posting things on Facebook about it. Aaron is NOT a friend of mine on Facebook...neither are any of his friends. In order for him to know that I said ANYTHING in particular on my Facebook he would have had to have been stalking my page...and most likely Jordan's too because he has commented on things she has said on hers before. A conversation struck up and despite the fact that I had asked Jordan to tell him not to contact me, I text messaged him back because I felt the need to tell him how I felt about the stress he was putting Jordan and Kajol under. I voiced my concern to him about how if the animosity does not stop now it was going to ruin Kajol's life, because I believe it will. The very first message I sent back to him started out something like "Jordan is going to be pissed if she finds out that I'm replying to your message, but there are some things I need to say about the situation".

I told Jordan immediately that Aaron had sent me a message, and also told her when I replied. I was correct, she WAS VERY UPSET that I was talking to him because she ended up being right and all it really did was give him something to upset her with. Later he sent another message saying, "Hmmm...I thought you didn't want her to know that we were talking" which I replied with, "No, I never said that I didn't want her knowing, I said that she would be mad about it". I explained to him that I have nothing to hide from her because she is my friend. He said that she had been telling him that he was putting my job at risk by texting me at work and I told him that she was correct, we are not supposed to be texting at work.. He did not send me any further messages, but continued the battle with Jordan, trying to make her feel like I had betrayed her by making comments like "See, even your friends side with me". I do not remember what all of the text messages that I received from him that day say because I was at work, he was sending long messages that were getting broken up into several messages, Jordan was freaking out that I was talking to him and there was just a lot going on. I handed my phone to Jordan and told her to feel free to read everything that was said because I had nothing to hide from her. She took my phone and read the messages, gave my phone back to me and I was planning on reading them over again later after work but my phone deleted my entire inbox so I was not able to. I remember one of the long strands of messages he sent was talking once again about how she was crazy as I was skimming through the messages. Once again, trying to bad mouth her to me in an attempt to turn me away from her into his secret ally. That also goes back to the "Hmmm...I thought you didn't want her to know that we were talking" comment. He said that like he was disappointed that I wasn't talking to him behind her back. He continues to this day, sending her text messages and calling her saying that I'm playing her and that I'm not really her friend. She had recorded him saying this to her, and I never told him that I was on his side, it is just his way of trying to scare her into thinking she's alone and worthless like a typical abuser does. Trying to get her to doubt our friendship and try to make her feel like I don't care about her and that is the farthest thing from the truth. The day prior to the texting back and forth between Aaron and myself, Jordan was late picking the baby up because we had gotten slammed at work and she was there finishing some things up with me so we could leave. Aaron was calling her phone repeatedly, she answered it one time telling him that she was still at work but was hurrying as fast as she could to get out of there so to stop calling her. She told the other office girl and myself that if the phone rang and it was his number not to even talk to him, and that she didn't want to talk to him because she was trying to hurry and get her work done so she could leave. Her phone kept ringing constantly, he was hanging up and then re-dialing over and over again. .Then, the office phone rang, it was his number. I answered it and said the Sears greeting pretending that I didn't know it was him and he hung up.

Both he and his Mother tried making Jordan think that I was playing sides from the very beginning. There was a time when I would drop Kajol off in the mornings after taking Jordan to work and between Aaron's mom's house and the office....a 5 MINUTE DRIVE...they would already have started something outrageous! I would barely even talk to his Mom, and next thing I know, Jordan's getting text messages saying stuff like, "Oh wow, Tawnya gave my mom some good info to use against you in court! lol! you're going down!". I would get back to the office and Jordan would be freaking out on me demanding to know exactly what was said because of the threatening text messages she'd been getting. This of course made it impossible for her to concentrate and focus throughout the day because it would start off with Aaron harassing her from the very beginning of the day! One time in particular, the only thing that was said between his mom and myself was her apologizing for me having to drop Kajol off at her house instead of her picking him up at our work, telling me about the conversation that she HEARD had taken place the night before and all I said was, "I know, I heard everything...and it's ok, I don't mind dropping him off.". That was one of the times that by the time I got back to the office, they had turned everything around and tried to make Jordan think I was against her.

It just goes to show how Aaron is always trying to play mind games with Jordan, make her feel insignificant and then right when she snaps or has had enough, he uses it against her to try to make it look like SHE'S the crazy one! I've seen this happen with several of my friends who have been victims of abuse....and more personally with my own Mom. Throughout the time I've known her it has been an EVERYDAY thing....EVERY SINGLE DAY there is SOMETHING going on where she has been upset by Aaron. She had trouble focusing at work because she would go to lunch and check her phone messages and it was always something with Aaron upsetting her. I had told her several times that when he does this, to ignore him....and DON'T respond. That of course is easier said than done because if she did ignore him he would say something that he KNEW would get her riled up. She was, and still is constantly having to call her lawyer because he's always up to something new. I heard her on the phone with both the IRS and the Department of Workforce Services everyday for almost 2 weeks trying to figure out how she could resolve the fact that Aaron had forged her signature electronically and stole her portion of the tax return. I HEARD THE GUY WITH THE IRS TELL HER THAT HER NAME WAS SIGNED ON THE PREVIOUS YEAR'S TAX RETURN. He stole money that was rightfully hers whether he believed that was the case or not! That reminds me that in our first, and last, phone conversation he told me that she had come into the marriage with nothing but a box of stuff and she needed to get over it and leave with nothing but a box of stuff. When she tried getting on assistance for daycare, she kept running into different difficulties because of Aaron lying to them about different things when he applied previously. His lying to them made it more difficult for her to follow the normal procedure. Once again...she had the guy from DWS on speakerphone and he was saying that Aaron was saying that they were already legally divorced...which is a LIE. He LIED to the government to get on assistance before she had a chance to. Then, he harassed her and tried to make her feel like a bad mom when she didn't have a response from DWS right away! He knew that by lying to them it was going to make it more difficult for her! Going back to her not having a place to live because of him...he had told her that she could stay at their Condo which they had lived in together, and he moved in with his mom. Jordan did not feel safe at the condo and would get very depressed when she was there because of the history the place had. One time her and I were hanging out after work and he text her and told her that him and his mom were at the condo throwing her belongings away and that they were going to change the locks. We stopped what we were doing and Jordan called the police to meet us there so that she would feel safe even showing up to her own home. Jordan and the police officer talked for a while and he said that he had remembered coming there before one time when Aaron and his mom had broken into the condo and tried to take Kajol from Jordan using force. How is she supposed to feel comfortable staying there by herself with the baby with him making lunatic moves like that at random? That is why she was staying with me in the first place so when he tries to pretend like he is Mr. Nice Guy by letting her stay at the condo when he moved to his mom's, that is only an act to try to make himself look good. I could continue on with this for pages and pages just in the short time I've known Jordan but I think the basis of my point has been made. Bottom line, he admitted to me that he had abused her, he made her days stressful and caused her to not be able to stay focused at work, he doesn't think he needs to do anything at all for her or his son when it's not his time to have Kajol, he has tried to make her think that her best friend has turned against her and left her abandoned (which is manipulative and abusive behavior), and purposely makes every single day a struggle for her. Even after being served a protective order, his threats did not cease. I was placed on the protective order because Jordan was living with us, I did not know what he was capable of doing considering he had admitted to abuse and becoming someone he didn't even like when he was around her, I wished to have no further contact with him and was sick and tired of his threats of just showing up at my house demanding that we show him around or threatening us with Child Protective Services when there was never a basis for it. I did not want him driving by to see if Jordan was still there while my children are playing outside alone and being afraid because they know what he drives and what he looks like. I don't know that he would ever try to hurt me or my kids, but I've seen some text messages that reflected him being capable of scary behavior. I know that all Jordan ever wanted was a family, and all she wants now that she has a home of her own is for Aaron to have Kajol when it's his time, be a Dad and leave her alone.

If there are any questions about anything that has been said in this please feel free to contact me.

Attorney for Jordan-Lee Poulsen

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY

STATE OF UTAH

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner, vs. JORDAN-LEE POULSEN, Respondent.	AFFIDAVIT OF RACHEL FRANKLIN Civil No. 094905182 Honorable Kate A. Toomy Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

STATE OF VIRGINIA)
:ss.
County of)

I, Rachel Franklin, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am over the age of twenty-one years and am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from me personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, I could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. In the past year, I have been witness to my friend Jordan Poulsen's destructive marriage.

3. From the time I met Arron Poulsen ("Aaron") he has been controlling over every move that Jordan makes. Seeing her after she was with him for a while was like seeing a different person. She changed because Aaron did not like the person she was. Aaron was very rude and verbally abusive toward Jordan.

4. When we were talking about coming to visit Utah, Aaron told me that he has marijuana and that he sells it out of his home.

5. One time on the phone, Jordan told me about Aaron putting marijuana in a condom and putting it in his anus to smuggle it on a plane. Aaron was in the back ground saying, "I told you not to tell anyone."

6. Jordan hated that Aaron sold marijuana, but was fearful of what would happen if she told anyone besides close friends.

7. One of the times Jordan was physically abused, she called me after the police had left. She was eight months pregnant and hysterical. She said that Aaron tried to prevent her from leaving the room by grabbing the skin on her back. Then, Aaron sat on her stomach. Jordan cut her foot with a piece of broken glass while he was still sitting on her stomach. He, then, called the police. The officers told Jordan that if she did not take the charge Aaron would lose his job and the benefits for the baby.

8. Jordan was charged with domestic violence, although she was the one that was abused.

9. On countless occasions, Jordan has found naked pictures of other women on Aaron's phone, she has caught him kissing and fondling a girl in the back of a van at a festival and has spoken with a woman to whom Aaron had sent a naked picture through email.

10. On October 28th, when Jordan and Aaron were in another argument, Jordan called me crying. We talked for a while about the problem then got off the phone. Immediately, I put some uplifting words on her Facebook profile to make her feel better. An hour or so later, Aaron's mother started saying very nasty things about Jordan, saying her friends did not know the whole story, that Jordan was overreacting, that Jordan was a bad mom and cussing out all of Jordan's friends that were standing up for Jordan. I told Aaron's mom that she was being very childish and she proceeded to write to me a private message saying that I could not judge her because I was not old enough and that I should "fuck off." I think she wants to help Aaron get the baby and pretend to be the mother.

11. Jordan and Aaron once had a connecting flight in Arizona, with a couple of hours to spare. I picked them up so they would not have to wait at the airport. Every move Jordan made was scrutinized and picked apart by Aaron. Every word Jordan said was wrong unless Aaron approved. If he told her not to do something, she was expected not to do it. Aaron completely picked Jordan apart. Even the way she chewed and the number of beverages she was allowed to consume was decided by Aaron. If Jordan did not follow his way to a tee she knew she would be "punished" by Aaron saying hurtful things.

12. Aaron told Jordan she was not allowed to come back to Arizona.

13. I know that Aaron was very controlling over Jordan's money, also. Aaron took every single cent Jordan earned. I always would ask her to come visit, and despite her making decent money, she always was broke. One day, I asked Jordan why. She informed me that she let Aaron take her debit card and clear her bank account of her paychecks! He put her on some ridiculous $60.00 allowance.

14. Aaron is a very manipulative, vindictive person and will say and do anything to make himself seem like a better person and get his way.

15. He is making Jordan's life very difficult and she is suffering severely from his torture.

16. The Jordan I used to know was full of life and laughter. Over this past year, I have witnessed a slow emotional destruction to herself. She does not laugh anymore. Laughter was a big part of her life. I always here her cry.

17. Jordan just wants a good life for herself and her son. She loves him so much. She took such good care of herself during her pregnancy. She quit drinking and smoking cigarettes cold turkey. She took birthing classes. Jordan decided to do a natural NO DRUG water birth which was extremely painful and had to be emergency transferred to the hospital where she stuck to her plan and had the baby naturally.

18. Jordan had to deal with being a good mom while being with a husband who is not emotionally available to her needs because he does not care about her. She is a good mom. A loving person who just wanted a family.

19. I think that is why Jordan put up with all of Aaron's lies, infidelities and abuse. Jordan wanted something better than what she had growing up. She wanted a unified family.

20. I know she definitely gave Aaron more chances to be a decent father and husband than I would have given to him. Jordan loved Aaron despite his behavior and treatment of her.

21. Aaron is a repetitive liar and has been caught in many of them.

22. I have heard a recording of Aaron calling Jordan pathetic while she is on the ground crying after he abused her.

23. Aaron has dragged Jordan by her foot and gave her a black eye and then made her travel alone the next day, all the way to Louisiana for Christmas.

AFFIDAVIT OF TRAVIS MONTGOMERY

Civil No. 094905182

Honorable Kate A. Toomy

Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

STATE OF TEXAS)
:ss.
County of______________)

I, Travis Montgomery, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am twenty years of age and will be twenty one years of age in June, 2010. I am competent to provide the information, under oath, that is contained in this Affidavit. That information is from me personal knowledge, and if called upon to testify in a court of law, I could, and would, testify the same as I have stated herein.

2. Jordan Poulsen ("Jordan") is my best friend.

3. Jordan's son is named after me.

4. I care a great deal for Jordan and her son.

5. It has been so difficult to sit back and watch Jordan, who is an amazing human being, be treated no better than a dog in the street.

6. Emotionally, I do not know how she pulled through this relationship with Aaron Poulsen ("Aaron") without having a complete mental breakdown from the torment and stress that Aaron has inflicted on her over the last two years.

7. Being Jordan's best friend, I made a few trips to Utah to visit her and we always talk online.

8. I could not stand the way Aaron spoke to her, the things he did to her and the twisting manipulations he would use on her to make his actions her fault and then bear down upon her until she would be the one apologizing for HIS actions!

9. I honestly believe she was brainwashed by him. Similar tactics are used when someone is being brainwashed.

10. How someone could continue to love someone who tells you on a regular basis that they hate you and screams "I HOPE YOU HAVE A MISCARRIAGE" and tells you that you are pathetic for staying is beyond me.

11. Jordan has a big heart, a forgiving heart. She forgave Aaron and tried to pull through because in her words she, "wanted to have a family." She could not see that he was in control and abusive.

12. When Jordan moved into Aaron's condo, it was a complete wreck. Jordan made the place into a home. She spent days cleaning, organizing and turning the residence into a family center.

13. Jordan was violently ill throughout her entire pregnancy.

14. Every time that I visited, Jordan was cleaning to maintain a nice environment for Aaron to come home to and always had dinner in the oven.

15. Aaron never knew how lucky he was to have Jordan. He always took for granted that she was a good wife and homemaker and tried to do everything a wife should do for him.

16. The first time I visited, Aaron showed me a gray case with a lot of marijuana in it. He told me he had, at that time, around half of a pound.

17. Aaron told me that the money he made from selling the marijuana paid for his rent, which he always paid to his mother in cash. Apparently, Aaron's mother owns the condo.

18. Aaron offered to smoke some marijuana with me. I do not smoke marijuana, so I politely declined.

19. The whole time I was visiting, there were people coming and going, buying the marijuana and leaving.

20. I remember when Aaron's band, Separation of Self, played at a music festival out in the desert called Dirt Festival. I filled in on bass. During the entire festival, Aaron was rude to Jordan. He was embarrassing her in front of people and shunning her. He controlled what she could and could not do.

21. Later that night, after Aaron's band played, no one could find him. Jordan asked me to go with her and help find him.

22. We located Aaron. He was in the back of a van kissing and groping a girl.

23. We watched, in shock, for quite some time before Jordan intervened.

24. I saw this unfold very clearly.

25. Jordan saw it clearly. She asked me, "Are they doing what I think they are doing?" I replied, "Yes!" Even when Aaron was confronted, he would not get out of the van!

26. The entire next day must have been completely miserable for Jordan. Aaron would not speak to her. When he did, it was some rude remark, insult, or manipulation to somehow make it her fault.

27. Aaron still denies that he was in the van with that woman doing what he was doing.

28. During that same visit, I was laying on the couch and Aaron and Jordan were upstairs. All of a sudden I heard him yelling at her, calling her names and saying things that I will not repeat. I heard their door open, so I peeked around the corner. Aaron threw Jordan violently into the hallway naked, slammed the door and locked it. Jordan was crying and trying to cover up. She was so embarrassed. She asked me to give her some of my clothes. I did and she put them on. She ended up sleeping on the second couch that night and crying herself to sleep.

29. The next day, Aaron was a complete and total jerk to Jordan, verbally putting her down, verbally assaulting her. Then, he would tell her that what he did was "all right" because she had said something he did not like, so therefore she deserved his treatment.

30. Aaron continued this behavior until Jordan finally broke and begged for forgiveness. I could not believe it! He literally had manipulated her into being the bad guy.

31. There have been times that Aaron would be yelling at Jordan, calling her names, verbally abusing her and he had no idea that I was on the phone listening.

32. I have heard him say, as she was crying and apologizing, "You are a fucking clown. You are a fucking joke. I am laughing at you, you stupid cunt".

33. Another time Jordan called me and was on the phone when I heard him yell in anger, "I hope you have a miscarriage and everyone else does too."

34. Jordan text messaged me when she was going to buy her first car. She was so excited. She called me on her way home and was telling me all about the vehicle. She said it was a Navigator and that she was so proud that it was her first car. I heard Aaron in the background say, "Yeah, I have to pay for the insurance on your new car."

35. It is my understanding that Aaron is now denying that the car was ever Jordan's. That is a lie. They had an agreement that it would be in his name because she is Canadian and does not have credit, but that she would pay for it and she would keep it, even if they were not together.

36. On New Year's Day, Jordan was on the phone with me sitting in her car (the Lincoln Navigator), crying and saying that Aaron had left her alone in the vehicle, in the middle of the street and took off walking. All of a sudden I heard her say, "DON'T TOUCH ME!" Aaron was grabbing for her, so she rolled up the window. I heard him say, "My arm is caught," and she said, "Please don't touch me! Leave me alone!"

37. Finally, Aaron left Jordan alone. She cried on the phone with me for about an hour, telling me how tired she was of the abuse and that she wanted to leave, but that Aaron and his mother would never let her leave with the baby. Jordan, of course, would never leave her child.

38. Jordan told me all the time that she hated that Aaron sold marijuana, but she was scared to say anything because of repercussions. She did tell me, however, that the only time Aaron was nice to her was when he was high on marijuana.

39. Jordan, also, would tell me often that she felt hopeless, like she never would be able to escape the torment because Aaron would never let her take the baby.

40. Jordan said that Aaron's mother would fund his lawyer fees.

41. Aaron never let Jordan have any money, so she was pretty much stuck. Aaron knew she was stuck and did it on purpose.

42. On several occasions, Jordan looked into going to a shelter. I helped her Google shelters in the area. Just when she would pack her things to leave, Aaron would come in and say, "I'm going to my mom's. You can just stay at the condo. So if anyone asks, you can not say I kicked you out."

43. Aaron did this every time she tried to leave, which threw her right back into the pattern.

44. Jordan let me hear a recording of when Aaron had been abusive and she locked herself in the bathroom trying to get away from him. He came in, called her "pathetic" because she was calling shelters, then said she could stay at the condo and he would move into his mother's house.

45. I saw texts between Aaron and Jordan in which Aaron was extremely abusive.

46. It was a two year relationship and a one year marriage.

47. It seemed like every other day he was doing something to her that was morally wrong and emotionally hurtful.

48. Aaron had internet relationships (sexual and emotional) online with other women while Jordan was pregnant.

49. When Jordan would stress out, she would get cramps and think the baby was in danger. When she was further along in her pregnancy, he would yell and scream at her.

50. Jordan said she could feel the baby make unusual movements and, then the baby would not move at all for a few days.

51. Despite endangering his own fetus, Aaron continued with his constant lies and abuse.

52. Aaron did not care about the baby or Jordan while she was pregnant. He cared more about seeing other women naked, and about sending and receiving nude photos.

53. Aaron has been extremely abusive to Jordan. Jordan's baby should not have to be raised in that kind of environment.

54. Jordan is looking for a job. She showed me her resume and showed me jobs for which she has applied.

55. Jordan is staying strong and stable for Kajol.

56. Jordan shows consistency and love for her baby.

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner, vs. JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Respondent.	:	AFFIDAVIT OF CRYSTAL CULLBRETH Civil No. 094905182 Honorable Kate A. Toomy Commissioner Thomas N. Arnett, Jr.

STATE OF UTAH)
:ss.
County of Salt Lake)

I, Crystal Cullbreth, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I have known Jordan since 2006.

2. From time to time, between August 6th, 2009, and August 14th, 2009, Aaron would state that Jordan is a psycho. He said she was crazy and needed to be institutionalized and/or checked into a mental hospital.

3. Aaron, also, used other words to describe Jordan such as, "bitch" and "cunt". "Psychotic bitch" was used a lot, along with crazy and psycho.

4. Aaron constantly would harass me, asking for pictures of my breasts, of me in my underwear, or of me naked.

5. It seemed that Aaron would say things about Jordan to get me to send him mercy breast pictures, to get other disgusting material and to drive a wedge between Jordan's and my friendship so she would not find out that he basically was trying to strike up an affair with me while she was pregnant.

6. The first time he asked to see me naked was in June, 2009.

7. The second time he asked was August 2, 2009, via yahoo messenger.

8. I never sent anything to him, his requests disgusted me.

9. At one point, he sent to me explicit pornographic material and a picture of himself completely nude.

10. Aaron did admit to Jordan that he sent pornography to me and asked to see my breasts.

11. After this occurred, Aaron's mother sent emails to me telling me that I should not have told Jordan that Aaron was asking me to strike up an online relationship with him.

12. Aaron's mother harassed me. There is a difference between sticking up for your son and aiding him in cheating on, and lying to, his pregnant wife.

13. Aaron sent texts to me such as follows: "u did not send me pix i know. i sent u a porn pic, u sent a pic back with a link and u in ur costume"

14. Aaron often said, "show me your boobs. Take a picture, now." I always would say no, then change the subject. He always would come back and say, "show me your tits." I, again, of course, denied his request.

15. In addition, Arron, out of the blue, would send to me instant messages and ask how I was doing. When I would ask how he was, he would say something like, "I am married to Jordan, what do you think?"

16. It seemed like he did not care about the difficulties that Jordan was going through. She does not deserve this type of treatment. Jordan is a nice, caring, generous person.

17. Aaron was constant with his lies and clear disregard for Jordan's pregnancy, her well being, her safety, her feelings and for the safety of their baby.

01-13-10 Filed: COMPLETION REPORT FROM NEFA

Jordan Roy is the finest example and best role model anyone could have. No where is this fact more evident then the way she raises her son, Kajol. On a daily basis Jordan teaches Kajol many things that will inevitably make him a great example when he grows up. She teaches him not only what is right and wrong but why one thing is right and another is wrong. She teaches him manners, respect, and the way one should behave. And with Jordan being a single parent providing everything her son needs, as her ex husband provides virtually nothing in support, she keeps him clothed, safe, nurtured, healthy, and surrounded by only those who are good examples for Kajol.

Furthermore, Jordan is not only a great example to her son but also to those that she is around. Jordan is a model and upstanding citizen. She commits no crimes, she is not an alcoholic, she does not engage in drug use of any kind, or any illegal or questionable practices nor does she associate herself with anyone that does engage in these repugnant activities, including her ex husband Aaron Poulsen.

I have personally seen things that Aaron has written where he admits that he has guns in his home, he smokes and deals marijuana, and that he wants custody of Kajol because he and his mom don't like Jordan and want to hurt her. Aaron and his mother also frequently try to manipulate Jordan's friends by bad mouthing or defaming Jordan to bring her friends to their side. Jordan has said that she is scared of these people and rightly so and not just for herself but also for Kajol. The mother is very manipulative, mean, and petty. Aaron's mother cyber stalks Jordan and press her friend to say negative things about Jordan. And as for Aaron he is everything his mother is plus angry, violent and vindictive. Aaron has in the past physically, emotionally and mentally abused Jordan. These are ruthless people and for what they have done to Jordan and continue to do to Jordan, especially through Kajol, is wrong and distasteful. Yet, Jordan maintains a good morale when others might crack.

Jordan's ex, Aaron Poulsen, his mother and the rest of his family do nothing but bad mouth, try to manipulate and generally harass Jordan. On numerous occasions Kajol has gone to Aarons healthy and unscathed and come back with either bruises, scrapes, a staph infection, or a combination of injuries and maladies. Also, when Kajol is with Aaron and his mother they say negative and hurtful things about his mother, Jordan. However, Jordan never says anything bad about Aaron or his mother when Kajol is around. The way that the Poulsens treat Jordan would make most people go into a downward spiral and is highly unacceptable, but Jordan handles herself very well with the situation. And although it does make her sad that here son is in that environment, she knows she has people she can talk to an rely on.

Jordan is full of patience, love, and good moral fiber and those qualities can be seen on a daily and continual basis. She is a great friend, fantastic mother and wonderful person. She always has time for those in her life for whom she cares about. She is a very smart and caring woman able and willing to help friends and family with any problems they might have. And even if she doesn't have a solution, she invariably has a very sympathetic ear to listen and a shoulder to cry on if needed.

Jordan is very important to me and to many others. And in the time that I have know Jordan not only have I seen and witnessed these qualities, I have also been the recipient. Her great influence is infectious, her superb example second to none and her moral character as strong as a diamond. She is uncompromising in her values and diligent in keeping them in tact on a daily basis. You won't find anyone who is more loving, caring, steadfast, or firmly grounded than Jordan Roy.

To Whom It May Concern:

I was pleased when Jordan-Lee Poulsen asked me to write a letter on her behalf. I have known Jordan for about 3 years. Over the past year and a half in particular, we have spent time together as friends both in California and Utah, and maintained a regular correspondence. I have seen Jordan interact with her son and been a source of emotional support for her as she works through a difficult custody battle and divorce.

With her keen mind, sharp wit, and big heart, Jordan is a wonderful addition to the US. I hope you'll let her stay. She is also an incredibly caring and devoted mother to her son and focuses much of her energy on how to make sure he has a bright future. Though she has always been one of strong principle with a clear moral compass, she has worked to better herself through education, conversion to the Mormon Church, and eliminating her main vices (drinking, smoking). I have heard her struggles and seen her determination as she has succeeded in making all of these positive changes. She is an admirable woman and an asset to her community.

Thank you for the opportunity to share some of my thoughts about Jordan with you. Do not hesitate to contact me if you would like any additional information.

Sincerely,

To Whom it may concern,

My name is Lee Linford and currently I am a student at Utah Valley University studying in their Computer Sciences program. I grew up in a small town in Northern Utah called Tremonton were I graduated from Bear River High School in 2002. After high school I served an LDS mission in Brazil and then served active duty in the United States Army as a Signal Support Specialist. This job required me to have a Secret security clearance as I was dealing with highly sensitive information. I served a tour of duty in Iraq from February 2007 to May of 2008. In 2009 I finished my enlistment obligations and returned home to start my college career. I found employment with Pinnacle Security as an installation technician which I had to pass a back ground check to obtain this position. I worked with this company for two summer seasons and then moved on to Certified Alarm Services who is my current employer.

I met Jordan Paulson in November of 2010 during which time she was taking lessons from missionaries of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. I was very pleased to find out that she was taking positive steps to better her life considering the troubled background that she has had. The physical and mental abuse that she has endured would be enough to make anyone want to lash out and be destructive, but Jordan has taken the higher road and I admire her very much for that. Before I learned about any of this I wouldn't have guessed that any of these things had happened to her because of her loving and kind disposition. She is happiest when everyone else is happy or laughing around her and she will put herself out to make it so.

She is also a very dedicated mother to her son. When he is not around you will always hear from her without out fail "I can't wait till I can see Kajol" or "I miss my snuggy bunny" or she will literally be counting down the number of days, hours, minutes until he is back. Kajol is her world and there is nothing she wouldn't do for his benefit.

I am very lucky to have her as a friend. I have great confidence that I could come to her with any personal issue and she be right there willing to give me moral support or do what ever she could do to help me out in my time of need. I shouldn't feel unique in this aspect though because I know she would do this for anyone. There had been various times that I would go to her house she would have different people over for a dinner or some type of activity. She would use this time to make her home a safe haven for these people where they could relax, have fun, and feel good about themselves, because that is her nature. I would vouch for her character any time.

Sincerely,

Lee Linford

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter in regard to a request made from Jordan Roy. I have known Jordan for 10 months. I met her through a domestic violence support group that is based in the West Jordan Police Department. Jordan has been such a support to me and other women in the group. She has always been polite, caring, and understanding. She has displayed good moral character and would never participate in any activity that may harm her or her child. She is an excellent mother and her actions reflect good parenting skills. I am glad I have had the chance to get to know Jordan. She is an upstanding person and always see the positive side in everything. If you need further information, please feel free to contact me.

I Eileen Reid, has known Jordan Roy for about 10 months. I met her at a domestic violence group we attend together. In that time I have seen what a caring and wonderful mother she is to her son. She always puts him first in her life. She also has been there for me and other ladies from group, she offers her time and moral support, she has assisted me in information, with which online jobs sites were hiring, she also has offered to have us come to her home and escape the emotional turmoil me and my children have faced this past year, by offering to use her pool and hot tube, Jordan also calls and texts to see how I am doing, and wishes me Happy Holiday, what ever it may be, ie .. Merry Christmas, Happy Valentines Day, Happy Mothers Day, and makes me and others from group laugh when some of us really need one. We have learned the power of laughter, can and has helped us in our journey of escape from turmoil. These are my experiences with Jordan Roy.

To Whom it may concern.

I'm writing this letter on behalf of Jordan Roy Poulsen. I have known Jordan for a little over a year now. First as her hair stylist and during that time got to know Jordan and about her difficult time through her abusive relationship, divorce and custody battle with her ex Aaron Poulsen. I have been living with Jordan as her room mate for about 4 months now. During this time we have become very close. I have witnessed her strength through all the personal attacks made by her Ex and his family.

I sometimes do child exchanges for Jordan and have witnessed how difficult Aaron's mother makes each and every exchange.

I have also been witness to Aaron's harassment via his family.

From what I have seen, this is a continuation of the abuse by Aaron and his family.

Jordan is a great mom. She loves her little boy so much and does everything possible to make sure he has the most healthy loving environment to grow up in. She taught him sign language which has greatly helped him in developing his speech. She teaches him manners, keeps him on a schedule for meals, play time, nap time, and bed time. Kajol her son is very smart and very advanced for his age. He is not even 2 years old yet and speaks very well and is already potty training. This is because Jordan's whole life revolves around her son and she works very hard in all aspects to provide for him.

Jordan is very selective with the people whom she surrounds herself and her son. As a result there are very loving, caring, trustworthy friends surrounding us which is not only great for them but makes me feel comforted in living here with her.

As a friend Jordan has been wonderful and supportive. I work long hours and she is happy to provide me with dinner when I get home and helps me with anything I may need. She has helped me through my difficult times and I am so grateful to her. She is the kind of friend that would give the shirt off her back to help them. She is always willing to help others weather its a warm meal, sending them home with food when they cant afford it or just a shoulder to cry on. I feel so thankful to have her in my life and it baffles me that someone would want to treat someone so wonderful the way that her ex has and is still trying to sabotage her.

I hope that you find that she is a great person and deserves only the best. I hope that her life will become peaceful and safe and that she may put all of this terrible past behind her someday and that these legal issues may result in happiness for herself and her son.

Sincerely,
Audrey Wagner

Part 8. Sponsor's Contract.

Please note that, by signing this Form I-864, you agree to assume certain specific obligations under the Immigration and Nationality Act and other Federal laws. The following paragraphs describe those obligations. Please read the following information carefully before you sign the Form I-864. If you do not understand the obligations, you may wish to consult an attorney or accredited representative.

What is the Legal Effect of My Signing a Form I-864?

If you sign a Form I-864 on behalf of any person (called the "intending immigrant") who is applying for an immigrant visa or for adjustment of status to a permanent resident, and that intending immigrant submits the Form I-864 to the U.S. Government with his or her application for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status, under section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act these actions create a contract between you and the U. S. Government. The intending immigrant's becoming a permanent resident is the "consideration" for the contract.

Under this contract, you agree that, in deciding whether the intending immigrant can establish that he or she is not inadmissible to the United States as an alien likely to become a public charge, the U.S. Government can consider your income and assets to be available for the support of the intending immigrant.

What If I choose Not to Sign a Form I-864?

You cannot be made to sign a Form I-864 if you do not want to do so. But if you do not sign the Form I-864, the intending immigrant may not be able to become a permanent resident in the United States.

What Does Signing the Form I-864 Require Me to do?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then, until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, you must:

-- Provide the intending immigrant any support necessary to maintain him or her at an income that is at least 125 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for his or her household size (100 percent if you are the petitioning sponsor and are on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces and the person is your husband, wife, unmarried child under 21 years old.)

-- Notify USCIS of any change in your address, within 30 days of the change, by filing Form I-865.

What Other Consequences Are There?

If an intending immigrant becomes a permanent resident in the United States based on a Form I-864 that you have signed, then until your obligations under the Form I-864 terminate, your income and assets may be considered ("deemed") to be available to that person, in determining whether he or she is eligible for certain Federal means-tested public benefits and also for State or local means-tested public benefits, if the State or local government's rules provide for consideration ("deeming") of your income and assets as available to the person.

This provision does not apply to public benefits specified in section 403(c) of the Welfare Reform Act such as, but not limited to, emergency Medicaid, short-term, non-cash emergency relief; services provided under the National School Lunch and Child Nutrition Acts; immunizations and testing and treatment for communicable diseases; and means-tested programs under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Contract continued on following page.

What If I Do Not Fulfill My Obligations?

If you do not provide sufficient support to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, that person may sue you for this support.

If a Federal, State or local agency, or a private agency provides any covered means-tested public benefit to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed, the agency may ask you to reimburse them for the amount of the benefits they provided. If you do not make the reimbursement, the agency may sue you for the amount that the agency believes you owe.

If you are sued, and the court enters a judgment against you, the person or agency that sued you may use any legally permitted procedures for enforcing or collecting the judgment. You may also be required to pay the costs of collection, including attorney fees.

If you do not file a properly completed Form I-865 within 30 days of any change of address, USCIS may impose a civil fine for your failing to do so.

When Will These Obligations End?

Your obligations under a Form I-864 will end if the person who becomes a permanent resident based on a Form I-864 that you signed:

- Becomes a U.S. citizen;
- Has worked, or can be credited with, 40 quarters of coverage under the Social Security Act;
- No longer has lawful permanent resident status, and has departed the United States;
- Becomes subject to removal, but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status, based on a new affidavit of support, if one is required; or
- Dies.

Note that divorce does not terminate your obligations under this Form I-864.

Your obligations under a Form I-864 also end if you die. Therefore, if you die, your Estate will not be required to take responsibility for the person's support after your death. Your Estate may, however, be responsible for any support that you owed before you died.

30. I, Aaron Poulsen

certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that:

a. I know the contents of this affidavit of support that I signed.

b. All the factual statements in this affidavit of support are true and correct.

c. I have read and I understand each of the obligations described in Part 8, and I agree, freely and without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, to accept each of those obligations in order to make it possible for the immigrants indicated in Part 3 to become permanent residents of the United States;

d. I agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction of any Federal or State court that has subject matter jurisdiction of a lawsuit against me to enforce my obligations under this Form I-864;

e. Each of the Federal income tax returns submitted in support of this affidavit are true copies, or are unaltered tax transcripts, of the tax returns I filed with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service; and

To Whom It May Concern:

Jordan-Lee is seen in my office for her current pregnancy. Provisional recommendations from the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices recommends pregnant women not be immunized w/ Tdap until after delivery. It is considered a schedule C medication and should only be administered if serious risks to mother exist.

I will be happy to administer the Tdap after Jordan delivers her baby, Her due date is September 14, 2009.

Please contact me with any questions or concerns.

Re: WAC1133000197/A96829525

Dear Sir or Madam,

This letter is in reference to your Form I-751, Petition to Remove the Condition on Residence. This is to notify you that your petition has been relocated to the USCIS Field Office listed below for adjudication. That office will schedule an interview for you. When an interview date becomes available, that office will notify you in a separate notice of the date and time you will need to appear for the interview.

When you appear for the interview, you must bring this notice and your appointment notice, along with evidence to establish that the marriage through which you gained your conditional residence status was entered into in good faith. This evidence may include, but is not limited to, joint bank accounts, joint leases, joint mortgage, insurance policies, canceled checks, joint bills, children's birth certificates, income tax returns, wills, affidavits from acquaintances, photos, etc. If you are applying under one of the exemption provisions, you will be required to bring evidence to support your claim.

Any further correspondence concerning your petition should be directed to your local Field Office at the address shown below.

A Number:
File Receipt Number: EAC0816151515
Applicant/Petitioner Name: ROY, JORDAN LEE
Beneficiary:

Dear Sir/Madam:

Upon consideration, it is ordered that your Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status (Form I-539) be denied for the following reasons(s):

A B2/B1 nonimmigrant is defined in Section 101(a)(15)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act as:

> an alien (other than one coming for the purpose of study or of performing skilled or unskilled labor or as a representative of foreign press, radio, film, or other foreign information media coming to engage in such vocation) having a residence in a foreign country which he has no intention of abandoning and who is visiting the United States temporarily for business or temporarily for pleasure;

You do not appear to qualify as a B-2 nonimmigrant visitor as you have stated you were not able to remain in your place of residence after you were injured and not able to work at your part-time job. You were invited to stay with friends indefinitely in the United States and now you are pregnant and engaged. Your finance is supporting you and you plan to marry, then file the proper paperwork.

You have failed to establish your stay is temporary and that you have a residence in a foreign country which you have no intention of abandoning.

Therefore, your application is denied.

This decision leaves you without lawful immigration status and you are therefore present in the United States in violation of the law. You are required to depart the United States. Remaining in the United States without authorization may result in the initiation of removal proceedings against you and may affect your ability to return to the United States in the future.

NOTICE OF INCLUSION IN FAMILY LAW CASE MANAGEMENT PROGRAM AND SETTING CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE
[Local Rule 13.23]

CASE NO.: 06FC2994

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD - READ THIS NOTICE:

THIS CASE HAS BEEN INCLUDED in the Family Law Case Management Program pursuant to the Local Rules for Amador Superior Court, Rule 13.23.

COURT SUPERVISION UNTIL DISPOSITION: This case shall be subject to active court management and supervision until entry of Judgment or Dismissal. Each side in this action is expected to proceed to the prompt resolution of this matter.

HEARING DATE: A Case Management Conference has been scheduled for 3/23/07 at 9:00 AM / PM in Dept. TBA. Counsel or self-represented parties are expected to read and be familiar with Local Rule 13.23 and must file and serve a Family Law Case Management Conference Statement at least 15 days prior to the hearing.

APPEARANCE AT HEARING: Counsel of record and each self-represented party in the action shall attend the Family Law Case Management Conference at the Court location stated above. In accordance with procedures under Local Rule 13.23, the Court may notify counsel or parties that no appearance is required at the Case Management Conference. Unless notified by the Court that no appearance is necessary, counsel of record or self-represented parties must appear in person or by telephone.

TENTATIVE RULINGS: At 2:00 p.m. on the day before the scheduled conference, the court will post tentative rulings on its website, www.amadorcourt.org. Any party who wishes to contest the ruling must make a request for hearing, by calling 209-223-6360, and also notify the opposing party no later than 4:00 p.m. on the day before the hearing. If a hearing is not requested and the opposing party is not notified before 4:00 p.m., the tentative ruling will become the final ruling of the court.

SERVE THIS NOTICE: It is the responsibility of the petitioner to serve the other party with a copy of this notice along with the Summons and Petition. The petitioner must serve the Summons and Petition along with this notice on the respondent within 60 days of filing. The respondent must file and serve the Response within 30 days of the date of service. Local Rules & Forms are available at www.amadorcourt.org.

NOTICE: Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse under the other spouse's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay on death bank account, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the right of a spouse as beneficiary of the other spouse's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance polices, retirement plans, and credit reports to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions. However, some changes may require the agreement of your spouse or a court order (see Family Code sections 231–235).

You have 30 calendar days after this Summons and Petition are served on you to file a Response (form FL-120 or FL-123) at the court and have a copy served on the petitioner. A letter or phone call will not protect you.

If you do not file your Response on time, the court may make orders affecting your marriage or domestic partnership, your property, and custody of your children. You may be ordered to pay support and attorney fees and costs. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the clerk for a fee waiver form.

If you want legal advice, contact a lawyer immediately. You can get information about finding lawyers at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), or by contacting your local county bar association.

Tiene 30 días corridos después de haber recibido la entrega legal de esta Citación y Petición para presentar una Respuesta (formulario FL-120 ó FL-123) ante la corte y efectuar la entrega legal de una copia al demandante. Una carta o llamada telefónica no basta para protegerlo.

Si no presenta su Respuesta a tiempo, la corte puede dar órdenes que afecten su matrimonio o pareja de hecho, sus bienes y la custodia de sus hijos. La corte también le puede ordenar que pague manutención, y honorarios y costos legales. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario un formulario de exención de cuotas.

Si desea obtener asesoramiento legal, póngase en contacto de inmediato con un abogado. Puede obtener información para encontrar a un abogado en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en el sitio Web de los Servicios Legales de California (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org) o poniéndose en contacto con el colegio de abogados de su condado.

NOTICE: The restraining orders on page 2 are effective against both spouses or domestic partners until the petition is dismissed, a judgment is entered, or the court makes further orders. These orders are enforceable anywhere in California by any law enforcement officer who has received or seen a copy of them.

AVISO: Las órdenes de restricción que figuran en la página 2 valen para ambos cónyuges o pareja de hecho hasta que se despida la petición, se emita un fallo o la corte dé otras órdenes. Cualquier autoridad de la ley que haya recibido o visto una copia de estas órdenes puede hacerlas acatar en cualquier lugar de California.

I sent Bar[redacted] an email asking if she heard anything from immigration, [redacted] havent checked that email account today.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
i am saying when chris moves out his room is available...if you want to live with me full blown then you can move your stuff into his room and have more room for your other clothes when they come..

and if you want to live full blown with me that means i need $350 a month and thats not inlcuding power and comcast

Hey there. Nothing from immigration as of today's mail. "

Jordan Roy Report
I think when Chris moves out you should find another roommate.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
so that means you wont be able to help pay for things?

Jordan Roy Report
It means that with three people it would be cheaper.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
well then i would have to split the bills 3 ways... so you are looking around $300 a month each for everything

Jordan Roy Report
You are right. Modeling isnt a guarantee and isnt stable. So I dont know what to do.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
i dont think i will be able to find anyone.. that i trust

Jordan Roy Report

man that sucks,....they need to hurry

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
well sorry for all the arguing

Jordan Roy Report
Thank you for the apology, it means a lot to me. I'm sorry too.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen
how long has it been since you submitted immigration stuff?

did your grandma need to mail you stuff too?

Jordan Roy Report
I sent it all in around May 12th. On the immigration website it says that it should only take [redacted]eks to hear a reply. I assume it is taking so long because [redacted] are digging into my past... I lived illegally in the States for 13 years when I was a minor thanks to my mom...and in numerous places too. Im sure tracking down information on me is quite difficult.

What kind of stuff would grandma send me? she has December.

Jordan Roy Report

...P.S) Jessica wrote me back.

Jordan Roy Report

aaaaaaannnnd P.P.S) I found out when Jonathan fuckingHoward is going to LA

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

you said grandma has passport papers

what dod jessica say?

when is jon going to be in L.A?

Jordan Roy Report

Yeah, but I cant get ahold of my cousin Phil to give the address to.

Jon will be in LA THIS sunday.

This is what Jessica said:

You are right Jordan, I owe you an apology.

I am sorry.

That was inappropriate.

Thank you for being civil, I appreciate it, I know I don't want drama with you either.

I can tell you are a good person who has her shit straight.

I wish you well.

And p.s. This isn't trying to earn me brownie points, I'm not gonna be like that, but I love your pics, you are a gorgeous girl.

Take care.

Jordan Roy Report

I dont think Im going to be able to go to LA due to money issues.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

oh got ya

man that sucks

hmmmmm surprise....now you guys can be friends

Jordan Roy Report

Nope. We will not be friends. I sent her a message basically being like "Thanks, peace out"

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

well chris is moving to vernal with his family i guess....

Between You and Jordan Roy

Jordan Roy Report ← Aug 2008

You looked so good to me when you left. I wish you didnt have to go. There was something peaceful about the way you smelled and the way you kissed me. I think even Brigs felt that, because as soon as we got upstairs, he started sniffing your pillow and your side of the bed, then burrowed under the covers and laid with his head on your pillow. So cute. Wish you were here.
So..... I got a job tonight. Webcam girl. But I dont have to show anything. I just talk to people, I dont have to show nudity if I dont want, and I can quit at any time. I start at making $1.75 a minute, and I can work as much as I want or as little as I want. Which means I can make as much money as I want. I am my own boss. The company is in Toronto, so I wont be working illegally, I can even claim it on my Canadian taxes. They said if I need money for clothes or whatever they will give me a $500 front this Friday. They even picked out a fake name for me... Jayden Jagger...sigh. heh.
I dont want anyone to know. Not even Chris or Renee. NO ONE. Please please keep this between you and me ONLY. Im not even telling Nillah. And Nillah knows EVERYTHING.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

awww thanks

i wont say anything if u decide to do it......

hope that didnt upset you...i never know how to word things without you getting upset sometimes :(doh

have a good day

Jordan Roy Report

Would it really matter if we broke up and I said that? We would already be broken up. lol... but I wouldnt do that.
I do want you to realize that I would never do this if I didnt have the desperate need to give you money. And I am NOT throwing that in your face, Im saying that it is for us, so that we dont have to struggle..and so that you arent so stressed out. I just dont want you to worry. I am willing to do what it takes to make sure you dont have that stress. And if this is what I gotta do, this is what I gotta do. I am very uncomfortable doing it,its embarassing. VERY EMBARASSING.... but Ill suck it up I guess. I know you dont like waking up for work at 5am either, but you do what you gotta do.

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen

yeah but waking up at 5am is a part of a normal job to me....

if u dont want to do it, dont. sounds like u really dont.

i dunno, like i was saying before..if you are that desperate u may as well find gigs of work where you are out traveling for days or something and making bank....i dunno.

Jordan Roy Report

Its not that simple. It is far more difficult to find people willing to pay your travel costs AND pay you than people locally who only have to cover a simple gas cost. SLC is a dead market. We will see how this agency works out for me finding work.
I think that I should give the webcam thing a week and see how it goes. We need the money :(

i thought they were CAN?

Jordan Roy November 13, 2008 at 2:11pm Report

Nope, my studio is in Canada, but the company is American.

Wheeeeen are you cumming home for momma?

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen November 13, 2008 at 2:14pm

what? that doesn't make sense? hmmm im confused... u said u are working for a CAN company hence the CAN pay

Jordan Roy November 13, 2008 at 2:19pm Report

The STUDIO I work for is in Canada. Flirt 4 Free (the site) is in the US. They have studios everywhere... Canada, Russia, Mexico etc etc.
Each studio broadcasts about 50 girls.

So does that mean you are coming home now?

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen September 3, 2008 at 2:35pm
ok

how does taxes work for your job?
did they figure out how to pay you yet?

Aaron-Kajol Poulsen September 3, 2008 at 2:41pm
what is does this mean?

CPP and EI that has to be paid by Canadians

Jordan Roy September 3, 2008 at 3:49pm Report
Just tell them it's a loan from your girl. In April I will file a T-4 and that will take care of my Canadian taxes.

Im beat. Fucking Briggs dude. I tossed his little fawn ass out earlier so I could get some sleep. I wanted to get up early so I could work earlier today for longer. Grrrr. Im so sweepy my head hurts. I'm sorry I didnt come down last night. I ended up being in pvt for a long long time. Since Sunday, I've sold 492.73 minutes. Which means 492.73 x $1.75... you do the math :) I just covered what we spent on the entire trip (car/flight/hotel) in less than 2 days. lol.
Anyway, is the airport/hotel/San Fran thing bad? We got a car... is it far? A friend of mine was telling me last night that we should take the time and go out to Napa/Sonoma. I think I've been through the Napa Valley before and if my memory serves, it was breathtaking.
Tonight when you get off work, we need to go to Walmart. I know how much you hate Walmart with the fire of a thousand suns, but I need to get some of those plastic organizer drawers (like my nightside table/your sock drawers) so I can organize the closet. This room is driving me bananas. lol.

PLEASE COME TO: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

2/I485/RM1
ON: 8/12/2009
AT: 9:30:00 AM

You are hereby notified to appear for the interview appointment, as scheduled below, for the completion of your Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (Form I-485) and any supporting applications or petitions. Failure to appear for this interview and/or failure to bring the below listed items will result in the denial of your application. (8 CFR 103.2(b)(13))

Who should come with you?

- ☐ If your eligibility is based on your marriage, your husband or wife must come with you to the interview.
- ☐ If you do not speak English fluently, you should bring an interpreter.
- ☐ Your attorney or authorized representative may come with you to the interview.
- ☐ If your eligibility is based on a parent/child relationship and the child is a minor, the petitioning parent and the child must appear for the interview.

NOTE:* Every adult (over 18 years of age) who comes to the interview must bring Government-issued photo identification, such as a driver's license or ID card, in order to enter the building and to verify his/her identity at the time of the interview. You do not need to bring your children unless otherwise instructed. Please be on time, but do not arrive more than 45 minutes early. We may record or videotape your interview.

YOU MUST BRING THE FOLLOWING ITEMS WITH YOU: (Please use as a checklist to prepare for your interview)

- ☐ This Interview Notice and your Government issued photo identification.
- ☐ A completed medical examination (Form I-693) and vaccination supplement in a sealed envelope (unless already submitted).
- ☐ A completed Affidavit(s) of Support (Form I-864) with all required evidence, including the following, for each of your sponsors (unless already submitted):
    - ☐ Federal Income Tax returns and W-2's, or certified IRS printouts, for the past 3 years;
    - ☐ Letters from each current employer, verifying current rate of pay and average weekly hours, and pay stubs for the past 2 months;
    - ☐ Evidence of your sponsor's and/or co-sponsor's United States Citizenship or Lawful Permanent Resident status.
- ☐ All documentation establishing your eligibility for Lawful Permanent Resident status.
- ☐ Any immigration-related documentation ever issued to you, including any Employment Authorization Document (EAD) and any Authorization for Advance Parole (Form I-512).
- ☐ All travel documents used to enter the United States, including Passports, Advance Parole documents (I-512) and I-94s (Arrival/Departure Document).
- ☐ Your Birth Certificate.
- ☐ Your petitioner's Birth Certificate and your petitioner's evidence of United States Citizenship or Lawful Permanent Resident Status.
- ☐ If you have children, bring a Birth Certificate for each of your children.
- ☐ If your eligibility is based on your marriage, in addition to your spouse coming to the interview with you, bring:
    - ☐ A certified copy of your Marriage Document issued by the appropriate civil authority.
    - ☐ Your spouse's Birth Certificate and your spouse's evidence of United States Citizenship or Lawful Permanent Resident status;
    - ☐ If either you or your spouse were ever married before, all divorce decrees/death certificates for each prior marriage/former spouse;
    - ☐ Birth Certificates for all children of this marriage, and custody papers for your children and for your spouse's children not living with you;
- ☐ Supporting evidence of your relationship, such as copies of any documentation regarding joint assets or liabilities you and your spouse may have together.
- ☐ This may include: tax returns, bank statements, insurance documents (car, life, health), property documents (car, house, etc.), rental agreements, utility bills, credit cards, contracts, leases, photos, correspondence and/or any other documents you feel may substantiate your relationship.
- ☐ Original and copy of each supporting document that you submitted with your application. Otherwise, we may keep your originals for our records.
- ☐ If you have ever been arrested, bring the related Police Report and the original or certified Final Court Disposition for each arrest, even if the charges have been dismissed or expunged. If no court record is available, bring a letter from the court with jurisdiction indicating this.
- ☐ A certified English translation for each foreign language document. The translator must certify that s/he is fluent in both languages, and that the translation in its entirety IS complete and accurate.

YOU MUST APPEAR FOR THIS INTERVIEW- If an emergency, such as your own illness or a close relative's hospitalization, prevents you from appearing, call the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 as soon as possible. Please be advised that rescheduling will delay processing of application/petition, and may require some steps to be repeated. It may also affect your eligibility for other immigration benefits while this application is pending.

If you have questions, please call the USCIS National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 (hearing impaired TDD service is 1-800-767-1833).

Attorney for Petitioner: AARON KENT POULSEN

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

AARON KENT POULSEN, Petitioner,
vs.
JORDAN-LEE POULSEN,
Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No. 094905182
Honorable Kate A. Toomey
Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

NOW, THEREFORE, THE COURT, having reviewed and accepted the parties' Stipulation, and having made and entered the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now makes and enters the following Decree of Divorce:

IT SHALL BE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED:

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

1.Petitioner and Respondent shall be granted a divorce from each other on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because they have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of their marriage impossible. As such, the parties have an adequate basis for divorce under 30-3-1(3), Utah Code Annotated, and they shall be and are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from each other dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

CHILDREN

2.There has been one (1) child born to Petitioner and Respondent who is presently under legal age and whose initials and date of birth are: K.N.R.P., September 17, 2009.

CHILD CUSTODY

3.Petitioner and Respondent shall be and are hereby awarded JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child. Both Petitioner and Respondent shall act in good faith and use their best efforts to mutually agree on decisions as they arise. Notwithstanding, shall an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, neither party shall be the final decision-maker. The parties shall attend mediation to resolve any issues regarding the child that the parties cannot agree on. Emergency decisions and everyday minor decisions shall be made by whichever parent has the child at the time of the decision.

4.Petitioner and Respondent shall be and are hereby awarded JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child.

5.The parties shall share equal parent-time with the minor child as follows:

- a.Respondent shall have the child each Monday and Tuesday, including those overnights;
- b.Petitioner shall have the child each Wednesday and Thursday, including those overnights;
- c.The parties shall alternate weekends from Friday through Sunday, including those overnights, in accordance with the practice already established by the parties.
- d.When it is Petitioner's weekend, he shall have the child from Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. until Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Petitioner's weekend, his parent-time shall start on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. and end on Friday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

e.When it is Respondent's weekend, she shall have the child from Friday morning at 9:30 a.m. until Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Respondent's weekend, her parent-time shall begin on Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., and end on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

f.If either party is unable to personally care for the child for a period of three (3) consecutive hours or more, that party shall offer the right to provide personal care to the other parent, and if the other parent so accepts, the other parent is responsible for transportation at the beginning and the ending of the right-of-first-refusal parent-time.

6.The parties shall share holidays equally each year as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree on a holiday schedule, then the schedule provided by § 30-3-35, Utah Code Annotated, shall apply, which provides as follows:

a.Holidays take precedence over the weekend visitation, and changes shall not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend visitation schedule;

b.If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the party entitled to the holiday shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day;

c.At the election of the party entitled to the holiday, that party may begin parent-time from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed at the beginning of the holiday weekend until 7:00 p.m. on the last day of the holiday weekend;

d.If a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the party with the holiday shall be entitled to this lengthier holiday period;

e.Additionally, either party may take the other party's parent-time during the week for up to two (2) days, and not during holidays, if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides two (2) weeks' notice. The parties shall make their best efforts to allow either party to take the other party's holiday parent-time if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides three (3) weeks' notice, but if the parties cannot agree, then they shall revert to the statutory holiday schedule. The parties shall make up the taken parent-time within a reasonable time, but no later than one (1) month after the taken parent-time.

7.In years ending in an odd number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the day before or after the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

b.Martin Luther King Jr., beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until Monday at 7:00 p.m. unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Spring Break or Easter holiday, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school lets out for the holiday until 7:00 p.m. on the Sunday before school resumes;

d.July 4th, beginning 6:00 p.m. on the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or no later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Labor Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and continuing until Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

f.The fall school break, if applicable, commonly known as U.E.A. weekend, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

g.Veteran's Day holiday beginning 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday, and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday; and

h.The first portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, including Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, continuing until 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or until 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire holiday is equally divided.

8.In years ending in an even number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. and ending at 9:00 p.m.;

b.President's Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until 7:00 p.m. on Monday unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Memorial Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and ending Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

d.July 24th beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or not later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Columbus Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday and continuing until 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

f.Halloween on October 31, or the day Halloween is traditionally celebrated in the local community from after school until 9:00 p.m. if on a school day, or from 4:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

g.Thanksgiving holiday, beginning Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.; and

h.The second portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, beginning 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or at 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire Christmas holiday is equally divided.

i.Respondent is entitled to the odd year holidays in even years and the even year holidays in odd years.

j.Father's Day shall be spent with the Petitioner every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

k.Mother's Day shall be spent with the Respondent every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

l.Each party shall be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted time during the child's summer vacation from school for purposes of vacation;

m.Notification of extended visitation or vacation weeks with the child shall be provided at least (30) days in advance to the other parent; and n.Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration;

o.Virtual parent time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, shall be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration, provided that if the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

i.the best interests of the child;

ii.each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and

iii.any other factors the court considers material.

PARENTING PLAN

9.The minor child shall spend 182 overnights in the home of the Petitioner and 183 overnights in the home of the Respondent each year. Pursuant to 30-3-10.1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, the following parenting plan shall be ordered and followed:

a.The parents shall discuss with each other and mutually decide the significant decisions regarding the child, including, but not limited to, the child's education, health care, and religious upbringing. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of the child.

b.Day to day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' child shall be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.

c.Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan shall be discussed and mutually decided by both parents. Neither parent has the final say over the other parent. Should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, then the parties shall attend mediation before litigating.

d.Should the Petitioner and Respondent have a dispute regarding parenting of the child, and said dispute cannot be resolved between themselves, then the dispute shall be resolved through mediation before any other avenue of dispute resolution can be utilized.

e.Should either parent feel that a decision made under paragraphs a, b, c and d above is contrary to the best interests of the child, that parent may arrange for counseling or mediation through a mutually agreed upon counselor or mediator. A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling/mediation and a copy provided to each party. Any costs associated with this procedure are to be shared equally between the parties. No dispute may be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through counseling or mediation. If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent. The Court has the right of review from any counseling or mediation.

f.The child's regular school hours shall not be interrupted for parent-time. Petitioner and Respondent shall both have access to all school reports and personnel.

g.At the request of either the Petitioner or the Respondent, pick-ups and drop-offs shall be curbside or as agreed upon in writing. Each party shall notify the other party as to who will be acting as third party for any child exchanges.

h.Both parents shall plan weekly parenting time on a monthly basis and shall make a best effort to provide 48 hours notice of change and in the event that the parent not scheduled for time with the child cannot cover for the parent who is scheduled, then the scheduled parent shall be responsible for making accommodations for the child.

i.The parent who is ending his or her parent-time shall drop the child off at the home of the other parent, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

j.Both parents shall allow liberal phone communications and shall encourage the child to call the other parent. Each parent shall allow the minor child to contact the other parent at anytime the minor child desires to have telephone contact. Should a parent buy a personal cell phone for the child to use while with the other parent, either parent shall have the right to take the cell phone away from the child's possession for disciplinary purposes only, and provided that upon request the child is permitted to call the other parent or receive calls from the other parent. The cell phone shall go where the child goes and the child shall be permitted to use the cell phone when the child wants to call one of the parents.

k.Each party has the right to contact the child on a daily basis by phone. This call can take place between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. This call shall not be unreasonably denied by the residing parent, as long as it does not conflict with existing plans, scheduled events, or interfere with the child's customary routine, thereby causing emotional discomfort.

l.If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set out above under this Parent Time section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

m.Both parents shall communicate with each other prior to forming conclusions about things that the child tells the parents. The reason for this provision is to try to eliminate the misunderstandings and misinterpretations that the parents may be affected by if the parents believe everything the child says prior to discussing what was said with the other parent. This, also, shall help to eliminate the child playing the parents against each other.

n.Both parents shall be concerned for the best interest and well-being of the child; therefore, both parents shall be governed by the following principles:

i.The parties shall have a co-parenting relationship which shall be built on trust and respect;

ii.The parties shall establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the child's needs;

iii.The parties shall support each other in their respective parenting roles and shall say positive words about the other parent to the child and shall be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent. This purpose is honorable for the child to develop good self-esteem;

iv.The parties shall listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;

v.The parties shall make all attempts to resolve conflict between them and shall utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they personally are unsuccessful;

vi.The parties shall solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;

vii.If tension arises in a telephone call, the parties shall take a break from the telephone call or leave their conversations to e-mail;

viii.The parties shall work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;

ix.The parties shall live by the golden rule that they shall treat each other as they would like to be treated;

x.The parties shall start over and recommit to this parenting plan when one or both of them steps outside of the plan and forgets about a commitment made in this plan; and

xi.The parties shall see the other parent as a resource, consultant and ally. The parties shall work together effectively as co-parents to promote the best interests of the child.

o.Any clothing, toys, and other items of the child's personal effects shall be exchanged by the parties, and returned in clean condition, in order to facilitate the child's visits.

p.The Advisory Guidelines as set forth in §30-3-33, Utah Code Annotated, shall be binding upon the parties. The parties, also shall be required to implement the spirit and intent, including the actual provisions, of §30-3-32, Utah Code Annotated.

q.Both parents shall be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the child. The parents, also, shall prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent.

r.Each party shall notify the other whenever that party intends to take the child on any overnight trip that is at least two (2) nights, and provide each other with a travel itinerary with addresses and telephone numbers where they may be reached in the event of an emergency. Each party shall obtain the other's written permission to take the child if a trip interferes with the other parent's parenting time.

s.Neither party shall excessively drink alcohol in the presence of the minor child or be hung over or drunk while in the presence of the minor child. Further, Petitioner and Respondent shall not do any illegal drugs or abuse any prescription medication.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF CUSTODY EVALUATOR

10.Petitioner and Respondent shall follow the recommendations of the custody evaluator with some variations, as follows:

a.The minor child shall be put in pre-school or daycare beginning in the fall of 2012 at a mutually agreed-upon pre-school or daycare. Beginning on March 1, 2013, and continuing until September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50.00 per month toward the child's day care/preschool, and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount. Beginning on October 1, 2013, when the child begins day care/preschool closer to Respondent's home, the parties shall split the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis, meaning that Petitioner shall pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs and Respondent shall pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs.

b.When the minor child begins kindergarten, the minor child shall attend Hayden Peak Elementary School in the Jordan School District unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The child shall continue his education in the Jordan School District for junior high and high school. As soon as the minor child begins kindergarten, Respondent shall drop the minor child off at Petitioner's home for his parent-time on Wednesday afternoons and alternating Thursday afternoons.

c.Petitioner shall pay for 100% of the therapy for the minor child for up to two (2) years following the signing of the Stipulation. After the two-year period, the parties shall split all therapy costs for the child on a 50/50 basis. The therapist for the child shall be someone who is on Petitioner's insurance.

d.Both Petitioner and Respondent shall attend therapy and/or counseling, and follow the recommendations of their respective therapists and/or counselors. Therapy may end upon the recommendation of the therapist. Each party shall be solely responsible for payment of his or her counseling sessions.

e.Each party shall inform the other party of the identity of any third party conducting child exchanges or providing surrogate care. The exchanges may also occur at the child's school or day care, or curbside at the residences of the parties.

f.The minor child shall reside in Salt Lake County until at least the age of 12 years. If any parent desires to move after this time, that parent shall notify the other parent pursuant to the current version of Utah Code Ann. Section 30-3-37 (a minimum of 60 days' advance written notice) and the parties shall attend mediation to discuss parent-time and custody before litigating the matter in court.

COOPERATION ON CO-PARENTING

11.The parties shall regularly discuss the day-to-day routines and decisions being implemented in their homes to help the child feel comfortable in both homes by minimizing the differences in parenting styles. The parties shall adhere to the following:

a.Neither shall be required to follow the suggestions of the other party unless ordered by the Court;

b.Both parents shall cooperate in fostering the best interest of their child;

c.Each parent has the right to create an independent life with the child, allowing each to continue to play a full and active role in providing a sound emotional, moral, social, and educational environment for the child; and

d.Both parents shall share information on any condition, problem, significant fact, or circumstance, which may affect the other parent's relationship with, or the well-being of, the child.

NON-INVOLVEMENT

12.Neither party shall ask, nor attempt in any way to have, the child transfer messages between the parties, either verbal or written. The parents shall contact each other directly via phone or email to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and shall not involve the child.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL FUNCTIONS

13.Both parties shall be entitled to participate in all social and school functions involving their child.

ILLNESS

14.The parties shall notify the other when the child is ill. When the child is ill, regularly scheduled parenting times shall be discussed with both parents prior to the parenting time to decide whether the parenting time shall be rescheduled. Neither parent shall use illness of the child as a means to frustrate the other parent's parent-time.

RESPECT AND COOPERATION

15.Both parents shall recognize that the best interests of the child require them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the child. Both parents shall use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships between the child by encouraging affection, promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent. In addition, both parties shall adhere to the following:

a.Neither parent shall attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the child in any form. Neither parent shall make, nor shall they allow, another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other parent in the presence of the child;

b.The parents shall cooperate and include each other in their child's day care, health care, school, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and shall notify each other of their child's regular activities; and

c.The parents shall not involve the child in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other, but they may jointly discuss issues with their child to get his input.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH PARENT-TIME

16.Both parties shall never schedule or promote to the child any special events or activities that fall on the other party's parenting time without first obtaining permission from that party in the following manner:

a.The requesting party shall notify the other party of the event or activity and discuss with the other party the benefits of the child's attendance prior to discussing it with the child. If the other party already has something scheduled or decides that the child cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent shall abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the child;

b.The child shall be free to express his interest in any activity to either parent at any time; and

c.Neither party shall interfere with the other party's parenting time in any form. If either parent denies physical access to scheduled parent time without just cause, that parent shall pay all costs associated with mediation, arbitration, or court related legal fees, associated with resolving the violation and to ensure freedom from future violations.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH THE PARTIES' PERSONAL LIVES

17.Each party shall be completely free from the interference, authority and control over the other, except as impacts the care of the child, as set forth in this document. Each party shall have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other. Further, if the court finds either party's actions against the other to be dishonest, deceptive, frivolous, or in any way that violates the guidelines set forth in this document, the court can order the offending party to pay all costs for mediation and legal fees incurred by the other party, plus damages for suffering and reasonable fees for time spent in defense.

TEMPORARY ADJUSTMENTS

18.The parties shall be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parenting plan schedule for unexpected situations. The parent seeking an adjustment shall give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least 24 hours except in an emergency). The other party shall use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment, but shall not unreasonably refuse.

RELATIVES

19.Ongoing relationships between the child and relatives shall be encouraged and continued.

CONTACT INFORMATION

20.Each party shall keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

CHILD SUPPORT

21.Petitioner's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3,118, and Respondent's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $2,253. Based on the incomes and the overnights of 182 for Petitioner and 183 for Respondent, the child support order would be $63.00 per month. However, child support shall be deviated to $0, because Petitioner is paying 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Respondent, and Respondent is paying 100% of the life insurance policy on the child, and anticipates, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, paying 100% of the child's dental and vision insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Petitioner.

22.This child support order shall commence January 2013. There is no child support arrearage between the parties. Pursuant to 78B-12-112, Utah Code Annotated, child support shall be payable in full by the 1st day of each month or it shall be due one-half by the 5th and one-half on the 20th of each month.

23.Pursuant to 78B-12-219, Utah Code Annotated, there shall be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

24.Pursuant to 78B-12-216, Utah Code Annotated, there shall be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

25.Child support shall continue until the minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during his normal and expected graduating class, whichever occurs later.

26.An order authorizing Universal Withholding Relief, pursuant to Part 4, Chapter 11, title 62A, Utah Code Annotated, shall be awarded if the child support obligor becomes thirty (30) days delinquent in the payment of child support obligations.

MEDICAL INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

27.Pursuant to 78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated, Petitioner and Respondent shall provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of the minor child. Petitioner shall continue to provide medical insurance for the minor child, and Petitioner shall be solely responsible for 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums. There is no medical premium arrearage between the parties.

28.Respondent shall provide life, dental, and vision insurance for the minor child, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, and Respondent shall be solely responsible for 100% of the child's life, dental, and vision premiums.

29.Petitioner and Respondent shall divide equally all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses of the minor child and which are not covered by insurance, subject to the conditions as stated below. There are no arrearages for any out-of-pocket medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses for the child. For a non-emergency or non-essential expense to qualify for 50% reimbursement, the parties shall discuss and confer with each other before incurring the expense, otherwise the expense shall be solely paid for by the party who incurred the expense without discussing it with the other party and/or over the objection of the other party, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

30.Both parties shall be responsible for any and all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses that they incur on behalf of themselves. There are no arrearages for any such charges between the parties. For any outstanding or existing medical debts, the parties shall take the debts in their names and hold the other party harmless of any such debts.

31.The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in the §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

32.The parent who incurs medical expenses shall be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of payment within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

33.The parent who incurs the medical expenses shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

34.Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

35.Each parent shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

36.Each parent shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

37.Pursuant to Section 78B-12-214, Utah Code Annotated, both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related, career, or occupational training child care expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

38.If a parent incurs an actual expense for child care, the other parent shall begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of child care expense and proof of payment of said expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

39.The parent who incurs child care expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter within thirty (30) days of receiving a bill

from the child care provider for any expenses incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

40.The parent who incurred the child care expense shall be reimbursed by the other parent on a monthly basis, but no later than thirty (30) days after sending a receipt to the other parent for such expenses. If the parent seeking reimbursement of the child care expenses fails to provide written verification of those expenses and proof of payment of said expenses within thirty (30) days of incurring said expenses, that parent waives the right to reimbursement of said expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

41.Child care costs shall only be divided if the cost is incurred due to the parent being at work, career or occupational training; otherwise the party is responsible for all costs of that child care, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent shall pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner shall pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties shall share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

42.Both parents shall allow the other parent to have input as to choosing the child care provider. Both parties shall give the other parent first chance to provide care for the child if the need arises.

MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

43.Petitioner and Respondent shall respectively pay one-half of all extracurricular activity expenses of the minor child. However, any extracurricular activity shall be agreed to jointly by the parties, prior to the child being enrolled or taking part in such activities. If the parties are unable to jointly agree to the extracurricular activity, either party shall be entitled to have the child participate in the extracurricular activity if that party pays entirely for the extracurricular activity. The parties shall act in good faith in deciding whether the minor child shall participate in an extracurricular activity.

DIVORCE EDUCATION

44.Both parties have taken the required "Divorce Education for Parents" class and provided proof to counsel and to the Court.

REAL PROPERTY

45.During the course of the marriage, neither the Petitioner nor the Respondent has acquired any real property.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, PENSION FUNDS, ETC.

46.Petitioner and Respondent each shall retain all monies contained in any retirement accounts, pension funds, or individual retirement accounts, other than social security, that are in their own respective names, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

47.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain items of personal property.

48.Petitioner shall be awarded the following items of personal property and shall be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by the Respondent:

a.His personal effects and his sole personal property.

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Petitioner by Respondent;

49.Respondent shall be awarded the following items of personal property and shall be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

a.Her personal effects and her sole personal property;

b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Respondent by Petitioner;

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS AND CHECKING ACCOUNTS

50.Petitioner and Respondent do not have money held in joint savings or checking accounts.

51.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Petitioner's sole name shall be awarded to the Petitioner.

52.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Respondent's sole name shall be awarded to the Respondent.

STOCKS, BONDS, AND MISCELLANEOUS SECURITIES

53.Each party shall be awarded whatever stocks, bonds, and miscellaneous securities are in his or her sole name.

SEPARATE PROPERTY

54.All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of acquisition prior to marriage, family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources, except as specifically addressed herein shall be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

55.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain debts and obligations.

56.Petitioner shall assume and pay and hold Respondent harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Petitioner subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Petitioner above;

c.Debt owed to U.S. Bank;

d.Debt owed to Chase;

e.All debts in his name;

f.All medical bills incurred prior to May 13, 2010;

57.Respondent shall assume and pay and hold Petitioner harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Respondent subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010, except as specifically addressed herein;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Respondent above.

58.Petitioner and Respondent shall provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce and shall notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the Court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

DELINQUENCY IN PAYMENTS

59.If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt shall remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset shall be placed immediately on the market for sale to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes a payment on a delinquent debt to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

60.The allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other; therefore, the parties shall not be able to discharge the debts in bankruptcy. This provision shall not bind the bankruptcy court.

REFINANCE

61.Each party shall offer their best efforts to remove each other from any debts, obligations, loans, etc. by refinance or otherwise and put the loan or obligation solely in their respective name, and to assume responsibility for and release any financial burden from the other party.

BANKRUPTCY

62.If either party files for bankruptcy, it shall constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances for any subsequent petition to modify regarding any financial issues herein.

TAXES AND TAX EXEMPTION

63.Petitioner and Respondent shall alternate each year the entitlement to claim any and all tax exemptions related to their minor child such that Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in odd-numbered years, and Respondent shall be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in even-numbered years.

ALIMONY

64.Petitioner shall pay to Respondent a total of $14,000 in alimony, to be paid in monthly installments of $200.00 beginning in March of 2013 until paid in full. Each monthly installment is due by the first of the month. In the event that Petitioner is thirty (30) days late on a monthly installment, the amount due shall be accelerated so that the total amount unpaid shall be due and owing, and Respondent shall have the right to initiate garnishment or other collection proceedings for the amount then due and owing. The alimony award is considered a settlement of the parties' I-864 issue. Upon any such default, nothing shall prevent the parties from negotiating a new installment payment plan on the amount due and owing, provided that any agreement shall be in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court.

65.Petitioner's alimony obligation shall not terminate upon Respondent's remarriage or cohabitation or for any other reason except in the event of the death of either party.

I-864 AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT

66.As long as Petitioner is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent shall not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864 Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

SURNAME CHANGE

67.The surname of Respondent shall be changed to Roy unless Respondent chooses otherwise.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

68.Petitioner and Respondent each shall pay their own respective attorney's fees and costs associated with all aspects of their divorce.

COOPERATION

69.Each party shall cooperate with the other, through counsel and otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure that the

Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

70.Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

71.Both parties shall be restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child about the issues in this case or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or visitation, which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Both parties also shall be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

72.Both parties shall be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or shall remove the child from such circumstances.

DEFAULT

73.If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in this document, the party in default shall be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of this document.

DATED this _____ day of April, 2013.

Attorney for Petitioner: AARON KENT POULSEN

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

AARON KENT POULSEN,

Petitioner,

vs.

JORDAN-LEE POULSEN,

Respondent.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Civil No. 094905182

Honorable Kate A. Toomey

Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

NOW, THEREFORE, THE COURT, having reviewed and accepted the parties' Stipulation, now makes and enters the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

FINDINGS OF FACT

JURISDICTION

1.Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of the action in accordance with 30-3-1(2), Utah Code Annotated.

2.Respondent is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of the action in accordance with 30-3-1(2), Utah Code Annotated.

3.Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to 78B-13-1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, in that:

a.Utah is the home state of the minor child at the time of the commencement of this proceeding.

b.Said minor child has resided in the State of Utah since the time of his birth or at least the majority of his life.

c.Neither Petitioner nor Respondent have been a party, witness, or have participated in any other capacity in any other litigation concerning the custody of the subject minor child in this State or any other State.

d.Petitioner and Respondent do not have information of any custody proceeding concerning the subject minor child pending in a court of this State or any other State.

e.Petitioner and Respondent do not know of any person not a party to these proceedings who have physical custody of the subject minor child and who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to said child.

MARRIAGE STATUS

4.Petitioner and Respondent were married on or about March 14, 2009, in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and are presently married.

5.Petitioner and Respondent separated in or about January of 2010, and currently are separated.

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

6.Petitioner and Respondent should be granted a divorce from each other on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because they have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of their marriage impossible. As such, the parties have an adequate basis for divorce under 30-3-1(3), Utah Code Annotated, and they should be awarded a Decree of Divorce from each other dissolving the bonds of matrimony.

CHILDREN

7.There has been one (1) child born to Petitioner and Respondent who is presently under legal age and whose initials and date of birth are: K.N.R.P., September 17, 2009.

CHILD CUSTODY

8.Given the relationships and dealings between Petitioner and Respondent concerning past, present, and future Legal custody issues, it would be in the best interest of the child that Petitioner and Respondent be awarded JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child. Both Petitioner and Respondent should act in good faith and use their best efforts to mutually agree on decisions as they arise. Notwithstanding, should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, neither party should be the final decision-maker. The parties should attend mediation to resolve any issues regarding the child that the parties cannot agree on. Emergency decisions and everyday minor decisions should be made by whichever parent has the child at the time of the decision.

9.Given the relationships and dealings between Petitioner and Respondent concerning past, present, and future Physical custody issues, it would be in the best interest of the minor child that Petitioner and Respondent be awarded JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the parties' minor child.

10.The parties should share equal parent-time with the minor child as follows:

a.Respondent should have the child each Monday and Tuesday, including those overnights;

b.Petitioner should have the child each Wednesday and Thursday, including those overnights;

c.The parties should alternate weekends from Friday through Sunday, including those overnights, in accordance with the practice already established by the parties.

d.When it is Petitioner's weekend, he should have the child from Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. until Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Petitioner's weekend, his parent-time should start on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. and end on Friday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

e.When it is Respondent's weekend, she should have the child from Friday morning at 9:30 a.m. until Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m., unless other times are mutually agreed upon between the parties. When it is not Respondent's weekend, her parent-time should begin on Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., and end on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m., unless otherwise mutually agreed between the parties.

f.If either party is unable to personally care for the child for a period of three (3) consecutive hours or more, that party should offer the right to provide personal care to the other parent, and if the other parent so accepts, the other parent is responsible for transportation at the beginning and the ending of the right-of-first-refusal parent-time.

11.The parties should share holidays equally each year as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree on a holiday schedule, then the schedule provided by § 30-3-35, Utah Code Annotated, should apply, which provides as follows:

a.Holidays take precedence over the weekend visitation, and changes should not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend visitation schedule;

b.If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the party entitled to the holiday should be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day;

c.At the election of the party entitled to the holiday, that party may begin parent-time from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed at the beginning of the holiday weekend until 7:00 p.m. on the last day of the holiday weekend;

d.If a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the party with the holiday should be entitled to this lengthier holiday period;

e.Additionally, either party may take the other party's parent-time during the week for up to two (2) days, and not during holidays, if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides two (2) weeks' notice. The parties should make their best efforts to allow either party to take the other party's holiday parent-time if either party's family is visiting town, as long as the party provides three (3) weeks' notice, but if the parties cannot agree, then they should revert to the statutory holiday schedule. The parties should make up the taken parent-time within a reasonable time, but no later than one (1) month after the taken parent-time.

12.In years ending in an odd number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the day before or after the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

b.Martin Luther King Jr., beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until Monday at 7:00 p.m. unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Spring Break or Easter holiday, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school lets out for the holiday until 7:00 p.m. on the Sunday before school resumes;

d.July 4th, beginning 6:00 p.m. on the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or no later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Labor Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and continuing until Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

f.The fall school break, if applicable, commonly known as U.E.A. weekend, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

g.Veteran's Day holiday beginning 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday, and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday; and

h.The first portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, including Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, continuing until 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or until 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire holiday is equally divided.

13.In years ending in an even number, Petitioner is entitled to the following holidays:

a.The child's birthday on the actual birthdate beginning at 3:00 p.m. and ending at 9:00 p.m.;

b.President's Day beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday until 7:00 p.m. on Monday unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

c.Memorial Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. on Friday and ending Monday at 7:00 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the Petitioner is completely entitled;

d.July 24th beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday until 11:00 p.m. on the holiday, or not later than 6:00 p.m. on the day following the holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday;

e.Columbus Day, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday and continuing until 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

f.Halloween on October 31, or the day Halloween is traditionally celebrated in the local community from after school until 9:00 p.m. if on a school day, or from 4:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

g.Thanksgiving holiday, beginning Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. and continuing until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.; and

h.The second portion of the Christmas school vacation, meaning the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas school break until the evening before the child returns to school, beginning 1:00 p.m. on the day halfway through the holiday period, if there are an odd number of days for the holiday period, or at 7:00 p.m. if there are an even number of days for the holiday period, so long as the entire Christmas holiday is equally divided.

i.Respondent is entitled to the odd year holidays in even years and the even year holidays in odd years.

j.Father's Day should be spent with the Petitioner every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

k.Mother's Day should be spent with the Respondent every year beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 7:00 p.m. on the holiday;

l.Each party should be entitled to two weeks of uninterrupted time during the child's summer vacation from school for purposes of vacation;

m.Notification of extended visitation or vacation weeks with the child should be provided at least (30) days in advance to the other parent; and n.Telephone contact should be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration;

o.Virtual parent time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, should be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration, provided that if the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court should decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

i.the best interests of the child;

ii.each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and

iii.any other factors the court considers material.

PARENTING PLAN

14.The minor child should spend 182 overnights in the home of the Petitioner and 183 overnights in the home of the Respondent each year. Pursuant to 30-3-10.1 et seq., Utah Code Annotated, the following parenting plan should be ordered and followed:

a.The parents should discuss with each other and mutually decide the significant decisions regarding the child, including, but not limited to, the child's education, health care, and religious upbringing. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of the child.

b.Day to day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the parties' child should be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.

c.Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan should be discussed and mutually decided by both parents. Neither parent has the final say over the other parent. Should an impasse occur and a mutual decision cannot be agreed upon, then the parties should attend mediation before litigating.

d.Should the Petitioner and Respondent have a dispute regarding parenting of the child, and said dispute cannot be resolved between themselves, then the dispute should be resolved through mediation before any other avenue of dispute resolution can be utilized.

e.Should either parent feel that a decision made under paragraphs a, b, c and d above is contrary to the best interests of the child, that parent may arrange for counseling or mediation through a mutually agreed upon counselor or mediator. A written record should be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling/mediation and a copy provided to each party. Any costs associated with this procedure are to be shared equally between the parties. No dispute may be presented to the Court in this matter without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through counseling or mediation. If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent. The Court has the right of review from any counseling or mediation.

f.The child's regular school hours should not be interrupted for parent-time. Petitioner and Respondent should both have access to all school reports and personnel.

g.At the request of either the Petitioner or the Respondent, pick-ups and drop-offs should be curbside or as agreed upon in writing. Each party should notify the other party as to who will be acting as third party for any child exchanges.

h.Both parents should plan weekly parenting time on a monthly basis and should make a best effort to provide 48 hours notice of change and in the event that the parent not scheduled for time with the child cannot cover for the parent who is scheduled, then the scheduled parent should be responsible for making accommodations for the child.

i.The parent who is ending his or her parent-time should drop the child off at the home of the other parent, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

j.Both parents should allow liberal phone communications and should encourage the child to call the other parent. Each parent should allow the minor child to contact the other parent at anytime the minor child desires to have telephone contact. Should a parent buy a personal cell phone for the child to use while with the other parent, either parent should have the right to take the cell phone away from the child's possession for disciplinary purposes only, and provided that upon request the child is permitted to call the other parent or receive calls from the other parent. The cell phone should go where the child goes and the child should be permitted to use the cell phone when the child wants to call one of the parents.

k.Each party has the right to contact the child on a daily basis by phone. This call can take place between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. This call should not be unreasonably denied by the residing parent, as long as it does not conflict with existing plans, scheduled events, or interfere with the child's customary routine, thereby causing emotional discomfort.

l.If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set out above under this Parent Time section, the other parent's obligations under said section are not affected.

m.Both parents should communicate with each other prior to forming conclusions about things that the child tells the parents. The reason for this provision is to try to eliminate the misunderstandings and misinterpretations that the parents may be affected by if the parents believe everything the child says prior to discussing what was said with the other parent. This, also, should help to eliminate the child playing the parents against each other.

n.Both parents should be concerned for the best interest and well-being of the child; therefore, both parents should be governed by the following principles:

   i.The parties should have a co-parenting relationship which should be built on trust and respect;

   ii.The parties should establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the child's needs;

   iii.The parties should support each other in their respective parenting roles and should say positive words about the other parent to the child and should be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent. This purpose is honorable for the child to develop good self-esteem;

   iv.The parties should listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;

   v.The parties should make all attempts to resolve conflict between them and should utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they personally are unsuccessful;

   vi.The parties should solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;

vii.If tension arises in a telephone call, the parties should take a break from the telephone call or leave their conversations to e-mail;

viii.The parties should work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;

ix.The parties should live by the golden rule that they should treat each other as they would like to be treated;

x.The parties should start over and recommit to this parenting plan when one or both of them steps outside of the plan and forgets about a commitment made in this plan; and

xi.The parties should see the other parent as a resource, consultant and ally. The parties should work together effectively as co-parents to promote the best interests of the child.

o.Any clothing, toys, and other items of the child's personal effects should be exchanged by the parties, and returned in clean condition, in order to facilitate the child's visits.

p.The Advisory Guidelines as set forth in §30-3-33, Utah Code Annotated, should be binding upon the parties. The parties, also should be required to implement the spirit and intent, including the actual provisions, of §30-3-32, Utah Code Annotated.

q.Both parents should be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the child. The parents, also, should prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent.

r.Each party should notify the other whenever that party intends to take the child on any overnight trip that is at least two (2) nights, and provide each other with a travel itinerary with addresses and telephone numbers where they may be reached in the event of an emergency. Each party should obtain the other's written permission to take the child if a trip interferes with the other parent's parenting time.

s.Neither party should excessively drink alcohol in the presence of the minor child or be hung over or drunk while in the presence of the minor child. Further, Petitioner and Respondent should not do any illegal drugs or abuse any prescription medication.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF CUSTODY EVALUATOR

15.Petitioner and Respondent should follow the recommendations of the custody evaluator with some variations, as follows:

a.The minor child should be put in pre-school or daycare beginning in the fall of 2012 at a mutually agreed-upon pre-school or daycare. Beginning on March 1, 2013, and continuing until September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50.00 per month toward the child's day care/preschool, and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount. Beginning on October 1, 2013, when the child begins day care/preschool closer to Respondent's home, the parties should split the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis, meaning that Petitioner should pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs and Respondent should pay for 50% of the child's pre-school/daycare costs.

b.When the minor child begins kindergarten, the minor child should attend Hayden Peak Elementary School in the Jordan School District unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The child should continue his education in the Jordan School District for junior high and high school. As soon as the minor child begins kindergarten, Respondent should drop the minor child off at Petitioner's home for his parent-time on Wednesday afternoons and alternating Thursday afternoons.

c.Petitioner should pay for 100% of the therapy for the minor child for up to two (2) years following the signing of the Stipulation. After the two-year period, the parties should split all therapy costs for the child on a 50/50 basis. The therapist for the child should be someone who is on Petitioner's insurance.

d.Both Petitioner and Respondent should attend therapy and/or counseling, and follow the recommendations of their respective therapists and/or counselors. Therapy may end upon the recommendation of the therapist. Each party should be solely responsible for payment of his or her counseling sessions.

e.Each party should inform the other party of the identity of any third party conducting child exchanges or providing surrogate care. The exchanges may also occur at the child's school or day care, or curbside at the residences of the parties.

f.The minor child should reside in Salt Lake County until at least the age of 12 years. If any parent desires to move after this time, that parent should notify the other parent pursuant to the current version of Utah Code Ann. Section 30-3-37 (a minimum of 60 days' advance written notice) and the parties should attend mediation to discuss parent-time and custody before litigating the matter in court.

COOPERATION ON CO-PARENTING

16.The parties should regularly discuss the day-to-day routines and decisions being implemented in their homes to help the child feel comfortable in both homes by minimizing the differences in parenting styles. The parties should adhere to the following:

a.Neither should be required to follow the suggestions of the other party unless ordered by the Court;

b.Both parents should cooperate in fostering the best interest of their child;

c.Each parent has the right to create an independent life with the child, allowing each to continue to play a full and active role in providing a sound emotional, moral, social, and educational environment for the child; and

d.Both parents should share information on any condition, problem, significant fact, or circumstance, which may affect the other parent's relationship with, or the well-being of, the child.

NON-INVOLVEMENT

17.Neither party should ask, nor attempt in any way to have, the child transfer messages between the parties, either verbal or written. The parents should contact each other directly via phone or email to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and should not involve the child.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL FUNCTIONS

18.Both parties should be entitled to participate in all social and school functions involving their child.

ILLNESS

19.The parties should notify the other when the child is ill. When the child is ill, regularly scheduled parenting times should be discussed with both parents prior to the parenting time to decide whether the parenting time should be rescheduled. Neither parent should use illness of the child as a means to frustrate the other parent's parent-time.

RESPECT AND COOPERATION

20.Both parents should recognize that the best interests of the child require them to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the child. Both parents should use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships between the child by encouraging affection, promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent. In addition, both parties should adhere to the following:

a.Neither parent should attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the child in any form. Neither parent should make, nor should they allow, another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other parent in the presence of the child;

b.The parents should cooperate and include each other in their child's day care, health care, school, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and should notify each other of their child's regular activities; and

c.The parents should not involve the child in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other, but they may jointly discuss issues with their child to get his input.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH PARENT-TIME

21.Both parties should never schedule or promote to the child any special events or activities that fall on the other party's parenting time without first obtaining permission from that party in the following manner:

a.The requesting party should notify the other party of the event or activity and discuss with the other party the benefits of the child's attendance prior to discussing it with the child. If the other party already has something scheduled or decides that the child cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting parent should abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the child;

b.The child should be free to express his interest in any activity to either parent at any time; and

c.Neither party should interfere with the other party's parenting time in any form. If either parent denies physical access to scheduled parent time without just cause, that parent should pay all costs associated with mediation, arbitration, or court related legal fees, associated with resolving the violation and to ensure freedom from future violations.

NON-INTERFERENCE WITH THE PARTIES' PERSONAL LIVES

22.Each party should be completely free from the interference, authority and control over the other, except as impacts the care of the child, as set forth in this document. Each party should have the right to conduct his or her social life and business affairs as he or she sees fit without interference or comment from the other. Further, if the court finds either party's actions against the other to be dishonest, deceptive, frivolous, or in any way that violates the guidelines set forth in this document, the court can order the offending party to pay all costs for mediation and legal fees incurred by the other party, plus damages for suffering and reasonable fees for time spent in defense.

TEMPORARY ADJUSTMENTS

23.The parties should be flexible in making temporary adjustments in their parenting plan schedule for unexpected situations. The parent seeking an adjustment should give the other parent as much advance notice as possible (at least 24 hours except in an emergency). The other party should use his or her discretion in allowing for an adjustment, but should not unreasonably refuse.

RELATIVES

24.Ongoing relationships between the child and relatives should be encouraged and continued.

CONTACT INFORMATION

25.Each party should keep the other immediately informed as to residence address, home, work and cell phone numbers, e-mail addresses and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency.

CHILD SUPPORT

26.Petitioner's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3,118, and Respondent's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $2,253. Based on the incomes and the overnights of 182 for Petitioner and 183 for Respondent, the child support order would be $63.00 per month. However, child support is deviated to $0, because Petitioner is paying 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Respondent, and Respondent is paying 100% of the life insurance policy on the child, and anticipates, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, paying 100% of the child's dental and vision insurance premiums without any reimbursement from Petitioner.

27.This child support order should commence January 2013. There is no child support arrearage between the parties. Pursuant to 78B-12-112, Utah Code Annotated, child support should be payable in full by the 1st day of each month or it should be due one-half by the 5th and one-half on the 20th of each month.

28.Pursuant to 78B-12-219, Utah Code Annotated, it is fair and reasonable that there should be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

29.Pursuant to 78B-12-216, Utah Code Annotated, it is fair and reasonable that there should be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

30.Child support should continue until the minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or graduates from high school during his normal and expected graduating class, whichever occurs later.

31.An order authorizing Universal Withholding Relief, pursuant to Part 4, Chapter 11, title 62A, Utah Code Annotated, should be awarded if the child support obligor becomes thirty (30) days delinquent in the payment of child support obligations.

MEDICAL INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

32.Pursuant to 78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated, Petitioner and Respondent should provide and maintain health/medical insurance for the benefit of the minor child. Petitioner should continue to provide medical insurance for the minor child, and Petitioner should be solely responsible for 100% of the child's medical insurance premiums. There is no medical premium arrearage between the parties.

33.Respondent should provide life, dental, and vision insurance for the minor child, when available through her employment at a reasonable cost, and Respondent should be solely responsible for 100% of the child's life, dental, and vision premiums.

34.Petitioner and Respondent should divide equally all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses of the minor child and which are not covered by insurance, subject to the conditions as stated below. There are no arrearages for any out-of-pocket medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses for the child. For a non-emergency or non-essential expense to qualify for 50% reimbursement, the parties should discuss and confer with each other before incurring the expense, otherwise the expense should be solely paid for by the party who incurred the expense without discussing it with the other party and/or over the objection of the other party, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

35.Both parties should be responsible for any and all medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses that they incur on behalf of themselves. There are no arrearages for any such charges between the parties. For any outstanding or existing medical debts, the parties should take the debts in their names and hold the other party harmless of any such debts.

36.The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses should provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in the §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

37.The parent who incurs medical expenses should be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of payment within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

38.The parent who incurs the medical expenses should be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of the verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.

39.Petitioner and Respondent should cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

40.Each parent should provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

41.Each parent should provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change, as set forth in §78B-12-212, Utah Code Annotated.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

42.Pursuant to Section 78B-12-214, Utah Code Annotated, both parties should share equally the reasonable work-related, career, or occupational training child care expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and

Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

43.If a parent incurs an actual expense for child care, the other parent should begin paying his/her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of child care expense and proof of payment of said expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

44.The parent who incurs child care expenses should provide written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter within thirty (30) days of receiving a bill from the child care provider for any expenses incurred, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

45.The parent who incurred the child care expense should be reimbursed by the other parent on a monthly basis, but no later than thirty (30) days after sending a receipt to the other parent for such expenses. If the parent seeking reimbursement of the child care expenses fails to provide written verification of those expenses and proof of payment of said expenses within thirty (30) days of incurring said expenses, that parent waives the right to reimbursement of said expenses, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50

toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

46.Child care costs should only be divided if the cost is incurred due to the parent being at work, career or occupational training; otherwise the party is responsible for all costs of that child care, with the clarification that from March 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013, Respondent should pay $50 toward the child's day care/preschool costs and Petitioner should pay the remaining amount, and beginning October 1, 2013, the parties should share the day care/preschool costs on a 50/50 basis.

47.Both parents should allow the other parent to have input as to choosing the child care provider. Both parties should give the other parent first chance to provide care for the child if the need arises.

MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

48.Petitioner and Respondent should respectively pay one-half of all extracurricular activity expenses of the minor child. However, any extracurricular activity should be agreed to jointly by the parties, prior to the child being enrolled or taking part in such activities. If the parties are unable to jointly agree to the extracurricular activity, either party should be entitled to have the child participate in the extracurricular activity if that party pays entirely for the extracurricular activity. The parties should act in good faith in deciding whether the minor child should participate in an extracurricular activity.

DIVORCE EDUCATION

49.Both parties have taken the required "Divorce Education for Parents" class and provided proof to counsel and to the Court.

REAL PROPERTY

50.During the course of the marriage, neither the Petitioner nor the Respondent has acquired any real property.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, PENSION FUNDS, ETC.

51.Petitioner and Respondent each should retain all monies contained in any retirement accounts, pension funds, or individual retirement accounts, other than social security, that are in their own respective names, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

52.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain items of personal property.

53.Petitioner should be awarded the following items of personal property and should be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by the Respondent:

  a.His personal effects and his sole personal property.

  b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Petitioner by Respondent;

54.Respondent should be awarded the following items of personal property and should be liable for any debt on the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

  a.Her personal effects and her sole personal property;

  b.All personal property heretofore divided by the parties and given to Respondent by Petitioner;

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS AND CHECKING ACCOUNTS

55.Petitioner and Respondent do not have money held in joint savings or checking accounts.

56.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Petitioner's sole name should be awarded to the Petitioner.

57.Money in the checking / savings accounts held in the Respondent's sole name should be awarded to the Respondent.

STOCKS, BONDS, AND MISCELLANEOUS SECURITIES

58.Each party should be awarded whatever stocks, bonds, and miscellaneous securities are in his or her sole name.

SEPARATE PROPERTY

59.All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of acquisition prior to marriage, family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources, except as specifically addressed herein should be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

60.During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired certain debts and obligations.

61.Petitioner should assume and pay and hold Respondent harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

- a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Petitioner subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010;
- b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Petitioner above;
- c.Debt owed to U.S. Bank;
- d.Debt owed to Chase;
- e.All debts in his name;
- f.All medical bills incurred prior to May 13, 2010;

62.Respondent should assume and pay and hold Petitioner harmless for the liability thereon, the following debts and obligations:

a.All debts and obligations incurred by the Respondent subsequent to the date of separation of January 2010, except as specifically addressed herein;

b.All debts and obligations associated with any of the personal property awarded to Respondent above.

63.Petitioner and Respondent should provide a copy of the parties' Decree of Divorce and should notify their respective creditors for joint debts regarding the Court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities, and regarding the parties' separate current addresses.

DELINQUENCY IN PAYMENTS

64.If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt should remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset should be placed immediately on the market for sale to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes a payment on a delinquent debt to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

REQUEST FOR NON-DISCHARGEABILITY IN BANKRUPTCY

65.The allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other; therefore, the parties should not be able to discharge the debts in bankruptcy. This provision does not bind the bankruptcy court.

REFINANCE

66.Each party should offer their best efforts to remove each other from any debts, obligations, loans, etc. by refinance or otherwise and put the loan or obligation solely in their respective name, and to assume responsibility for and release any financial burden from the other party.

BANKRUPTCY

67.If either party files for bankruptcy, it should constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances for any subsequent petition to modify regarding any financial issues herein.

TAXES AND TAX EXEMPTION

68.Petitioner and Respondent should alternate each year the entitlement to claim any and all tax exemptions related to their minor child such that Petitioner should be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in odd-numbered years, and Respondent should be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption in even-numbered years.

ALIMONY

69.Petitioner should pay to Respondent a total of $14,000 in alimony, to be paid in monthly installments of $200.00 beginning in March of 2013 until paid in full. Each monthly installment is due by the first of the month. In the event that Petitioner is thirty (30) days late on a monthly installment, the amount due should be accelerated so that the total amount unpaid should be due and owing, and Respondent should have the right to initiate garnishment or other collection proceedings for the amount then due and owing. The alimony award is considered a settlement of the parties' I-864 issue. Upon any such default, nothing should prevent the parties from negotiating a new installment payment plan on the amount due and owing, provided that any agreement should be in writing, signed by both parties, notarized, and filed with the Court.

70.Petitioner's alimony obligation should not terminate upon Respondent's remarriage or cohabitation or for any other reason except in the event of the death of either party.

I-864 AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT

71.As long as Petitioner is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent should not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864 Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

SURNAME CHANGE

72.The surname of Respondent should be changed to Roy unless Respondent chooses otherwise.

ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS

73.Petitioner and Respondent each should pay their own respective attorney's fees and costs associated with all aspects of their divorce.

COOPERATION

74.Each party should cooperate with the other, through counsel and otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

75.Each party should execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

76.Both parties should be restrained from speaking derogatorily about the other parent or speaking to the child about the issues in this case or from attempting to influence a child's preference regarding custody or visitation, which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent. Both parties also should be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

77.Both parties should be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and should have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or should remove the child from such circumstances.

DEFAULT

78.If either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in this document, the party in default should be liable to the other party for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and costs, incurred in enforcing the terms and conditions of this document.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Court concludes that as set out above under the Court's Findings of Fact, the parties are subject to the jurisdiction of the Court, the parties have irreconcilable differences, and the parties are entitled to a Decree of Divorce, the same to become final upon entry herein.

2. The Court concludes that the terms of the Decree of Divorce are in the best interests of the child and are fair and reasonable, and all other issues of dispute have been resolved with the Court pursuant to the above Findings of Fact.

IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT FOR THE

DISTRICT OF UTAH

JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Plaintiff, v. AARON POULSEN, Defendant.	PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO STRIKE AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES [2-4, 6-32] AND FOR ATTORNEY FEES No. 2:25-cv-00425-JCB

Plaintiff Jordan Lee Poulsen moves the Court to strike affirmative defenses pled in the Answer. The defenses are either categorically disallowed by the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as uniformly recognized by federal courts, or allege novel requirements that do not apply to the claims at bar. The Plaintiff further requests an award of reasonable attorney fees for this motion, under the cost-shifting provision of the INA.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. FACTS 1

II. ANALYSIS 3

1. Federal courts uniformly hold that common law defenses are disallowed in actions to enforce the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defenses 12-19, 21-25, 27-29]. 4

2. Jordan's claim under the Affidavit of Support arises under federal law and is not barred by the parties' divorce [Affirmative Defenses 2, 3, 9, 11, 20 & 26]. 8

3. Other Affirmative Defenses [3, 6-9, 11, & 30-32] misconstrue the operative statute or assert specific requirements on the claims at bar that have no basis in law. 12

   a. Because the parties are divorced, Jordan can no longer be credited with Aaron's work quarters, but even if she could, a maximum of four could be credited [Affirmative Defense 7]........ 12

   b. Jordan's receipt of means-tested benefits is not required to enforce the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defenses 4 & 8]. 15

   c. Both the INA and Affidavit of Support unambiguously give Jordan standing to enforce her rights [Affirmative Defense 6]. 17

   d. Under the plain text of the statute, no additional party is required for Jordan to proceed [Affirmative Defense 30] 18

   e. Jordan's alleged absence from the United States would not terminate the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defense 31]. 18

   f. Jordan's remarriage does not terminate the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defense 32]. 19

4. Jordan should be awarded reasonable attorney fees for this motion per 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c) and the cost-shifting provision in the contract. 21

III. CONCLUSION 23

I. FACTS

This is a lawsuit to enforce financial support provisions of U.S. immigration law, 8 U.S.C. § 1183a, and an associated contract termed the United States and Immigration Services Form I-864, Affidavit of Support ("Affidavit of Support"). Complaint, ECF 1, p. 1. Jordan's claim rests on three basic allegations.

First, the Complaint alleges that Defendant Aaron Poulsen served as Plaintiff Jordan Lee Poulsen's immigration sponsor.[1] The Complaint alleges that the parties were married in March 2009. ECF 1, ¶ 14. Aaron, a U.S. citizen, filed a visa petition for Jordan, a Canadian citizen. Id. ¶¶ 9, 11 & 15. Jordan concurrently filed an application seeking U.S. residency. Id., ¶ 16. As required by the INA, Aaron also signed an Affidavit of Support, without which Jordan would have been per se inadmissible on "public charge" grounds. Id., ¶¶ 19 & 22; cf. 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(4)(C)(ii). By executing the Affidavit of Support, Aaron promised to maintain Jordan at 125 percent of the poverty line for her household size. Id., ¶ 32. The Affidavit of Support became a binding contract once filed with Jordan's Residency Application. Id., ¶ 23.

Second, the Complaint alleges that Aaron's duties under the Affidavit of Support were triggered when Jordan's Adjustment Application was approved on August 12, 2009. Id., ¶ 25. This event was the only condition precedent to his obligation to provide assistance. See id., ¶ 38.

[1] Because the parties share a surname, their given names are used to avoid confusion. No disrespect is intended.

Finally, the Complaint alleges that Jordan's income has been below 125 percent of the poverty line and that Aaron has unlawfully failed to provide financial assistance to her. The parties' relationship had been contentious even before marriage, and in November 2009, Aaron petitioned for divorce three months after Jordan obtained U.S. residency. Id., ¶ 40. The divorce was finalized on April 13, 2013, although custody-related litigation continues. Id., ¶¶ 40-41. In the parties' divorce, Jordan agreed to release Aaron from her claims under the Affidavit of Support that existed at that time but expressly reserved her ability to enforce the Affidavit if needed in the future. Complaint, Ex. 7, ECF 1-8, p. 25-26.

Jordan filed her Complaint on May 29, 2025, encompassing a small set of operative facts. The Complaint alleges that each year from 2018 through the present, excluding 2022, Jordan's income has been below 125 percent of the poverty line, and that Aaron has unlawfully withheld financial assistance required by the Affidavit of Support. Id., p. 9. Jordan seeks damages of $87,445, representing the delta between her annual income in years 2018-2024 and 125 percent of the poverty line for each of those years. Complaint, ECF 1, p. 13. She seeks additional damages accrued after January 1, 2025, and an order requiring Aaron to prospectively comply with the Affidavit of Support. Id. pp. 13-14. She also seeks an award of attorney fees under the cost-shifting provision of federal law and the Affidavit of Support. Id., p. 14.

On July 29, 2025, through counsel, Aaron filed an Answer to the Complaint. ECF 11. Aaron agrees that he signed the Affidavit of Support, concedes that the authentic contract is provided with the Complaint, and that it was filed with Jordan's Adjustment Application. Id., ¶¶ 22-23. He also agrees that Jordan's Adjustment Application was approved on August 12, 2009. Id., ¶ 24. These admissions leave primarily Jordan's income as a disputed fact meriting discovery.

The Answer then goes on to assert fully 32 Affirmative Defenses. Answer, ECF 11, pp. 1 & 10-15. These defenses assert that this action is barred by the parties' divorce and a host of defenses sounding in common law. At the parties' initial discovery conference, Plaintiff's counsel explained Jordan's view that the majority of the 32 defenses were not well-founded in law, because uniform case law shows that common law defenses are unavailable to Affidavit sponsors. The parties agree to stay discovery until the Court can address this facial challenge to the Affirmative Defenses. ECF 13.

II. ANALYSIS

The parties' divorce decree does not bar this action because Jordan expressly reserved the right to enforce the Affidavit of Support in the future, and her federal claims are distinct from matrimonial law issues. Aaron's common law defenses fail because federal courts uniformly hold that the common law defenses are unavailable to Affidavit sponsors. Other defenses fail by asserting requirements that do not exist under U.S. immigration law, such as Jordan needing to receive public benefits before bringing this lawsuit.

On the parties' stipulation, the Plaintiff challenges the facial viability of the Affirmative Defenses discussed addressed below. See Order, ECF 15. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(f) allows the Court to strike an "insufficient" or "immaterial" defense. Motions to strike are generally disfavored, and this District has previously held that the pleading standard established by Twombly and Iqbal does not apply to answers. Tiscareno v. Frasier, Civil No. 2:07-cv-336, ECF 209, at *26 (D. Utah Apr. 19, 2012) (memo. op.); see Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007) and Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662 (2009). However, Jordan argues that there are no possible set of facts that could support the defenses discussed below, because they are disallowed by federal law. See Appendix, Table 2 (listing Affirmative Defenses and identifying the section of this motion addressing each Defense).

1. Federal courts uniformly hold that common law defenses are disallowed in actions to enforce the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defenses 12-19, 21-25, 27-29].

Federal courts unanimously hold that the INA does not permit sponsors to raise common law defenses[2] when sued under an Affidavit of Support.[3] The only defense available to a sponsor is that the Affidavit of Support has terminated per one of the five events defined by the INA and its regulations. The categorical inapplicability of common law is fatal to affirmative defenses 12 (waiver), 13 (equitable estoppel), 14 (failure to mitigate), 15 (setoff), 16 (voluntary unemployment), 17 (statute of limitations), 18 (laches), 19 (unclean hands), 21 (accord and satisfaction), 22 (illusory contract), 23 (parole evidence), 25 (statute of frauds), 27 (unjust enrichment), 28 (good faith and fair dealing), and 29 (meeting of the minds).

[2] This motion uses "common law defenses" as a catch-all term to include defenses sounding in non-statutory contract law and traditional equity-based defenses. The arguments presented herein do not rely on historical distinctions between common law and equity, or common law and contract law.

Under the INA and its implementing regulations, only five events conclude a sponsor's duties under the Affidavit of Support. Those five Terminating Events are that the immigrant: (1) becomes a U.S. citizen; (2) has worked or can receive credit for 40 quarters of work under the Social Security Act; (3) is no longer a permanent resident and has departed the U.S; (4) is subject to an order of removal but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status based on a new Affidavit of Support, if required; or (5) dies. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(2) & (a)(3); 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i). Liu v. Mund was the first circuit-level decision to address the application of common law defenses in actions to enforce the Affidavit of Support. 686 F.3d 418. Writing for the Seventh Circuit, Judge Richard Posner addressed whether an Affidavit beneficiary has a "duty to mitigate" damages by seeking employment. Noting that the statute and regulation included nothing about a duty to mitigate, Judge Posner reasoned that "the question is whether reading a duty of mitigation into the immigration statute and the regulations and the affidavit-contract would serve or disserve statutory and regulatory objective." Id., at 421. Since imposing a duty to mitigate would benefit only the sponsor, and does nothing to prevent the immigrant from becoming dependent on public assistance, the Court construed the statute as not allowing that defense. Id. Additionally, the Mund Court reasoned that this construction of the statute would make sponsorship more onerous and would make would-be sponsors less apt to sign the contract. Id., at 422. Notably, the Seventh Circuit reached its holding over the objection of the Government, which argued as amicus that the duty to mitigate should apply. 686 F.3d at 420.

In Belevich v. Thomas, the Eleventh Circuit agreed with Liu v. Mund in disallowing common law defenses. 17 F.4th 1048 (11th Cir. 2021). The Circuit reasoned that a claim under the Affidavit is governed by the INA, which does not incorporate state law. Id. at 1051.The Court rejected the argument that because the federal statute was silent on common law defenses, such defenses were available by default. The "strong language" used in the statute and regulations with respect to the duration of the contract was construed to mean that liability is avoided only upon one of the Terminating Events. Id.; see 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(2) (the contract "shall be enforceable… before"); 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(f) (the sponsor "cannot disavow" the agreement). The Court noted also that the statute "imposes a oneway [sic] obligation on the sponsor," imposing only obligations – "[n]othing in this structure contemplates an equitable remedy or defense for the benefit of a sponsor." Id. (citing Liu, 686 F.3d at 422); see also Rahman v. Chen, 281 F. Supp. 3d 1124, 1126 (W.D. Wash. 2017) (noting that contract defenses are "invalid as a matter of law" in Affidavit lawsuit). The Ninth Circuit has followed the interpretive approach taken by the Seventh Circuit and later by the Eleventh. Cf. Erler v. Erler, 824 F.3d 1173, 1179 (9th Cir. 2016) (citing Mund for the proposition that the statutory purpose of preventing public charges, "is best served by interpreting the affidavit in a way that makes prospective sponsors more cautious about sponsoring immigrants")

District Courts in California, North Carolina, Ohio, Texas, Virginia and Washington have all agreed with Liu and Belevich, holding that common defenses are categorically unavailable to Affidavit of Support sponsors. See Note 3, supra. The Plaintiff is aware of no federal authority that has disagreed.[4] Some district-level decisions have tempered their preemption analysis by cautioning that affirmative defenses are disallowed only when contrary to the statutory purpose of the Affidavit, which is to prevent sponsored immigrants from becoming dependent on taxpayers. See, e.g., Shagoofa, Civ. No. 8:22-cv-1824, Dkt. 72, p. 6 ("…courts within the Ninth Circuit have rejected affirmative defenses, particularly contract-based defenses, that are likely to render an immigrant a public charge or encourage sponsors to enter Affidavits of Support incautiously…"). Yet with that qualification, Courts have still rejected common law defenses.

[4] Some federal decisions address the applicability of common law defenses without considering the issue of whether they were categorically preempted by the statute. In Al Mansour v. Sharim, for example, the Court assumed the defense of unconscionability could be validly raised, but disagreed that the Affidavit met the elements of an unconscionable contract. Civil No. CCB-10-1729 (D. Md. Feb. 2, 2011). But the undersigned is aware of no court that, when presented with the preemption approach taken by Mund and Belevich, has disagreed.

The Affidavit of Support is not a standard contract. Its terms are dictated by the INA and its implementing regulations and the Defendant may avoid liability only as permitted by the five Terminating Events.

2. Jordan's claim under the Affidavit of Support arises under federal law and is not barred by the parties' divorce [Affirmative Defenses 2, 3, 9, 11, 20, & 26].

The Answer asserts four defenses asserting that Jordan is barred from bringing this claim because of the parties' divorce on either procedural (e.g., this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction or "venue") or substantive grounds (e.g., Jordan elected the remedy of resolving this claim in the divorce).[5]

Under the parties' divorce decree, Aaron was required to pay a total of $14,000 in alimony via monthly installments of $200 starting March 2013. Complaint, Ex. 7, ECF 1-8, p. 25-26. The decree recited that the "alimony award is considered a settlement of the parties' I-864 issue." Id., p. 26. However, the decree further clarified,

[5] While the novation defense [Affirmative Defense 20] arguably fails as an impermissible common law defense, Jordan does not dispute that her decree resolved past claims under the Affidavit and that Aaron may show that he complied with $200/month payments past March 2018, as alleged in the Complaint.

> As long as Petitioner [Aaron] is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent shall not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864, Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent (Jordan) covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

Id. (emphasis added). The decree clearly purported to resolve Jordan's claim under the Affidavit of Support that existed at the time of the divorce, but expressly provided that such claims were (1) resolved only as long as Aaron paid $200/month, and (2) expressly reserved Jordan's right to enforce "any potential future liability" under the Affidavit. The Complaint expressly alleges that Aaron continued making payments of $200/month through March 2018 and "has provided no support… since." Complaint, ECF 1, ¶ 45. In his Answer, Aaron agrees that he complied with the $200/month payments but denies the allegation that he ceased payments in March 2018.[6] Answer, ECF 11, ¶ 45.

The parties' divorce, resolved more than a decade ago, was emphatically not Jordan's one chance to enforce the Affidavit of Support. Where, as here, a claim arises under federal law, the Supreme Court recognizes the "virtually unflagging obligation of the federal courts" to hear that claim. Colorado River Water Conservation District v. U.S., 424 U.S. 800, 813 (1976). In Golipour v. Moghaddam, this District rejected an argument advanced by a sponsor that the Affidavit of Support could no longer be enforced because the beneficiary-spouse waived financial support via a postnuptial agreement. 438 F.Supp.3d 1290, 1297-99 (D. Utah 2020). This District considered the rulemaking commentary published with 8 C.F.R. § 213a (governing the Affidavit of Support), which suggests that Affidavit rights can "probably" be waived in a divorce proceeding. Id., at 1298 (citing 71 Fed. Reg. 35732, 35740 (June 21, 2006)). But this Court noted that "[t]he commentary's use of 'probably' was equivocal." Id. Instead, this District followed the Ninth Circuit's holding in Erler v. Erler, that "nuptial agreements do not terminate a Form I-864's financial support obligation." Id. (citing Erler v. Erler, 824 F.3d 1173 (9th Cir. 2016)). This District noted that the Ninth Circuit's approach was consistent with the Seventh Circuit's holding in Mund, that "[t]he right of support conferred by federal law [in the Form I-864] exists apart from whatever rights [a party] might or might not have under [state] divorce law." Id. (quoting Mund, 686 F.3d at 419-20) (bracketed revisions in District decision). In a similar vein, federal courts have consistently held that abstention doctrines do not prevent a sponsored immigrant from pursuing her Affidavit claim simultaneously with divorce proceedings. Because the federal claim is distinct from divorce, abstention doctrines do not prevent concurrent litigation in both forums. See, e.g., Pachal v. Bugreeff, 495 F. Supp. 3d 963, 965 (D. Mont. 2020); Matter of Grabois, 737 Fed. Appx. 338, 339 (9th Cir. 2018) (unpublished); Shah v. Shah, Civil No. 12-4648 (D. N.J. Jan. 14, 2014); Matter of Schwartz, 409 B.R. 240 (1st Cir. 2008). Likewise, federal courts hold that res judicata does not bar a sponsored immigrant from enforcing her claim in federal court where she did not previously raise it in a divorce.[7]

[6] The Complaint's specific factual allegation that Aaron ceased $200/month payments in March 2018 is crystal clear. To avoid running afoul of Rule 11, Aaron must have a good faith basis to assert the contrary. Presumably he will be able to answer discovery probing the basis for his denial.

To the extent that Aaron argues that the parties' divorce proceeding was Jordan's only opportunity to enforce her federal right under the Affidavit of Support, this District disagrees on the view that Jordan's federal claims are separate from her rights under Utah marital law. Golipour, 438 F.Supp.3d at 1298 (citing Mund, 686 F.3d at 419-20). Jordan is not asking this Court to invalidate her prior resolution of past claims under the Affidavit of Support, as memorialized in the parties' divorce decree. The 2013 decree could not prospectively waive Jordan's rights under the Affidavit of Support, Erler, 824 F.3d 1173, nor did it purport to do so. Complaint, Ex. 7, ECF 1-8, p. 26, § 66 ("any potential future liability is not being waived") (emphasis added). Hence, the Court does not lack jurisdiction or "venue" over Jordan's claim (Affirmative Defenses 2 & 3), nor did she 'elect the remedy' of pursuing her claim in the parties' divorce (Affirmative Defense 9).

Affirmative Defense 11 asserts that Jordan's claims are barred in whole or in part because she agreed to accept $200/month in satisfaction of Aaron's federal obligation. Answer, ECF 11, p. 12. Aaron denies Jordan's allegation that he ceased these $200/month payments in March 2018. Complaint, ECF 1, ¶ 45; Answer, ECF Fla. 2019); Matter of Grabois, 737 Fed. Appx. 338, 339 (9th Cir. 2018) (unpublished); Liu v. Kell, 299 F.3d 1128 (W.D. Wash. 2017); Du v. McCarthy, Civil No. 2:14-cv-100 (N.D. Vir. Oct. 21, 2009) (all holding rejecting res judicata defenses asserted by Affidavit sponsors); but see Yaguil v. Lee, Civil No. 2:14-cv-00110, 2014 WL 1400959 (E.D. Cal. April 10, 2014); Matter of Schwartz, 409 B.R. 240 (1st Cir. 2008) (both holding that res judicata barred Affidavit claim).

11, ¶ 45. Jordan concedes that Aaron is entitled to proceed past the pleading stage on this defense but asks the Court to rule that this Defense is facially invalid as to dates after which Aaron ceased $200/month payments. See Complaint, Ex. 7, ECF 1-8, p. 26, § 66 (reserving liability after payments terminate). Aaron should be permitted to continue under Affirmative Defense 11 only to the extent that he he continued paying $200/month after March 2018.

3. Other Affirmative Defenses [3, 6-9, 11, & 30-32] misconstrue the operative statute or assert specific requirements on the claims at bar that have no basis in law.

a. Because the parties are divorced, Jordan can no longer be credited with Aaron's work quarters, but even if she could, a maximum of four could be credited [Affirmative Defense 7].

The Affidavit of Support terminates when a sponsored immigrant has earned or "can be credited" with 40 qualifying quarters of coverage under the Social Security Act. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(3)(A). Affirmative Defense 7 alleges,

> Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff may have accumulated 40 or more quarters of work thereby releasing Defendant of any liability under the terms of the I-864 Affidavit of Support, or alternatively, Plaintiff had the ability to accumulate 40 or more quarters of work and voluntarily chose not to work.

Answer, ECF 11, p. 11.

Here, the parties were married on March 15, 2009. Complaint, ECF 1, ¶ 14; Answer, ECF 11, Answer, ¶ 14. Jordan's Social Security statement, the authenticity of which Aaron does not contest, Complaint, ECF 1, ¶ 46; Answer, ECF 11, Answer, ¶ 46, states that she had earned 32 credits as of January 2025.[8] Complaint, Ex. 5, ECF 1-6. Jordan's official Social Security records show that she has earned 32 quarters of coverage on her own. The parties' divorce was finalized in April 2013. Complaint, ECF 1, ¶ 41; Answer, ECF 11, Answer, ¶ 41.

In addition to a sponsored immigrant's own quarters of work, the INA provides that she may be imputed with all of the qualifying quarters worked by a spouse of such alien during their marriage and the alien remains married to such spouse or such spouse is deceased." 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(3)(B)(ii) (emphasis added). Jordan can no longer be credited with Aaron's quarters of coverage because they are no longer married. Id. But even if the statute were ambiguous on that point (it is not), and even if the Answer alleged that Aaron was earning quarters of coverage during the parties' marriage, Jordan could not be imputed with more than four quarters of coverage from Aaron.

The Social Security Act provides that an individual cannot be credited with more than four quarters of coverage per calendar year. 42 U.S.C. § 413(a)(2)(B)(vii); see also 20 C.F.R. § 404(a) (same). During the parties' marriage, Jordan earned the maximum allowed four quarters per year in 2010 through the parties' divorce in 2013. See Table 2 below. Hence, the only year in which Jordan could be imputed with Aaron's quarters of coverage is 2009. Aaron's quarters of coverage should not be imputed to Jordan because they have not "remain[ed] married," 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(3)(B)(ii). But even if his quarters are imputed to her, she has only four additional quarters through Aaron. Furthermore, because Jordan's Social Security statement shows that she had only 36 quarters of coverage at the end of 2023, even if she earned four additional quarters in 2024 (she did not), she would have obtained 40 quarters only at the end of 2024 and would still have a claim against Aaron for the bulk of the damages sought herein. See Table 1. Aaron is entitled to discovery on Jordan's work history in 2024 and 2025, but the Complaint is not barred on his imputed work history theory.

[8] The Statement does not show earning history for 2024 or 2025, which were not reported when the Statement was issued. Jordan has not worked these years and has not earned additional quarters of coverage. While Aaron's imputed quarters of coverage defense should be dismissed for the reasons argued here, Jordon of course concedes that Aaron is entitled to discovery of her updated Statement, which will be provided with initial disclosures.

b. Jordan's receipt of means-tested benefits is not required to enforce the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defenses 4 & 8].

Congress intended the Affidavit of Support to prevent sponsored immigrants from becoming financially dependent on taxpayer-funded benefits. Mund, 686 F.3d at 421. But the INA does not require a sponsored immigrant to become dependent upon or receive means-tested benefits before enforcing the Affidavit. The Answer asserts that Jordan's claims fail either because she did not receive taxpayer-funded benefits [Affirmative Defense 4] or because the nature of her claim is to indemnify the government after benefits have been provided [Affirmative Defense 8]. Answer, ECF 11, p. 11.

As laid out in the Complaint, Aaron owes three distinct legal obligations under the Affidavit of Support: (1) to maintain Jordan's annual income at 125 percent of the poverty line; (2) to reimburse the government for the cost of any means-tested benefits that Jordan receives; and (3) to timely inform USCIS if Aaron changes addresses. Complaint, 1, p. 6. The first obligation is the one at issue in this lawsuit. Jordan, as a sponsored immigrant, has a cause of action to enforce her individual right to financial assistance from Aaron. 8 U.S.C. § 1183au ("An action to enforce an affidavit of support… may be brought against the sponsor in any appropriate court- (1) by a sponsored alien, with respect to financial support") (emphasis added). Completely apart from Jordan's private right of action, "the appropriate entity of the Federal Government, a State or any political subdivision of a State" can seek reimbursement from Aaron for the cost of means-tested benefits that Jordan receives. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(e)(2). Before the government can maintain such an action, it must first ask the sponsor to voluntarily reimburse the cost of means-tested benefits provided to the sponsored immigrant. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(b)(1)(A); 8 C.F.R. § 213a.4(a)(1)(i). That requirement does not apply to a private action by the sponsored immigrant. See 8 C.F.R. § 213a.4(a)(2).

The only courts to address the issue have concluded that receipt of means-tested benefits is not required for a sponsored immigrant to bring a claim under 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(e)(1). See, e.g., Baines v. Baines, No. E2009-00180-COA-R3-CV, at *7 (Tenn. Ct. App. Nov. 13, 2009); Stump v. Stump, 2005 WL 1290658, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 45729, Civil No. 1:04-cv-253-TS, (N.D. Ind. May 27, 2005); Schwartz v. Schwartz, Civil No. 04-770, 2005 WL 1242171 at *1 (W.D. Okla. 2005). As the Northern District of Indiana reasoned,

> An alien's receipt of means-tested benefits is the subject of an entity's suit for repayment, but is irrelevant to the sponsored alien's cause of action for financial support. Only the sponsor's agreement to provide support to the sponsored alien at 125% of the federal poverty line, see 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A), is relevant to the alien's cause of action.

Stump, 2005 WL 1290658, at *9 (emphasis added). Unsurprisingly, a sponsored immigrant must receive means-tested benefits before the government has reason to sue a sponsor for "reimbursement" of those costs. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(b)(1)(A). But Aaron's separate duty to maintain Jordan at 125 percent of the poverty is not tied in any way to the receipt of public benefits. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A).

c. Both the INA and Affidavit of Support unambiguously give Jordan standing to enforce her rights [Affirmative Defense 6].

The Sixth Affirmative Defense asserts that Jordan "lacks standing to assert the claims contained in the Complaint." Answer, ECF 11, p. 11. The INA, however, unambiguously states that the Affidavit of Support "is legally enforceable against the sponsor by the sponsored alien […]." 8 US.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(B). Implementing regulations, in turn, state that, "The sponsored immigrant… may seek enforcement of the sponsor's obligations through an appropriate civil action." 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(d). Lastly, the Affidavit of Support itself cautioned Aaron that, "[i]f you do not provide sufficient support to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed that person may sue you for this support." Complaint, Ex. 1, ECF 1-2, p. 7 (emphasis added). Every case cited in this brief concerning enforcement of the Affidavit of Support was a lawsuit filed by a sponsored immigrant to enforce their rights under the Form I-864. No known case has ever held that a sponsored immigrant lacks standing to enforce the Affidavit of Support, since the purpose of 8 U.S.C. § 1183a is to make the Affidavit enforceable, cf. 8 US.C. § 1601(4) ("Current eligibility rules for public assistance and unenforceable financial support agreements have proved wholly incapable of assuring that individual aliens not burden the public benefits system."). 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(B).

d. Under the plain text of the statute, no additional party is required for Jordan to proceed [Affirmative Defense 30]

Affirmative Defense 30 states that Jordan has failed to join an allegedly indispensable yet unnamed third party. Answer, ECF 11, p. 15. As argued immediately above, 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(B) unambiguously gives Jordan, as a sponsored immigrant, the right to enforce the Affidavit of Support. The statute neither requires nor permits any other party – including the government – to enforce Aaron's duty to provide financial assistance. Per 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(e)(2), the government can police Aaron's obligation to reimburse the expense of public benefits that Jordan might receive, but under § 1183a(e)(1), only the sponsored immigrant herself can bring an action to enforce Aaron's duty to provide financial assistance. No additional party is required for Jordan to bring this action and the Answer does not suggest who this purportedly indispensable party would be.

e. Jordan's alleged absence from the United States would not terminate the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defense 31].

Affirmative Defense 31 alleges that, "Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff left the United States on extended basis during the claimed periods." Answer, ECF 11, p. 15. Implementing regulations explain that the Affidavit of Support is terminated, inter alia, if the sponsored immigrant, "[c]eases to hold the status of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence and departs the United States." 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i)(C). The Affidavit similarly provides that it is enforceable until, inter alia, the sponsored immigrant "[n]o longer has lawful permanent resident status, and has departed the United States." Complaint, Ex. 1, ECF 1-2, p. 7. This language unambiguously requires two things to happen for an Affidavit to be terminated: the non-citizen must both (1) lose status as an LPR; and also, (2) depart the United States. One event without the other does not terminate the Affidavit. See, e.g., Golipour v. Moghaddam, 438 F. Supp. 3d 1290, 1297 (D. Utah 2020) (noting that loss of residency status alone, without departure from the United States, does not terminate the Affidavit of Support). Even if Jordan had spent "extended" time outside the United States, the Affidavit remains enforceable until she lost status as a resident, which the Answer does not allege and which has not happened.

f. Jordan's remarriage does not terminate the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defense 32].

Affirmative Defense 32 alleges that Jordan's claims are "barred" because she remarried and received "corresponding support" from her new spouse. Answer, ECF 11, p. 5. The INA and implementing regulations do not list remarriage as an event that terminates the Affidavit of Support. Cf. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(3) & 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i). The Affidavit itself cautions expressly that "divorce does not terminate your obligations under this Form I-864." Complaint, Ex. 1, ECF 1-2, p. 7 (emphasis in original). Jordan's remarriage would unquestionably not terminate the Affidavit and does not bar her claims.

Construed generously, Affirmative Defense 32 might assert a different theory: that imputed income from Jordan's new spouse places her above 125 percent of the poverty line. Federal law define how to determine household size when it comes to a sponsor's obligation to provide financial support. Regulations define household size only with respect to how an individual shows the financial wherewithal to serve as a sponsor. 8 C.F.R. § 213a.1 (defining household size to include the sponsor). The Ninth Circuit holds that household size for damages under the Affidavit is based exclusively on the number of intending immigrants listed on an Affidavit. In In Erler v. Erler, a sponsored immigrant was entitled to the full measure of support owed to her as a household of one, even though she was living with her adult son and receiving assistance from him. 824 F.3d 1173. To determine whether the sponsor had breached his support duty, the District Court looked at the combined income of both the sponsored immigrant and the adult son, with whom she lived. Id., at 1177-78. The Ninth Circuit reversed, holding that income level must be assessed based on the number of individuals sponsored by a given Affidavit of Support (there, the mother alone). Id., at 1178. Likewise, Jordan's damages under the Affidavit will be calculated exclusively based on a household size of one because she was the only sponsored immigrant, regardless of remarriage. See also Eugenio v. Eugenio, Civil No. 4:23-cv-02832-HSG, Dkt. 62, p. 8-9 (N.D. Cal. May 1, 2024) (holding that under Erler, sponsored immigrants were entitled to the calculation of damages without consideration of in-kind support received from other adult family members with whom they resided). But even if this Court were to depart from the Ninth Circuit and hold that Jordan's household includes her new spouse, this would go to the calculation of damages rather than whether Jordan's claim is "barred" per se, as alleged by Affirmative Defense 32.

4. Jordan should be awarded reasonable attorney fees for this motion per 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c) and the cost-shifting provision in the contract.

Congress has made clear that when an immigrant is forced to sue her sponsor under the Affidavit of Support, the cost of that enforcement is shifted to the sponsor. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c). Here, Aaron pleaded a vast array of affirmative defenses, the bulk of which were either facially implausible or contrary to the operative statute. He – rather than Jordan – should bear the cost of culling through these scattershot theories.

When a statute provides for attorney fees, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(d)(2)(B) requires that such a motion be brought no later than 14 days after a judgment, but does not prohibit the motion from being brought earlier, even prior to a judgment. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c) provides, "Remedies available to enforce an affidavit of support under this section include… payment of legal fees and other costs of collection…" This is not a "prevailing party" provision, but rather a one-sided mechanism that makes fees available to plaintiffs enforcing the Affidavit of Support. Yaguil v. Lee, Civ. No. 2:14-cv-00110, at *4 (E.D. Cal. Aug. 12, 2014).

In Shagoofa v. Eshaqzi, sponsors sued under the Affidavit of Support asserted 13 affirmative defenses, sounding in common law.[9] Civ. No. 8:22-cv-01824,

[9] The defenses asserted were: failure to state a claim; fraud at the inception of marriage; collateral source setoff; failure to mitigate; unclean hands and laches; waiver and estoppel; due process; infringement on marital and familial rights; lack of consideration; duress; void for vagueness or lack of definite terms; unconscionable; and illusory contract.

ECF 72, at *3 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 26, 2024) (courtesy copy attached). As here, the plaintiff attacked the defenses as facially implausible under Rule 12 in light of cases holding that common law defenses are unavailable to sponsors. Id. While there was no controlling circuit authority, the Shagoofa Court ruled – consistent with unanimous district court decisions around the country – that the defenses were unavailable to the sponsor-defendants. Id., at *6-7. The Court then concluded that the plaintiff, "properly seeks fees pursuant to a fee-shifting statute." Id., at *8. The Court granted fees to undersigned lead counsel in the amount of $2,844 at a rate of $600/hour. Id., at *12.

Similarly, in Mao v. Bright, the Southern District of Ohio awarded $13,806 in attorney fees to undersigned lead counsel when granting a preliminary injunction to compel an Affidavit sponsor to comply with his support obligation. Civ. No. 3:22-cv-201, at *15 (S.D. Ohio Dec. 8, 2022) (courtesy copy attached). In awarding pre-judgment fees to the plaintiff, the Court relied on 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c). The Court reasoned,

> …the record shows that Plaintiff's counsel, Greg McLawsen, gave Defendant the opportunity to voluntarily comply with his financial obligations under the I-864 prior to filing this lawsuit and, again, prior to filing the Motion for Preliminary Injunction. Because Defendant repeatedly rebuffed those informal attempts, he caused Plaintiff to incur thousands of additional dollars in legal fees to enforce her rights.

Id. at 14. Likewise, in Jubber v. Jubber, an Affidavit of Support plaintiff prevailed in a preliminary injunction motion and fees were awarded. No. 1:19-cv-00717, (D. Md. Sep. 9, 2019). The parties thereafter settled the case and deferred to the Court on the issue of fees associated with litigating the injunction motion, which were ordered in the amount of $38,653. Id., Dkt. 55 (D. Md. Sep. 9, 2019) (finding fees appropriate but ordering recalculation of the same) & Dkt. 60 (judgment for fees $38,653). Undersigned lead counsel represented the plaintiff in Jubber.

Here, Jordan notified Aaron that his affirmative defenses were facially implausible. Rather than voluntarily withdraw those defenses, Aaron has forced Jordan – and now the Court – to invest time and effort to cull through his invalid defenses. See ECF 13 (Aug. 11, 2025) (stipulating to phase discovery to allow challenge to defenses). As in Shagoofa, Mao and Jubber, Aaron's tactical decision to assert these defenses imposes a real-world cost on Jordan and on the Court. Congress has said that he, not Jordan, should bear this cost. Because the Answer asserted fully 32 defenses, the foregoing brief was significantly more involved than the one for which fees were awarded in the Shagoofa litigation.

A fee award may serve a further practical purpose. When confronted with the true cost of this litigation early on, Aaron may rethink the wisdom paying a team of multiple attorneys to litigate this matter rather than coming to the table to negotiate an efficient resolution.[10]

[10] A similar case filed in this District by undersigned counsel at virtually the same time as this matter has already been fully resolved without litigation. See Ivarsson v. Pokluda, Civ. No. 1:25-cv-00071-JCB, ECF 1, Complaint (May 29, 2025) & ECF 22, Notice of Settlement (Sep. 5, 2025). Aaron is entitled to contest this litigation as vigorously as he may choose, but he should bear the associated costs.

III. CONCLUSION

This litigation should proceed to discovery on the limited set of facts that actually matter. Aaron is entitled to discovery on Jordan's income since 2013, along with her updated Social Security records. Jordan, in turn, can assess the basis for Aaron's claim that he continued to provide past March 2018. But the discrete enforcement claims in the Complaint should not give rise to the sprawling litigation evinced by the 32 Affirmative Defenses asserted in the Answer. The Court should dismiss Affirmative Defenses 2-4, 6, 8-10 & 12-32. As to Affirmative Defense 7, the Court should rule that Aaron's work history is not imputed following divorce, or alternatively that Joran has a maximum of four imputed quarters from Aaron. The Court should rule that Affirmative Defense 11 is valid only to the extent Aaron continued making $200/month support payments past March 2018. Further, Jordan should be awarded the expense of litigating this motion as envisioned by Congress when it charged sponsored immigrants with enforcing the financial support requirements of the INA.

JORDAN LEE POULSEN, Plaintiff, v. AARON POULSEN, Defendant.	PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO STRIKE AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES [2-4, 6-32] AND FOR ATTORNEY FEES No. 2:25-cv-00425-JCB

Plaintiff Jordan Lee Poulsen moves the Court to strike affirmative defenses pled in the Answer. The defenses are either categorically disallowed by the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as uniformly recognized by federal courts, or allege novel requirements that do not apply to the claims at bar. The Plaintiff further requests an award of reasonable attorney fees for this motion, under the cost-shifting provision of the INA.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. FACTS 1

II. ANALYSIS 3

1. Federal courts uniformly hold that common law defenses are disallowed in actions to enforce the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defenses 12-19, 21-25, 27-29]. 4

2. Jordan's claim under the Affidavit of Support arises under federal law and is not barred by the parties' divorce [Affirmative Defenses 2, 3, 9, 11, 20 & 26]. 8

3. Other Affirmative Defenses [3, 6-9, 11, & 30-32] misconstrue the operative statute or assert specific requirements on the claims at bar that have no basis in law. 12

   a. Because the parties are divorced, Jordan can no longer be credited with Aaron's work quarters, but even if she could, a maximum of four could be credited [Affirmative Defense 7]. 12

   b. Jordan's receipt of means-tested benefits is not required to enforce the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defenses 4 & 8]. 15

   c. Both the INA and Affidavit of Support unambiguously give Jordan standing to enforce her rights [Affirmative Defense 6]. 17

   d. Under the plain text of the statute, no additional party is required for Jordan to proceed [Affirmative Defense 30] 18

   e. Jordan's alleged absence from the United States would not terminate the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defense 31]. 18

   f. Jordan's remarriage does not terminate the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defense 32]. 19

4. Jordan should be awarded reasonable attorney fees for this motion per 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c) and the cost-shifting provision in the contract. 21

III. CONCLUSION 23

I. FACTS

This is a lawsuit to enforce financial support provisions of U.S. immigration law, 8 U.S.C. § 1183a, and an associated contract termed the United States and Immigration Services Form I-864, Affidavit of Support ("Affidavit of Support"). Complaint, ECF 1, p. 1. Jordan's claim rests on three basic allegations.

First, the Complaint alleges that Defendant Aaron Poulsen served as Plaintiff Jordan Lee Poulsen's immigration sponsor.[1] The Complaint alleges that the parties were married in March 2009. ECF 1, ¶ 14. Aaron, a U.S. citizen, filed a visa petition for Jordan, a Canadian citizen. Id. ¶¶ 9, 11 & 15. Jordan concurrently filed an application seeking U.S. residency. Id., ¶ 16. As required by the INA, Aaron also signed an Affidavit of Support, without which Jordan would have been per se inadmissible on "public charge" grounds. Id., ¶¶ 19 & 22; cf. 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(4)(C)(ii). By executing the Affidavit of Support, Aaron promised to maintain Jordan at 125 percent of the poverty line for her household size. Id., ¶ 32. The Affidavit of Support became a binding contract once filed with Jordan's Residency Application. Id., ¶ 23.

Second, the Complaint alleges that Aaron's duties under the Affidavit of Support were triggered when Jordan's Adjustment Application was approved on August 12, 2009. Id., ¶ 25. This event was the only condition precedent to his obligation to provide assistance. See id., ¶ 38.

[1] Because the parties share a surname, their given names are used to avoid confusion. No disrespect is intended.

Finally, the Complaint alleges that Jordan's income has been below 125 percent of the poverty line and that Aaron has unlawfully failed to provide financial assistance to her. The parties' relationship had been contentious even before marriage, and in November 2009, Aaron petitioned for divorce three months after Jordan obtained U.S. residency. Id., ¶ 40. The divorce was finalized on April 13, 2013, although custody-related litigation continues. Id., ¶¶ 40-41. In the parties' divorce, Jordan agreed to release Aaron from her claims under the Affidavit of Support that existed at that time but expressly reserved her ability to enforce the Affidavit if needed in the future. Complaint, Ex. 7, ECF 1-8, p. 25-26.

Jordan filed her Complaint on May 29, 2025, encompassing a small set of operative facts. The Complaint alleges that each year from 2018 through the present, excluding 2022, Jordan's income has been below 125 percent of the poverty line, and that Aaron has unlawfully withheld financial assistance required by the Affidavit of Support. Id., p. 9. Jordan seeks damages of $87,445, representing the delta between her annual income in years 2018-2024 and 125 percent of the poverty line for each of those years. Complaint, ECF 1, p. 13. She seeks additional damages accrued after January 1, 2025, and an order requiring Aaron to prospectively comply with the Affidavit of Support. Id. pp. 13-14. She also seeks an award of attorney fees under the cost-shifting provision of federal law and the Affidavit of Support. Id., p. 14.

On July 29, 2025, through counsel, Aaron filed an Answer to the Complaint. ECF 11. Aaron agrees that he signed the Affidavit of Support, concedes that the authentic contract is provided with the Complaint, and that it was filed with Jordan's Adjustment Application. Id., ¶¶ 22-23. He also agrees that Jordan's Adjustment Application was approved on August 12, 2009. Id., ¶ 24. These admissions leave primarily Jordan's income as a disputed fact meriting discovery.

The Answer then goes on to assert fully 32 Affirmative Defenses. Answer, ECF 11, pp. 1 & 10-15. These defenses assert that this action is barred by the parties' divorce and a host of defenses sounding in common law. At the parties' initial discovery conference, Plaintiff's counsel explained Jordan's view that the majority of the 32 defenses were not well-founded in law, because uniform case law shows that common law defenses are unavailable to Affidavit sponsors. The parties agree to stay discovery until the Court can address this facial challenge to the Affirmative Defenses. ECF 13.

II. ANALYSIS

The parties' divorce decree does not bar this action because Jordan expressly reserved the right to enforce the Affidavit of Support in the future, and her federal claims are distinct from matrimonial law issues. Aaron's common law defenses fail because federal courts uniformly hold that the common law defenses are unavailable to Affidavit sponsors. Other defenses fail by asserting requirements that do not exist under U.S. immigration law, such as Jordan needing to receive public benefits before bringing this lawsuit.

On the parties' stipulation, the Plaintiff challenges the facial viability of the Affirmative Defenses discussed addressed below. See Order, ECF 15. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(f) allows the Court to strike an "insufficient" or "immaterial" defense. Motions to strike are generally disfavored, and this District has previously held that the pleading standard established by Twombly and Iqbal does not apply to answers. Tiscareno v. Frasier, Civil No. 2:07-cv-336, ECF 209, at *26 (D. Utah Apr. 19, 2012) (memo. op.); see Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007) and Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662 (2009). However, Jordan argues that there are no possible set of facts that could support the defenses discussed below, because they are disallowed by federal law. See Appendix, Table 2 (listing Affirmative Defenses and identifying the section of this motion addressing each Defense).

1. Federal courts uniformly hold that common law defenses are disallowed in actions to enforce the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defenses 12-19, 21-25, 27-29].

Federal courts unanimously hold that the INA does not permit sponsors to raise common law defenses[2] when sued under an Affidavit of Support.[3] The only defense available to a sponsor is that the Affidavit of Support has terminated per one of the five events defined by the INA and its regulations. The categorical inapplicability of common law is fatal to affirmative defenses 12 (waiver), 13 (equitable estoppel), 14 (failure to mitigate), 15 (setoff), 16 (voluntary unemployment), 17 (statute of limitations), 18 (laches), 19 (unclean hands), 21 (accord and satisfaction), 22 (illusory contract), 23 (parole evidence), 25 (statute of frauds), 27 (unjust enrichment), 28 (good faith and fair dealing), and 29 (meeting of the minds).

[2] This motion uses "common law defenses" as a catch-all term to include defenses sounding in non-statutory contract law and traditional equity-based defenses. The arguments presented herein do not rely on historical distinctions between common law and equity, or common law and contract law.

Under the INA and its implementing regulations, only five events conclude a sponsor's duties under the Affidavit of Support. Those five Terminating Events are that the immigrant: (1) becomes a U.S. citizen; (2) has worked or can receive credit for 40 quarters of work under the Social Security Act; (3) is no longer a permanent resident and has departed the U.S; (4) is subject to an order of removal but applies for and obtains in removal proceedings a new grant of adjustment of status based on a new Affidavit of Support, if required; or (5) dies. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(2) & (a)(3); 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i). Liu v. Mund was the first circuit-level decision to address the application of common law defenses in actions to enforce the Affidavit of Support. 686 F.3d 418. Writing for the Seventh Circuit, Judge Richard Posner addressed whether an Affidavit beneficiary has a "duty to mitigate" damages by seeking employment. Noting that the statute and regulation included nothing about a duty to mitigate, Judge Posner reasoned that "the question is whether reading a duty of mitigation into the immigration statute and the regulations and the affidavit-contract would serve or disserve statutory and regulatory objective." Id., at 421. Since imposing a duty to mitigate would benefit only the sponsor, and does nothing to prevent the immigrant from becoming dependent on public assistance, the Court construed the statute as not allowing that defense. Id. Additionally, the Mund Court reasoned that this construction of the statute would make sponsorship more onerous and would make would-be sponsors less apt to sign the contract. Id., at 422. Notably, the Seventh Circuit reached its holding over the objection of the Government, which argued as amicus that the duty to mitigate should apply. 686 F.3d at 420.

In Belevich v. Thomas, the Eleventh Circuit agreed with Liu v. Mund in disallowing common law defenses. 17 F.4th 1048 (11th Cir. 2021). The Circuit reasoned that a claim under the Affidavit is governed by the INA, which does not incorporate state law. Id. at 1051.The Court rejected the argument that because the federal statute was silent on common law defenses, such defenses were available by default. The "strong language" used in the statute and regulations with respect to the duration of the contract was construed to mean that liability is avoided only upon one of the Terminating Events. Id.; see 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(2) (the contract "shall be enforceable… before"); 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(f) (the sponsor "cannot disavow" the agreement). The Court noted also that the statute "imposes a oneway [sic] obligation on the sponsor," imposing only obligations – "[n]othing in this structure contemplates an equitable remedy or defense for the benefit of a sponsor." Id. (citing Liu, 686 F.3d at 422); see also Rahman v. Chen, 281 F. Supp. 3d 1124, 1126 (W.D. Wash. 2017) (noting that contract defenses are "invalid as a matter of law" in Affidavit lawsuit). The Ninth Circuit has followed the interpretive approach taken by the Seventh Circuit and later by the Eleventh. Cf. Erler v. Erler, 824 F.3d 1173, 1179 (9th Cir. 2016) (citing Mund for the proposition that the statutory purpose of preventing public charges, "is best served by interpreting the affidavit in a way that makes prospective sponsors more cautious about sponsoring immigrants")

District Courts in California, North Carolina, Ohio, Texas, Virginia and Washington have all agreed with Liu and Belevich, holding that common defenses are categorically unavailable to Affidavit of Support sponsors. See Note 3, supra. The Plaintiff is aware of no federal authority that has disagreed.[4] Some district-level decisions have tempered their preemption analysis by cautioning that affirmative defenses are disallowed only when contrary to the statutory purpose of the Affidavit, which is to prevent sponsored immigrants from becoming dependent on taxpayers. See, e.g., Shagoofa, Civ. No. 8:22-cv-1824, Dkt. 72, p. 6 ("…courts within the Ninth Circuit have rejected affirmative defenses, particularly contract-based defenses, that are likely to render an immigrant a public charge or encourage sponsors to enter Affidavits of Support incautiously…"). Yet with that qualification, Courts have still rejected common law defenses.

[4] Some federal decisions address the applicability of common law defenses without considering the issue of whether they were categorically preempted by the statute. In Al Mansour v. Sharim, for example, the Court assumed the defense of unconscionability could be validly raised, but disagreed that the Affidavit met the elements of an unconscionable contract. Civil No. CCB-10-1729 (D. Md. Feb. 2, 2011). But the undersigned is aware of no court that, when presented with the preemption approach taken by Mund and Belevich, has disagreed.

The Affidavit of Support is not a standard contract. Its terms are dictated by the INA and its implementing regulations and the Defendant may avoid liability only as permitted by the five Terminating Events.

2. Jordan's claim under the Affidavit of Support arises under federal law and is not barred by the parties' divorce [Affirmative Defenses 2, 3, 9, 11, 20, & 26].

The Answer asserts four defenses asserting that Jordan is barred from bringing this claim because of the parties' divorce on either procedural (e.g., this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction or "venue") or substantive grounds (e.g., Jordan elected the remedy of resolving this claim in the divorce).[5]

Under the parties' divorce decree, Aaron was required to pay a total of $14,000 in alimony via monthly installments of $200 starting March 2013. Complaint, Ex. 7, ECF 1-8, p. 25-26. The decree recited that the "alimony award is considered a settlement of the parties' I-864 issue." Id., p. 26. However, the decree further clarified,

[5] While the novation defense [Affirmative Defense 20] arguably fails as an impermissible common law defense, Jordan does not dispute that her decree resolved past claims under the Affidavit and that Aaron may show that he complied with $200/month payments past March 2018, as alleged in the Complaint.

> As long as Petitioner [Aaron] is paying the $200.00 per month, Respondent shall not seek to enforce or collect on the I-864, Affidavit of Support in this action or in any other court of law for the time period during which the $200.00 per month is being paid, and Respondent (Jordan) covenants not to execute in any way on the I-864 Affidavit of Support provided that the $200.00 per month is being paid. Thus, the I-864 debt currently owed is being settled and waived; however, any potential future liability is not being waived.

Id. (emphasis added). The decree clearly purported to resolve Jordan's claim under the Affidavit of Support that existed at the time of the divorce, but expressly provided that such claims were (1) resolved only as long as Aaron paid $200/month, and (2) expressly reserved Jordan's right to enforce "any potential future liability" under the Affidavit. The Complaint expressly alleges that Aaron continued making payments of $200/month through March 2018 and "has provided no support… since." Complaint, ECF 1, ¶ 45. In his Answer, Aaron agrees that he complied with the $200/month payments but denies the allegation that he ceased payments in March 2018.[6] Answer, ECF 11, ¶ 45.

The parties' divorce, resolved more than a decade ago, was emphatically not Jordan's one chance to enforce the Affidavit of Support. Where, as here, a claim arises under federal law, the Supreme Court recognizes the "virtually unflagging obligation of the federal courts" to hear that claim. Colorado River Water Conservation District v. U.S., 424 U.S. 800, 813 (1976). In Golipour v. Moghaddam, this District rejected an argument advanced by a sponsor that the Affidavit of Support could no longer be enforced because the beneficiary-spouse waived financial support via a postnuptial agreement. 438 F.Supp.3d 1290, 1297-99 (D. Utah 2020). This District considered the rulemaking commentary published with 8 C.F.R. § 213a (governing the Affidavit of Support), which suggests that Affidavit rights can "probably" be waived in a divorce proceeding. Id., at 1298 (citing 71 Fed. Reg. 35732, 35740 (June 21, 2006)). But this Court noted that "[t]he commentary's use of 'probably' was equivocal." Id. Instead, this District followed the Ninth Circuit's holding in Erler v. Erler, that "nuptial agreements do not terminate a Form I-864's financial support obligation." Id. (citing Erler v. Erler, 824 F.3d 1173 (9th Cir. 2016)). This District noted that the Ninth Circuit's approach was consistent with the Seventh Circuit's holding in Mund, that "[t]he right of support conferred by federal law [in the Form I-864] exists apart from whatever rights [a party] might or might not have under [state] divorce law." Id. (quoting Mund, 686 F.3d at 419-20) (bracketed revisions in District decision). In a similar vein, federal courts have consistently held that abstention doctrines do not prevent a sponsored immigrant from pursuing her Affidavit claim simultaneously with divorce proceedings. Because the federal claim is distinct from divorce, abstention doctrines do not prevent concurrent litigation in both forums. See, e.g., Pachal v. Bugreeff, 495 F. Supp. 3d 963, 965 (D. Mont. 2020); Matter of Grabois, 737 Fed. Appx. 338, 339 (9th Cir. 2018) (unpublished); Shah v. Shah, Civil No. 12-4648 (D. N.J. Jan. 14, 2014); Matter of Schwartz, 409 B.R. 240 (1st Cir. 2008). Likewise, federal courts hold that res judicata does not bar a sponsored immigrant from enforcing her claim in federal court where she did not previously raise it in a divorce.[7]

[6] The Complaint's specific factual allegation that Aaron ceased $200/month payments in March 2018 is crystal clear. To avoid running afoul of Rule 11, Aaron must have a good faith basis to assert the contrary. Presumably he will be able to answer discovery probing the basis for his denial.

To the extent that Aaron argues that the parties' divorce proceeding was Jordan's only opportunity to enforce her federal right under the Affidavit of Support, this District disagrees on the view that Jordan's federal claims are separate from her rights under Utah marital law. Golipour, 438 F.Supp.3d at 1298 (citing Mund, 686 F.3d at 419-20). Jordan is not asking this Court to invalidate her prior resolution of past claims under the Affidavit of Support, as memorialized in the parties' divorce decree. The 2013 decree could not prospectively waive Jordan's rights under the Affidavit of Support, Erler, 824 F.3d 1173, nor did it purport to do so. Complaint, Ex. 7, ECF 1-8, p. 26, § 66 ("any potential future liability is not being waived") (emphasis added). Hence, the Court does not lack jurisdiction or "venue" over Jordan's claim (Affirmative Defenses 2 & 3), nor did she 'elect the remedy' of pursuing her claim in the parties' divorce (Affirmative Defense 9).

Affirmative Defense 11 asserts that Jordan's claims are barred in whole or in part because she agreed to accept $200/month in satisfaction of Aaron's federal obligation. Answer, ECF 11, p. 12. Aaron denies Jordan's allegation that he ceased these $200/month payments in March 2018. Complaint, ECF 1, ¶ 45; Answer, ECF

[7] See, e.g., Stewart v. Warren, Adv. Pro. 24-03005, ECF 33 (N.D. Ohio Mar. 4, 2025); Mao v. Bright, 645 F.Supp.3d 805, 811-12 (S.D. Ohio 2022); Greiner v. De Capri, 403 F.Supp.3d 1207 (N.D. Fla. 2019); Matter of Grabois, 737 Fed. Appx. 338, 339 (9th Cir. 2018) (unpublished); Liu v. Kell, 299 F.3d 1128 (W.D. Wash. 2017); Du v. McCarthy, Civil No. 2:14-cv-100 (N.D. Vir. Oct. 21, 2009) (all holding rejecting res judicata defenses asserted by Affidavit sponsors); but see Yaguil v. Lee, Civil No. 2:14-cv-00110, 2014 WL 1400959 (E.D. Cal. April 10, 2014); Matter of Schwartz, 409 B.R. 240 (1st Cir. 2008) (both holding that res judicata barred Affidavit claim).

11, ¶ 45. Jordan concedes that Aaron is entitled to proceed past the pleading stage on this defense but asks the Court to rule that this Defense is facially invalid as to dates after which Aaron ceased $200/month payments. See Complaint, Ex. 7, ECF 1-8, p. 26, § 66 (reserving liability after payments terminate). Aaron should be permitted to continue under Affirmative Defense 11 only to the extent that he he continued paying $200/month after March 2018.

3. Other Affirmative Defenses [3, 6-9, 11, & 30-32] misconstrue the operative statute or assert specific requirements on the claims at bar that have no basis in law.

a. Because the parties are divorced, Jordan can no longer be credited with Aaron's work quarters, but even if she could, a maximum of four could be credited [Affirmative Defense 7].

The Affidavit of Support terminates when a sponsored immigrant has earned or "can be credited" with 40 qualifying quarters of coverage under the Social Security Act. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(3)(A). Affirmative Defense 7 alleges,

> Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff may have accumulated 40 or more quarters of work thereby releasing Defendant of any liability under the terms of the I-864 Affidavit of Support, or alternatively, Plaintiff had the ability to accumulate 40 or more quarters of work and voluntarily chose not to work.

Answer, ECF 11, p. 11.

Here, the parties were married on March 15, 2009. Complaint, ECF 1, ¶ 14; Answer, ECF 11, Answer, ¶ 14. Jordan's Social Security statement, the authenticity of which Aaron does not contest, Complaint, ECF 1, ¶ 46; Answer, ECF 11, Answer, ¶ 46, states that she had earned 32 credits as of January 2025.[8] Complaint, Ex. 5, ECF 1-6. Jordan's official Social Security records show that she has earned 32 quarters of coverage on her own. The parties' divorce was finalized in April 2013. Complaint, ECF 1, ¶ 41; Answer, ECF 11, Answer, ¶ 41.

In addition to a sponsored immigrant's own quarters of work, the INA provides that she may be imputed with all of the qualifying quarters worked by a spouse of such alien during their marriage and the alien remains married to such spouse or such spouse is deceased." 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(3)(B)(ii) (emphasis added). Jordan can no longer be credited with Aaron's quarters of coverage because they are no longer married. Id. But even if the statute were ambiguous on that point (it is not), and even if the Answer alleged that Aaron was earning quarters of coverage during the parties' marriage, Jordan could not be imputed with more than four quarters of coverage from Aaron.

The Social Security Act provides that an individual cannot be credited with more than four quarters of coverage per calendar year. 42 U.S.C. § 413(a)(2)(B)(vii); see also 20 C.F.R. § 404(a) (same). During the parties' marriage, Jordan earned the maximum allowed four quarters per year in 2010 through the parties' divorce in 2013. See Table 2 below. Hence, the only year in which Jordan could be imputed with Aaron's quarters of coverage is 2009. Aaron's quarters of coverage should not be imputed to Jordan because they have not "remain[ed] married," 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(3)(B)(ii). But even if his quarters are imputed to her, she has only four additional quarters through Aaron. Furthermore, because Jordan's Social Security statement shows that she had only 36 quarters of coverage at the end of 2023, even if she earned four additional quarters in 2024 (she did not), she would have obtained 40 quarters only at the end of 2024 and would still have a claim against Aaron for the bulk of the damages sought herein. See Table 1. Aaron is entitled to discovery on Jordan's work history in 2024 and 2025, but the Complaint is not barred on his imputed work history theory.

[8] The Statement does not show earning history for 2024 or 2025, which were not reported when the Statement was issued. Jordan has not worked these years and has not earned additional quarters of coverage. While Aaron's imputed quarters of coverage defense should be dismissed for the reasons argued here, Jordon of course concedes that Aaron is entitled to discovery of her updated Statement, which will be provided with initial disclosures.

b. Jordan's receipt of means-tested benefits is not required to enforce the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defenses 4 & 8].

Congress intended the Affidavit of Support to prevent sponsored immigrants from becoming financially dependent on taxpayer-funded benefits. Mund, 686 F.3d at 421. But the INA does not require a sponsored immigrant to become dependent upon or receive means-tested benefits before enforcing the Affidavit. The Answer asserts that Jordan's claims fail either because she did not receive taxpayer-funded benefits [Affirmative Defense 4] or because the nature of her claim is to indemnify the government after benefits have been provided [Affirmative Defense 8]. Answer, ECF 11, p. 11.

As laid out in the Complaint, Aaron owes three distinct legal obligations under the Affidavit of Support: (1) to maintain Jordan's annual income at 125 percent of the poverty line; (2) to reimburse the government for the cost of any means-tested benefits that Jordan receives; and (3) to timely inform USCIS if Aaron changes addresses. Complaint, 1, p. 6. The first obligation is the one at issue in this lawsuit. Jordan, as a sponsored immigrant, has a cause of action to enforce her individual right to financial assistance from Aaron. 8 U.S.C. § 1183au ("An action to enforce an affidavit of support… may be brought against the sponsor in any appropriate court- (1) by a sponsored alien, with respect to financial support") (emphasis added). Completely apart from Jordan's private right of action, "the appropriate entity of the Federal Government, a State or any political subdivision of a State" can seek reimbursement from Aaron for the cost of means-tested benefits that Jordan receives. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(e)(2). Before the government can maintain such an action, it must first ask the sponsor to voluntarily reimburse the cost of means-tested benefits provided to the sponsored immigrant. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(b)(1)(A); 8 C.F.R. § 213a.4(a)(1)(i). That requirement does not apply to a private action by the sponsored immigrant. See 8 C.F.R. § 213a.4(a)(2).

The only courts to address the issue have concluded that receipt of means-tested benefits is not required for a sponsored immigrant to bring a claim under 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(e)(1). See, e.g., Baines v. Baines, No. E2009-00180-COA-R3-CV, at *7 (Tenn. Ct. App. Nov. 13, 2009); Stump v. Stump, 2005 WL 1290658, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 45729, Civil No. 1:04-cv-253-TS, (N.D. Ind. May 27, 2005); Schwartz v. Schwartz, Civil No. 04-770, 2005 WL 1242171 at *1 (W.D. Okla. 2005). As the Northern District of Indiana reasoned,

> An alien's receipt of means-tested benefits is the subject of an entity's suit for repayment, but is irrelevant to the sponsored alien's cause of action for financial support. Only the sponsor's agreement to provide support to the sponsored alien at 125% of the federal poverty line, see 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A), is relevant to the alien's cause of action.

Stump, 2005 WL 1290658, at *9 (emphasis added). Unsurprisingly, a sponsored immigrant must receive means-tested benefits before the government has reason to sue a sponsor for “reimbursement” of those costs. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(b)(1)(A). But Aaron’s separate duty to maintain Jordan at 125 percent of the poverty is not tied in any way to the receipt of public benefits. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(A).

c. Both the INA and Affidavit of Support unambiguously give Jordan standing to enforce her rights [Affirmative Defense 6].

The Sixth Affirmative Defense asserts that Jordan "lacks standing to assert the claims contained in the Complaint." Answer, ECF 11, p. 11. The INA, however, unambiguously states that the Affidavit of Support "is legally enforceable against the sponsor by the sponsored alien […]." 8 US.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(B). Implementing regulations, in turn, state that, "The sponsored immigrant… may seek enforcement of the sponsor's obligations through an appropriate civil action." 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(d). Lastly, the Affidavit of Support itself cautioned Aaron that, "[i]f you do not provide sufficient support to the person who becomes a permanent resident based on the Form I-864 that you signed that person may sue you for this support." Complaint, Ex. 1, ECF 1-2, p. 7 (emphasis added). Every case cited in this brief concerning enforcement of the Affidavit of Support was a lawsuit filed by a sponsored immigrant to enforce their rights under the Form I-864. No known case has ever held that a sponsored immigrant lacks standing to enforce the Affidavit of Support, since the purpose of 8 U.S.C. § 1183a is to make the Affidavit enforceable, cf. 8 US.C. § 1601(4) ("Current eligibility rules for public assistance and unenforceable financial support agreements have proved wholly incapable of assuring that individual aliens not burden the public benefits system."). 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(B).

d. Under the plain text of the statute, no additional party is required for Jordan to proceed [Affirmative Defense 30]

Affirmative Defense 30 states that Jordan has failed to join an allegedly indispensable yet unnamed third party. Answer, ECF 11, p. 15. As argued immediately above, 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(1)(B) unambiguously gives Jordan, as a sponsored immigrant, the right to enforce the Affidavit of Support. The statute neither requires nor permits any other party – including the government – to enforce Aaron's duty to provide financial assistance. Per 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(e)(2), the government can police Aaron's obligation to reimburse the expense of public benefits that Jordan might receive, but under § 1183a(e)(1), only the sponsored immigrant herself can bring an action to enforce Aaron's duty to provide financial assistance. No additional party is required for Jordan to bring this action and the Answer does not suggest who this purportedly indispensable party would be.

e. Jordan's alleged absence from the United States would not terminate the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defense 31].

Affirmative Defense 31 alleges that, "Plaintiff's claims may be barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff left the United States on extended basis during the claimed periods." Answer, ECF 11, p. 15. Implementing regulations explain that the Affidavit of Support is terminated, inter alia, if the sponsored immigrant, "[c]eases to hold the status of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence and departs the United States." 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i)(C). The Affidavit similarly provides that it is enforceable until, inter alia, the sponsored immigrant "[n]o longer has lawful permanent resident status, and has departed the United States." Complaint, Ex. 1, ECF 1-2, p. 7. This language unambiguously requires two things to happen for an Affidavit to be terminated: the non-citizen must both (1) lose status as an LPR; and also, (2) depart the United States. One event without the other does not terminate the Affidavit. See, e.g., Golipour v. Moghaddam, 438 F. Supp. 3d 1290, 1297 (D. Utah 2020) (noting that loss of residency status alone, without departure from the United States, does not terminate the Affidavit of Support). Even if Jordan had spent "extended" time outside the United States, the Affidavit remains enforceable until she lost status as a resident, which the Answer does not allege and which has not happened.

f. Jordan's remarriage does not terminate the Affidavit of Support [Affirmative Defense 32].

Affirmative Defense 32 alleges that Jordan's claims are "barred" because she remarried and received "corresponding support" from her new spouse. Answer, ECF 11, p. 5. The INA and implementing regulations do not list remarriage as an event that terminates the Affidavit of Support. Cf. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(a)(3) & 8 C.F.R. § 213a.2(e)(2)(i). The Affidavit itself cautions expressly that "divorce does not terminate your obligations under this Form I-864." Complaint, Ex. 1, ECF 1-2, p. 7 (emphasis in original). Jordan's remarriage would unquestionably not terminate the Affidavit and does not bar her claims.

Construed generously, Affirmative Defense 32 might assert a different theory: that imputed income from Jordan's new spouse places her above 125 percent of the poverty line. Federal law define how to determine household size when it comes to a sponsor's obligation to provide financial support. Regulations define household size only with respect to how an individual shows the financial wherewithal to serve as a sponsor. 8 C.F.R. § 213a.1 (defining household size to include the sponsor). The Ninth Circuit holds that household size for damages under the Affidavit is based exclusively on the number of intending immigrants listed on an Affidavit. In In Erler v. Erler, a sponsored immigrant was entitled to the full measure of support owed to her as a household of one, even though she was living with her adult son and receiving assistance from him. 824 F.3d 1173. To determine whether the sponsor had breached his support duty, the District Court looked at the combined income of both the sponsored immigrant and the adult son, with whom she lived. Id., at 1177-78. The Ninth Circuit reversed, holding that income level must be assessed based on the number of individuals sponsored by a given Affidavit of Support (there, the mother alone). Id., at 1178. Likewise, Jordan's damages under the Affidavit will be calculated exclusively based on a household size of one because she was the only sponsored immigrant, regardless of remarriage. See also Eugenio v. Eugenio, Civil No. 4:23-cv-02832-HSG, Dkt. 62, p. 8-9 (N.D. Cal. May 1, 2024) (holding that under Erler, sponsored immigrants were entitled to the calculation of damages without consideration of in-kind support received from other adult family members with whom they resided). But even if this Court were to depart from the Ninth Circuit and hold that Jordan's household includes her new spouse, this would go to the calculation of damages rather than whether Jordan's claim is "barred" per se, as alleged by Affirmative Defense 32.

4. Jordan should be awarded reasonable attorney fees for this motion per 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c) and the cost-shifting provision in the contract.

Congress has made clear that when an immigrant is forced to sue her sponsor under the Affidavit of Support, the cost of that enforcement is shifted to the sponsor. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c). Here, Aaron pleaded a vast array of affirmative defenses, the bulk of which were either facially implausible or contrary to the operative statute. He – rather than Jordan – should bear the cost of culling through these scattershot theories.

When a statute provides for attorney fees, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(d)(2)(B) requires that such a motion be brought no later than 14 days after a judgment, but does not prohibit the motion from being brought earlier, even prior to a judgment. 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c) provides, "Remedies available to enforce an affidavit of support under this section include… payment of legal fees and other costs of collection…" This is not a "prevailing party" provision, but rather a one-sided mechanism that makes fees available to plaintiffs enforcing the Affidavit of Support. Yaguil v. Lee, Civ. No. 2:14-cv-00110, at *4 (E.D. Cal. Aug. 12, 2014).

In Shagoofa v. Eshaqzi, sponsors sued under the Affidavit of Support asserted 13 affirmative defenses, sounding in common law.[9] Civ. No. 8:22-cv-01824,

[9] The defenses asserted were: failure to state a claim; fraud at the inception of marriage; collateral source setoff; failure to mitigate; unclean hands and laches; waiver and estoppel; due process; infringement on marital and familial rights; lack of consideration; duress; void for vagueness or lack of definite terms; unconscionable; and illusory contract.

ECF 72, at *3 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 26, 2024) (courtesy copy attached). As here, the plaintiff attacked the defenses as facially implausible under Rule 12 in light of cases holding that common law defenses are unavailable to sponsors. Id. While there was no controlling circuit authority, the Shagoofa Court ruled – consistent with unanimous district court decisions around the country – that the defenses were unavailable to the sponsor-defendants. Id., at *6-7. The Court then concluded that the plaintiff, "properly seeks fees pursuant to a fee-shifting statute." Id., at *8. The Court granted fees to undersigned lead counsel in the amount of $2,844 at a rate of $600/hour. Id., at *12.

Similarly, in Mao v. Bright, the Southern District of Ohio awarded $13,806 in attorney fees to undersigned lead counsel when granting a preliminary injunction to compel an Affidavit sponsor to comply with his support obligation. Civ. No. 3:22-cv-201, at *15 (S.D. Ohio Dec. 8, 2022) (courtesy copy attached). In awarding pre-judgment fees to the plaintiff, the Court relied on 8 U.S.C. § 1183a(c). The Court reasoned,

> …the record shows that Plaintiff's counsel, Greg McLawsen, gave Defendant the opportunity to voluntarily comply with his financial obligations under the I-864 prior to filing this lawsuit and, again, prior to filing the Motion for Preliminary Injunction. Because Defendant repeatedly rebuffed those informal attempts, he caused Plaintiff to incur thousands of additional dollars in legal fees to enforce her rights.

Id. at 14. Likewise, in Jubber v. Jubber, an Affidavit of Support plaintiff prevailed in a preliminary injunction motion and fees were awarded. No. 1:19-cv-00717, (D. Md. Sep. 9, 2019). The parties thereafter settled the case and deferred to the Court on the issue of fees associated with litigating the injunction motion, which were ordered in the amount of $38,653. Id., Dkt. 55 (D. Md. Sep. 9, 2019) (finding fees appropriate but ordering recalculation of the same) & Dkt. 60 (judgment for fees $38,653). Undersigned lead counsel represented the plaintiff in Jubber.

Here, Jordan notified Aaron that his affirmative defenses were facially implausible. Rather than voluntarily withdraw those defenses, Aaron has forced Jordan – and now the Court – to invest time and effort to cull through his invalid defenses. See ECF 13 (Aug. 11, 2025) (stipulating to phase discovery to allow challenge to defenses). As in Shagoofa, Mao and Jubber, Aaron's tactical decision to assert these defenses imposes a real-world cost on Jordan and on the Court. Congress has said that he, not Jordan, should bear this cost. Because the Answer asserted fully 32 defenses, the foregoing brief was significantly more involved than the one for which fees were awarded in the Shagoofa litigation.

A fee award may serve a further practical purpose. When confronted with the true cost of this litigation early on, Aaron may rethink the wisdom paying a team of multiple attorneys to litigate this matter rather than coming to the table to negotiate an efficient resolution.[10]

[10] A similar case filed in this District by undersigned counsel at virtually the same time as this matter has already been fully resolved without litigation. See Ivarsson v. Pokluda, Civ. No. 1:25-cv-00071-JCB, ECF 1, Complaint (May 29, 2025) & ECF 22, Notice of Settlement (Sep. 5, 2025). Aaron is entitled to contest this litigation as vigorously as he may choose, but he should bear the associated costs.

III. CONCLUSION

This litigation should proceed to discovery on the limited set of facts that actually matter. Aaron is entitled to discovery on Jordan's income since 2013, along with her updated Social Security records. Jordan, in turn, can assess the basis for Aaron's claim that he continued to provide past March 2018. But the discrete enforcement claims in the Complaint should not give rise to the sprawling litigation evinced by the 32 Affirmative Defenses asserted in the Answer. The Court should dismiss Affirmative Defenses 2-4, 6, 8-10 & 12-32. As to Affirmative Defense 7, the Court should rule that Aaron's work history is not imputed following divorce, or alternatively that Joran has a maximum of four imputed quarters from Aaron. The Court should rule that Affirmative Defense 11 is valid only to the extent Aaron continued making $200/month support payments past March 2018. Further, Jordan should be awarded the expense of litigating this motion as envisioned by Congress when it charged sponsored immigrants with enforcing the financial support requirements of the INA.
